How a "Wingmaster" Remington 870 works with you instead of against you.

The super-smooth pump action of an 870 actually uses some of the force of recoil to set you up for that quick second shot.

No pump shotgun can completely eliminate the effects of recoil and the pull-push motion it takes to operate the action. But we make a gun that can help you keep them to a minimum—the "Wingmaster" Remington 870, the most popular pump action shotgun in the world.

Remington engineers gave the 870 an action that's smooth as silk. Its strong double action bars do away with twisting and binding, guarantee straight-line pumping, smooth feeding and positive ejection in any kind of weather, under any kind of hunting conditions. And all the metal parts in the action are vibra-honed to an almost mirror-like finish for even smoother operation.

An 870 takes advantage of recoil—instead of letting recoil take advantage of you. Recoil is basically a swift, backward motion. The same kind of motion it takes to work the pump action. With a little practice on an 870, you can work with the recoil, make it help you pull the fore-end back. When you combine these two motions, you can get your next round chambered quicker. And you'll be less likely to stray off target.

The test of a shotgun's true value is whether it's rugged enough to deliver dependable, reliable performance year after year. An 870 is designed to be rugged every inch of the way. With a highly polished barrel of forged ordnance steel to give you an outstanding pattern consistency. A receiver machined from solid steel for the utmost in safety and dependability. A stock and fore-end protected with Du Pont RK-W, a tough, hard, scratch-resistant finish that'll hold up through years of rough use and rougher weather.

Add the 870's surprisingly affordable price and its wide selection of gauges, barrel lengths and chokes (including extra barrels), and you'll understand why it's unbeatable for quality and value... "right out of the box".

See an 870 at your local firearms dealer now including the popular 'Police Riot Guns' with 20" plain or rifle sight barrels.

They're from Remington — America's oldest gunmaster — and still completely made in the U.S.A.

FOR 50 YEARS SPECIALISTS IN MATCH WINNING PRECISION

.22 Caliber Rimfire Cartridges

HI-POWER 22's with copper-plated bullets deliver that extra-hard blow you want when hunting small game or pests. Their relatively flat trajectory makes them more accurate at a variety of ranges. There are none faster. All have a non-corrosive, non-mercuric priming mixture that has long-term stability and will not cause barrel rust.

CHAMPION standard-velocity cartridges are made specifically for target practice, where consistent accuracy is desired. These cartridges are loaded with lubricated lead bullets. The priming mixture is non-corrosive and non-mercuric.

Centerfire Rifle Cartridges

When there's no time for a second shot, the first one better be on target. That's where Federal gives you a built-in advantage. Because of the extreme care taken at all steps of manufacture, Federal centerfires have established a reputation for accuracy never before found in production ammunition.

Precision-made to insure the utmost in accuracy. Jacket designed to provide good initial penetration and controlled expansion.

CASE Highest quality brass drawn to rigid specifications. Favored by reloaders.

POWDER Selected powders, matched to the cartridge for optimum velocity.

PRIMER Our exclusive non-mercuric, non-corrosive mixture provides dependable, sure-fire ignition. The preferred primer of knowledgeable target shooters.

Federal's Hi-Shok® rifle bullets are designed to give consistent accuracy and knockdown power. Made with heavy jackets drawn thin at the nose, they give good initial penetration, followed by mushroom expansion up to twice the original bullet diameter. The lead weight loss by bullet fragmentation is kept to a minimum.

CARTRIDGE CARRIERSTM

Two of these convenient belt or pocket holders, each packed with ten rounds, are free in every box of Federal centerfire rifle cartridges. They keep your Federal ammo secure, safe, quiet — ready for instant action. An added extra at no extra cost from Federal.

SECRETARY'S NOTES

Slowly, ever so slowly, I am developing sufficient courage to try to introduce controversy into this column. In doing so, it should perhaps be pointed out that the views expressed are not necessarily official Association policies.

Whilst I accept without question that my role is to promote Executive Committee policies where they exist, it is my firm belief that no harm can come from expressing opinions in areas where no Executive decisions have yet been made.

One could say that these opinions can be used as thought starters.

All of this comes to mind as preparations get under way for the major Executive conference, which is held in September each year. Nineteen dedicated sports administrators assemble to debate the policies that will direct the future of Australia's booming sport.

Let's spend a few moments contemplating the scene in the Committee room. For example, discussion is centred on the response to the referendum on the need for a National Shooting Ground. Eighteen members will each want to contribute to the debate — The President is expected to remain neutral so some of the text books tell us — and each speech averages about three minutes. Fifty four minutes later, one could expect the issue to be put to the vote.

But no! The last speaker touched on a sore point in the mind of a member who spoke earlier in the debate so the whole thing starts over again. The result may be a debate time of 1½ hours.

Multiply that by 35 agenda items and it is no wonder the September meeting spans three full days plus one night.

But maybe it is just as well that these matters do get the full treatment. After all, the Executive Committee won't meet again until the following March, so it must make sufficient decisions to sustain the Association for six months.

There has to be a better way! In these times of rapid change, it is vital to the Association's progress that decisions can be made on a day to day basis.

There exists a desperate need for an effective decision making management group to be created within the Executive Committee. This group should be kept as compact and professional as possible, and should aim to meet every two months, AT THE OUTSIDE.

Meanwhile (I can hear the whispers already saying, "He is trying to empire build!"), there is a strong case for the appointment of a General Manager.

The role of the appointee would be to keep the Association on the move. He would have to report to each meeting of the Management Group, and stand up and justify his actions. If he couldn't shape up, he would have to ship out!

But the important thing would be that he would have the power to make the business decisions so necessary to the smooth running of any organisation.

Next March, the Association should make the transition to its new structure as defined within the current constitution changes. The structural changes place a heavy burden on State Associations to ensure that the best people are appointed to the Executive Committee.

Whereas in the past, it has been considered important to provide some sort of geographic distribution of members of the Executive Committee, such a requirement no longer exists. It no longer exists because the public relations load previously being borne by the members of the National Executive Committee is now being shared by the State Councillors. Members of State and Zone Councils have become the "front line" people, which at least in theory, should enable Executive Committee members to devote more time to preparing for decision making at the Executive Conference table.

Sponsorships

During July, I had the difficult task of convincing Air New Zealand that clay target shooters were of sufficient importance to justify an extension of the sponsorship support we have enjoyed over the past two years.

Let's spend a couple of lines looking at the tremendous problems that have confronted Air New Zealand over recent months.

Firstly, the company was severely inconvenienced while the Australian Government procrastinated on the subject of cheap trans Pacific airfares. Then, despite the high standard of service which Air New Zealand had offered Australians travelling to USA for a number of years, the company was denied access to the "cheap fare" area, although the concession was granted to "Johnny come lately" on the Pacific route, Continental Airlines.

Consequently, Air New Zealand's ability to satisfy the needs of the ACTA has been severely limited — limited by factors beyond the control of the airline.

Then, of course, came the DC10 furor. The period that these aircraft were grounded cost Air New Zealand about ¼ million dollars each week for a total of seven weeks.

Yet, here I was, still with the DC10 fleet on the ground, having the audacity to seek to renew the arrangement.

It speaks volumes for our reputation with the airline that it agreed readily to assist with identification of a team to attend the 1980 New Zealand National Championships. Garry Court, the National Marketing Manager for Air New Zealand, gave us a most sympathetic hearing and spoke highly of the general performance of the Association.

It should be heavily emphasised here that Air New Zealand still has daily services to USA, and still provides what we regard as the highest level of cabin service available on either the trans-Tasman or trans-Pacific routes. Economy and first class fare passengers have never had it so good.

It is to be hoped that ALL shooters recognise the heavy responsibility that rests on our shoulders to ensure that major sponsors like Air New Zealand and Ansett get the greatest possible support.

At a time when sponsorship for the "minor" sports is very difficult to come by, it is VITAL that existing sponsors receive full support from Association members.

New Members

Have you introduced a new member to clay target shooting this year?

USN TALKS WITH HAMER OF TRAP WAKEFIELD

DESERIE WAKEFIELD
Princess of the Clay Target
Shooting Sports .....

CTSN: Deserie, we are talking to you about half way through this Nationals Program. You are shooting well, in fact you have not been toppled in any of the ladies events as yet.

WAKEFIELD: Yes, I am happy with my performance so far.

CTSN: You have the Skeet, Double Rise and Double Barrel titles up to date. We notice also that you have the National Ladies section of the Winchester Tournament as well. This must be your best ever year for one so young. Let's trace your career a little. When did you get started?

WAKEFIELD: Well, I was about 10 when I started but it was a year later that I started competing seriously.

CTSN: Was this with the encouragement of your father Gordon?

WAKEFIELD: Yes.

CTSN: Gordon captured a National Skeet Title a few years back. You would obviously remember it. It also had something to do with the gun you shoot today. Care to tell us about it?

WAKEFIELD: It was in Melbourne 1974 that dad won the Skeet Championship. For this he won a Franchi Skeet under and over. ELEY was kind enough to swap this for a Trap gun and this is the gun I shoot today.

CTSN: What model is it?

WAKEFIELD: It is a Franchi 2002.

CTSN: What choking?

WAKEFIELD: I would not have a clue. But it breaks targets. In fact it was only yesterday I found out the length of the barrels.

CTSN: So you are not very wrapped up in the technicalities of the game?

WAKEFIELD: No, not really, I just enjoy the sport.

CTSN: Do you shoot reloads? Do you load for yourself, or does dad help out?

WAKEFIELD: No, Dad does it all, although I had a go a couple of weeks ago but I got into an awful mess so I handed it back to Dad.

CTSN: What are you shooting here at the Nationals?

WAKEFIELD: A mixture really, AA 300, 325 and 350's. I shot 350's today in the Single Barrel and I will probably use them as a second barrel in the Champion of Champions, but I usually use the softer 300's and 325's.

CTSN: Now, your style has come from your father's influence obviously as we can see a distinct similarity. Has he been the biggest influence on your shooting career up to date.

WAKEFIELD: Yes, it is mainly Dad but you pick up a tip or two from others. But, I always check out with Dad before I use any new idea.

CTSN: He hasn't done a bad job.

WAKEFIELD: I'm pleased, it seems to be coming all together this year.

CTSN: When you first came on to the scene Deserie, there were very few ladies shooting. As things have progressed there are a lot more ladies in the game today. Do you find the competition becoming tougher?

WAKEFIELD: As far as I am concerned there should be a lot more ladies shooting. It is an ideal sport for ladies to compete on an equal footing with the men. It is normally only at these bigger tournaments that we have separate ladies sections in addition to the graded and open competition.

CTSN: How many ladies are there competing at this year's Nationals. Have you counted them?

WAKEFIELD: I think there would be about 20. No, I have not counted them, but I would like to see a lot more. (Editor's Note: We in fact checked the records and there were 36 ladies competing at the '79 Nationals).

CTSN: You still haven't answered the question as to whether the competition is getting tougher?

WAKEFIELD: Oh yes, it is getting harder to win all the time. I am having some great tussles with Pat Byrne, Lorraine Jenkins, Gillian Trist, Bev Grice and Sandy May. The standard of ladies shooting is improving all the time.

CTSN: Does a woman take a different approach to the game than a man do you think?

WAKEFIELD: Well, I don't know really, I only know how I approach the game.

CTSN: And what way is that?

WAKEFIELD: It's funny you should ask that. It was only yesterday that I thought I concentrated hard right through a match. But, I found that when I was on the tracks I was thinking about all the funny jokes Billy Iles was telling us at dinner the night before. So, whilst I was concentrating hard on each target I found I was relax-in& between targets and having a little chuckle to myself. I shot those targets well and didn't feel so tired after the event. Maybe I have discovered something.

• "The Franchi 2002 that dad won at Melbourne in '74 is the gun I shoot today".

CTSN: What, to listen to Billy Iles' jokes?

WAKEFIELD: No, silly, to relax between targets and concentrate hard on each target as it comes. I think I will use this method in the future. I found it much more comfortable and less tiring.

CTSN: Anything else you use in your shooting technique?

WAKEFIELD: Yes, I like to take a good deep breath before I call for the target. It seems to make me more alert.

CTSN: What are your thoughts on shooting in open competition. You have had a deal of success obviously. You are now a 23 metre A grader with a Skeet handicap of 0. You mentioned that you started when you were 10, how old are you now?

• ... "I kept thinking of all the funny jokes Bill Iles was telling us at dinner last night".

WAKEFIELD: Half way between 18 and 19. I shot skeet only in the first year of competitive shooting and later got into trap. Did most of my early shooting at Mildura and had some success over the years.

CTSN: When you left school you went to Melbourne to do a commercial course. Are you still based in Melbourne?

WAKEFIELD: No, I finished about 3 weeks ago and I am now back home in Mildura. It was not much sense looking for a job so close to the Nationals so Dad thought I deserved a break, so here I am.

CTSN: You have a pretty good record in Ladies High Gun results. Have you ever been beaten in this trophy.

WAKEFIELD: No, I have won it every year since IMI donated it first at the Melbourne Nationals in 1974.

CTSN: You are way ahead this year as well, is that not so?

WAKEFIELD: I don't know, I very rarely follow scores. Just shoot to the best of your ability I have found and the results look after themselves.

CTSN: That is a very mature approach for one so young.

WAKEFIELD: Dad's influence, but I must admit I have been keeping an eye on the overall high gun as I am only 6 targets behind in that one.

CTSN: Do you think the ladies get enough encouragement in the clay target shooting sports.

WAKEFIELD: I thought so until this Nationals.

CTSN: How come?

WAKEFIELD: Well, the choice of ladies trophies this year is pathetic. I have a barrel full of gun locks. What on earth am I going to do with half a dozen of them. More to the point what would any woman shooter want with a gun lock. In most cases we shoot with one gun only, most times it is not our own or if it is it is stored with the family guns in a safe place.

CTSN: It's nice to get the woman's view, and it is a very valid comment. Do you think the ladies trophies should be more orientated towards the female sex.

WAKEFIELD: No, not necessarily, just some commonsense used when selecting them. Not too many woman have extra guns lying around that they wish to display.

Dailey/AP806

• ... "I have had some great tussles with Pat Byrne & others".

CTSN: Let's take this a step further. What about the family involvement in the sport. You come from a prominent shooting family, how have you found it? Would you like to see the American practice of having sections for Father/Son Husband/Wife Father/Daughter, etc., etc., in these National titles.

WAKEFIELD: To be very honest I have never heard of it but if it gets the family involved more it is a good idea. It is logical that if you have a husband or wife shooting, you must have something for the other half to do, an incentive to become involved if you like. Comforts at a club are important too if you want the family to be happily involved, wives and kids have to be catered for.

CTSN: Let's change tack again and come back to shooting. We have noticed that in shoot-offs you are a very determined young lady. You obviously have an ambition to succeed in open competition.

WAKEFIELD: Yes, I try hard. After all if you are good enough to shoot a possible then you are good enough to go on with it. The event is never over until the last shot is fired.

INTERNATIONAL SHOOTING SCENE.

The 1979 National Championships for Papua New Guinea will be held at the Port Moresby Gun Club from September 21 to 24.

Peter Giddings, Vice President of the Shotgun group of the Papua New Guinea Shooting Association, advises that accommodation is available, although on a limited basis. Visitors requiring billet-type accommodation are asked to write to: P.O. Box 5684, BOROKO, Papua New Guinea, as soon as possible.

The feature event of the four day program is a 25 Target Night Handicap, on which a valuable Calcutta will be run.

All events will be conducted under A.C.T.A. rules, and Australian Competitors should carry their current registration card.

The Shooting Schedule is:

September 21 a.m.

p.m.

September 22

September 23

September 24

A High Gun award will be made on events 1 - 7. All events will carry a sash, and trophies will be presented to first and second and third placegetters.

At the same time, the Port Moresby Gun Club will be officially opening its new club house, which will make the occasion an historic one.

Visitors will require a temporary Firearms permit, and should send details of serial numbers, brand and description of the Firearms to Peter Giddings c/- of the BOROKO Box Number, together with a Bank Draft for four Kina - The Papua New Guinea Kina is approximately equal to $A1.25.

A current Australian Passport and entry visa will also be required.

Further information may be obtained from the A.C.T.A. National Office.

Spartakiade - 1979. The Australian Shooting team to compete in the 1979 Spartakiade games Left Melbourne on July 18th. The Team includes:

Peter Anderson — Manager

Trevor Penney — Smallbore Rifle competitor

Jim Ellis — Clay Target Competitor.

Jim Ellis has been producing excellent training scores and will gain great benefit from the experience this trip will provide. Ellis will also compete in the British Grand Prix, prior to returning to Australia.

Jim was under some pressure at the time of departure, as his wife Ann, was due to have their first child.

• • • • •

The team scene in Australia is certainly a flurry of activity at present. The spartakiade team has just left, a group from Melbourne Gun Club is about to depart for Singapore, and the Air New Zealand Trap Team is also due to leave for Vandalia and the Grand American Tournament.

In a last minute bid to equip the Air New Zealand Team with Shooting Jackets, Viv Watson of Hollywood Distributors, suppliers of a large range of shooting clothing, kindly reduced the price of his green and gold shooting jackets for team members. The team members are most grateful for this support!

The big news is that 1979 World Shot gun Championships are to be held afterall ..

The venue will be Montecatini, Italy, and the dates — OCTOBER 2 to OCTOBER 14.

Australia's team, after months of sitting and waiting, is most excited by this development, and has resumed full training. Although a difficult task confronts team management in getting all of the necessary arrangements made in time for a September 26 departure, every effort is being made to ensure the success of the project.

Current planning is for the team to depart from Melbourne on a flight to Rome. After arrival at Rome, the team will collect a Mini bus, and drive to Pisa, where accommodation has been arranged.

From the Desk of the National Coaching Director

FLINCHING

(by Newton Thomas)

• The author.

Probably the most difficult problem that a shooter or coach will encounter is that of flinching.

It can stem from two major factors — one psychological and the other physical — both being extremely difficult to isolate and then cure.

Let's take the flinch which is created by physical problems first. This can be divided into several segments which eventually prey on the shooters' mind to the extent that to varying degrees he reacts against pulling the trigger.

Listed below are some of the physical problems that can cause flinching, although not necessarily in order of priority.

Muzzle blast

Muzzle blast including the associated noise factors can be a very wearing thing and is created by guns with short barrels, also the use of heavily charged cartridges.

It is an insidious thing and a shooter may suffer early problems with it, or it may appear after many years of shooting.

If this is known to be, or is thought to be, the cause of one's flinching, one should give shooting away for at least three months and then make a comeback, using the best ear protection possible and the lightest possible cartridges. Also, if the shooter has been using a short barreled gun a change to one with a longer barrel may prove beneficial.

It is most important that all beginners starting to shoot trap or skeet are made to use the best of hearing protection and the lightest cartridges possible.

Faulty Gun Fit

If the dimensions of a gun stock are not correct they can play a major part in creating flinching problems.

If the butt is too small it does not provide sufficient surface area to distribute recoil, consequently the felt recoil is much more severe.

If the gun has no recoil pad fitted it has the same effect.

Both the above factors, if used consistently, have a cumulative effect and can eventually lead to reaction against firing the gun or flinching as it is called.

Too short or too straight a stock can also lead to excessive recoil. The hand or grip of a shotgun can also cause problems by being too thick, thus making the shooter tighten his grip on the hand itself and not pull the trigger, a common fault.

If the pistol grip below the hand is too short, it allows two faults, one being that the trigger finger has to be bent excessively to reach the trigger and therefore give insufficient leverage. The other is that the hand or the grip is forced against the back of the trigger guard, and on firing a bruised second finger is the result. This can also be caused by light guns that have excessive recoil and guns — particularly side by side double triggered guns — that have the front trigger set too far forward in the trigger guard. A shooter can accentuate this problem by putting his trigger finger too far through or across the trigger leading to a bruised second finger and also leading to another problem mentioned earlier, he squeezes his hand tightly on the grip of the gun and does not have sufficient leverage to pull the trigger correctly.

The comb of the gun stock bruising the cheek.

This problem is mainly brought about by incorrect gun positioning on the shoulder, but can also be caused by a poorly shaped gun stock. Furthermore, excessive pitch down or up can play a part.

A stock that is too long can also cause this problem as by bringing the shoulder back, it forces the shooter to put his head forward and down across to the comb where the cheek bone has direct contact with it. The camming action of the comb against the cheekbone when the gun is fired causes bruising and pain — if this is persevered with it will eventually result in one of two basic problems, that is lifting the head or flinching.

Placing the gun butt too far out on the shoulder can have the same effect.

All the above illustrations by causing the shooter to be physically hurt, even if only in a minor way can, if allowed to persist, lead to flinching.

A trigger pull that is too heavy can also create a flinch.

Psychological Reasons

The major reason in this case is the fear of missing. One subconsciously does not want to expose oneself to missing a target — in other words, one gives oneself a priority against the actual shot itself in that the fact that you may miss if you do fire has become more important than the shot itself.

Fear of losing a match can have much the same effect. By firing at the target you may miss and consequently lose, so you react against firing. "When you have not shot you have not lost".

Flinching, both physical and psychological, is caused by subconscious fear — the first, physical, the fear of being hurt and the second, psychological, the fear of missing or losing.

There is no easy way of eliminating either type of flinch. The first thing is to endeavour to find out why it is occurring and what can be done to rectify it.

For some of the flinches occurring through stock fit or shape, an alteration to the stock may be all that is necessary. For all the others, one should take an extended rest from shooting, "at least three months". Then, come back with a fresh approach and work on the problem.

It has been proved that in most cases a reverse or release trigger can prove very helpful and many shooters use them with success.

There have been and are many successful competitors who have overcome flinching and are still champions. If you ask them how they overcame the problem, they will tell you, "know what the problem is and work on it — you have to do it yourself".

In my case, I have always been very fortunate that I was never afflicted by flinching but I had an instance of it many years ago at a Bathurst (NSW) clay target shoot.

In those days we used mostly double barrel side by side guns and 2 3/4, 1 1/4 oz cartridges.

I was shooting the new English Alphamax cartridges which were very heavily loaded. On firing a shot at a target, my gun doubled (two shots fired together) and I was given a "no target". This occurred five times in the next ten shots, (no replacement for malfunction in those days) and I, to say the least, was considerably shaken. When I went out to shoot at my next turn, I put the gun up but could not call "pull", no matter what I did I could not get the word out. I put the gun down and then tried again — same result — I just could not call "pull".

A friend came out with his gun and said, "Use this", and once I had it in my hands everything came back to normal and I went on with the shoot.

This occurrence was definitely the outcome of the excessive recoil and blast that I had just experienced and my reaction against it.

AROUND THE TRAPS

The author, Laurie Connors, with his wife Agnes, who must be one of the strongest non-participant supporters clay target shooting has.

Sunday 24th June, 1979

Ouyen Gun Club attracted forty-seven shooters to a two event program. Weather conditions were excellent for shooting and shooters had travelled long distances to enjoy the hospitality of the President, Peter Kay and Brian and Kathy Loxton, who all play a major part in the organizing of the shoot.

A number of Brian's shooting mates from Mildura turned up and entered the first event, the Club Double Barrel Championship shot graded to give those who entered a share of the spoils. Frank James, the North West Zone Coach, who hails from Kerang captured "A" Grade overall sash and trophy with a score of 50-50. Larry Dimasi, Mildura was second in "A" Grade with 30-31, "B" Grade first went to Geoff Izard, Mildura 21-22 and Colin Reid from Kerang 20-21 collected second trophy. Pat Tassone from Mildura shot 49-50 to collect "C" Grade first with John Heley, Mildura 19-20 taking second. Linda Izard, Mildura was good enough to win both the ladies and junior trophy in the event. To make the program interesting the club Continental Championship was next and Bill Drew, the pastry cook from Mildura shot 30-30 to win "A" Grade and overall sash and trophy. Peter Dimasi, Mildura managed second in "A" Grade with 29-30, Colin Reid, Kerang shot 19-20 to take "B" Grade with Geoff Izard, Mildura, second. John Heley, Mildura scored 18-20 to win "C" Grade, and Peter Kay, the Ouyen Gun Club President captured second trophy. Deserie Wakefield, Mildura shot 19-20 to win the ladies trophy and Linda Izard, one of Mildura Gun Club's up and coming lady shooters of the future, won the junior trophy 33-36 after a shoot off against strong opposition.

AROUND THE TRAPS (Cont'd)

Saturday 30th June, 1979

As reported elsewhere I spent this day attending the North East Zone Carnival at Wangaratta Gun Club. If you have not had the opportunity of shooting at this club, it is worth your while making the effort some day and seeing how fortunate some clubs can be. This club is situated at the rear of a hotel, and for the convenience of the visitor or shooter, excellent counter lunches are available, as well as other refreshments hotels normally supply. As the day comes to an end, as in this case for the North East Carnival many yarns of shooting misfortunes and targets missed by competition during the day were being tossed around the bar. Win or lose, a club well worth a visit.

Sunday 1st July, 1979

Frankston-Australian had a program of trench and D.T.L. going this day. It was exceptionally cold for shooting but fortunately the facilities provided at this club compensate for any unpleasant weather conditions that might prevail on the day, and one can still enjoy the sport of shooting.

This day forty shooters participated in D.T.L. events while the last 100 targets of a 200 target trench match was being completed. Under the cold conditions, Roy Allen, Frankston-Australian was the only shooter to card a possible 20-20 to win what is known as the F.A. Cup. John Blackney had little trouble in winning the Burwood Graded Double Barrel Championship 22-22. Bob McGillivrayt also Frankston Australia won the Burwood Graded Single Barrel Championship 16-16. John Woolley from New Zealand remarked at the presentation of trophies, he thought he was lucky to get the skeet Championship with a score of 47-50. The two hundred target trench event which was conducted in two 100 target sections with an overall high gun saw John Green, Korumburra, shoot 92-100 to be top shot on the first 100. Greg Long from Frankston-Australian shot 116-125 to be the winner of the second 100, and with 183-200, Greg also collected the overall sash. An inter-club Trench teams match between Frankston-Australian and Melbourne Gun Clubs was on over the last 100 targets on Sunday. Frankston Australian ran out the victors and downed Melbourne by 10 targets. It was a feat Frankston Australian did not expect to come their way.

• Reg Boyce, Captain of the Melbourne Gun Club trench team, presents the trophy to: From left to right — Greg Long, Ken Rose, Tony Rowe and John Green, members of the Frankston-Australian winning Trench Team. Reg appears to be finding it hard to smile!
Frankston-Australian Gun Club July 1, 1979.

Frankston-Australian Gun Club — July 1, 1979.

Monday 2nd July, 1979

Paid a visit to the National office and spent some two or three hours talking with our National Secretary Noel Southey on topics pertaining to our sport as well as general administration. For me, the visit was most informative and thanks Noel for allowing me to impose on your time and interrupt your work schedule, in an endeavour to keep in touch with our sport progress and activities.

At night I attended a meeting of what is known as the Victorian I.S.U. Sub-committee. Members of the committee, are, along with myself, Bob Buchan, who is also State President, Bill Abbott, Victorian Executive member, Alex Crikis and Max Vipond from Melbourne Gun Club, and Tony Rowe Frankston-Australian Gun Club. All are interested in the welfare and progress of I.S.U. shooting in general.

Some items of interest to the I.S.U. shooter, to come out of this meeting was, it was agreed a State I.S.U. trench and skeet carnival be conducted at Melbourne Gun Club on Saturday 6th and Sunday 7th October, 1979. Also the Interstate I.S.U. Trench and Skeet teams match would be shot at this venue. Details of this event will be advertised in C.T.S.N.

A General meeting of I.S.U. shooters and interested personnel will be held at the Carnival on Saturday night along with a social evening.

It was also recommended a State I.S.U. Trench and Skeet training squad be implemented consisting of 18 trench and 12 I.S.U. skeet shooters. Six qualifying matches will be conducted to select the teams in each discipline.

Clubs with I.S.U. facilities will be fully informed and would recommend interested shooters watch C.T.S.N. for further details.

Wednesday 4th July, 1979

Cosgrove Gun Club were conducting its annual July mid-week shoot. It carries the "non de plume" of the "Hot Dog and Soup Shoot". Both are available all day until "stumps", with the soup being home made and very popular with shooters.

The shooting tracks are littered with familiar faces that have always attended previous years with a sprinkle of new ones that have probably heard what a good shoot it is and attending for the first time. The club is situated on the side of a golf course. It is obvious golf is not played on this day whilst the shoot is in progress. However, one hundred and twenty shooters had arrived to compete in the events. It was obvious the organizers were going to be pressed to get the shoot through on time as there was a total of sixty targets to be shot at over three traps by the competitors. The shoot commenced at 11 a.m. and conditions were excellent for shooting. The first event, a trophy shoot off handicap with a Winchester Super Grade U/O as first prize went to Peter Dickinson from Kerang 37-37. The Shire of Shepparton Centenary Championship, which carried trophies donated by the Shire, saw Bob Devries from Frankston-Australian shoot 49-49 to win the overall sash and trophy. Because of the number of entries the event had to be completed under lights. Robert Stackhouse proved to be the top shot of the day by scoring 59-60 to win the High Gun trophy over all events.

PRIMERS

If you think all primers are alike, you've got some learning to do.

To start with, you're not alone.

It seems most reloaders tend to lump all makes of shotshell primers together. Much to the dismay of the good ol' boys at CCI, who happen to make primers unlike anybody else.

For example, if you were to hold a CCI primer up to another, you'd see something like this:

Observe how the CCI battery cup on the left tapers in. No one else does that. While it may not turn you into a trophy winner, that little tapered step does help align the primer and makes for easier reloading.

Now, for some revealing photographs.

BRAND X

BRAND Y

BRAND Z

As you might have guessed, this last shot is CCI's.

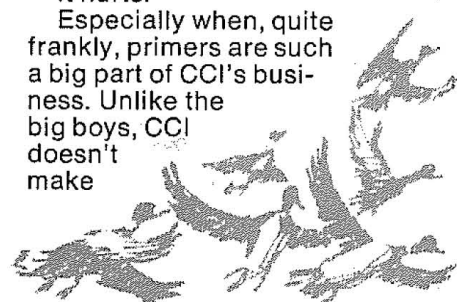

Notice how the white hot fuel particles are sent scattered and swirling.

To completely engulf and uniformly ignite the powder charge. Result: More uniform ignition. More consistent patterns.

With that in mind, are you beginning to see why the boys in Lewiston get a little frustrated to hear many reloaders figure one primer is like another?

It hurts.

Especially when, quite frankly, primers are such a big part of CCI's business. Unlike the big boys, CCI doesn't make shotguns, or even shot, powder, hulls or shells.

They're specialists.

And whether you're crouched in a blind or standing in a shoot, this specialized know-how just might be enough to make the difference.

Even for something as small as a primer.

Class dismissed.

TWENTY FIVE CHERRY TREES.

from D. G. Anderson
(Katanning Clay Target Club)

• Six Katanning shooters who made the ten man State Team in 1956 — From left, David Anderson, Tim Catling, Terry Young, Neville Beeck, Keith Norrish and Bob Wainwright.

1979 heralds the 25th anniversary of the Cherry Tree Pool Field Championship in its present form.

Coupled with the State's 150th celebrations, the Katanning Clay Target Club plans to make this year's events on the 3rd and 4th of November something special.

One man who played a significant role in the successful establishment of the Club which was formed on the 9th June 1950 was Terry Young. His unbounding enthusiasm for the sport was a great asset in the early years. Later, Terry was accorded Life Membership of the Club for his services. Story has it that at the start, Terry couldn't hit the proverbial "side of a barn", but through sheer application he became a skilled and respected shooter, winning a great number of titles.

The Club, after three moves over the years, has settled into a prime site adjacent to the Katanning golf course right on the edge of town. The background is excellent and members are proud of having, through their own efforts, a substantial modern clubhouse serving four layouts plus two skeet layouts.

President of the Club, Tim Catling, says the Club continues to enjoy good fields from its members and a resurgence of interest from new shooters is a healthy sign.

The Field Championship has always been conducted at Cherry Tree Pool on the property of Con and Amelia Kowald, some thirty kilometres west of Katanning. The venue was chosen initially as a nice place for shooters and families to have a relaxed picnic on the middle day of a long weekend of shooting. Such leisurely times seem to have left us forever.

Shooters being shooters it didn't take long for them to organise a small novelty shoot and later actually compete for, would you believe, a resplendent sash of hessian and gum nuts. The winner of that sash was Neville Beeck and he cherishes it still.

1955 saw the transition from a fun-type field shoot to a shoot which embodied all the challenges of field shooting and the competitive equality of clay targets.

The era of the greasy pig, of being thrown into the river, of sing songs around the fire at night had gone.

The architect of the Cherry Tree Pool Championship was the late Ernest Clegg. Ernie was a man steeped in the traditions and uses of firearms and he loved it. Later, Ernie too was accorded the honour of Life Membership.

With shooters beginning to want more than just a picnic he saw a unique opportunity to provide an event that would whet the appetite of all clay target shooters. The resultant Field Championship has proved to be a feast, for over the years it has been running, nominations for the event continue to grow with a hundred nominations being exceeded in the mid 60's and the 200 mark being passed in the mid 70's.

• Ernie Clegg (centre) with Mr and Mrs Bob Mules, of South Australia at the 1964 Championship.

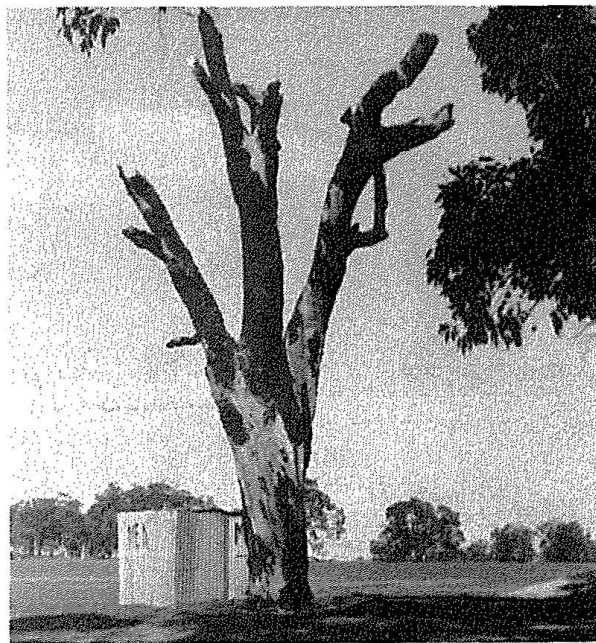

The first couple of years saw the traps located away from the river. The layout lacked some interest because of this, and there was little shade for shooters or trappers. The site was soon moved to the river bank, with instant success, and has remained there since with only minor annual changes to create new interest.

The establishment of Cherry Tree Pool as a class field championship saw a new era of shooting. It sparked off a great deal of interest and several similar events are now conducted around Australia annually, all stemming from this one event.

The winner the first year of the event was Dinny Holtfreter with a score of 19-24. He went on to win a total of 3 times. Another who achieved 3 wins over the years was Newton Thomas. He made a comment only this year that "I'd have missed something if I hadn't won a Cherry Tree Pool title." From a shooter who has won so much that is indeed a compliment.

Only one shooter has notched up 4 wins and that is Club president Tim Catling.

Also that year saw a shooter by name Emil Alberts travel from Barellan N.S.W. to compete. He was impressed by the event. But what impressed him most was a station called the "black stump", from behind which rose a deceptively simple target. Emil missed them all, upon which he vowed he would return next year to defeat this "wretched target". Return he did, but history does not relate how successful he was.

• The 'Black Stump' at Katanning's Cherry Tree course.

The Black Stump remains, not as a protector of trappers throwing apparently easy targets, but standing solid sentinel over a "base station" for men.

One of the unfailling attractions of this event is that the shooter knows that a missed target does not spell the end. All the targets are quite shootable and yet thousands are missed over the course of the day. The winner of the event has yet to return a clean score!

It is unique, challenging shooting, strongly blended with spectator participation and relaxed atmosphere making it a day enjoyed by everyone who attends. ○

PROPOSED COMPLEX PLANNED FOR VICTORIA

(Staff Writer)

With the interest that has been maintained in a National Headquarters in recent months, a new exciting development has occurred in Victoria.

The Victorian Clay Target Association's President, Bob Buchan has been talking for some weeks about the possibility of developing a "Central Ballistics Complex." Never slow on the uptake, enthusiastic Metropolitan Clay Target Club secretary, Len Hubbard accepted the challenge of producing an introductory "feasibility study."

Although time available was short, Len was able to get sufficient input from other shooting organisations to complete a submission on the project, which was hand delivered to the Victorian Department of Youth, Sport and Recreation at the end of June.

Departmental officers were sufficiently impressed with the study that further discussions are to take place.

The project has particular importance, as three of the major clubs north and west of Melbourne are confronted with either short or long term tenancy problems.

The creation of a fully integrated complex should therefore have the unqualified support of all clay busters, but particularly those who are members of the Werribee Gun Club, Victorian Gun Club and Metropolitan Clay Target Club.

Planning for project includes:

Extensive clay target fields — all disciplines.

Simulated field shooting

Pistol shooting — all codes

Archery

Small Bore and Full Bore rifle shooting

Simulated fishing sports

Licensed clubhouse facilities

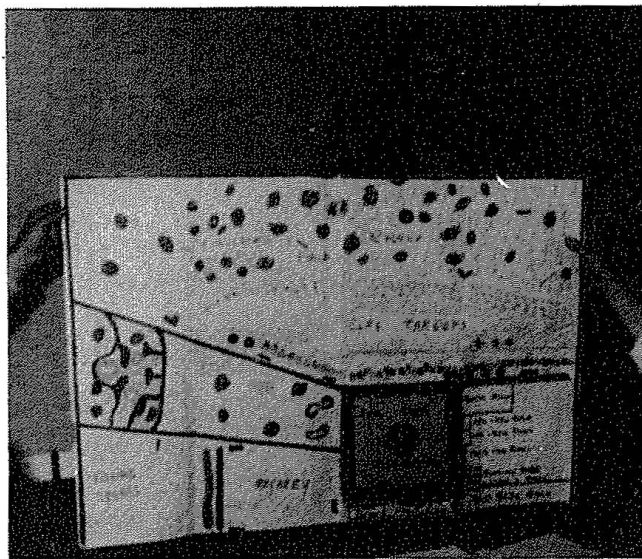

Other recreational facilities common to a complex of this standard.

The sponsors of the project are anxious to receive comments from any interested shooter. These comments may take the form of suggested additions, design, constructive criticism and alternative views.

Len Hubbard can be contacted (03) 4651216, Bob Buchan can be contacted (03) 8705459 and Trevor Nash can be contacted on (03) 6151105 (business hours only).

Come on, shooters — whether you reside in Victoria or not, this is YOUR project! Please contribute ideas.

Letters may be directed to Len Hubbard at P.O. Box 93, Epping Victoria. ○

LEE LOAD - ALL JUNIOR

A simple, inexpensive yet effective loading tool called the Lee Load-All Junior is now available from Keith Herron Pty. Ltd. Packaged as a complete unit, it has all the requirements for satisfactorily loading 12g shotshells in various loadings. Using modern plastics and an advanced moulding technique Lee have produced a simple long wearing tool that performs most functions in the shotshell reloading cycle that require some effort. Shot and powder metering are not included and are done by the time honoured hand dippers. The unit comes complete with a resizing ring, hold down screws, a spare wad guide an adjustable shot dipper (1 oz to 1 3/4 oz) and three sizes of powder dippers. Apart from the usual American instructions there is an additional instruction sheet for Nobel Powders.

NORTH EASTERN ZONE (VICTORIA) TRAP CARNIVAL - JUNE 30, 1979

• Noel Hore from Wangaratta, shot 78 targets straight to win the North East Zone Double Barrel Championship. Here Noel is decorated with his sash and trophy.

Eighty nine shooters converged on the Wangaratta Gun Club to enter a three event program which was one of the first ever Trap Carnivals to be held in that zone. Most of the top shots from that area were there, along with such notables as the State President Bob Buchan, Kevin Dobson who is the Victorian member in that zone, also members of the North East Council.

The weather was overcast and rather cold, but it did not stop shooters from rolling up early and giving the organizers an opportunity to commence shooting prior to the actual advertised starting time of 12.30 p.m.

Tony Penney is the North East Zone President and had control of proceedings. He is a man of very few words, a deep thinker and takes a professional attitude in anything he is connected with, and there was evidence of this as the shoot progressed.

The North East Zone Double Barrel Championship was the first event on the card and it was shot twenty-five targets, one visit to the traps. Shooting twenty-five targets at one trap has come in for some criticism by a few shooters, but when it is necessary for administrators of large programs with a high number of shooters and limited day light hours, to get through a program, it is the best way in fairness to shooters and all concerned.

It also makes it easier for the shooter to accustom himself to concentrate over the full twenty-five targets as adopted in National Championships and major events shot at many clubs throughout Victoria. I feel more clubs should adopt this style of shooting their major events.

Moving on to the actual results of the championship, Noel Hore, shooting on his home ground shot 78-78 to win overall "A" Grade sash and trophy. North East Zone President Tony Penney also from Wangaratta was second in "A" Grade 77-78. Jack Stamp Wangaratta shot 52-53 to win "B" Grade and Jane Alcorn from Alexandria shot 45-46 to run second, Darrel Stone, Wangaratta shot 26-27 to win "C" Grade with young Ward from Mansfield second on 25-27. Attractive Barb Hendy who would not tell me where she came from or give me her phone number, shot 23-25 to collect the ladies trophy in this event.

The next event the North East Zone Point Score Championship saw Richard Allen, President of Echuca Gun Club shoot 92-93 to win "A" Grade and overall. Jon Whittakers, Deniliquin shot 89-93 to run second. Barry Knight from Bendigo, scored 80-84 to collect "B" Grade with Bob Banon, Wangaratta shooting 76-78 for second placing. Mrs. Anne Grice from Alexandria shot a good 72-75 to win "C" Grade with Russell Newby from Tatura shooting 69-75 to take second place. Karen Sojowski scored 66-75 to win the ladies trophy. In the Major Handicap which was shot in four groups with a trophy for each group saw Neil Phipps from Mansfield shoot 17-17 to win the 15-18 group, Jack Harker, Cosgrove 16-16 collected 19-21 group and Jon Whittakers, Deniliquin, proved he was the best back marker on the day by shooting a possible 15-15 to win the 22-25 section. A club team Premiership was another highlight on the program, and this was taken out by the Echuca Gun Club.

Shooters must congratulate the Zone for running this tournament as its proven success will mean yet another top event will be added to their shooting calendar for 1980. I am sure, after witnessing the success of this tournament, the North East Council will make this an annual event.

AMERICAN SHOTGUN DESIGN AND PERFORMANCE

By L. R. Wallack

Published by Winchester Press

L. R. Wallack has translated the complex engineering concept that underlies Shotgun design and performance into plain English. He is able to show how so seemingly simple a gun as the classic side by side double - perhaps the most beautiful of all sporting arms - is in reality a miracle of engineering and gunsmithing. He describes how all shotguns, singles, doubles, pumps, auto loaders and the bolt action work and the mechanisms and complexities that comprise them. He describes what is known about the behaviour of a charge of shot pellets as it is propelled down the barrel and what happens in so far as we know after it leaves the barrel. In nineteen chapters Wallack takes the present state of the highly complex art of shotgunning and explains it in terms that every reader can understand and enjoy. In hardback form it is well printed and profusely illustrated.

TRADE TOPICS

Boustead Trading, Australian sales agents for Remington Arms Co. recently held a sales conference in Wagga. Extending over a weekend plus Monday, the conference was attended by fourteen enthusiastic salesman plus management.

Session leaders were David Tietjen, General Manager; Ross Levinsohn, Marketing Manager; and Geoff Willick, National Sales Manager.

The theme of the workshop was: "Good and Getting Better". In a recent conversation, Levinsohn explained the slogan's meaning as "Boustead consists of good people, who are getting better through training, motivation and improved communications."

Still on the subject of Remington, many Australian clay-busters will remember Bill Boettner the Remington Executive who visited the 1972 Griffith Nationals. Well, Bill has just resumed responsibility for Australian activities, and many others with his appointment as Assistant Director, Marketing - International Operations. This position makes Bill "top of the heap" for Remington's international operation, with the exception of joint-venture projects.

Geoff Carr, Boustead Sales Supervisor for N.S.W. is still "going strong" and commands a tremendous respect from all the people with whom he comes into contact.

Geoff originally started his career in firearms with Edwin Wood & Co. Pty. a forerunner of his present employer.

When Winchester came to Australia, Geoff joined as NSW Manager. He then went into his own restaurant, renewed his acquaintance with the firearms world through a term with Guthrie Trading (Browning, Beretta, Ruger) and returned to Boustead Trading in July 1978.

• • • • •

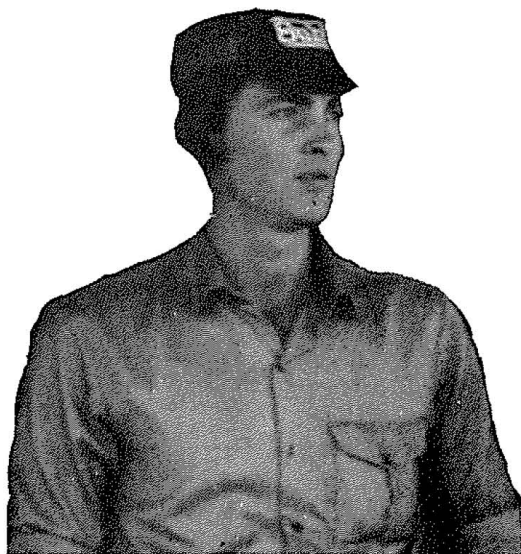

Still on the Sydney beat, CTSN called on Geoff Rabbidge, Managing Director of Commercial Marketing. Geoff maintains a close involvement in the development of the shooting sports, holding several positions on both trade and shooting organisations.

Probably his most significant position is as senior Vice President of the Field and Game Federation of Australia. His son, Mike, is Secretary of the NSW Branch.

Meanwhile Geoff's youngest son, Peter, who is in charge of sales and advertising in the Commercial Marketing operations, has just announced his engagement. Best wishes Peter, from all in shooting.

With the recent escalation of cartridge prices following the more realistic 1978 levels, Commercial Marketing's two shotshell lines - Sellier and Bellot and Hubertus - are enjoying tremendous support. In fact, it has become very difficult to maintain ex-stock deliveries.

The staff at Fuller Firearms are just recovering from one of the worst experiences any company can face. The whole operation had to be moved to new premises, due to the existing building, Broughton House in Clarence Street, being redeveloped.

• Michael Habbidge, who with brother Peter, helps keep Commercial Marketing Company active.

Actually, it is quite an historical event, because Broughton House, although classified by the National Trust, is being converted to a block of prestige home units.

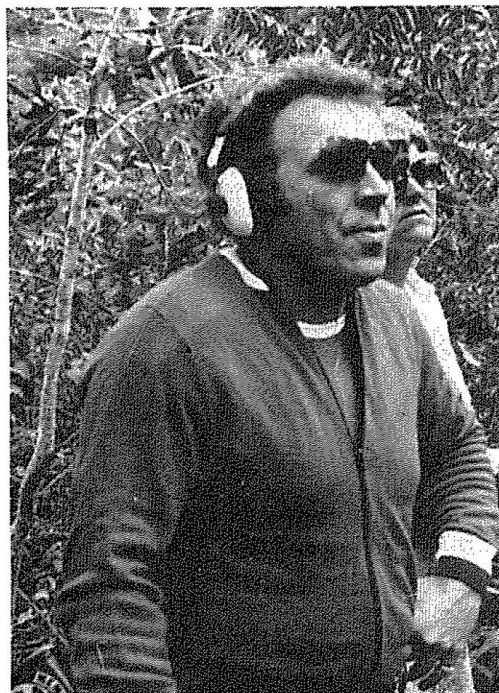

The building is virtually being completely gutted - except for floors and exterior walls. It is a condition of the redevelopment permit that the profile and character of the building remain unchanged.

Meanwhile the Fuller organisation has been relocated on the second floor of 367 Kent Street Sydney, which is only a block away. Whilst CTSN was being shown over the new premises, General Manager Al Wilson maintained a running commentary on the way sales figures are holding up, particularly on shotshells.

Firearms have been somewhat patchy but there are signs of improvement.

John Clark is the company's office manager, and took over from Jean Roper. Sadly, Jean had to resign owing to ill-health.

• Barry Nelis, of Queensland Firearms and Sports.

Avid clay target enthusiasts Gordon & Barry Nelis of Queensland Firearms & Sports Pty. Ltd. in Brisbane advise of their appointment as sole Australian agents for Decot Hy-Wyd Sports Glasses Inc. of the U.S.A.

Bud Decot, based in Arizona, this year celebrates his company's 30th anniversary having commenced manufacturing operations in 1949. Since then, Decot Hy-wyds have become universally accepted around the world as the top competition glass for clay target shooting.

The Hy-Wyd regular style has screw mounted lenses whilst the Hy-Wyd II features interchangeable lenses. Chemically hardened glass or Plano Armorlite lenses (half the weight of glass) are manufactured in 30 different colour shades. Prescription lenses are also available on special order.

A recent innovation is the Hi-Lo bridge attachment that allows you to self adjust the glasses to any height; high for shooting, low for general wear, with optional positions in between.

Currently available is the most popular interchangeable lens model, the Hy-Wyd II. Plano Armorlite lenses available to suit are Lite & Medium Vermillion, Lite & Medium Orange, Lite & Medium Gold, Medium Bronze and Yellow. The Hi-Lo bridge can be fitted on request.

Special prices available to A.C.T.A. members are: Hy-Wyd II glasses complete (frame, pair of lenses and hard case) $65.00; spare lenses $40.00 per pair; optional Hi-Lo bridge $12.00 fitted.

BARREL LENGTHS

(by George Biggs, Victorian Director of Coaching)

• The author, George Biggs.

Have you ever wondered about the length and choke boring of your gun barrel and the part it plays in the overall performance of shooting? Actually, barrel details do play a very important part in our game of shotgun shooting - and unfortunately it is something that is quite often not given enough thought when buying a gun.

Contrary to what many shooters may think and believe, barrel length serves mainly only one purpose, but it is a very important detail. For instance, a longer barrel of say 30" or 32" will be a better aid to accurate gun pointing, but it may be fractionally slower than a 28" barrel. However shotgun shooting is an instinctive pointing action so we require accuracy before speed, remembering that speed is of little use unless we have accuracy, especially at clay targets and fast high-flying ducks.

I well remember a guy coming along to a coaching school at skeet one day. He had this double-barrel side by side field gun which he called a coach gun with 25" barrels. His comment was that it was a "beaut little gun" to "throw around" but he was not so successful at hitting targets. He went on to say that the barrels seemed to point all too easily. He did, in fact, find it hard to track the target. In other words, he was not able to get enough accuracy in pointing out his target.

An often discussed point among shooters is what effect does the length of barrel have on velocity and patterning? The answer of course, is none at all as far as the average shooter is concerned. Pattern performance is controlled by the degree of choke built into the barrel by the manufacturer. Fact is, it matters not whether a barrel is 26" or 32" long - it will pattern the same, provided the same ammunition is used.

Theoretically, barrel lengths do effect velocities somewhat. However, the difference of 1½oz shot load from a 28" barrel and that of a 30" barrel would be so small that only accurate testing equipment would be able to record any difference. So we can, in fact, forget it from a practical point of view.

Velocity is not controlled by length of barrel. Fact is, a combination of choke and cartridge is needed to produce both striking energy and range. So for all practical purposes, a 28" barrel will kill just as well at 40 yards as will a 30" barrel, provided of course the same shot load is used.

I very much favour the longer 30" - 32" barrel for longer range shooting such as trap and trench as well as some forms of field shooting. Barrels of 27" and 28" can be recommended for shorter range work on the skeet range and in the field. Where the range is quite often less than 35 yards there is less need to be so accurate at close range as guns used for this type of shooting should be more open bored to give a quicker spread of pattern. ○

NATIONAL PRESIDENTS MEET (by a staff writer)

President Ern Hawkins recently hosted a dinner meeting which included Mr Phil Brown, President of the Field and Game Federation of Australia, and Geoff Rabbidge, Vice President.

The meeting was arranged after useful talks between the President of the Victorian Clay Target Association, Bob Buchan and Brown, on the subject of affiliation with the international group known as FITASC. (Federation Internationale De Tir Aux Armes Sportives De Chasse).

In his capacity as President of the Melbourne Gun Club, which is the sole Australian affiliate of the clay target division of FITASC, Bob Buchan can claim to be National President in a FITASC sense.

It is considered prudent by major shotgun user groups that affiliation with FITASC should be a joint venture and it may be the start of a relationship, which can be developed to the mutual benefit of both Associations.

FITASC is the world controlling body for "Parcours de Chasse" or simulated field shooting, (which is the Field & Game Federation's interest) and five trap or Universal Trench.

Already, arrangements are in hand for an Australian combined match to be held later in 1979 - simulated field to be conducted by Field and Game Federation, and trap and skeet to be conducted by Melbourne Gun Club.

Should joint affiliation with the international body be undertaken, it will be necessary for a co-ordinating committee to be created, to include representatives from Field and Game Federation and ACTA, with the Australian representative for FITASC, Dr Raymond Young perhaps being included in an ex-officio capacity.

Meanwhile the Field and Game Federation of Australia is well advanced in planning for its third annual simulated field shooting championships. Sponsored by the sports airline, Ansett Airlines of Australia, the match will be held at Wannamal, Western Australia, on September 29 and 30.

• Phil Brown, National President of the Field and Game Federation of Australia.

In recognition of the need to promote shooting as a FAMILY recreational pursuit, the Field & Game Federation has introduced a special concession entry fee for juniors - a growing number of ACTA clubs are also implementing a similar progressive policy.

As Wannamal is about two hours by road from Perth, a coach service will be provided to and from the grounds for visitors who do not have transport.

Ansett has extended its support to the shooting sports by sponsoring the event, and is also providing extensive assistance to the various State Associations in relation to moving official teams to Perth.

Further details of this match may be obtained from the National ACTA office. ○

ACTA NATIONALS '80

Western Australia, the State of excitement! This is the message that is emblazoned on motor car licence plates these days. The slogan also sums up the atmosphere that almost 400 Australian shotgunners will share during March 1980, when the West Australian Clay Target Association acts as host for the National Clay Target Championships.

To be held on the grounds of the Perth Clay Target Club, the tournament will open the period from March 3 to March 9. The Perth Club will stage a pre-Nationals program from February 29 to March 2.

Ansett Airlines of Australia has been appointed the official travel agent and is geared to handle bookings for both air travel and accommodation. (See the advertisement on page 14 of this issue).

There is a limited number of aircraft seats available at special low fares, which, when combined with attractive motel prices, offers a package price for six or nine nights that is too good to miss.

For example, Melbourne based competitors can pay $453, which includes return airfare and six nights accommodation. From Sydney, the equivalent figures are a package price of $558 for six nights.

At a recent meeting of the West Australian Clay Target Association, Brett Watts was appointed as Tournament Director. Other appointments arising from the meeting include:

Shoot Marshall — Tim Catling
Asst. Shoot Marshall — John Harris
Trap Mechanics - G. Septovich and C. Hindley
Handicap and Grade Review - Ken Holman and Roy Holtfreter
New innovations to be seen in the 1980 Nationals will be the extension of the International Trap Match from 20 targets to 50 targets, and the first shoulder to shoulder interstate trap teams match.

These innovations provide further evidence that the Association is determined to make its National Championships one of the premier sporting events on the Australian calendar.

CLUB NEWS.

Metropolitan Clay Target Club (Victoria).

Advice has been received that the Metropolitan Clay Target Club has recently appointed Mr. Kit Franceswilliams as it's club coach. He is putting a great deal of time and effort into the job and is concentrating on giving new shooters assistance in the area of safety methods and ground etiquette.

The club has provided free targets and free cartridges and the issue of club guns to novices in an attempt to improve the penetration of Clay Target shooting in the area serviced by the club.

Practice days are attracting attendances averaging at 10 new shooters, with the highest daily tally being 27. To quote the Club Secretary, Len Hubbard "What a difference to the days when you only learnt when someone yelled at you".

Alexandra Gun Club. (S.A.)

Since the change of management at this club, which occurred earlier this year, there has been a dramatic improvement in the Club's drawing power.

Evidence of this can be taken from the fact that in two successive months, record attendances were recorded at club tournaments.

At the June match, 64 shooters attended, which was the highest attendance for 3 years. The following month, 67 shooters attended to compete for $400 in trophy value and shooters have been high in their praise of the club's management.

The evidence suggests that club policies are being widely accepted. Further good news comes from the fact that the club has been selected as the first venue for a new state-wide tournament being sponsored by Adelaide based distributor, Super Elliott Pty. Ltd.. Called the Super Elliott Classic, the match will be run as a 16 metre graded double barrel event over twenty targets. Nominations for Ladies and juniors will be at half the full entry fee.

Other venues include South Australian Gun Club and Mannum Gun Club.

Illawarra & District Gun Club (N.S.W.)

The Committee of the Illawarra and district gun club has sought the assistance of C.T.S.N. through which it wishes to thank all the shooters who travelled from near and far to assist in making the club's official opening, during the holiday weekend in June, such a huge success.

In particular, thanks are extended to Phil Jost, General Manager of Blue Dot Targets, for the donation of the Fluoro Red targets, for this tournament.

Tasmanian Gun Club (Tasmania)

David Ryde, Secretary of Tasmanian Gun Club, has advised that the club plans to commence Olympic trench tournaments on its newly installed trench sometime during late September.

This is good news for Tasmanian tutors, as it provides further facilities on which all competitors can develop their international discipline talents.

Cerberus Gun Club (Vic)

At the annual general meeting of this club, which was held on June 13, the following office bearers were elected:

President, Brian Wilson; Captain, Ken Musson; Secretary, Chris Carrol.

The club now has it's second D.T.L. layout well advanced, and it should be opened during late October or early November. Further information on this development will appear in Clay Target Shooting News.

Downside International Gun Club (N.S.W.)

This club is steadily working towards conducting, to use their own words, "the best yet" national I.S.U. championship series. The club is the venue for the 1979 National Olympic trench and ISU skeet championships, which will be held on November 3, 4 and 5.

Medals will be awarded to the 1st 2nd and 3rd placings overall in each event, and in addition, ribbons will be awarded to the winner of each of the four grades in the trench event.

Practice will be available on Friday November 2 for any people interested.

Griffith Gun Club. (N.S.W.)

The long awaited installation of an olympic trench at the Griffith Gun Club has now become affective. The first shooting match on the new installation has been conducted, and apparently went without a hitch.

Doubtless, a number of keen exponents of the art of shooting olympic trench from the southern areas of Australia will want to test this newest trench as soon as possible.

PULL!

a BLUE DOT clay target. Why?

Because a Blue Dot Target with low profile was wind tunnel tested to fly far and true.

Take a few targets you normally use and fire them from your trap. Then try a new Blue Dot ... Compare the distance and flight path.

The moulds are precision-engineered to give uniform wall thickness to the target. No heavy sided targets or off-centre heavy spots.

HARD—SOFT

We make the kind of targets you like.

However, let us advise you if you use automatic hopper-fed traps, or traps set for ISU skeet or trench.

COLOURS: Black/White/Orange/Fluoro Red.

AIR NEW ZEALAND TRAP TEAM — 1979

TEAM MEMBERS.

Robin Bailey, Team Captain. 43 years old, lives in Perth, Western Australia and is a senior member of the Executive Committee (Board of Directors) of the Australian Clay Target Association. Robin has had considerable International experience and represented Australia in skeet shooting, in the 1973 World Moving Target Championships at Melbourne and at the 1974 Commonwealth Games held in Christchurch, New Zealand.

Bailey gained selection in the 1978 team but business commitments prevented him from taking his place in the team. It speaks volumes for his competition consistency that he was able to gain selection for the second time.

Bailey is a past President of the Perth Clay Target Club, which is to be the venue for the 1980 Australian National Championships.

Jack Blake, of Launceston Tasmania, is a retired grazier. He is a very experienced competitor, and has competed regularly in New Zealand, representing Australia.

Blake is a member of the Association's recently introduced National Coaching Council, and is Director of Coaching for Tasmania.

This is the first time that Jack has competed in a tournament of this magnitude but his maturity and experience make him a valuable team member.

Kevin Thompson, of Wyong, New South Wales. Inevitably every team has a 'baby' and in this team Kevin is it. However, in terms of shooting ability, Thompson is a giant, having a very impressive list of major victories already to his credit.

Kevin will celebrate his 22nd birthday during the trip, and would like no better birthday present than a Gold Medal in the International Match.

In qualifying events, Thompson notched up two major successes winning the A Grade section of the National Single Barrel Championships and taking the Australia-New Zealand Match outright.

His job as a carpenter and joiner keeps him physically fit, and this, combined with his enthusiasm for training, has made a very important cog in this "team machine".

Peter Telford, of Mt. Gambier, South Australia. There can be no doubt that the twenty-six year old Telford will quickly be dubbed the quiet man of the team. Never a man of many words. Peter's main aim is to get on with the job.

His acceptance of the position in the team has been complicated by the fact that his wife Christine presented him with a baby boy only a week before the departure.

However, proving once more, that Clay target shooters have their priorities right, Peter kissed Christine and his son goodbye, and told them to take care, while he was away doing his best to elevate Australia's image overseas.

A further complication arises from the fact that Peter is a grazier, and it is always difficult for a farmer to get a full month away from the job.

• Peter Telford, member of the 1979 Air New Zealand Trap Team.

Bill Stevens, from Brisbane, Queensland. Bill is another "veteran" with a number of major competition successes behind him. Probably the most important recently was his second placing in the New Zealand Skeet Championship in Christchurch, 1978.

As with Jack Blake, Bill is a member of the National Coaching Council, and is Director of Coaching for Queensland. As his business activities revolve around retailing sporting goods, Bill has an insight into the commercial side of the sports shooting industry that few can match.

At 46 years of age, Bill is currently producing some of his best form ever, and is sure to leave his mark on the U.S. scene.

Neil Berry, of Shepparton, Victoria. In terms of second top level international competition, Berry probably holds a slight edge on his team mates as he represented Australia in the World Olympic Trench Championship which was conducted in Seoul, Korea last October.

More recently, Neil gained a place in an Australian Olympic Trench Team which competed in the South Pacific Regional Championships earlier this year, and is now off to represent Australia in U.S.A.

Aged 40, Berry is a dairy factory technician and has been a strong supporter of the sport for many years.

HISTORY

The Australian Clay Target Association realised in 1976 that it had an obligation to provide greater incentive for its members by encouraging increased international involvement.

As America is widely recognised as the Mecca of clay target shooting, it was logical that the A.C.T.A. should look in that direction.

Subsequent discussions with Air New Zealand senior executives, received a friendly nod from Chief Executive, Mr. Maurie Davis, proved that it would be possible to enter an official team in an international match in the U.S.A. in 1978.

Selection procedures were defined, and included as qualifying events, three of the major events from the National Championships Tournament series. A further condition of selection was that the team would be based on one member from each State. The final condition was that, to preserve the promotional value of the project, team members from one year would be ineligible for selection for a period of three years. In this way, management hoped to provide incentive for younger "up and coming" competitors.

The actual match, for which the team is selected, is part of the largest clay target tournament in the world. Known as the Grand American Tournament, the match attracts in excess of 4,000 competitors on the main days - the series extends over ten days. (For comparative purposes, the major event at the Australian National Championships attracts an attendance of about 600).

The International Match is conducted over 100 targets (the Australian normal race is run over 20 targets), and is open to teams of five.

In 1978, from an entry exceeding 150 teams, Australia ran third, securing a Bronze Medal at the first try. This was an incredibly good start, and there is a very real chance that the 1979 Air New Zealand Trap Team (as Australian entry is known) will achieve similar results, OR BETTER.

This year's team has the advantage of being better prepared, in the sense that a number of lessons have been learned from the 1978 match. ○

• Past-President "Tup" Pedersen and his wife Enid are accompanying the Team.

LEGISLATIVE THREATS CONTINUE TO HARASS FIREARMS USERS

Although the anti firearms groups in all states continue to be a constant threat, attention is currently centred on South Australia and Queensland.

In South Australia, the regulations necessary to provide the teeth for the Firearms Act passed in 1977 are due to be gazetted. The real damage was done in this state back in 1977 when legislation providing for registration of firearms AND shooter licencing was enacted. And shooters groups hardly raised a murmur.

Ironically, few lessons seemed to be learned from this experience, as the same groups were also slow to respond when the Chief Secretary, the Hon D. Simmonds circulated draft copies of the regulations late in April.

Meanwhile, in Queensland, it is widely rumoured that a draft of proposed new firearms legislation exists, but efforts to obtain a copy have so far failed.

One of the areas in which some urgent changes are necessary relates to the use of firearms by juniors. Although in general terms, the present situation in Queensland is quite acceptable, coaching of juniors is made extremely difficult because of a minimum age limit of 17 years.

Many clay busters will remember that during the opening ceremony at the 1977 Nationals at Brisbane, Premier Joh Bjelke Petersen pledged his Government to a policy of non-discrimination against responsible firearms users.

It is becoming increasingly obvious that each State has a real need for an organized group capable of responsibly representing the views of lawful sporting shooting groups.

Although the framework already exists in some States - Victoria is a good example - there seems to be too much lack of trust and "woolly thinking" shown by some of the delegates who attend meetings.

Such a situation developed in Victoria, just prior to the May election. Due to the apathy shown by the delegates of various shooting associations represented on the Victorian Firearms Owners Committee, a sub-committee with a heavy bias towards the collectors group (as opposed to the user groups) was given the task of planning a press advertising campaign which officially was meant to be non-political.

Without going into details, suffice to say that the advertisements which appeared in the daily press were heavily weighted against the Labor Party. However, equally as big a problem was the fact that a $6000 budget had been established for the project.

One doesn't need to be a Rhodes Scholar to think of numerous ways in which $6000 could be spent to improve the sport of shooting, and a political advertising campaign would not rate in the top fifty.

The message to come out of this is that shotgunners should show their acceptance of responsibility and start working towards the establishment of strong State Bodies, which all the firearms user groups are represented.

The purpose of such a body should be to promote the shooting sports as a desirable and enjoyable recreational pursuit. In this way, it will clearly be seen that keeping a close watch on legislative moves would then become only one of the groups' activities, whereas at the moment, it is the ONLY interest. ○

SKYLAB FEVER (Staff Writer)

With all the media space that has recently been devoted to the Skylab crash in Western Australia, CTSN has decided to break its silence and tell the REAL story surrounding the phenomenon you see. Skylab was an American satellite which had become obsolete, but none of the boffins could find a way to return it to earth.

But the real mistake the scientists made was to ignore the ingenuity of the Australian sportsman, after all, any country that can produce the sorts of world champions that Australia has, should not be overlooked at times like this. For example, Australias hold records such as the greatest number of people fitted into the boot of a "minor", the longest period suspended by the feet from the ceiling of an outdoor toilet, and so on.

But back to Skylab. As the media coverage of the drama grew in intensity, and it was becoming quite obvious that the highly paid technicians were lost in their own calculations, a long standing clay buster from Western Australia came up with the answer.

Hugh Burchard, who has been shooting clay targets for many years, was working on his farming property at Esperance, Western Australia, when he suddenly realised that he held the key to the problem that was holding the interest of the whole world.

Hugh had been to the New Zealand Nationals earlier in the year and remembered having discussions with a group of Maori Tribal Chiefs. These discussions centred round finding more challenging targets for clay-busters who were growing disenchanted with being able to shoot 90 out of each hundred.

Many types of target were considered such as dinner plates on a 400 metre endless belt, and even an electronic device which simply beeped each time you pointed the index finger of your right hand at it!

Sitting astride his tractor, Hugh Burchard, finally realised that he had two serious responsibilities resting on his shoulders.

The first was that he alone had the power and knowledge to bring Skylab to ground, and the second was that he was well aware of the significance of such an action in drawing attention to Western Australia's celebrations of its 150th anniversary.

During the early hours of Thursday, July 12, Hugh took his trusted Browning from the gun rack, loaded it with two specially loaded number 9's, and went out into the brightly moon-lit night.

Extremely detailed and time consuming calculations has been made during the preceding two days and Hugh was quietly confident that success was within his grasp.

The monster appeared over the horizon right on time, Hugh had a quick last minute look at his written instructions, raised the trusty Browning, gave Skylab the calculated 9.324 miles lead and pulled the trigger. Down came Skylab, perfectly shot, and the pieces scattered themselves on Hugh Burchard's property.

The rest is now written into history and Hugh Burchard will be the next President of the West Australian Skylab Research Society. ○

TALK ABOUT TRAVEL

The holiday period is approaching. This is the time when many of the Association's members can gain tangible benefits from the Travel Grant plan.

In recent months, a number of cheques have been written for amounts of $140 or more. This is a facility that is available to all Association members. Travel grants are paid on travel arrangements made through the Association's travel consultants, Jetset Tours. Special application forms are available and should be filled in at the time of finalising payment for the holiday or business trip.

Of particular interest at this time is the annual "pilgrimage" to New Caledonia. The 1979 Shooting Championships conducted by the Club de Tir New Caledonia at Noumea, are scheduled to start on October 12. Practice will be available from October 10. Accommodation in Noumea is not plentiful, so if members are at all interested in attending, an early start on arrangements is advisable. Book through your Jetset Office, and qualify for a travel grant.

1980 is just around the corner. One of the highlights of the ACTA's travel plans for 1980 will be the group which attends the New Zealand Clay Target Championships to be held at Christchurch, commencing on March 22. Accommodation has already been booked at the White Heron Hotel, which is located adjacent to the Christchurch International Airport. This is the hotel that played a major part in the success that was attached to the Association's first major travel project, which centred around the 1978 NZ Nationals. One hundred and sixty Aussies converged on Christchurch that year, and there is no reason that there shouldn't be a large contingent next year.

Arrangements have been made for direct flights to leave from Brisbane and Sydney to Christchurch, while the ex Melbourne flight is via Wellington.

With the tremendous increase that has taken place in international travel, and taking into account that New Zealand is so close by comparison with other places, it is expected that the place in the ACTA group will fill quickly. Tentative bookings are already being accepted by the National Officer. Prices will be available for publication in October issue of CTSN.

The 1979 Air New Zealand team left Sydney Airport on July 30 under the leadership of Executive Committee member Robin Bailey. The size of the group totalled fourteen people, and the trip takes in Canada and an extensive area of USA. The highlight will be the performance of the Australian Team in the ATA International Match, in which it has a great chance of improving on last year's bronze medal.

The holiday makers are looking forward to their four days in New Orleans, which is the sort of place that so many Australians want to visit, but never get the opportunity.

Air New Zealand has shown its normal level of professionalism in making all the team's travel arrangements, while Jetset Tours worked wonders in integrating one of the most exciting North American tours yet seen. ○

RAINBOW WINS WINCHESTER WIMMERA MALLEE SCHOOLBOY CHAMPIONSHIP

The biggest field ever to assemble for a schoolboy shoot in the North West of the state shot in the Rainbow High School Shooting ground on Thursday in the prestigious Winchester Wimmera Mallee Championship.

With 205 entries and 187 actual shooters on the day the event has grown over the past five years from an original field of 89 shooters in 1974. Sixteen schools were represented covering an area of the state bounded by Mildura in the north, Wedderburn in the east, Kaniva in the west and Horsham to the south.

Competition was keen, however with a very tricky westerly wind shooting conditions were extremely difficult and in general scores in teams events illustrated this fact.

In the junior boys championship Todd Wallace of Dimboola shot the possible 10-10 to win the event outright from Darren Hounsell of Rainbow High School 9-10. Todd shot the only possible score for the day and this is a great compliment to his ability.

In the junior teams event Rainbow High School was successful for the fifth successive year. This is a great credit to the Rainbow boys who have held the Winchester shield since its inception in 1974, however the result was an extremely narrow victory and it is evident that in the years to come a number of schools will challenge for this title.

The Rainbow Team:

D. Hounsell, G. Pitt, A. Schmidt, R. Miatke. 27/40.

Other teams:

Nhill 26/40. Kaniva 23/40. Ouyen 13/40. Wycheproof 18/40. Horsham Tech 24/40. Birchip 24/40. Warracknabeal 20/40. Mur-rayville 17/40. Swan Hill Tech 24/40.

Nhill High School filled the position of runner up and missed the championship by the narrow margin of one bird.

In the Senior boys division Reg Robertson of Rainbow High School was the high gun champion shooting 9-10 while B. Walder of Warracknabeal gained second place in a shoot off with five other shooters with a score of 14-16.

Rainbow High School retained the senior team championship with its third win in the championships five years.

Rainbow Team:

R. Robertson, S. Hounsell, D. Miatke, D. McNeice. 30-40
Runner up Ouyen High School - 29-40.

Other Schools:

Robinvale High School 22.
Wedderburn High School 22.
Birchip High School 26.
Warracknabeal High School 23.
Mildura Technical School 25.
Horsham Technical School 27.

Again this was an extremely narrow win with Ouyen High School only one point from the leader.

In the school girl championship J. Bird of Birchip shot extremely well to score 7-10 and win the High Gun event from L. Pike of Warracknabeal with 5-10.

Winchester representative Mr. Bob Dupuy presented the High Gun Winners with the magnificent Winchester sash and the team members with the fine team trophies presented by Winchester.

Mr. Dupuy congratulated the winners and Rainbow High School for its organisation of the fifth highly successful Wimmera Mallee championship sponsored by Winchester. ○

The attendance for this meeting was large considering a clash with another meeting on the same day. It would appear that meetings of this size will now be a continuing trend which should enable the club to provide improved facilities and shooting conditions for competitors. Already the Club has introduced "phono-pull", and competitors at this meeting were unanimous in their enthusiasm for the system. No more can the luckless referee be blamed for a lost bird because he gave a slow or fast pull!

Very good crowd turned up for our shoot and the weather was kind to us apart from the cold wind, but nevertheless we saw some very good shooting by young and old, as it was a Sweepstake Day. There was a lot of shooters got a div. and I think everyone had a good day and they were well looked after by our ladies, with a good fire and afternoon tea. So let's hope for a better day next time boys. Hope to see you next month.

TASMANIAN, 8-7-79 — Fine and windy (55). 15t FM SB: R. Adams 12-13m 11-15; no 11m shooters. T.G.C. Skeet Ch: I. Rist 'A' shoot off 29-29, J. Dixon 'B' 25-25, S. Johnson 'C' 21-25, W. Scheibl 'C' 20-20, High Guns: I. Rist 'A' 72-75, R. Young 'B' 70-75, W. Richardson 'C' 62-75.

Quite a pleasant day for this time of the year and a much better attendance than the previous months. There were only two shoot-offs and they were short and didn't take up much time. There was good shooting by Ian Rist and G. Woodberry and of course A. Scheibl again won his grade in the DTL event that's three in a row!

Shooters attended from N.S.W., Illawarra, Berridale and Queanbeyan-Canberra Gun Clubs. New junior shooter Ross Carty had a go at the full hundred target program and was able (with some coaching by Jim Ellis) to shoot 6-25 single barrel in the fourth round.

Ed Mailbox

23 June 1979

Dear Noel:

We would like to use the Letters to the Editor column in the CTSN to air some of our Club's views which were to be put forward in General Business at the AGM at Griffith. Our delegate had no opportunity to advance our views at that meeting.

1. There is provision on the ACTA computer system and computer report sheets for International Skeet and International Trap handicaps, but there is no provision for their recording on registration forms or shooter registration cards. Nor is there any provision on shooter registration cards for the recording of shoot results in these disciplines. The A.C.T. International Gun Club, Inc. would like all disciplines of clay target shooting to be recorded on one card to ensure that A.C.T.A. Rules regulating competitions and awarding of trophies may be adhered to.
2. Funding of teams: All team members should be equally and fully funded.
3. Team members should be selected on the basis of form and merit during the annual qualifications regardless of previous performance.

The present system of team selection and funding is prejudicial, discriminatory and does not encourage competition, nor does it ensure that Australian will field its best team in any particular year. It also affects shooters attempting to represent Australia in the Commonwealth and Olympic Games. (It is our understanding that one criterion for selection to the Olympic Games is international experience.)

Yours truly

Eugene L. Smith

Secretary, A.C.T. International Gun Club

(Ed. note: It is incorrect to claim that any delegate was denied the opportunity to introduce subjects for discussion at the 1979 Annual General Meeting.)

NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS

YES or NO?

Your chance to be involved is coming!

Your Club has been asked to conduct a special general meeting to discuss this subject and record a vote.

Please attend and play your part in the management of your Association

National President.

NEW SOUTH WALES

NEW SOUTH WALES CLAY TARGET ASSOCIATION REPORT

The two major NSWCTA tournaments of 1979 are looming close. The first will be the Trap Carnival to be held at Queanbeyan / Canberra Gun Club on September 29 and 30, and October 1.

The complete program is advertised elsewhere in this issue of CTSN.

Meanwhile, a decision has been taken to transfer the Skeet Carnival from Condobolin to the Griffith Gun Club. This shows a great level of co-operation and also takes advantage of the skeet facilities installed at Griffith for the National titles held there earlier this year.

The Skeet Carnival will be held on November 24 and 25, and will include the following events.

Saturday, November 24 - 3, 50 target event plus NSW Interzone Skeet Tams Match.

Sunday, November 25 - NSW Skeet Championship NSW Interstate Skeet Teams Match Tasman Skeet C'ship (over 100 targets).

CORRECTION

Inadvertently in our Advertisement in August Issue some events were advertised as City of Sydney C'Ship, instead of SYDNEY DISTRICT C'SHIP. Our Club has been allocated the title City of Sydney for Trench and Skeet C'ships only. The title CITY OF SYDNEY for D.T.L. C'ships, was always allocated to Sydney Gun Club. We apologise to SYDNEY GUN CLUB for this error.

Congratulations to Graham Lane winning D/B cont. Chp. Ross Beer and Col Milner also shot well all afternoon. Very pleasant afternoon in winter sunshine.

N.S.W., 22-7-79 - Mild, sunny (11). N.S.W. Open skeet Chp 50T: E. Kavanagh 49-50, C. Milner 50-55, G. Bedington 49-55; 50T Skeet Hcp Trophy: C. Hlavaty 50-50, G. Bedington 53-55, J. Richardson 52-55.

Eugen Kavanagh was only one shooter who shot 25 straight all day. Charles Hlavaty improved his skeet shooting and down goes his Hcp to 01. Charles also won a special trophy. Purdy's engased cartridge donated by David Cotton.

N.S.W., 8-7-79 - Sunny, cold (34). 50T Metropolitan Trench Chp: A. Kavanagh 47-50, G. Frederickson 66-75, B. Dent 63-75; 25T Trench Trophy Grd: "A" A. Kavanagh 47-50, "B" B. Dent 40-50, "C" P. Lee 18-25.

Aiden Kavanagh did very well in both events.

We welcomed again visitors from Cooma, Canberra and Condobolin. Due to darkness coming so soon we have to cut second event from 50 to 25 targets.

N.S.W., 7-7-79 - Sunny, mild (42). Simulated Field shoot 25T E/O: 9 shooters div. S/S; 50T Cash Trophy in conjunction team shoot: E. Kavanagh, G. Bedington, P. Bortolin, B. Scanes, R. Ward. J. Cornish 18-20 (Orange), D. Piotrowski 16-20 (Bathurst), P. Godfrey 15-20 (Bathurst).

23 shooters turned out for the shoot in excellent weather conditions.

The main event of the day was the Canobolas District Walk up Championship.

Once again we had a number of young shooters turn up & some for the first time.

PARKES, 8-8-79 Windy (17). 10T D/B 16m: 10's J. Scott, J. Angus, R. Piotrowskie, T. Golding; 30T Golden West S/B Chp: J. Angus 29-31 (Orange), A. Turner (Snr) 28-31 (Cobar), J. It was good to see Alan Brown take out front marker in the Club Single Barrel Championship. Alan is a young shooter, who has only been breaking clays for a few months. Bernie Topham lost a metre for his efforts on the day. The Peter Bakos Shield (for High Gun over a 12 month period) has been won by Brendon Smith for the second year running. Nice shooting fellows.

QUEANBEYAN/CANBERRA, 23-7-79 — Windy (Very Good). 100T Memorial Shoot, 20T D/B 16m: B. Smith, C. Hawkins; 20T S/B 16m: B. Prosser; 20T P/S 16m: G. Martin & B. Wellsmore 59-60; 10 Pr D/R 16m: G. TAMWORTH, 1-7-79 — Tamworth Gun Club held their Northern Zone Travel Fund Shoot.

The shoot was very well attended with 42 shooters attending from the North and North-West.

Tamworth shooters fared well, namely, Peter Owen, Galvin Martin, Len Payne, Peter Bartlett, Col Burt and Brian Maher sharing in championship wins.

With the most glorious weather, many shooters had good results.

After the shoot a Northern Zone meeting was held mainly to distribute the championship shoots held during the year. Tamworth were possibly a little unfortunate in only receiving the Northern Zone Point Score Championship. However, they have had a major share in events in the past years.

In poor shooting conditions, the club conducted the annual Deaville Double Championship. The club is grateful to the many visitors that braved the cold wind to make the shoot a success.

Congratulations to the Ballarat pair, Norm and David Patterson who emerged the winners after a very short shoot off, from father and son Andrew and Brian Sheard from Mansfield.

In the Handicap cash division and out off a field of 38, some of them short markers too, only three possibles were scored. C. Coulter and G. Vonarx would no doubt have preferred at least one other possible as it cost them both a metre.

Once again we had perfect weather for the annual shoot. With only 61 shooters on the first day there was no rush and everybody had a very relaxed day. A large number turned up for the dinner in the shire hall and once again the bug part of the night was a great success.

CENTRAL BURNETT, 17-6-79 — Fine, windy (68). TCM DB Ch off 16m: P. Shaw (Maryborough) 44-44, I. Casperson (Maryborough) 43-44, R. Henderson (S. Coast) 36-37. Black Stump $600 Cash Hcp: F. Pope (Chinchilla) and R. Henderson (S. Coast). Shotgun Event 30t DB Pts off Hcp: P. Shaw (Maryborough) 116-120, F. Pope (Chinchilla) 113-120, L. Smith (C. Burnett) 91-96. Golden Mile Shield shot in conjunction with above event C. Burnett - L. Smith, N. Cameron, W. Kimber, K. Webb and J. Johnson. High Gun 11-16m L. Sandow (C. Burnett); High Gun 17-25m M. J. Elliott (Gladstone). Best 11m shooter on Sunday - L. Smith.

The second day brought a few more shooters and a very good days shooting took part. Central Burnett members would like to thank all shooters who made the effort to come to Mundubura this year and look forward to seeing you all throughout the year. Congratulations to all the winners for both days.

CENTRAL BURNETT, 15-7-79 — Cloudy, windy (23). 15t DB kills off Hcp: shared by K. Webb, N. Cameron, R. Daley, J. Bryant, L. Sandow. 30t Medley Ch off 16m: L. Sandow, A. Williams, J. Johnson. 15t DB Pts off Hcp: W. Kimber, J. Bacchi, R. Daley. Inter High Gun 11-15m R. Daley; High Gun 16-25m L. Sandow.

This club shoot was one of the smaller shoots for the year as it was a cold windy day. The members and visitors that turned up shot well and a good day was had by all. Les Sandow won the Championship after a shoot-off with A. Williams.

CHARTERS TOWERS, 1-7-79 — Fine (20). 10t DB Hcp: 10pts W. Archer; 9pts L. Chisnell, K. Deneen, V. Ball, G. Webbs, F. Killick, R. Linton, A. Johnson, M. Mathews. 20t DB Hcp: 20pts C. Turnbull 24-30; I. Beale 23-30. The light had faded to such an extent that a shoot-off between K. Eagle and D. Gillespie was decided against and a coin was tossed - D. Gillespie won and was presented with the Mug. J. Mahony received the Egg Cup and Hard Boiled Egg.

Mr Bill Nioa (Nioa Firearms) of Gladstone was in attendance at the Shoot and with his van on site tempted a few of the boys to buy some accessories and a couple of new members their first shotgun. Bill provides a valuable service to shooters in this part of Queensland and his attendance at our shoots is always looked forward to.

GLADSTONE RAISES $2000 FOR CHARITY

One hundred and eighty nine Novice shooters in one day with three 10 target single barrel events. It was a record for the Gladstone Gun Club, who hosted a Charity Shoot for the local Miss Australia Quest entrant, Miss Shan Herbert, and the Club would be very interested to know if it is an Australian wide record.

• Quest entrant, Miss Shan Herbert, presents T. Sawyer with his novice High Gun trophy.

It doesn't stop there either, this relatively young but extremely hard working club also provided a 60 target program for the 56 registered A.C.T.A. shooters who attended the Charity Day Shoot.

To attract local attention the club and Shan's committee promoted the Shoot as a fun, picnic day and provided meals and refreshments on the grounds. Children's activities and supervision was also provided on the grounds by a local Girl Guide unit and the wife of the Gladstone Gun Club's President, thus enabling the parents to shoot.

Another drawcard on the Novice Program was a challenge issued by a team of novice shooters from Herbert Hire, Shan's family's business establishment, to all business houses, sporting bodies, local authorities, service clubs and individuals in the area to compete against them in the Novice Teams Event which was run over the second event of the novice program. This resulted in the participation of 30 teams in this particular event and was won by the Calliope Shire Council team with a score of 32-50 three 'kills' ahead of the challenging team.

All novice shooters were accompanied on the trap layout by a registered A.C.T.A. shooter who instructed in shooting safety and technique. To facilitate in the smooth running of the shoot, novices nomination fees covered the cost of ammunition and the use of a gun. Club members provided reloaded shells at cost which alleviated with the expenses of Shan's committee and allowed nominations to be kept at an attractive level.

The Gladstone Gun Club, presently operating on temporary grounds, are currently negotiating with the local council for a permanent site for their club activities and strongly recommend this type of shoot to any club with strong member participation as an effective way of raising funds.

• A.C.T.A. shooter from Rockhampton, Miss Ros McLeod, with her ladies High Gun trophy. Shan and her father Brian Herbert are in the background.

As a result of this shoot $2,000 was raised for the Central Queensland area of the Queensland Spastic Welfare League.

NORTHERN TERRITORY

DARWIN, 5-7-79 — Fine (30). N.T. Smash 30t Novelty Shoot: Repairs Trophy 1st L. Young 28-30, 2nd K. Bowring 26-32, 3rd G. Chan 25-32.

Sincere thanks to N.T. Smash Repairs for their donation of the trophies. This was the Club's Novelty Shoot to coincide with duck opening and it would appear that all who attended enjoyed themselves tremendously definitely an annual event. A special welcome to well-known S.A. shooter Glen Height from Mt. Gambier.

DARWIN, 17-6-79 — Fine and warm (22). Mixed Tgts Ch 25t: L. Young 43-55, K. Gittings 42-55, P. Close 26-35. Sutton Motors Skeet 2 Rds Skeet Hcp: 1st G. Joiner, 2nd G. Litherland, 3rd K. Selwood.

DARWIN, 18-6-79 — Fine and windy (14). Sutton Motors Trophy 2 Rds Skeet: 1st G. Draper 48-50, 2nd L. Young 47-50, 3rd K. Bowring and P. Crute 46-50.

A very poor attendance for this event. However many thanks to Sutton Motors for the trophies for both Skeet events.

DARWIN, 24-6-79 — Fine (31). Jock McCrea Mem Trophy 50t DB Graded 16m: 11-13m K. Selwood 45-50, 14-16m I. Anderson 54-57, 17-25m P. Grove 49-50.

DARWIN, 8-7-79 — Fine and windy (29). Club DR Ch 20pr 16m: G. Worrall 33-40, P. Grove 31-44, W. Horner 30-44. SS 30t Hcp: G. Chan 29-30, 2nd equal M. Normington and S. Joiner 28-30.

Under extremely difficult windy conditions Gordon Worrall's score of 33-40 was a very fine effort in the Double Rise event. Greg Chan is showing a return to form as at the right time, with major shoots coming up over the next few weeks. Steve Joiner is one of the big improvers in the club and will be extremely difficult to toss off his handicap of 12m.

McARTHUR RIVER, 24-6-79 — Fine, windy (3). 20t DB Hcp: J. Jenecek 18-20, G. Kruger 17-20. 20t DB Pts 16m: J. Jenecek 46-16, G. Kruger 45-16. 10t Novelty: J. Jenecek 8-10, G. Kruger 6-10.

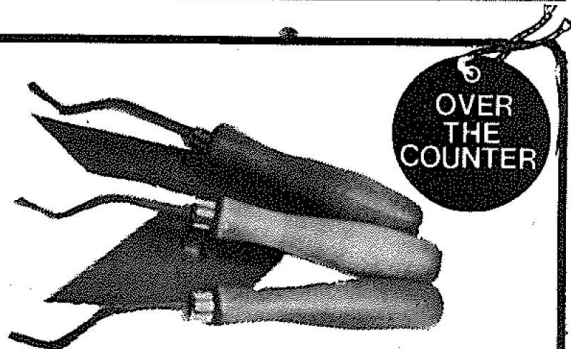

The shoot was attended by G. Kruger of Woods Point Gun Club, Victoria.

TENNANT CREEK, 4-7-79 — Fine Night (16). 10t DB EO: J. Whaites 10-10, 2nd J. Williams, B. Harker, I. Scoble 9-10. 20pr DR Club Ch: G. Miller 27-40, T. Mein 26-40. 10pr DD: J. Whaites, G. Miller 9-10; 2nd J. Williams, K. Stevens 7-10, 10t SB 18m: 1st G. Miller.

Well done G. Miller winning our first Club Championship event. A well deserved win and G. (Clickety-Click) Miller moves back to 13 metres.

TENNANT CREEK, 16-7-79 — Fine day (16). 10t DB EO: G. Brown, I. Scoble, G. Miller all 10-10. 15t DB PS Dunlop Trophy: T. Mein, I. Scoble, K. Pattison after shoot-off. 10t DB Tower: K. Pattison 10-10, K. Stevens and G. Miller 8-10. 10t SB kills Hcp: K. Stevens 9-10, B. Bourke 8-10. 10t DB kills 16m Club Trophy: K. Pattison, G. Miller; shoot-off winner Gary Miller.

Two shoot-offs for both trophies provided excellent shooting on Sunday. T. Mein loses a metre for his fine effort in event 2. K. Pattison and G. Miller showing good form in all events. G. Brown and I. Scoble provided stiff opposition on Sunday, both shooting well. Confirmation that Eli Ammunitions to sponsor a Single Barrel Shotgun for 1st prize in our September Night Title Shoot.

WEST AUSTRALIA

ALBANY, 17-6-79 — Wet and cold (17). 10t DB & 10t SB: 1st Martin Burnell with a score of 21-26 after a shoot-off from Murray Playne and Keith Holme with 19-26 respectively. 10t WU 10pr DR: 1st was shared between Merv Lubcke and David Slee.

Winning the st event and the trophy cost Martin a metre from his handicap. Good once again to see the Front Markers in the winners circle. The 2nd stage of the Max Bell Perpetual Trophy was shot in conjunction with the SB and Margaret Slee has taken the lead on 23 from Martin Burnell and Keith Holme on 21. Club Secretary: Margaret Slee, 41 1608.

ALBANY, 8-7-79 — Cold, windy and some rain (21). Mixed Tgts Ch: John Chisholm 52-70, Merv Lubcke 58-80, David Levingstone 56-80.

Congratulations were in order for the "Ex Victorian" for gaining 1st place honours after a shoot-off with Merv and David. At one stage anyone out of six shooters could have won as the lead changed hands some many times in the course of the afternoon (especially after the Walk-Up had been shot) but a good day was had by all in attendance. Two new shooters were welcomed. Kim Smyth and Jim Aitken who joined that day. The 3rd stage of the Max Bell Perpetual Trophy was held in conjunction with the Double Barrel and Margaret Slee maintained her lead with a score of 32, followed by Keith Holme and Martin Burnell on 21 respectively. Secretary: M. Slee, 41 1608.

CUNDERDIN, 1-7-79 — Fine and sunny. 25t DB and 25t DB Continental: J. Harris 49-50, D. Kevill 48-50, K. Hopkins, L. Reynolds and K. Lupton 46-50.

GERALDTON, 1-7-79 — Sunny and cold. 20t DB off 16m: L. Pritchard, J. Webb 20-20, T. Holly 19-20; 15t ACTA Hcp: R. Burton 14-15, T. Harris and T. Holly 13-15. 10pr DD: T. Harris and H. Burton 9-10, R. Burton and S. Webb 8-10, J. Stephenson and J. Webb 7-10.

GERALDTON, 8-7-79 — Cool and cloudy. 50t Inter Club Teams Match: R. McDonald 50-50, E. Daw 48-50, W. Johns, S. Zorino and J. Stephenson 47-50 giving the Club a tally of 239-250. In the first round of 25 nine shooters for the shoot-off R. McDonald, W. Johns, T. Holly, S. Zorino, T. Harris, J. Stephenson, V. Bunter, E. Daw, B. Wellington. It was finally reduced to R. McDonald 1st W. Johns 2nd and E. Daw 3rd. The 2nd round of 25 saw eight shooters qualify for the shoot-off R. McDonald, W. Johns, T. Holly, S. Zorino, T. Harris, J. Stephenson, V. Bunter and E. Daw. After a close shoot-off T. Harris was declared the winner was R. McDonald and V. Bunter filling minor placings.

High Gun trophy for the day was ably won by Ray McDonald with a fine effort of 76-77 including shoot-offs. Most improved trophy J. Stephenson. Special congratulations to Ray McDonald for winning the District DB C'ship at Newman Gun Club last week.

GERALDTON, 15-7-79 — Cool and sunny. 25t DB off Hcp Patrons Trophy: after shoot-off E. Daw. 25t DB Club C'ship: R. McDonald 51-51, W. Johns 50-51, R. Burton 44-45. Intermediate Badge was won by R. Barker 33-33 after defeating D. Wellington in a shoot-off. High Gun Trophy once again won by Ray McDonald 49-50.

NEWMAN, 30th June-1st July — Fine, cold east wind (32). 5t DB CD: S. Lopresti, N. Boyle, J. McKoy, P. Robson, Mrs Alexander, M. Alexander, T. Stingel, P. Melvin all possibles. Ironman 20t SB: 1st and 'A' Dick Day (Newman) 18-20, 'B' Peter Robson (Newman) 20-23, 'C' Phil McSwain (Newman) 16-20. Fortescue 30t DB Hcp: Peter Gabriel (Newman) 36-38, Kevin Danks (Shay Gap) 37-40, Merv McSwain (Newman) 36-40, 5t DB CD: A. Ferreo, J. Moore, K. Danks, M. Alexander, S. Lopresti, J. McKoy, Mrs Alexander, P. Melvin, R. Pickard, T. Stingel, M. McSwain, R. Hopkins, V. Bunter, R. McDonald all possibles. Whaleback 20t D.B.P.: 1st and 'A' Tony Stingel (Newman) 77-78, 'B' Vaughn Bunter (Geraldton) 76-78, 'C' Kevin Danks (Shay Gap) 74-78. Newman Dist Ch 30t DB: 1st and 'B' Ray McDonald (Geraldton) 35-35, 'C' Kevin Danks (Shay Gap) 29-30, 'A' Tony Stingel (Newman) 81-83. 20t Trap 18m: Neville Boyle (Newman) 17-20, Peter Robson (Newman) 25-31, Steve Lopresti (Newman) 22-31.

Newman Gun Club would like to thank all visitors who attended and made this such an enjoyable week-end. Also Winchester, Roy Alexander & Sons, Mr and Mrs M. Alexander, who donated trophies that were keenly contested for. And all other donors. Also the ladies who catered magnificently over the two days. Thanks also to the men who watched over the beast on the spit from 2 a.m. till the BBQ.

NORTHAM 25-7-79 — Fine and cold (16) 25t Conventional Skeet, 25t I.S.U. Skeet.

David Kevill from Quairading scooped the pool on Sunday at Island Farm when 50 skeet program was conducted by the Northam Gun Club.

For the aggregate shoot David Kevill, John Harris and Mike Callaghan were all equal on points which resulted in a shoot-off and David Kevill ran out the winner. He also took off the high gun award and won the A Grade section. Wally Jones won the B Grade section and Marc Bristow-Stagg won the C Grade section.

The aggregate points competition for the year has now developed into an extremely interesting situation with Marc Bristow-Stagg in the lead having 16 points to his credit, close behind is Roy Holtfreter 15, David Kevill 12, Barry Bristow-Stagg 11, Merv Madew 10.5 and Kevin Hopkins and Ted Hamersley 10 each.

After the high gun points were distributed for the annual competition, Roy Holtfreter still remains in the lead with 16.5 which he shares with Geoff Way also 16.5. However Kevin Hopkins is making a run and now has 16 points, only .5 of a point behind the leaders, followed by Mike Callaghan 15 and David Kevill 11 points.

Both the aggregate and the high gun competitions promise to be extremely keenly fought with only half of the program so far completed. It would be anybody's chance to win before the end of the year.

NORTHAM, 12-7-79 — Fine (17). 20t DB, 20t DB Continental, 10pr DD. Joe Wansbrough from Beverley won the Aggregate Shoot held at Island Farm on Sunday by the Northam Gun Club.

David Kevill from Quairading was 2nd followed by Marc Bristow-Stagg 3rd and Barry Bristow-Stagg and Jim Morgan equal 4th.

Mike Callaghan from Perth won the A Grade section, Horrie Mills from Alice Springs the B Grade and Marc Bristow-Stagg the C Grade.

The points gained on Sunday has put Marc Bristow-Stagg into the lead in the Aggregate Competition. He now has 15.5 points to his credit. Roy Holtfreter is close behind with 15 followed by Barry Bristow-Stagg 11, Merv Madew 10.5 and Ted Hammersly 10.

The Aggregate High Gun Competition is also being closely contested with Roy Holtfreter and Geoff Way in the lead with 16.5 points each. Kevin Hopkins from Cunderdin is close behind with 15 points, Mike Callaghan 12.5 and Jim Morgan 7.5.

PERTH, 7-7-79 — Overcast, showery, light winds (33). 40t Mixed 10t DB 10t SB 10t Cont, 5pr DR: 1st W. Pilkington 37-40, 2nd R. Bailey 45-53, 3rd N. Wells 44-54; Intermediate R. Franklin 33-40.

Once again congratulations to Wayne Pilkington, a new Perth member but obviously not new to clay target shooting. It's also good to see Roy Franklin in the winners circle again. Robin Bailey and Ted Wells shot off for 2nd and 3rd respectively. Good shooting, all of you.

NEWMAN DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP — OVER TWO DAYS.

(By Merv McSwain - Publicity Officer)

The Newman Gun Club held its Annual 2 day shoot on 30th June and 1st July. The match was contested by 32 shooters including five from Geraldton seven from Perth (Azzurri) and three from Shay Gap. From 2 a.m. Tony Stingel John McKoy and Doug Rasmussen started cooking the beast and making last minute adjustments. At 8.30, shooters started to arrive, guns were unwrapped and everyone was eager to see what goodies everyone else had. A last minute bustle, as it was found that the trap was set too low and new measurements had to be made and the trap sighter raised over two feet!!

Then it was on! S. Lipresti (N), N. Boyle (N), J. McKoy (N), P. Robson (N), Mrs Alexander (P), T. Stingel (N), P. Emlvin (P), M. Alexander (P) all shot 5-5 in the first event, which was a 5 target Double Barrel's C.D.

Event two was the Ironman 20 T.S.B. Championship.

Scores were very low in this event probably due to a freezing east wind (it was so cold even the targets were shivering). 1st prize was a sash and trophy donated by Mr. & Mrs. Alexander, and was won by Dick Day (Newman) 18-20.

B. Grade trophy was donated by Roy Alexander & Sons and was won by Peter Robson (Newman) 20-23.

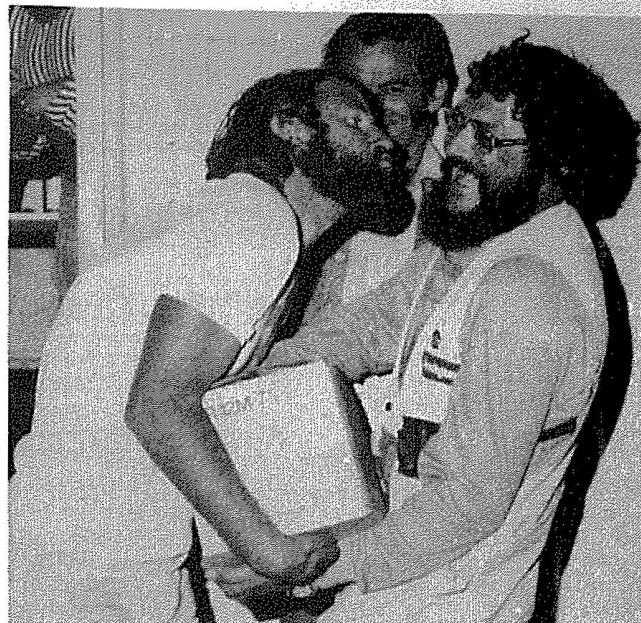

C. Grade trophy was donated by Homeways and was won by Phil McSwain (Newman) 16-20.

Event 3 Forescue 30 target Double Barrel Handicap.

This event was very keenly contested as first prize was a "Lames" over and under shotgun and donated by the Newman Gun Club. Five shooters scored 28-30 and had to shoot off.

• Tony Stingle, winner of the Pointscore Match.

• Kevin Danks left, (Shay Gap) receives his High Gun trophy from Club Secretary Tony Stingle. The photo makes it appear that Kevin has "stumbled".

1st prize sash and shotgun Peter Gabriel (Newman) 36-38.

2nd prize donated by Winchester - to Kevin Danks (Shay Gap) 37-40.

3rd prize donated by Newman Club - to Merv McSwain (Newman) 36-40.

The second day was a much nicer day with little wind and the sun shining brightly. Unfortunately the hangovers from the night before, cancelled them out!

Event 4, 5 target Double Barrel C.D.

Once again a big number of possibles, including,

A. Ferreo (G), J. Moore (N), K. Danks (S.G.), M. Alexander (P), S. Lopresti (N), J. McKoy (N), Mrs. Alexander (P), R. Melvin (P), R. Pickard (N), T. Stingel (N), M. McSwain (N), R. Hopkins (G), V. Bunter (G), R. McDonald (G). 'G'.

Event 5 Whaleback 20 target Pantscore.

1st sash and trophy donated by T.B.C. and was won by Tony Stingel (Newman) 77-78.

B. Grade donated by Hassels Newsagents and was won by Vaughn Bunter (Geraldton) 76-78.

C. Grade donated by Shrm and was won by Kevin Danks (Shay Gap) 74-78.

All three won their grade outright and were competing for first outright.

Event 6 Newman District Championships 30 target D.B.

This was the major event of the two days - the prestigious white district sash.

1st sash and trophy donated by Kelvins was won by Ray McDonald (Geraldton) 35-35.

C. Grade by P. & A. Collins to Kevin Danks (Shay Gap) 29-30.

A. Grade by P.B.S. (Perth Building Society) to Tony Stingel from Murray Alexander in a real cliffhanger of a shoot off, the best Newman has ever seen and it went to 81-83.

After the shoot, Bob Pickard donated $50 for a novelty event consisting of 20 target trap from 18m, and tower on report of first cartridge.

1st Neville Boyle (Newman) 17-20.

2nd Peter Robson (Newman) 25-31.

3rd Steve Lopresti (Newman) 22-31.

Donated by N.G.S.

High Gun was won by Kevin Danks (Shay Gap).

Best non prize winner visitor P. Melvin (Azzurri).

Donated by Minesite Motors.

Last but not least, thanks to Mt. Newman Mining Company who loaned us a generator because ours broke down, and power has not yet been run from the mains.

Also, a giant thank you to the fabulous ladies, who over two days, made sure nobody wanted for anything to eat or drink and donated hot lunches for both days. ○

AROUND THE TRAPS (Cont'd from page 16)

Tuesday 10th July, 1979

Robinvale, a fruit growing district, which has had a gun club operating in the area for the past two years, 100 kilometres from Mildura, were holding a special meeting to see if members wanted the club to become affiliated with the A.C.T.A. I was invited to attend and explain our operations and the advantages of such an affiliation with the A.C.T.A. I am pleased to say a unanimous vote taken after weighing all pros and cons, gave the all clear for the club to go through the necessary channels and become affiliated in 1980.

Sunday 15th July, 1979

State Council were conducting a meeting at Bendigo Gun Club this day. Once again a large agenda was tabled giving evidence of the growth of activity being handled by councillors. Others attending the meeting were George Biggs, State Coaching Director, Ian Hale from Eley Ammunition to present details of 1979 Eley Teams Premiership. Brian Flower, President of Frankston Australian Gun Club in support of an application his club is making to host the National Championships in Victoria in 1981. Len Hubbard, Secretary of Metropolitan Gun Club was there also, to present to the State Association, a draft of a submission before interested personnel to establish a Sporting Ballistic Complex and Training School in the North West outskirts of Melbourne. Len and his team were congratulated on the excellent presentation of the draft and for the amount of time and effort devoted to the project so far. The project received the support of the State Association, and a Sub-committee was formed consisting of Bob Buchan, State President, Trevor Nash, State Secretary, Bill Abbott, Victorian Executive member, Maurie Mollica from Victoria Gun Club and Len Hubbard, Metropolitan Gun Club to continue with negotiations in an endeavour to get the complex on the way.

To the ladies who attended and provided the hot lunch for all and kept us supplied with coffee during the meeting, we extend our thanks. Some-one mentioned they deserve to be given a gift for their effort at these meetings in arranging refreshments. I believe some of them heard the remark and the next day headed to have their ears pierced in case diamond studded ear-rings were to be the token of appreciation.

Don't be silly girls, the meals are not that good?

See you where there is shooting.

CLUB NEWS (Cont'd from page 67)

Newcastle Gun Club (NSW)

At the AGM held in July, the executive of G. Casey, President; J. Dunn, Vice President; and Ian Clarke, Secretary, was returned to office. Meanwhile, the Minister for Sport and Recreation in New South Wales, the Hon. Ken Booth has accepted a position of the Club's patron.

The Club is well advanced with the installation of its second skeet ground, which should be ready for use in the next few weeks.

Terranora Lakes Gun Club (NSW)

The Terranora Lakes Gun Club had worked long and hard to ensure that its first two-day carnival was a success. It had advertised extensively, and visitors were assured of good value.

Eight-six shooters, representing 25 Clubs, arrived to contest the programmed events. Saturday's events ran like clockwork, followed by the Calcutta dinner on Saturday night.

What a change occurred on Sunday. It was labelled the worst July day for 12 years — rain and 50 mph winds blowing straight into the trap houses effectively destroyed any chance of running a clay target tournament.

The Club Executive made a most courageous decision and abandoned the program.

The Sunday section will now be held on Sunday, September 9, and a warm welcome awaits all shooters. There will be $1600 value in cash awards and trophies to be won — full details will be found on page 42 of this issue.

The High Gun Awards which were originally to be conducted on the two day's aggregate, will now apply ONLY to the events to be run on September 9. ○

INTERNATIONAL SHOOTING SCENE (Cont'd from page 10)

Sufficient time has been built in to the schedule to allow the team to become acclimatised before the official practice sessions begin.

Details of the Official program will be published as they become available.

Australia's team includes:-

Manager — Newton Thomas

Olympic Trench Team — Jim Ellis, Terry Rumbel, Trevor Byrne, Jim Finis and "Pud" Burgess.

ISU Skeet Team — Alex Crikis, John Summers and Graeme Boyd.

CTSN: This dedication got you into the Victorian State Trap Team last year, are we right in presuming this?

WAKEFIELD: Yes, it was a great thrill to make that team in open competition. It quietened down some of the more vocal men around.

CTSN: That's an interesting point. Do you run into the modern word chauvinism in the sport?

WAKEFIELD: No not really. I get a lot of ribbing from the boys, I find it hard sometimes to know when they are just being funny or they are serious. But I think most of it is only fun. Some of the older blokes can be a bit funny at times but then maybe they are a bit set in their ways, I don't take much notice of it anyway.

CTSN: Well, once again that is a very mature approach from one so young. Thank you for speaking with us.

WAKEFIELD: Well for my first interview it was not so bad, thank you for listening to me. ○
