EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S NOTES

As this edition goes to press, the 1981 Australian Trap and Skeet Championships will almost be over.

The facilities at the host club, Melbourne Gun Club, will have been stretched to the limit to handle the record attendance, and six new National Champions will have emerged.

All of which leads me to ask: WHAT IMPORTANCE DO WE PLACE ON OUR NATIONAL CHAMPIONS? For example, when you next arrive at your club, ask one of your shooting coppers to name two of the 1980 Australian Champions. To make it easier, let him include the Olympic disciplines (Olympic Trench and I.S.U. Skeet) which were staged only a few months ago in his answer. This, in effect, means that he is being asked to remember only one quarter of the names of the eight champions.

The real point I am making, is that clay target shooting is one of the few sports in Australia that doesn't make mileage out of its champions. It seems logical to suggest that clubs which are staging major tournaments should extend a personal invitation to certain "big name" shooters.

After the club receives an acceptance, arrangements could be made for the champion to be interviewed by the press, and perhaps make a personal appearance on television and radio sports or talk back program.

It would surprise us all to see the extent to which media coverage could be obtained in provincial areas by following this sort of plan.

The June issue of C.T.S.N. will list the 1981 champions, together with details of their winning performances. Let's promote them and put the theory to the test.

In the unreal atmosphere of the "sports vacuum" caused by the death of the Association's President, Ron Porter, a special meeting of the National Executive Committee has been called, to be held in Melbourne on Anzac Day.

A Presidential ballot will be held during the meeting, and two members are emerging as the main contenders for the post.

They are Acting President Laurie Connors of Mildura, Victoria, and Roy Holtfreter of Northam, Western Australia. Both are members of the Association's Management Committee.

Following the election of the President, a ballot will be held for the position of Vice President, and this will probably draw a nomination from the other member of the Management Committee, Paul Cains of Burnie, Tasmania.

These elections are of vital importance to the Association as there is a serious need to re-establish a solidarity at the top level following the unfortunate sequence of changes that have been forced on us.

The 1981 Executive Committee will include at least two new faces. They are Jim Scott of Dubbo, New South Wales and Robert Parker of Batehaven, New South Wales. These people are replacing Arch Rowe of Yamba and Len Bird of Forster, who are retiring.

The Association's Management Committee will also need to be rebuilt, so there will be plenty of pressure on the decision makers at their meeting in Melbourne on Anzac Day.

How desperate is the need for unity in the shooting sports? From the lack of interest that some States are showing in establishing a communication link with other shooting groups, many observers are getting the impression that clay busters are totally oblivious to the fact that other forms of the shooting sport do exist!

The recent attempt to assassinate President Ronald Reagan of the United States was an act of savagery which is impossible to condone. It once again focussed attention on the fact that guns can be used to kill or attempt to kill people.

However, it is really people who kill people!

Nevertheless, because legislators generally have a type of nervous disposition which leads them to believe that controls on firearms will effectively reduce the number of crimes in which firearms are used, there will now be another Australia-wide push for tougher controls.

THE ONLY PEOPLE WHO WILL BE SERIOUSLY AFFECTED BY SUCH CONTROLS WILL BE THE FIREARMS USERS WHO ARE ALREADY ABIDING BY THE LAWS!

It is here that the need for unity amongst firearms users is not only apparent but NECESSARY. So, there it is, clay busters. Please work harder to recognise our colleagues in other shooting disciplines as the old axiom of there being strength in numbers may just be our saving grace.

Good Shooting,

Noel J. Southey

ISU Skeet — On the move in S.A.

(from Graham Goldsmith)

ISU Skeet is on the move in S.A. However for one to say that it is about to completely change the face of clay target shooting in our "Festival State" would give rise to some warranted derisive snorts of "rubbish", "bull", "a dreamer" etc. No, unfortunately from my angle and that of many others, it is not yet about to do so any more than it is on the Australian scene, but it is making headway.

As others have said before me, we need more open minded approaches, by more open minded administrators prepared to give it the Aussie "Fair Go". Promote and encourage it, rather than knocking it down at every opportunity, or ignoring it in the hope that it will go away. Accept the fact — it won't go away. Certainly it should be everyone to his own game. We are no more all ISU Skeet shooters than we are all D.T.L. shooters or golfers, but I would like to say to the unconverted, don't shy off trying something different or difficult, give it a go, you may find you really like it. Sure it's not easy, but neither is bringing up children. Did that stop you or your parents? To those who say or think ISU Skeet is too difficult and consequently people don't want to shoot difficult events, I say, go along to your local Field & Game Assoc. Simulated Field Shooting Range, I wager you will be proved wrong on both counts. However to back up my opening statement written before I allowed myself to digress, the South Australian Skeet Carnival got under way on 29th and 30th of November 1980 at the grounds of the S.A. Gun Club at Bolivar. The State Skeet (Ordinary) Championship and team elimination was shot on the Saturday with some "novelty" D.T.L. to fill the day. Sunday saw the City of Adelaide 100 target ISU Skeet Championship which incorporated the first 50 targets as the State ISU Skeet Team Elimination for 1980. The day was fine and warm, with not too much wind and 28 shooters partly warmed up from the Saturday's skeet shooting faced the first 50 targets. In the first round the change of target speed from the previous days shooting obviously had some effect on timing, with only seven shooters scoring twenty or more, the rest trailing off to some scores they may have preferred to forget.

Young David Bowring from N.T. showed the way on 22 with Fred Guyatt and Graeme Goldsmith both carding 21. The second 25 targets which was to determine the State ISU Skeet Team, again saw only seven shooters scoring 20 or more with Dennis Foster, Fred Guyatt and Bill Hetherington equalling on 22.

The State Team thus chosen consisted of Fred Guyatt 43/50, Graeme Goldsmith 42/50, Chris Woolford 40/50, Ray Kimber 39/50, Bill Hetherington 39/50 and John Struik 38/50 (after a shoot off with three others).

Going on from here to complete the final 50 targets of the City of Adelaide Championship, scores improved some what with sixteen shooters making 20 or more in the next 25 targets. These included clean rounds by both Kimber and Guyatt, a 24 by Johnston and 23 by Goldsmith. Of the eleven who shot 20 or more in the last 25 targets, Ben Murphy put up 24 to lead over three others on 23.

The final results of the 100 target City of Adelaide Championship: F. Guyatt 1st A grade 91/100, R. Kimber 2nd A grade 87/100, G. Goldsmith 1st B grade 85/100, D. Foster 2nd B grade 82/100, J. Struik 1st C grade 79/100, P. Winzen 2nd C grade 77/100, D. Bowring - Best Junior 85/100.

With light starting to wane, and all other events over, the presentations of the weekend were delayed until the completion of the State Team score. One Hundred and fifty competition ISU Skeet targets in one day is no mean feat, and congratulations must be accorded to every member of that team for their effort and concentration in putting together the following scores under those conditions, especially as two of them were also involved in the running of the whole weekend.

That was the last ISU skeet for 1980, but several weeks later on Sunday 10th January 1981, at a time when a lot of people are still on holidays, it was on again. To prove that the interest was still there and that they weren't about to be beaten by a few of those little round black b's, eighteen shooters fronted for the first 100 target State ISU Skeet Team Elimination for 1981. This is to be a complete contrast to 1980 when only 50 targets decided the team, as each shooter will eliminate over any two of four 100 target events together with one compulsory 200 target event. This system of course has the advantage of, more competitive practice and allowing someone back in who either couldn't make the date or couldn't make a score on a particular day. The scores shot will also be used to form a State Training squad, hopefully with some opportunities to travel to other competitive venues.

Back to January 10th, 1981, the day was hot with some variation in wind, and little variation in the flies. Some delay occurred in getting things under way over the two ISU Skeet layouts at the grounds of the S.A. Gun Club at Bolivar, but by lunchtime most of the four squads had finished their first 50 targets. In comparison to the slow start in scores at the November Skeet Carnival, of the eighteen shooters competing here, ten managed scores of 20 or more over the first 25 targets, the way being shown by Guyatt, Goldsmith and Struik all carding 23. Round two saw the latter two slip a little with 21 and 20 respectively but Guyatt held it to a fine 24, the other closest shooters being Bernie Hansen and Ray Kimber on 22. The next round saw a change when Graeme Goldsmith shot the only 25 for the day, ahead of Kimber and Foster on 23. Again ten shooters scored 20 or more. Into the last 25 targets later in the day, the first elimination for 1981 concluded with John Struik shooting well for a 24, Guyatt on 23 and Goldsmith letting high gun slip out of his grasp by being too casual with a pair on Station 5. From the scoreboard below it can be seen that some good consistent scores were shot on this day, which must auger well for the future of ISU Skeet in S.A. and ensure a very competitive series of eliminations.

THE ELEY REPORT

Bruce Southgate traversed the Tasman with the squad of Australians to have a crack at the New Zealand Championships and ensure all the shooters had access to the ELEY cartridges they had pre-ordered before their departure. Full reports of the fortunes are contained elsewhere in the journal but Bruce reports that, although only 48 Australians participated, the Aussies gave the Kiwis the usual stiff competition they have come to expect, with Neal Berry winning the Double Rise and Bill Iles winning the Ball Trap.

Considering the Aussies didn't make up even 10% of the shooters, this is an excellent performance.

However, the Kiwis were as competitive as ever and have promised revenge at our forthcoming Melbourne Nationals.

★ ★ ★ ★

David Henthorn, ex W.A., N.S.W. representative for ELEY, heads up Ammunition House, the selling arm for ELEY and CAC cartridges in New Zealand, and has transferred some of our innovations here into the "Shaky Isles" as well as introducing some ideas of his own, one of these being ELEY playing cards which were the cause of many interesting comments, as our friendly opposition found them very entertaining during the quieter moments of the competition.

★ ★ ★ ★

The reports on our new range of Trap shells continue to flood in and all are very pleasing.

There have been many approving comments on the power of the Super Trap 1350 and its apparent superiority over its predecessor. This coupled with the new cosmetics — longer brass, ultra seal head, knurl ring around the brass, and the modern style pack (designed by a well-known clay target shooter) on all the new range, has the shooting fraternity bubbling.

ELEY THE RECORD BREAKERS

Well-known Kiwi clay buster, Graham Geeter, recently broke the "Guinness Book of World Records" record for the amount of clay targets broken in "1" hour, with an amazing score of 2,356 using the new ELEY Special Trap 1250.

ELEY would like to again congratulate Graham on this tremendous achievement and would hope that this record will stand for some considerable time.

WINCHESTER WALLY — QUALITY CONTROL IN GOOD HANDS

by Pat Browne

---

On a trip through Geelong recently I had a chance to renew acquaintances with the whizz kid of quality control at Winchester, Wally Penberthy. Wally and I have been comparing notes on shotshells for many years but this was the first time I had got the chance to have a natter to him face to face for a long time.

I took the chance to wander through the extensive manufacturing facility with Wally to see what had happened since the last time we had met.

There were many changes as the big W geared up for the supply of ammunition and components into the 80's.

I was keen to have a look at quality control, perhaps being a bit suspicious that the boys from Geelong may let their guard down a bit, being the only manufacturer of ammunition in Australia.

But, things are OK, or as Ross Baillie put it, "we wouldn't dare let anything shoddy out of this factory, Wally would crucify us".

In a tour lasting several hours I was introduced to the staff, which I must admit had not changed a lot since the last time I had visited, and shown in great detail the present manufacturing facility.

It seemed just a lot bigger since the last visit.

But the purpose was quality control and it was this subject I broached to the knowledgeable Wally Penberthy as we inspected.

Standing in the inwards store I posed the question as to where quality control starts. "It starts", he said, "right from the very beginning".

"We set very rigid specifications to manufacturers and suppliers and every component that comes into this factory is checked, right from the manufacturer, through the whole of our manufacturing stage to the completed job".

He has a very pragmatic approach to this form of control and when quizzed on the quality of materials supplied said that there are occasionally problems but with an uncompromising approach, suppliers are inclined to "lift their game."

In the dazzling array of machinery, dominated by the incredible 'Minster' forming press, with countless millions of rimfire and shotshell heads being formed each day I posed the question of how on earth could one keep track of any mistakes.

It seems there is a way, but I will let Wally tell you in his own style, he makes it sound simple. To the bloke who pulls the trigger it seemed very complicated.

"Let's take the brass strip", he said, "it comes from the supplier, rolled to our specifications of width and thickness together with its metallurgical properties such as grain structure, properties of elongation and tensile strength. Our main concern is the hardness, grain structure and malleabil-

• Ross Baillie, Managing Director of Winchester Australia Pty. Ltd.

ity. We test rigidly for these as malleability is critical in the forming process".

"Annealing is the all important step in all the forming operations together with washing to keep the operation smooth and trouble free. In the various cupping and drawing operations throughout the forming of rimfire cases and shotshell brass heads particular attention is paid to this process. We test after each batch is done".

"If we don't, in ageing the brass will break down and crack around the rim, or even in the wall of the case".

That is the metallurgical side, but what about the physical side of actual measurement and tolerances was my next question. We were standing by a machine thumping away and punching out a simple battery cup.

The machine operator had a set of gauges and was random checking the cups as they dropped into the tray. There were no less than eight gauging operations for this small component alone. As we walked through it seemed that all machines had the same strict control.

Wally enlarged on this, "In the brass section there is one man in each shift who actually checks the work. The components are in small work baskets of 10,000 pieces. He gauges every basket and checks closely for scratches or other defects that would indicate a die is failing. It is he who OK's the batch for production".

"Checking at all stages of production is the name of the game around here, and it makes sense. With such high rates of production the failure of a single operation can cause a big loss in material and time".

With what I saw, the good Mr Penberthy was not kidding.

Into the plastic section and the same care was evident. Plastic used in the majority of shotshells in Australia is a high density polyethelene. Winchester is the only company that uses this type of material, it is manufactured by the parent company Olin and they bring it in to the country in huge shipments.

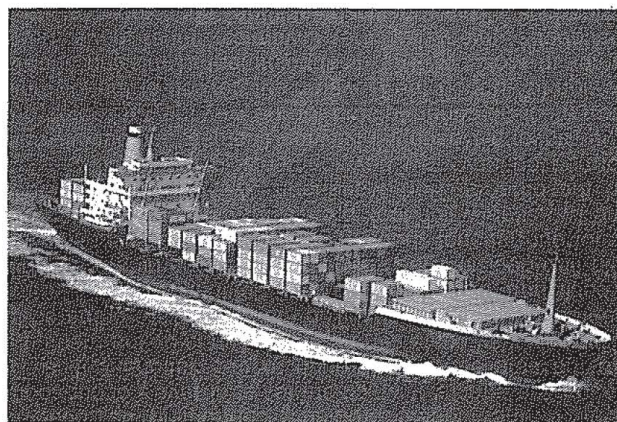

"Testing in the early stages here is important", said Wally, "we test for Melt Index and Intrinsic Viscosity, both are important in all stages of the forming process. After testing we blend it and add colour before it goes to the injection moulder to make the pre-form".

"Checking starts immediately, all measurements from the pre-form are checked, we even weigh and cut some open to check for air pockets. This way we are always sure that only the best is getting through to the compression forming process".

It is at this stage that the shotshell case changes from a piece of weak plastic moulding to a hard resilient case. It is also the time that the very important tests take place. Wally again..."Samples are taken from the compression forming machine and tested for tensile strength both longitudinally and around the circumference. This is the critical test for the reloadability of the case".

"You know", he said, "compression forming is a remarkable process. An injected, moulded case would have a tensile strength of 6,000 psi but after the forming we can get this strength up as high as 22,000 psi, quite a big jump".

Wads are injection moulded in low density polythene and these are regularly gauged before being released to the loading room.

Down with the heavies in the lead department the quality control checking continues. Incoming lead is checked for antimony content and then samples are run through a spectrographic analysis to see that everything is as it should be. There are a couple of types of lead, one for shot which is a little harder than the lead for bullets.

From the shot making machine diameter and roundness are checked and tolerances are such that diameters are kept to within .002" of size.

Tighter still on the swaging side for buckshot and bullets. Bullets are very strictly checked for band diameter and cannellure size and are kept to within .0005" of size. That's tight!

Primers are in a different section and the sophistication of checking equipment makes the eyes bulge. The pure logistics of primer testing is just a bit mind boggling.

Making a primer or priming a rimfire is a long and involved process with various ageing stages. Is also a touchy operation that requires a lot of care. Thus the testing is exhaustive.

In a typical run of rimfire cases a drop test is conducted every two hours and 200 cases are tested. In practical terms it means that somebody has to, physically, fire over 1000 shells a day and write the result of every test down on the quality control log.

Everything comes together in the loading rooms for both rimfire and shotshells. More testing for rim thickness, rim diameter, overall length and chamber gauging occurs as the brass heads are put on the shotshells, they are skived and the primers are inserted.

Rimfires are loaded in plates of 1025 and one cartridge is tested from every plate. Powder weights are checked hourly and there are spot checks for missed loads and double loads. After crimping there is a pull test, a check for accuracy and a final check for waxing before packing.

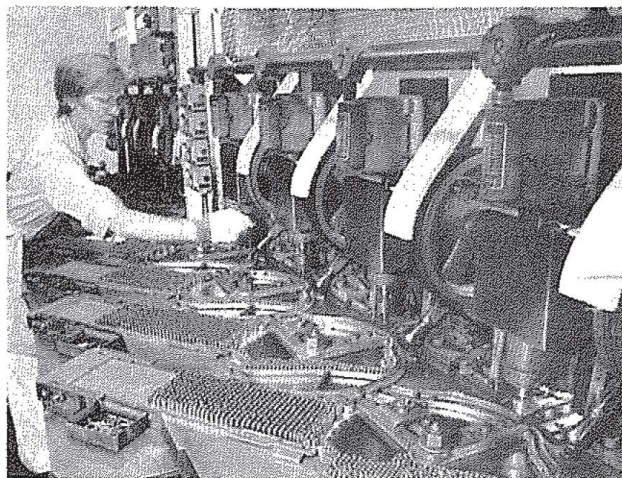

On the shotshell side all the failsafe controls are built into the loading machines. But as the loading progresses regular samples are taken to check for shot and powder weights. A close eye is kept on the machine to see that the right components are going into the right cases. All specifications are physically checked about 5 minutes after the run starts and then this standard must be maintained right throughout that production run.

Into the ballistic lab we wandered and the range of tests here are quite bewildering. This is the nitty — gritty of the testing and quality control. If the product performs here, the work done earlier has been worthwhile.

There is a set-up at the start of every manufacturing run to mid-specifications. Twice per shift then a sample of 10 cartridges is tested for pressure and velocity. As a guideline SAAMI Specifications are used but individual brands are set to the company's own specifications which are considerably tighter than SAAMI which are plus or minus 50 fps.

"We keep our field loads to within plus or minus 30 fps and trap loads to plus or minus 20 fps and we seem to have no trouble because of the trouble we go to in each stage of manufacture", said Wally.

Rimfire testing is a lot more sophisticated. A computer controlled piezo instrument gives pressure and velocity readings for each individual shell fired and then a batch summary including an average, high, low and an extreme variation figure.

"With rimfire accuracy", said Wally, "in each batch we fire five by ten shot strings and keep the extreme spread to .8", centre to centre. With modern manufacturing we have no problems doing it".

Function testing is important as well. Every couple of hours a packet of shells is taken from each loading machine and fired deliberately through different brands of guns. They have a very broad range to choose from. This is to check for light recoil, popped primers, split cases etc. etc. In fact they try to duplicate the sort of problems, you as a user, might encounter.

The record on the wall when we went through was that they had not had a baddie for six months.

I noticed a freezer and an oven was informed that this also was a function test.

Standard test on the cold side is to bring the shells down to 0°F for 16 hours and then fire them. On the warm side they bring a batch up to 65°C for five days then inspect and fire them.

Before the product finally goes to warehousing the final audit checks are made to see that the right brand is on the shell and they are in the correct packets and cases.

I must admit that I had never really thought much about quality control in ammunition manufacture. But having had a very close look at it, I now realise that it has a lot to do with manufacturing process. In fact a very large percentage of time is spent in ensuring that what we feed to our favourite fowling piece is the best that can be produced.

Winchester's Wally is one who takes his job very seriously and I can quite happily report that at Geelong quality control is alive and well and its in very good hands.

1981 AZZURRI TWO DAY CARNIVAL SHOOT

February 7th and 8th were the dates for Azzurri's 1981 Two Day Carnival. Featured over the two days was the State Walk-up Championship and the State Deauville Doubles Championship. 90 shooters attended and all enjoyed a good time even though the Azzurri breeze, fast becoming notorious, was the only thing to mar the shoot.

Event 1 on Saturday was a 30 target Double Barrel event. Collie shooter Max Cubic took "A" grade. Barry Steele (Barrow Is) won "B" while Geoff West (Wagin) won "C" grade.

The State Walk-up Championship was the second event. Initially it looked like being a one horse race with Azzurri President (and soon to be crowned W.A.C.T.A. President) Murray Alexander shooting a good 18/20. At that stage he was 3 targets clear of anybody else. Then arch-rival Tom Vodden struck with 18/20. Tom went on to win the shoot off with Murray second and Orest Ando third. Thanks to Eley for the terrific clock which accompanied the red championship sash. Last event Saturday was the Remington Handicap with a tremendous 572 BDL rifle for the top handicap man. Azzurri shooter Mike Mascio proved he was No. 1 with 25/25. Bevan Vodden also shot 25/25 but went down in the shoot-off to Mike. Bevan's face would appear a few more times at trophy presentation time.

Sunday dawned a bit cooler and windier and it appeared a race to beat the wind.

• Gary Gillespie (Boustead Australia) right, is presenting Mike Mascio with the winner's trophy after Mike's win in the Remington Handicap. Azzurri Club President, Murray Alexander is at the rear.

Event 1, Sunday, was the Wanneroo District Double Barrel Championship. Azzurri shooters Paul Vivante and Bert Geddes shot possibles. It looked as if Azzurri would have a sash to break the drought. Then the possibly inevitable happened and well known Robin Bailey shot a possible in the very last squad of the event. Robin went on to win from Paul and Bert.

(from Greg Melvin)

• Tim Catling (right), has his say after he and Charlie Ellies had won the W.A. Deauville Doubles Championship.

The most enjoyed event over the whole week-end was the State Deauville Doubles Championship. A large number of shooters showed their hard work and practice by choosing their partners the best part of 5 minutes before the event.

Sunday's joke was that a person with a seeing-eye dog and his partner who is hard of hearing won the Doubles. To top that off Charlie Ellies only shot the one event for the whole weekend. Charlie I know wears a hearing aid and I don't know about Tim Catling, but they shot well to win the State Championship from another well established pair of Wayne Pilkington and Clem Bertini.

The last event of the shoot was the Winchester Cartridge Handicap. The 17-19 mark was the best meterage for this event with 1st, 2nd and 3rd places coming from that group.

Well known shooter Roy Holtfreter showed he badly needed the shells (well he must have had some reason for winning) by winning from 19 metres. Second was Clayton Hyder with Azzurri Captain Armando Larini 3rd.

Overall a good shoot with country and Perth shooters sharing trophies. The wind ruined the intended barbecue but it didn't deter some from indulging in a drop of the amber fluid.

Azzurri thanks both shooters and sponsors for their support.

FLOODS NO DETERRENT TO CLAY BUSTING

Gladstone Gun Club, in its continuing endeavour to provide shooters with the best competition in Central Queensland, did just that when it followed up its Sunday, January 25th monthly shoot with a full program of intense competition the next day, Australia Day.

The program, which consisted of four, 50 target events, was the brainchild of club Competition Manager, Jim Elliot and was designed to give maximum competition to shooters preparing themselves for the New Zealand and the Australian Nationals and in particular to Gladstone Club's four State Team Members, Danny Casagrande, Jim Elliot, Laurie Tselepy and Ewan Young.

Attendance over the two days was slightly less than the club had hoped for, mainly due to the relatively spur of the moment decision to conduct such a program (just 13 days preparation), the Australia Day promotion on the Gold Coast and the fact that Queensland, from Rockhampton north, was flood bound.

Even so, some 67 clay busters representing Barcaldine, Central Burnett, Dysart, Gemfields, Mt. Isa, Rockhampton, Sunshine Coast and Nine Mile Clubs nominated for one or both days.

The significant achievements of the program were, in spite of the interruptions on Sunday with some very heavy showers, 140 targets were shot over the two traps from 10.00 am till 4.00 pm, on Monday 200 targets were released to each competitor between 8.45 am and 3.00 pm and over the nine events, no fewer than 21 individuals won prizes.

Generally a most enjoyable two days of clay busting was had by those who participated and the program, from the Club's point of view, was a success, both promotionally and financially. In fact, in view of the reports from the various clubs regarding some drop off in attendance, Monday's program was an interesting exercise in order to gain some indication of shooters acceptance of such a concept. Costs were kept to a minimum with total nominations for the 200 targets, $36.00 (i.e. 18 cents per clay). Obviously, such a program with reduced nominations has to be run on a cash division basis, (unless the club is confident of large attendances), apart from Overall, Intermediate and Front Marker High Gun prizes, which were provided by the Club as an incentive.

As a result of the keen competition, the cash was distributed to no less than fourteen competitors.

Competition pressure during the four event Monday section was right on from the first event as Bill Scarborough, in the second squad, put a 49 on the board. However, it wasn't good enough as Jim Elliot showed with "a possible" to take the money.

It was Elliot again in the single barrel with 49/50 even though he was kept honest with 48s from club President Lindsay Dalton and regular visitor from Central Burnett, Arnie Williams.

(from Club Publicity Officer)

Scarborough was again looking good in the points event as he blasted his first 47, not even looking like needing a second barrel, however the 48th slipped away unmarked by his number 7s, he managed to contain the final two for a very creditable 147/49. Danny Casagrande gave him a fright with 146/49 to take out the "A" Grade.

A team shoot was held in conjunction with event three and the combination of Scarborough, Coronas, Hannah and Dalton were too good for the rest, dropping only thirteen targets between them out of the 200, to win the Million Dollar Casket ticket, kindly donated by Jim and Jenny Elliot.

The final event of the day was the 25 Pair Double Rise, which was won outright by Jim Elliot with 45/50. Elliot also won the Overall High Gun with 284/300.

If there had been an encouragement award, it surely would have gone to regular club supporter, Noleen Herbert. Slightly built Noleen, who stands about 5ft tall in her shooting shoes, fronted up for the full 200 targets and although shooting 3 metres behind her handicap, managed a personally satisfying 199/300 for the day and went home with the Front Marker High Gun trophy for her effort.

The most important point to come out of the whole exercise was, if competitors are prepared to accept lesser prizes, clubs can, by programming "big target" events, give a lot of shooters, a lot of shooting, at minimum cost and by applying a one or two cents margin to cost of clays, pick up a dollar or two for every 100 targets thrown.

While we are talking about Gladstone, the club is extremely grateful to Bill and Jenny Nioa of Nioa Arms who have very generously donated two Beretta under and overs as prizes for their home clubs' annual two day Easter Carnival.

In their continuing effort to strengthen their financial position in order to provide better shooting facilities in the area, Gladstone Club is very much indebted to all of the sponsors who have contributed so magnificently over the five years the club has been operating.

In addition to Nioa Arms this Easter, other local firms, Ewan Young Painting — painting contractors, F. C. Higginson and Company — insurance loss assessors, Millard Tyre Service — tyre wholesalers and retailers and Central Queensland Real Estate, have also lent their support, bringing the trophy and prize value to very close to $3,000.00.

Gladstones Easter Shoot each year is part of the annual Harbour Festival attractions — one and a half weeks of festivities — culminating in the finish of the Brisbane to Gladstone Yacht Race.

So, if you are not going to the Nationals in Melbourne, come to Gladstone while the "hotshots", Elliot, Casagrande, Young, Tselepy etc, are away, have a ball and maybe even go home with a Beretta. (see full page advertisement in this issue).

ANNUAL REPORT and FINANCIAL STATEMENT 1980

PRESIDENT'S REPORT TO THE 1981 ANNUAL MEETING

We have now entered what has been called the "Challenge of the Eighties". The first year has certainly been an interesting one starting with the Perth Nationals. We had a large American contingent, some of whom showed us we still have a thing or two to learn, particularly in shooting double rise targets. We had the drama in the Double Barrel Event, but all in all I believe a very successful National.

We received the resignation of our President, Mr Ern Hawkins, who has always been a popular figure around the traps and the reaction of shooters voicing their concern substantiates this. Some members are of the opinion that Ern's resignation was caused by the new A.C.T.A. Constitution. This is not correct.

A lot of thanks must go to our Vice President, Mr Laurie Connors, who took over the reins of Acting President until the September Executive Meeting.

I was successful in my nomination to become President of our Association — a position I am indeed proud to accept. I realise it will not be an easy task to maintain the high standard set by my predecessor, whose leadership has assisted us to gain the National recognition we now enjoy. However, with the help of the Executive Committee and the support of you, the members, I believe we can still continue to grow from strength to strength.

One of the biggest problems confronting us today is inflation, the effects of which are felt at all levels of our sport, from the smallest Club through to the National Office.

The only way costs can be kept down is by the members volunteering their services. Too many of us are prepared to sit back and watch the 'too few' do the work.

No firm decision has yet been made regarding a suitable site for our national shooting ground. At the present time we have two sites, which look promising. One at Coffs Harbour and the other at Port Macquarie. We will keep you fully informed on any new developments in this area.

Our National Coach, Mr Newton Thomas, and our Olympic Team must be congratulated for the way they accepted our decision to support the Government boycott of the Olympic Games in Moscow. The disappointment of missing such a prestigious event as the Olympics, must have been tremendous. This unselfish attitude and show of true sportsmanship makes me proud of our sportsmen.

Those of you who have visited our National Office will agree a change was long overdue. Hence our move to new premises away from the city and allowing us more room and better parking, which you will agree gives us a happier and brighter outlook and should present a better image for our sport.

Your Executive Committee must be congratulated in the way they accept the work load placed upon them and the time and effort these dedicated people give in carrying out these duties can only make the "Challenge of the Eighties" — the success of the Eighties.

Thank you.

G. R. PORTER.

ANNUAL REPORT 1980

Last year's report concluded with the catch phrase — "THE CHALLENGE OF THE EIGHTIES."

1980 has certainly been a challenge with economic pressures creating noticeable obstacles in all areas of sports administration.

Particular difficulties occurred in terms of liquidity, and spiralling operating costs have led to a situation where only a very modest surplus has resulted from the year's operations.

However, your Executive Committee has shown great courage and has continued to manage the Association's affairs so as all the planned projects have been completed.

After many years of "backing and filling," the Association finally completed constitutional reform which recognises the existence of State Associations, which are now operating as Sub Committees of the National Association.

At the same time, the management of the Association was streamlined, which included the creation of a number of specialist sub-committees. By the end of 1980, recognisable benefits had occurred from these sub-committees.

Effective communications continue to be of vital importance and there is still room for better utilisation of the pages of Clay Target Shooting News, especially for the purpose of debating policies and other major topics.

It has become traditional for the Association's annual report to address itself to certain specific areas of activity, and this year will be no different.

1. International Competition

The Association managed to squeeze seven international competitions into its shooting calendar.

Included in the list were:

(a) Mackintosh International Teams' Match — this is a postal competition and was again won by Australia, with a score of 7353. This was the seventh consecutive win for Australia.

(b) International Trap Match, conducted during the Australian Trap and Skeet Championships. This match drew teams from U.S.A., New Zealand and Australia, and was won by Australia with a score of 241-250.

The Executive Committee wishes to express its gratitude to Air New Zealand and the Australian Government, whose support made the project possible.

(c) International Skeet Match. This match is a regular feature of trans Tasman competition and is conducted as part of the National Championships program. (Because of confusion between the A.C.T.A. and the New Zealand Clay Target Association, agreement has now been reached that the skeet match will be known as the Glenn Trophy Skeet Match, and will be conducted in Australia in even numbered years. It will be staged in New Zealand in odd-numbered years). Australia won the event with a score of 117-125.

(d) Glenn Cup for D.T.L. teams from New Zealand and Australia. Australia selected a team including Tim Catling (WA), Rex Northcott (NSW), Don Beelitz (SA), Richard Dean (Qld), Tony Bradshaw (Vic), and John Murphy (Tas).

The match was held at Christchurch and resulted in a tied score between New Zealand and Australia. As Australia was defending the Cup, it retained possession. (As a result of the agreement reached with the Kiwis, and referred to earlier, the Glenn Cup for D.T.L. teams will be contested in Australia in the years in which the corresponding skeet match is staged in New Zealand).

This team was sponsored by Air New Zealand, which has proved to be one of the Association's strongest supporters.

(e) South Pacific Regional Championships. This series was held in Christchurch and catered for rifle and pistol events, as well as Olympic Trench and ISU Skeet.

Australia entered a full squad, which included: Manager - Newton Thomas; Trap - Greg Long, John Maxwell, Terry Rumbel and Jim Ellis; Skeet - Graeme Boyd, Ian Hale, John Summers and Alex Crikis.

The team performed extremely well. The Trap Teams match resulted in an Australian Gold Medal (score 561-600) and Ellis won the individual Gold with a score of 191.

In Skeet, Australia won the teams' Gold, scoring 551-600. John Woolley (New Zealand) won the individual Gold, leading Silver Medallist Alex Crikis of Australia home by four points.

(f) "Home Countries International". This is a match for three-man D.T.L. teams, and was created at Australia's request, to accommodate a team which toured England during July. The Australian team consisted of Kevin Loy (Captain), Ken Stevens and Ken Lowry. (Doug Smith was originally selected, but was forced to withdraw because of business commitments).

Five countries entered the tournament, England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland and Australia. The match was won by Scotland — Australia finished in fourth place.

(g) Thailand International. In line with the Association's policy of trying to find international competition arenas that are conveniently located in terms of cost, a squad was entered in the First Thailand International Clay Pigeon Championship.

Mr Robert Buchan managed the squad which included Greg Long (Vic), John Maxwell (NSW), and Ray Collinson (Qld), all of whom shot Olympic Trench, and Graeme Boyd (NSW), who shot skeet and trap.

Boyd shot 190 in the skeet, and was a member of the Gold Medal winning team.

In the trap teams' event, Australia finished equal second, but lost the medal chance by losing on a countback. However, John Maxwell brought home the Bronze Medal in the individual section.

There have been two features of the Association's "international year". The first was the Moscow Olympic Games controversy, where your Association established a policy of supporting the Australian Government in its decision to oppose Australian participation. The subsequent rift caused within the Australian Shooting Association by another affiliated group deciding to compete will take some time to heal.

Special mention must be made of the severe personal sacrifice made in the interest of clay target shooting by those shooting athletes who were selected to represent Australia in the 1980 Olympics.

The terrible waste of the competitor's time and money in training for this event is not fully appreciated by most, and it is certain that no-one can understand the personal effects that withdrawal from the official team created. Newton Thomas, Terry Rumbel, Jim Ellis and Ian Hale are the heroes of our sport due to their unselfish decision.

The second feature, and one of a much more pleasant nature, was the overseas performances of skeet shooter Alex Crikis. Crikis competed in the Pesta Sukan match in Singapore in August to record his third successive win in that contest.

He then attended the Thailand match, and won that outright, to make him a real hero in the South East Asian area.

2. National Competition

The first "Nationals" in the Eighties was held at Perth Gun Club in March. The attendance was the biggest ever in Western Australia, and included a large contingent of shooters from U.S.A. together with the traditional strong entry from New Zealand. Wales was also represented.

The Western Australian Clay Target Association is to be commended for the standard of the match. The Executive Committee also wishes to record its appreciation for the strong support given by trophy donors.

Later in the year, the Cunderdin Gun Club was the venue for the National Olympic Trench and ISU Skeet Championships. This club did a truly remarkable job of preparing for and staging the match and it is unfortunate that a strike affecting airline schedules had the effect of reducing the entries received from the Eastern States.

1980 National Champions are:

- Olympic Trench - John Harris, W.A.
- International Skeet - Ian Hale, Vic.
- Standard Skeet - George Biggs, Vic.
- Double Barrel - Russell Mark, Vic.
- Single Barrel - Gerry Messenger, N.Z.
- Australia/New Zealand Trap - Darryl Weise, W.A.
- Double Rise - Joe Loitz, U.S.A.

The Champion of Champions was Doug Smith of Queensland and the winner of the Grand Australian Handicap was Lyn Curtis of Victoria.

• Richard Dean, captain of the Queensland Trap Team, which was the first winner of the A.C.T.A. Cup. The competition was held for the first time, at the National Championship in Perth.

3. Executive Committee

A number of new faces appeared on the Executive Committee during the year; these resulted from retirements and the effects of the acceptance of the new Articles of Association.

Those members who were forced to retire because of the reduction in size of the Committee were: from Victoria - Kevin Dobson and John Bull; from Queensland - Noel Massey and Bev Grice; from New South Wales - Keith Sim and Harry Somers.

Other retirements were those of Spencer Angel (Queensland), Don Taylor (Tasmania) and Len Toyne (Tasmania).

On behalf of registered shooters throughout Australia, I wish to express sincere appreciation for the contribution that these people had so unselfishly made to the development of the sport.

The new faces are: Len Bird (New South Wales), Paul Cains (Tasmania), Ray Mason (Tasmania) and the first members to represent Northern Territory, Kevin Bowring and Bill Horner.

There was a change of President mid year, when, after a term of three years, Ern Hawkins retired. Ron Porter of Brisbane was elected to fill the position.

Ron has proved to be a very active and effective chief executive, and has already projected a fresh approach to sport leadership.

Don Taylor of Tasmania, was awarded a Life Membership of the Association for his service to the Executive Committee.

4. Government Grants

1980 was the second year of a three and a half year period during which the Australian Government is assisting in the funding of a full time Director of Coaching. The grant has been increased from $20,000 per year to $22,000 per year.

Other grants received from the Australian Government included:

- (a) Administrative grant of $3000.
- (b) An amount of $2000 which assisted the Association to stage the International Trap Match in Perth.
- (c) Assistance amounting to $5000 for special coaching projects.
- (d) An amount of $6,900 to help defray the expenses incurred in fielding trap and skeet teams overseas.

The Association's management is deeply appreciative of this assistance, and extends a vote of thanks to Minister for Home Affairs and Environment, the Hon. R. J. Ellicott and his enthusiastic band of Sport and Recreation Division officers, based in Canberra.

During the year, the Association became deeply involved in a "feud" over the need for funding assistance to improve the Belmont Shooting Complex at Brisbane in preparation for the 1982 Commonwealth Games.

Towards the end of the year, the position improved when the Federal Government announced a facilities upgrade program, part of which involves Belmont.

Additionally, State Associations are rapidly learning to "play the political game", with a resulting increase in the level of funding assistance coming from State Government sources.

5. National Coaching Council

The year commenced dramatically for the Coaching Council when its Chairman, Newton Thomas was awarded an Order of Australia Medal in the 1980 Australia Day Honours List.

During the year, the Council's first major coaching aid came into being when an integrated set of coloured slides together with a taped commentary was completed. The theme for this aid is trap shooting, and the Council is proceeding with a similar aid to feature skeet shooting.

Two resignations were received from Councillors during the year — 'Pud' Burgess retired as New South Wales

• Newton Thomas O.A.M.

Coaching Director, and his place has been filled by "Barney" Rooke of Wagga; Bob Morgan resigned as Tasmanian Director, and has not yet been replaced.

Tragedy struck late in the year, when Newton Thomas had to retire because of ill health. He required open heart surgery, and a heart valve was replaced.

Few people will ever understand how vital Newton's contribution to the development of clay-busting was, especially in relation to the creation and implementation of the novice training scheme.

Supported by his Council colleagues, and with the assistance of Mrs Val Beitzel of the Confederation of Australian Sport Coaches Assembly, Newton prepared the blueprint of what is known as the level one coaching accreditation scheme.

The scheme was approved by the official Australian Coaching Council, which makes clay target shooting one of only 26 sports to have achieved this distinction.

A generous pat on the back must go to all those zone and club coaches, who either have passed or are undergoing comprehensive training to achieve a pass in the accreditation program.

The real challenge confronting the Association as it enters 1981 is to find a person capable of filling the role of National Coaching Director.

6. Administration

Administratively, 1980 has been a year of transition, in the sense that the Association has successfully changed its computer operations which were bureau based, to use of "in house" equipment.

The system involves the use of a "numbers cruncher" owned by Control Data Australia, to which the Association connects, when necessary, by Telecom line. A hard copy terminal is located in the National Office, and can be used for transmitting data AND receiving reports.

Another success story relates to the development of a trading operation. Towards the end of 1980 mail order operations picked up considerably and made a useful contribution to the year's trading result.

New products are constantly under review, and big news will break at the 1981 Nationals.

7. Membership

It is pleasing to report that despite the cost pressures that continue to affect all sports' growth, the Association's membership for 1980 was marginally up on 1979.

The introduction of pro-rata registration fees proved to be successful and almost 500 new registrations were written in the new category.

One of the most interesting aspects of the 1980 membership figures is the increase in family membership — that is "second family members" and juniors. It is to be hoped that this trend continues, as a membership mix that has a strong family base is certain to be more sustaining.

The number of clubs affiliated during 1980 was 276. New clubs to be welcomed to the "A.C.T.A. family" during the year were:

Moyhu and District (Vic)	Bateman's Bay (N.S.W.)
Tom Price C.T.C. (W.A.)	Noarlunga City (S.A.)
Southern Cross (W.A.)

8. State Associations

One of the highlights of the State Association scene in 1980 was the conference attended by most of the State Association Presidents and Secretaries.

As a FIRST, the exercise must be considered a resounding success, and it is to be hoped that the 1981 edition will be bigger and better.

By the end of 1980, $9870 had been returned to State Associations in the form of per capita grants. This forms a useful base on which States should build their annual budget, and it is encouraging to see the extent to which States are preparing development plans.

The Queensland Clay Target Association is setting the pace and already is in receipt of State Government grants which enables it to provide payments to the Secretary and the State Coaching Director.

9. Legislation

Throughout 1980, the "firearms controls" lobby seems to have quietened somewhat. However, its place has been filled with a vengeance by the "stop recreational noise" do-gooders' efforts.

In Victoria, the position has worsened to the point where one of our sister organisations, the Victorian Field and Game Association finds itself having to defend its right to operate shooting grounds in a case that is listed for hearing in the Supreme Court of Victoria.

Every effort must be made to protect the shooting sports from these unreasonable attacks.

10. Promotion

The Executive Committee policy of encouraging its senior office bearers to travel extensively to promote Association policies has been continued.

Due to the changes that took place with the ACTA Presidency during 1980, Vice President Laurie Connors has been forced to accept a great part of the burden and appeared in every state except Queensland and Tasmania.

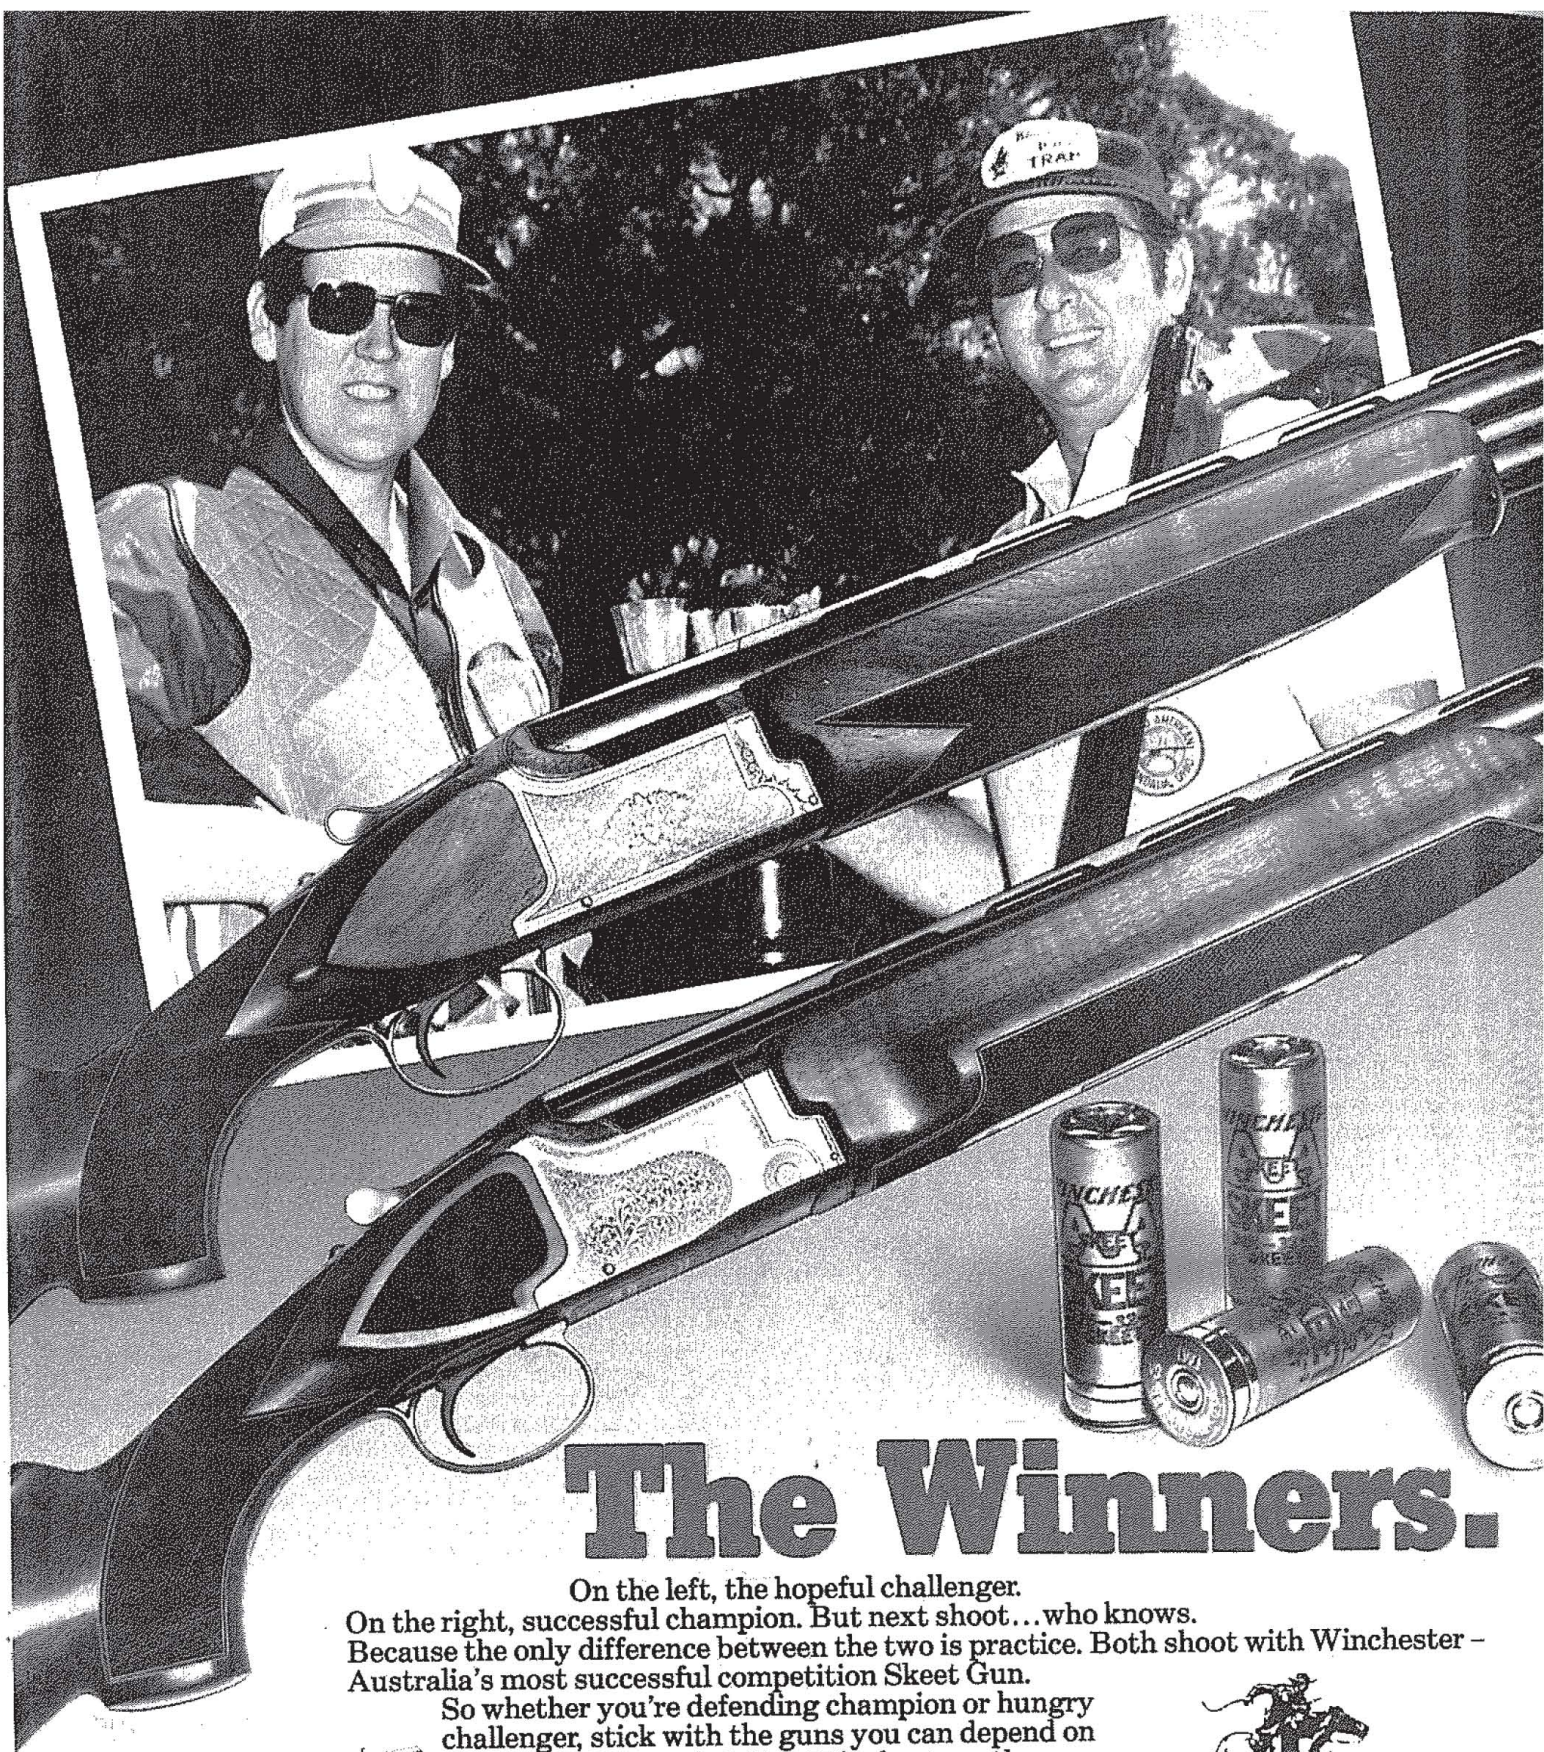

Since coming to office, as President, Ron Porter has worked hard to continue the policy.

However, due to the withdrawal of Ansett assistance, which hopefully is only temporary, the aspect of promotional travel will be closely monitored during 1981.

Around mid-year, the Association acted as convenor and organiser for a Discussion Workshop conducted by the Australian Shooting Association.

The project was an overwhelming success, and attracted an attendance in excess of 100 delegates, representing EVERY facet of the shooting sports in Australia.

A re-structured and revitalised Australian Shooting Association is the likely long term outcome of the workshop.

11. National Headquarters

At the end of 1980, the Association's Administrative Unit moved from 37 Swanston Street, Melbourne, where it had been located for 16 years, to a new site at 8 Main Street, Blackburn.

Management is pursuing the possibility of purchasing the property, with a view to developing the site as a commercial income producing proposition.

Meanwhile, progress with selection of a suitable location for the establishment of a National Shooting Ground has been slow, mainly due to continually changing circumstances.

What has become known as the "Val Paral" project in the Australian Capital Territory is still alive and well, and the Association has had discussions with Shire Councils at Dubbo, Wagga and Coffs Harbour. More recently, an approach has been received from the Port Macquarie Shire Council.

Investigations are continuing, particularly in the Southern Australian area.

13. Acknowledgements

This is the heading that many report writers steer clear of. The reason is the fear of accidentally overlooking somebody or something.

Clay target shooting is very fortunate because of the wide range of support it receives from a wide range of supporters.

• The successful Victorian Junior Trap Team.

These include:

- Ron Porter, National President.
- Management Committee.
- Executive Committee.
- Sub Committees.
- National Coaching Council and coaching personnel.
- State Associations.
- Zone Councils.
- Club Committees.
- Registered Shooters.
- Australian Government.
- State Governments.
- Australian Olympic Federation.
- Australian Shooting Association.
- All commercial sponsors.
- All travel advisers.

A special mention must be made of the continuing support the Association receives from Air New Zealand and Jetset Tours.

It is of interest to note that towards the end of the year, domestic airlines and the Federal Department of Transport combined to effectively stop the various types of assistance available to national sporting bodies, with the consequence that the substantial assistance that clay target shooting had enjoyed from Ansett Airlines of Australia has disappeared. Negotiations directed at re-instating the benefits are continuing.

14. Conclusions

As we conclude the first year of the eighties decade, it appears that we are in very serious danger of making winning more important than participating.

Major tournaments are great for the sport, specially those that are heavily sponsored, BUT there must be a balance. Fun shooting is what the majority of clay busters are looking for and club managements and State Associations (and the National Executive Committee) must recognise this need.

1981 will see continuing changes, one of the major ones being the re-establishment of the Australian Shooting Association as a major force in the sports management area.

Another major development in 1981 will be the conduct of the largest shooting tournament in Australia's history. This will be the Australian Trap and Skeet Championships, to be held at Melbourne Gun Club, Lilydale, Victoria.

Maybe, we will even see a firm decision on the subject of the National Headquarters.

NOEL J. SOUTHEY,
Executive Director.

4. Ammortisation of Computer Programing and Software Costs - $2,064

At the beginning of 1980, the Association transferred its computer operation from a bureau based system to a system in which a terminal in the National Office is linked by Telecom to a major computer located at Knoxfield.

The development of new programs for this new system cost $6,190 which will be ammortised over three years.

The first portion ($2,064) has been written off against 1980 operations. The balance appears in the Balance Sheet as an Intangible Asset.

5. Computer Expenses - $17,498

This expense exceeds forecast by $2,498. This is due to high technical support costs due to problems experienced during the implementation stages.

7. Executive Committee Expenses - $14,665

Ansett Airlines of Australia made a significant contribution to the costs incurred in moving the Executive Committee and senior officers around Australia during the year.

In spite of this, the amount exceeded budget by $3665.

The Association has become involved in a number of areas where sub-committees have been created, consequently increasing operating costs.

8. Membership Aids - $5799

This amount represents the cost of "new member" badges, and includes $1072 which is the cost of badges issued in 1980 to members who first registered in 1979.

9. Analysis of International Costs - $3956

The Association undertook four international shooting projects in 1980. They were:

(a) A team, sponsored by Air New Zealand, was entered in the 1980 Glenn Cup Match, conducted as part of the New Zealand National Championships program.

The costs incurred by the Association were:

Assembly Costs - Domestic Air Fares & Accommodation	$ 798
International Airfares	2216

(b) Australia entered a nine-man team in the South Pacific Regional Championships, which were held in Christchurch, New Zealand, in March. The team consisted of four trap (Olympic Trench) and four skeet (ISU) shooters, plus a manager.

The costs incurred by the Association were:

Selection Panel Costs	$ 1059

(d) In December, in an interesting new initiative, the Association entered a squad of "rising stars" in an international match staged in Bangkok, Thailand.

The costs incurred were:

Uniforms	$ 238
Assembly Costs	446
International Domestic Airfares & Accommodation	6440
International Gift	31

Net Cost paid from General Operating Account

(e) Additionally, expenses have been incurred in early planning for 1982 Commonwealth Games $81.

The total costs of international competition for 1980 were $26,876, of which $7,372 was funded from Government and A.S.A. grants, $5,318 was donated, $2000 was contributed by team members, $8,230 was transferred from the General Travel Fund, and the balance of $3,956 paid from the general operating account.

10. National Championships Expenses - $1,118.

Following a claim lodged by the New South Wales Clay Target Association for a further payment from the proceeds of the 1979 National Championships held at Griffith, and after careful consideration by the Executive Committee, agreement was reached to pay a sum of $399 to the State.

The other costs shown - $719 - were incurred in connection with the staging of the 1980 Australian Olympic Trench and ISU Skeet Championships, which were held in Cunderdin W.A. in November.

AUSTRALIAN SHOOTING ASSOCIATION RESTRUCTURE

(Staff Writer)

Readers will possibly recall having seen a report on a project called the A.S.A. Discussion Workshop. The report appeared in the August and September issues of CTSN last year.

The workshop, attracted an attendance exceeding 100 people and included representatives of virtually every area of the sports shooting scene. A unanimous decision to arise from the project was that the Australian Shooting Association should look at its structure, with a view to making drastic changes aimed at making it more truly representative of the total group of sporting firearms users in Australia.

The first tangible result of the conference occurred when the Federal Government showed its interest in the reformation of the ASA, by offering a two-and-a-half year grant of $50 000 to fund the appointment of a full-time administrator.

The internal haemorrhage which was caused by the 1980 Olympic Games boycott controversy — which, by the way, probably caused more damage to the administrative structure of the shooting sports than any other — had the effect of severely delaying any action aimed at defining the "new image" of the ASA.

More recently, and again with Federal Government support (this time, a cheque for $5000) the Management Committee of the ASA has commissioned a professional consultant in the person of Mr Tony Power of Melbourne, to investigate the needs of the sport in relation to the role to be filled by a re-structured Australian Shooting Association.

Mr Power is well advanced with his assessment, and he is expected to have a detailed report completed by the end of April.

This report will be made available to all interested parties, and will lead to a decision-making conference to be held in Canberra on June 27, 1981.

At that time, it is hoped that existing and potential affiliates of the Australian Shooting Association will reach consensus on what is the best ultimate role for the ASA — best for shooting in Australia as a whole!

The Chairman of the ASA, Peter Papps recently said:

"The sport of shooting in Australia is currently at a cross-roads. For too many years the various elements in the sport have wanted to protect their own autonomy, sometimes to the point where consequences have unreasonably affected other shooting bodies".

"The sport can no longer accept this sort of luxury if it is to improve its public image. A show of total unity is necessary, and it is my opinion that the "new" ASA will represent such togetherness."

Meanwhile, various trade groups are showing a growing interest in being involved in the overall promotion of the shooting sports, and consultant Tony Power has been requested to consider making provision for an "Industry Division" in the re-vamped ASA.

A starting point would be effective State bodies representing firearms dealers and other commercial activities directly connected with sporting arms and ammunities.

Such a move would complement the growing number of State "umbrella" organisations being formed by the shooting groups.

The minimum recoil Franchi gas autos. Reload and fire, before you can blink.

520 Eldorado Gold: $555.00* 520: $380.00* 500: $349.00*

Such is the standard of gun-making skill at Franchi, that their mechanism can stand a complete firing and reloading cycle in less than 1/120,000th of a second.

Faster than a human eye can blink. Such is their perfection in design, that annoying noise and vibration are non-existent. At Franchi, guns are an art.

Safe, incredibly strong, well balanced and of elegant line. And there's the classic Franchi reliability too, which has made it the most widely owned gun of its kind in Europe. In short, it is the best that modern technology can offer and that the most demanding shooter can desire.

Three examples of Franchi's art may be found in Australia.

The Franchi 520 Eldorado Gold. The most highly prized of all Franchi automatics and a true artistic masterpiece.

The receiver is beautifully engraved with hunting scenes and hand inlaid bird figures in pure gold. This, combined with specially selected walnut stocks, make this gun a unique piece of high prestige.

The Franchi 520. Superbly finished and perfectly balanced, it has remarkable handling qualities. It combines elegance and beauty in design, with the reliability, fire-power and accuracy that you would expect from one of the world's great gun-makers. The 520 receiver is enriched by a handsome floral engraving.

The Franchi 500. A most affordable model featuring a black engraved receiver, and a new gas system with a shorter, freer piston. Its smooth silent action and minimum recoil reduces fatigue.

How the Franchi automatics work so beautifully.

Gas tight cylinder. Such is the precision of machining that perfect seals are achieved without the use of gaskets.

Easier loading. A new Franchi system makes loading faster and easier.

Isolated magazine. The magazine is completely isolated from the gas.

New improved system of gas expulsion. The spent gas used for loading is conveniently expelled through two vents located between the fore-end and the barrel.

Firing capacity. A Franchi automatic to normal specification fires up to 5 shots after reloading. An exclusive magazine extension will increase its firing potential to 7 shots.

Interchangeable barrels. A range of barrels is available offering various lengths and chokes. Thus the same gun can be used for different types of game.

It is also possible to fit an exclusive device, the "Pluri-Choke", which varies the choke on demand, and is able to cover all the degrees necessary for field and competition shooting.

Ease of assembly. A Franchi automatic is composed of four main units:

Disassembly and assembly is simple and requires no tools.

Proof. Every gun carries its own test certificate from the Italian National Proof House.

Franchi. Guns are our art.

AROUND THE TRAPS

(from Laurie Connors)

Because of my involvement with the administration of clay target shooting, as well as having a desire to spend time in assisting with the development of my own club, little time has been available for me to write this column.

After the 1980 Queen's Birthday weekend shoot at Mildura Gun Club, the members set out to re-position the skeet and trap layouts.

It was necessary to do this to provide the four skeet layouts required by the Victorian State Association to conduct the 1980 Skeet Carnival at the club in October 1980. Also the club administrators have a desire to run a four day skeet carnival in June 1981 over the Queen's Birthday weekend.

The club now has four skeet and four D.T.L. grounds all superimposed. D.T.L. trap houses are of brick and concrete with new concrete walkways marked to metric. Skeet houses are also constructed of brick. Allowance has been made to extend to six D.T.L. and six skeet layouts, should they be required in the future.

Even while the alterations were in progress, the club still found time to run a Charity shoot in aid of Karen Dellar, Mildura entrant for the Miss Australia Quest. Karen was raising funds for the Spastic Society of Victoria. The club was pleased it was able to assist and handed over a cheque for the sum of $1377.00 raised at the shoot.

DARWIN GUN CLUB. One of the great things about clay target shooting, is the fact one can travel anywhere, and still be likely to run into someone they know. Darwin Gun Club major shoot in August 1980 for me was no exception. Geoff Mark and Ted Lowery from Victoria, Peter Telford S.A. Alec Jamieson, N.S.W. to name a few I met who made the trip to attend the Darwin Shoot. It is not all shooting, and providing you have the stamina, you are in for a good time. The social atmosphere created by members of the club for visitors attending the tournament is most appreciative, and I can recommend a visit to Darwin Gun Club a must to the travelling shooter. As well as clay targets, other types of field shooting is organized for those interested. (Photos provided of clay target and field shooting).

2nd November, 1980

For a number of years I have had a desire to attend what is known as the Cherry Tree Shoot, held annually in W.A., and conducted by the Katanning Clay Target Club. I included the event on my shooting calendar for 1980, and after having competed along with one hundred and seventy-five other shooters, I can recommend this event to anyone interested in this type of shooting. It is a simulated field range with traps set around the edge of a creek. The heavy timber growth on the banks create an ideal setting for the event. It is organized and run by the Katanning Clay Target Club in W.A. and is open to all registered and unregistered A.C.T.A. shooters. Unregistered competitors must be a member of the W.A. Association to compete. I believe this to be one of the first ever simulated ranges erected in Australia. There are many of them now in all States, and it is apparent by the attendance at these shoots, they are very popular. Cherry Tree provided twenty-one trophies for placings in the event, with major placings gaining the support of Eley Ammunition and Winchester Australia. Provision is made for Open, Intermediate, Veterans, Ladies and Junior Championships. The outright winner for 1980 was Gary Featherstone (Katanning Clay Target Club) and second Colin Hinkley and third Tim Catling also from Katanning Clay Target Club. Tim is not only a shooter with a good reputation with a shot gun, he is also a notable golfer in his home town. I noticed amongst the titles list at the Katanning Golf Club, where a social was held prior to the Cherry Tree shoot, Tim is listed as winning the Club Golf Championship in 1958, 59, 60, 70, 71 and 79. Not a bad record.

CUNDERDIN GUN CLUB W.A. The 1980 National Trench and Skeet titles were conducted at this club in November.

AROUND THE TRAPS (Cont'd)

The Cunderdin Gun Club, approximately 160 kilometres from Perth, hosted the titles and can be congratulated on its effort. The equipment installed for shooting I.S.U. disciplines is first class and the most modern of its type in Australia. Depreciation is something the club will not have to pay attention to, as most of the trap protective buildings are built of concrete, including the safety fences between the skeet layouts. Something like seventy thousand dollars has been spent in purchasing and installing the automatic hopper feed equipment, for the benefit of shooters in the Cunderdin area, as well as W.A. in general.

The President of the Club, John Harris is enthusiastic, and is backed by a number of keen Olympic trench and I.S.U. skeet shooters in W.A., to see that these disciplines, along with the rest of clay target shooting, progress for the benefit of all concerned. After witnessing the amount of work and effort that went into organizing and running this event, it was a little disappointing not to see greater support from other States at this venue. I believe they deserved it. A special effort and sometimes sacrifice, will need to be made by shooters who want to see these disciplines develop. Cunderdin, was one such area shooters could have taken advantage to further develop I.S.U. shooting in Australia.

The President of the Cunderdin Gun Club, John Harris, proved what dedication and hard work can do by winning the National Olympic Trench Championship, shooting 191-200. Ian Hale and John Summers Victoria, were no doubt strong contenders for the I.S.U. Skeet title. Ian finished up taking it out with a match score of 194/200. Great to see the coaching given to interested I.S.U. Skeet enthusiasts, by Ian and John after the completion of the tournament. Also Jim Ellis from A.C.T. and one of Australia's top shots giving a few tips on Olympic Trench.

HOW TRUE;

The lion ate a bull. He felt so good he roared and roared. The hunter heard him roar and killed the lion. The moral of the story is, When you're full of bull, keep your mouth shut....

See you where there is shooting,

FAMILY TRAGEDY FOR V.C.T.A. SECRETARY

Staff Writer

John McElvogue is the hardworking secretary of the Victorian Clay Target Association, who has done so much of the preparations for the 1981 Australian Trap and Skeet Championship.

On Saturday, April 11, John and his wife Bev received the tragic news that their youngest son Stephen had been killed in a car crash.

Stephen was a trap-boy at Melbourne Gun Club for many years, and more recently had become a very promising young trap-shooter. He gained a place in the 1980, Victorian, Junior Trap Team, which won the Interstate Junior Teams' Match.

To John and Bev, and their family, clay busters all over Australia extend their deep sympathy.

BRISBANE GUN CLUB HOSTS MEDIA MATCH

The third annual "Challenge of the Channels" tournament hosted by the Brisbane Gun Club turned out to be a real boomer.

It attracted over 120 entries from the four television channels in the Brisbane area.

The Brisbane Gun Club has worked very hard to develop a close relationship with the various media groups in the city, and has been effectively assisted by a group of keen sponsors.

This group includes Seppelts Wines, Dunhill Australia (cigarette distributors), Adler Business Machines and "Stefan's," one of Brisbane's leading hairdressers.

A number of staff members of Channel 9 have joined Brisbane Gun Club, so it is logical that Channel 9 should become the most active in terms of support for the challenge.

Garry Gibson and John Di Mauro did most of the ground work for the match, which was officially opened by the arrival of the Channel Nine Network helicopter.

• The Channel Nine helicopter forms an interesting backdrop for the committee of the Brisbane Gun Club.

The helicopter "delivered" the official party, which included top executives of the sponsoring companies.

Over $2000 value in trophies was offered to entrants in the Challenge, and entry was restricted to non-registered competitors.

The atmosphere all day was one of complete relaxation as each channel established its campaign headquarters behind the trap field allocated to it.

Leading Brisbane Gun Club identities provided constant coaching advice, and some very creditable scores were recorded.

Club President, Les James spoke with the CTSN correspondent and said, "Today is probably the most important in the history of this club. We are entertaining people of great influence in the media area, and if this doesn't have the effect of boosting the coverage of clay busting by television stations I'll be very surprised."

He went on, "Today's success, where every television channel in the city area is represented by a large contingent, is sufficient to suggest that the next step is to go National. Let each State Association accept the challenge of getting something similar going in their state, and we will endeavor to find a sponsor for a National competition!"

At the end of the day, the clubhouse was jammed tight with supporters anxious to cheer their champions. Channel Nine personality Mike Gibson was Master of Ceremonies and developed the presentation into a most entertaining session.

• Mrs Muriel Porter (wife of the Association's late National President, Ron Porter) presents the "G. R. & M. PORTER PERPETUAL TROPHY" to the winning media team from Channel Nine.

The highlight was the presentation of the overall trophy, known as the G.R. and M. Porter Perpetual Trophy. This had been donated by Muriel and the late Ron Porter, and was presented to the winning team from Channel Nine by Mrs Porter, who showed great poise and charm, taking into account the tragic recent loss of her husband Ron.

At the conclusion of the presentations, Les James promised an event bigger tournament in 1982. How many other states will have followed this example by then?

"BENITO JUAREZ" CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Australian squad entered in the "Benito Juarez" Championship being held in Mexico left Australia on March 15 after a farewell party at Sydney's Kingsford Smith Airport, hosted by the Australian Shooting Association.

The group, which included shotgunners Jim Ellis, Terry Rumbel and Ian Hale, was managed by Peter Anderson, with Newton Thomas as coach.

The match has been provided as an alternative tournament for Australia's shooting athletes who withdrew from the Moscow Olympics.

With funds provided by the Federal Government, the squad spent ten days at the world famous Fort Benning headquarters of the U.S. Army School of Marksmanship.

During training sessions at the military base, Ellis, Rumbel and Hale have been performing very consistently, and are certain to draw attention in the Mexico match.

Two other Australian internationals left Australia on March 25 to travel direct to Mexico City to also compete in the 'Benito' tournament.

Alex Crikis and Peter Blackmore, both of Melbourne, are anxious to gain further international experience, with a view of gaining a berth in Australia's shotgun team to compete in the 1982 Commonwealth Games.

'Benito Juarez' finished on April 12, and a full report will appear in the June issue of CTSN.

SOUTH PACIFIC REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

The 1981 South Pacific Regional Championships will be staged at the Brisbane Gun Club on October 2, 3 and 4.

Australia will field a team of four Olympic Trench and four ISU Skeet shooters. There will be two selection matches, one to be held at N.S.W. Gun Club on August 8 and 9, and the second will be the National Championships, to be held at Melbourne Gun Club on September 4, 5 and 6.

The names of team members will be announced around the middle of September.

NATIONAL TRAINING SQUAD

The International Sub Committee met in Melbourne late in March and decided on a plan which will lead to the establishment of a National Training Squad.

The squad manager/coach has been named — he is Peter Quire, South Australian Director of Coaching, who attended an advanced coaching course at Fort Benning, USA, in 1979.

It appears likely that he will call on other coaching personnel to assist with specialist skills, which will ensure that squad members get the best possible advice.

Details of the procedure to be used in determining the members of the initial squad have been circulated to State Associations, which have the task of making the initial assessments. The squad is to be named at the end of JULY.

At the same meeting, it was agreed to stage an integrated training camp, to be co-hosted by the State Associations in South Australia, New South Wales and Victoria.

The project will be held at Griffith Clay Target Club, located in the Riverina district of New South Wales, and invitations will be extended to selected members of state training squads.

In addition, invitations have been sent to all other State Associations, asking them to nominate potential national training squad members if travel arrangements can be made.

The camp will span July 24 to July 26 and an effort is being made to line up a panel of top lecturers.

The Association is encouraged by the enthusiastic attitude being shown by the committee of the Griffith Clay Target Club in assisting with planning for the project.

During March, one of Remington's senior international marketing executives, Bill Boettner made his annual pilgrimage to Australia to visit the Australian agents for Remington Arms and Ammunition, Boustead Australia.

He was in Australia for only a few days, but managed a number of calls in New South Wales and Victoria during that time.

Mr Boettner commented that U.S. market conditions had been difficult in recent times, although Remington seemed to be holding a satisfactory market share.

However, severe legislative controls in Canada had caused a savage market downturn, and this has had a significant effect on U.S. manufacturers.

During his brief visit, Mr Boettner was accompanied by Boustead's Marketing Manager, Ross Levinsohn.

* * * * *

Another recent visitor from the States was Winchester's Product Development Manager, Larry Larsen.

The prime purpose of Mr Larsen's visit was to assist with a special product release which local Winchester personnel had arranged for a select group of magazine writers.

On April 3, senior Winchester marketing executives Bruce Burns, Ken Lowry and Rod Laidlaw met a group of Australian writers at Melbourne's Tullamarine Airport. (Brian Mark joined the party a little later).

The group included Heinz Raz (Australian Shooters' Journal), Pat Browne (Clay Target Shooting News and Australian Shooters' Journal), Colin Shadbolt (Australian Outdoors), Nick Harvey (Sporting Shooter), John Robinson (Australian Shooters' Journal and Sporting Shooter) and Ross Williams (Australian Shooters' Journal).

The party was then taken to Picola near the Murray River, where Field and Game Association enthusiast, George Cunningham has established a hunting lodge, called "Bellinda Lodge."

Mr Larsen gave shotgun writers a full run down on the output of the Japanese facility of Olin, and pointed out that Winchester will NOT be vacating the firearms field when the New Haven (USA) factory is closed late in 1981.

He predicted that there will be a conscious attempt to promote 20 gauge shotguns later this year, as the local plant at Geelong brings its 20G and .410G plant on stream.

Generally, the promotion was considered to be a great success, although there were a few very "tired" journo's seen passing through Melbourne on their way home after the seminar.

NEW DEVICE FOR SHOTGUN HUNTERS

Tired of letting that duck or pheasant get away! An Alberta inventor, Mr Carl Rueb, has come up with a shotgun sight that will help hunters shoot better.

One of the most common problems in shooting is not getting one's cheek down on the gun stock and as a result shooting high. The key to the Rueb Sight is its placement mid way between the front of the barrel and the shell chamber. In this position you must get your cheek down on the stock to line up the sight with the front bead. The result is greater accuracy and more game.

Mr Rueb has designed sights to fit single barrel shotguns with either a vent rib or plain barrel. Made of shock proof plastic, the sight is easy to mount by simply slipping over the barrel end and tightening.

Any organisation interested in an agency appointment should contact the Executive Director, Australian Clay Target Association, P.O. Box 198, Blackburn Vic, 3130. ○

EDITOR'S MAILBOX

Dear Noel,

Allow me some room to make a very important complaint.

Throughout the ACTA clubs, there are some who are making a major error on shooters cards — not putting down their (the shooter's) very important score and total for graded events and also handicap events.

It states quite clearly on each registration card "THAT IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF A DESIGNATED CLUB OFFICIAL TO PROGRESSIVELY MARK A SHOOTER'S CARD WITH HIS 15m RESULTS ETC".

Come on club officials, we have a new system going. Let's keep it going without any fuss and bother. If we do our job properly, hence, we get no backlashes and no arguments.

Yours faithfully,

JENNY WHITE

Secretary Morwell Gun Club. ○

Dear Noel,

Please find enclosed notes regarding Guyra Gun Club (NSW). We would appreciate some space in the May edition of "Shooters News."

The "Shooters News" is a most welcome publication in clay target shooting circles in this part of the state.

On the subject of advertising content in the "Shooters News" and as my profession is advertising, I must say the more the better!

Many readers would not be aware of the astronomical cost of writing, setting, printing and distributing such a publication.

The standard of advertising and reproduction in C.T.S.N. is very good. The advertising agencies and Waterwheel Press Pty. Ltd. must be credited for the end product.

This high standard cannot be maintained without revenue, so keep the ads coming and more full colour ones.

Yours sincerely,

James B. Poole.

CLUB CAPTAIN and PUBLICITY OFFICER:

GUYRA GUN CLUB ○

Dear Noel,

On behalf of the Tamworth Gun Club, I wish to extend an invitation to all shooters to attend the 1981 NSW State Trap Carnival, which our club is hosting on September 4, 5 and 6.

We feel that it will be a great success due to the fact that we will have a six trap layout. We will be able to put on a bigger programmed number of targets which is a real necessity when you are expecting people to travel long distances.

The club has set a target of 300 nominations for the carnival. Even though the first day is not a public holiday we base our estimate conservatively, mainly because this is the first year the events do not clash with equally popular Gum tree championships held at Boggabri.

Tamworth is known Australia wide as Country Music Capital, but this year it is about to take on a new title — Clay Target Capital 1981. What a statement to tender.

Well you put Tamworth on your agenda and we'll make it a shoot you will remember.

Col Burt,

Publicity Officer.

Tamworth Gun Club ○

Dear Mr Southey,

Thankyou very much for your kind letter written on my appointment as a Judge of the Federal Court.

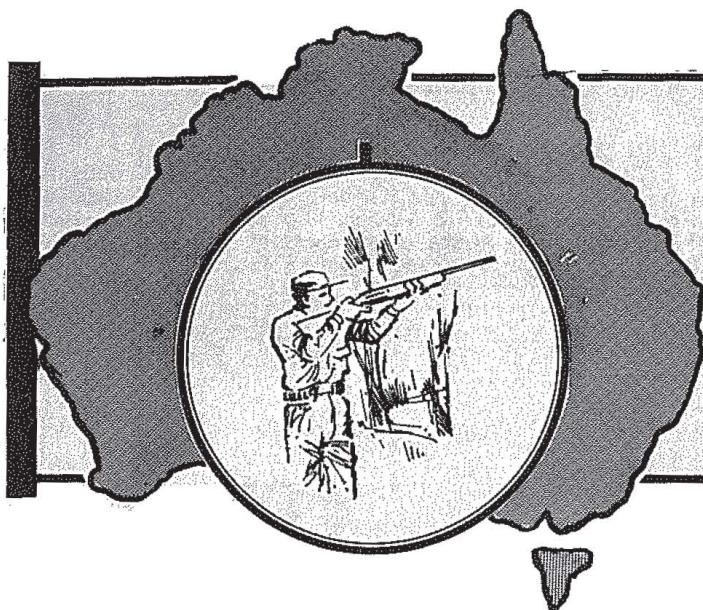

One of the most interesting facets of my Ministerial life was as Minister responsible for sport. It gave me a great deal of satisfaction to make so many friends and to be able to make some contribution to the development of sport in Australia.

Needless to say I will look forward to maintaining a deep interest in future developments.

Would you please convey my thanks and best wishes to the members of your organisation.

with kindest regards,

Bob Ellicott ○

CLUB NEWS

BANDIANA AREA ARMY GUN CLUB (Vic)

The Annual General Meeting of the B.A.A.G.C. was held in February. A new committee was elected, which comprises: President, Staff Sergeant Lee Davidson; Secretary, Lieut. Peter Francis; Treasurer, Major Tom Csihar.

The committee and members attending the meeting expressed their sincere gratitude for the tremendous amount of work that had been done by the retiring Secretary/Treasurer, Staff Sergeant Steve Pickering, and he was given a great farewell.

MANGOPLAH GUN CLUB (NSW)

Advice has been received that Gordon Allen, Secretary of Mangoplah Gun Club, suffered a serious spinal injury in March 1980, which has left him a paraplegic.

Following many months in hospital in Wagga, and two separate visits each extending for a month, at the Royal Northshore Hospital in Sydney, Gordon is now back home and is continuing his interest in the development of clay target shooting.

He has written that Mangoplah Gun Club is currently in recess, but the Committee under the leadership of President J. Cox, is still meeting regularly, with a view to re-establishing the club's activities at the earliest possible time.

Gordon's contribution to shooting has been quite extensive, as he held dual responsibilities for many years — these were as Secretary of Wagga Gun Club and the same position at Mangoplah.

Any reader who wishes to contact Gordon can do so by writing to him at 16 Arcadia St., Wagga, NSW, 2650.

DALBY GUN CLUB (Q'land)

This club held its Annual General Meeting late in February, and re-elected Mr A. Flegler as President.

The joint Secretaries are B. Flegler and J. Thygesen.

The Club Captain is W. Durham of Toowoomba, and the club is eagerly looking forward to another successful year.

Its annual tournament has been listed to be held on August 22 and 23, and the club is now including a District Championship in each of its monthly programs.

KANIVA GUN CLUB (Vic)

The Kaniva Gun Club held its Annual General Meeting late in 1980 and elected Mr Basil Wagg to the office of President. Mr Colin Jarred is the club Secretary. This is one of the growing list of clubs which is establishing more comfortable club house facilities, in recognition that followers of clay target shooting are looking for comfortable social surroundings as well as excellent shooting facilities.

SEBASTOPOL GUN CLUB (Vic)

At the Annual General Meeting held recently, Mr Lyle Veitch was elected President, to replace the retiring President Norm Patterson, who did not seek re-election.

However, the club awarded Mr Patterson its first ever Life Membership, in recognition of his tremendous leadership during his ten years as President.

Secretary/Treasurer is still Bob Cartledge, although he has been given assistance in the form of Merv Pickford who has been elected as his Assistant Secretary.

A strong committee with a good representation of younger novice shooters will ensure that the club's reputation of conducting well run shoots with good trophies is maintained.

The club turned over $25,000 during 1980, which is an excellent result for a country gun club, and emphasizes the fact that the club is continuing to be successful.

ALBURY/WODONGA GUN CLUB (NSW)

There were no changes in major offices when the Albury/Wodonga Gun Club held its Annual General Meeting in February. Alan Collins was re-elected President, and Richard Giles continues as Secretary.

Three new faces appeared on the committee however — these are Paul Birch, David Chapman and Graeme Boyd.

The club has provided the national office with a copy of its Annual Report, which shows that it produced an operating surplus from its 1980 operations of $3,525.

The club has already spent over $3000 on building a clubhouse, which is scheduled to be completed during 1981.

Other objectives for 1981 are to complete a ball-trap layout, and also to install one skeet ground.

KORUMBURRA GUN CLUB (Vic)

The Korumburra Gun Club, located in the South Gippsland area of Victoria, has appointed a new Secretary. He is Mr S. Wishart, of 19 Dowling St, Wonthaggi.

METROPOLITAN CLAY TARGET CLUB (Vic)

Another to appoint a new Secretary is the Metropolitan Clay Target Club, who has appointed Mrs V. J. Clune of 52 Arthur St, Fairfield as its administrator.

GUYRA GUN CLUB GOING GREAT

(from Jamie Poole, Club Captain)

Guyra Gun Club is going through an expansion period and with great success.

The club was formed in 1963 with very few hard-working members and started operating with one Snipe Trap and a small shed.

Under the guidance and devotion of Rex Varley, who has been Secretary-Treasurer since the club's formation; the late Athol Creagan; and Herb Williamson as Past Presidents, the club has gone from strength to strength.

In February the 1981 office bearers were elected:

President, Ray Hammond; Secretary, Rex Varley; Captain, Jamie Poole; Vice-Captain, Ray Sweeney.

The Club has just installed a second Skeet layout and remodelled No. 3 D.T.L. Trap. Guyra now has two skeet and four D.T.L. layouts, with lights for D.T.L. and a P.A. system which has been a great help.

In 1977 the Club House was extended to cater for the N.S.W. State Carnival and for big numbers in the 'cool' months. Being 4000 feet above sea level, it can be very cool indeed so the open fire is welcome.

Average club shoot numbers have been 45. Club membership is now 80 and at the 1980 Christmas Shoot, 78 shooters attended, which would take some tossing.

Guyra Gun Club also takes part in major club and inter-club Challenges which the Club wins more times than loses. They are The McCansh Tin Tray against Inverell and Glen Innes (New England) Gun Clubs, The Creagan-Cox Cup (Skeet) against Coffs Harbour Gun Club, The Chizzotti Shield against Ballandean in Southern Queensland and The Northern Newspapers Shield for combined Skeet and D.T.L.

The February Open Shoot had 111 shooters and families — a great result considering a very serious drought in this area. Shooters attended from as far away as St George in Queensland and Dapto on the South Coast. 25 000 targets were thrown over the two days. The catering under the supervision of Vikki McKay and well-known member Victor Raszewski (known to his shooting mates as "The Polish Poisoner"), a restaurant proprietor in Armidale, was without doubt, the best you would find at any shoot.

The standard of shooting was very competitive, with long shoot-offs being the order. One of the most exciting shoot-offs was between Geoff Salmon and Ken Denyer of Moree for Overall High Gun. This was shot in fading light and Ken Denyer up held the honor of the plains country by winning after a long tussle.

The Club has had good results in the area of publicity with television and press coverage and will be endeavouring to use these media more in 1981-82. If the 1981 Open Shoot was good, Guyra will strive for a bigger and better one in 1982, hosting many major events, both in D.T.L. and Skeet. ○

A.C.T. STATE TEAM TRENCH SHOOT 15 & 16 NOVEMBER 1980 AT A.C.T. INTERNATIONAL GUN CLUB

(from Norm Simms)

In fine and warm conditions the 100 target New South Wales Southern Districts Trench Championship got under way.

When the dust settled at the end of the day, Jim Ellis had taken out AA grade and overall with a creditable 97/100.

Stan Collins from Melbourne Gun Club "stole" A grade with 91/100; B grade went to Graeme Bookallil from Berridale on 90/100 and C grade to Ted Hayden also from the Berridale club on 77/100.

The second and third rounds of this championship were used as the elimination round for the A.C.T. trench team.

Jim Ellis and John Petriella proved to be the only consistent local shooters on the first day.

In similar conditions on day two, with shooting standards somewhat lifted, the A.C.T. Olympic Trench Championship began in good fashion.

AA & Overall went to Jim Ellis on 98/100, Stan Collins once again winning A grade on 96; Norm Simms from A.C.T. International winning B grade with 91/100, (they said Ned Kelly was dead) and Len Britt from the Berridale club took out C grade with a fine 82/100.

The Bevan Brown trading High-Gun was won by Jim Ellis with 195/200.

The Caltex Shield trench round was won by Bungendore Gun Club.

Blue Dot Clay Targets provided sponsorship for this shoot in conjunction with Bevan Brown Trading.

ANOTHER CLAY BUSTER FEATURES IN NEW YEAR HONORS LIST

(Staff Writer)

Mrs Barbara Mules, Secretary of the South Australian Gun Club, has advised that Mr Fred Atkinson of Kilburn received an Imperial Service Medal in the New Years Honors List.

A former digger and country butcher, Fred Atkinson has more recently been a messenger for the South Australian State Treasury.

Fred retired in February 1980 after 31 years of clerical and inter-departmental delivery duties.

He said, "It has been quite a year, with my retirement party in February, and now this award." Fred Atkinson has become widely known at South Australian Gun Club and clubs in the Metropolitan area because of his ability to compete despite the loss of one arm.

He was a World War II Mortar Sergeant in the 2nd 10th Battalion, and lost an arm while fighting in the Middle East.

On behalf of all clay busters throughout Australia, we congratulate you Fred on your tremendous achievement.

STRONG STAND BY S.A.C.T.A. PRESIDENT

(Staff Writer)

TAKE MY PLAN AND ME, OR NEITHER!

This was virtually the ultimatum delivered to the 1981 Annual General Meeting of the South Australian Clay Target Association by the retiring President, Leighton Martin when he accepted a re-nomination for the State's top office.

Mr Martin had just finished his first term of office, after being elected in February, 1980. During that time, he had recognised a number of areas which needed urgent "surgery" if the State Association was to continue to progress.

Consequently, rather than just talk about the problems, Leighton proceeded to do something positive — that "something" was the creation of his plan which virtually is an organisation chart in which various functions and positions are defined.

He has listed various duties for members of the State Council, and received full support for his plan, when he presented it to the A.G.M.

In a recent interview with CTSN, Leighton Martin said: "The purpose of my plan is to spread the existing work load, and to provide a clearly defined path of communications."

He pointed out that, in cases where Council members feel they have too many responsibilities, some of these can be further delegated to other administrators co-opted from within the zone structure.

The S.A.C.T.A. has appointed a new Secretary. She is Sue Cobbin, well known clay buster, and wife of George Cobbin.

Leighton Martin's plan is sure to create some changes and it will be interesting to watch the progress.

WANGARATTA GUN CLUB HOSTS 8TH ANNUAL WINCHESTER INTERSCHOOL SHOOT 27/11/80

(from Gary Matchan
Winchester's Victorian Sales Manager)

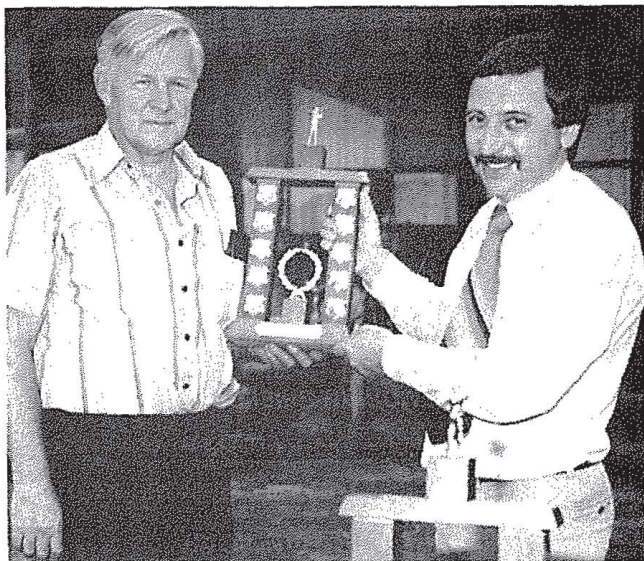

For the 8th consecutive year the Wangaratta Gun Club hosted this particular Winchester Australia sponsored event which also embraces the Interstate Trap Teams Match.

189 students representing 11 schools competed. The event consisting of 15 targets, single barrel, shot in three visits from 16 metres.

The weather was fine and hot and conducive to the very impressive scores carded on the day. The high level of competition produced numerous shoot-offs to decide individual and team placings.

The safe gun handling, spirit of competitiveness and the general conduct displayed by the students was the highlight of the day.

The Wangaratta Gun Club is well renowned for their interest in Junior shooting programmes. The present executive of the club is certainly keeping up this tradition. Wangaratta members, both present and past, are to be commended by readers of this magazine for their efforts in the area of Junior and Novice encouragement and coaching.

There is no doubt that the constructive attitude of this club has contributed to produce a more favourable and tolerant community awareness of Shooting Sports and Firearms in general.

Winchester Australia takes this opportunity to thank all Wangaratta Gun Club members, School Teachers and Principals, who contributed to the task of organising and conducting the event.

In particular, acknowledgement is extended to Club President — Mr Ray Lawford and Secretary — Kevin ("Grumpy") Law for their personal efforts.

All present on the day were appreciative of the meals and refreshments provided by the charming members of the Ladies Committee.

The day was most rewarding for all concerned and the 1981 return match promises to be bigger and better. ○

QUEENSLAND

QUEENSLAND CLAY TARGET ASSOCIATION REPORT

On February 25 S.E. Zone President Gerry Chizzotti presented the Zone Coach Stafford Smith with a complete Audic Visual outfit to assist with coaching in this zone.

This equipment was purchased following a large donation received from an anonymous donor for this specific purpose. The purchase was made following advice sought from Mr Kevin Reedman of Chandler's. Mr Reedman arranged for a technician from his firm to instruct the coaches on how to use the equipment, and those present were able to recognise the immense value to be obtained from its use. This equipment will be used during the Combined S.E. Zone and Western Zone Coaching seminar to be held on May 23 and 24, 1981.

The State Carnival organisers have completed all arrangements, and the Association expects record attendances this year. A report on this match will appear in a later issue of CTSN.

You will note from the Financial Report the growth of the Q.C.T.A. in the past 12 months, and more importantly, the need for the Association to raise more money. If you have any ideas on this please write to the Secretary, we welcome all suggestions.

The Association has implemented a 1982 Nationals planning committee, which consists of R. Dean, E. Chizzotti, L. James, D. Smith, T. Meadows, D. Evans, K. Reedman and B. Grice.

The following Major Shoots are to be conducted in Queensland during May:

State Trap Carnival at Kingaroy, Cunnamulla Gun Club, Gympie, Ballandean, Townsville.

Did you know?

Cunnamulla Gun Club is in the Western Zone 823 km from Brisbane. This club was reformed and affiliated in 1952, as it went into recess during the war years 1939-45. Mr L. S. R. (Sep) Stewart was a member of this club, and represented this State on the National Executive for many years.

Gympie Gun Club was formed in 1975 and affiliated with the A.C.T.A. in that year. Gympie is 190 km from Brisbane and is in the S.E. Zone. This club is a picture.

Townsville Gun Club was formed in 1913, and in 1948 the Commonwealth D.B. was shot for the first time and won by J.N. Brazier from N.S.W. Newton Thomas was then affiliated through this club, and it was one of the few clubs to maintain its affiliation throughout the war years.

Ballandean Gun Club is in the S.E. Zone, 236 km from Brisbane in the Granite Belt, renowned for its fruit orchards. The first Open Shoot conducted by this club was on May 1, 1961. Mr Eddie Anderson was made the first Life Member of this club. The club has a three trap layout with comfortable clubhouse.

CHANGE OF DATE

Annual shoot to be held August 22 & 23, 1981 not SEPTEMBER.

SERVICE AWARD OF THE MONTH

The SERVICE AWARD for May goes to the staff of Waterwheel Press, who collectively have made a major contribution to the improved standards of CTSN.

In particular, the performance of Miss Joanne Markey is acknowledged. Joanne joined the staff of Waterwheel Press two years ago as an apprentice type-setter and compositor.

She was the only girl in a section that included five men, but very quickly responded to the professional guidance of chief typesetter Bill Hutchinson, who had been connected with CTSN since it moved to Shepparton in May 1976.

On the composition side, Joanne has had Philip Kelley as her mentor, with Gary Crisp always available as a back-up.

Joanne has been attending trade school regularly and her work on "Clay Target Shooting News" has been good experience. She capped off an excellent year in 1980 by being announced as second highest in the printing trade's compositor examinations.

Manager of Waterwheel Press, Mr Chris Wilkins, said, when told of the award "Joanne is one of our most enthusiastic staff members, and is popular with her work-mates."

The remaining members of the production team are Bruce Mitchell (Production Manager), John Arter (Solna operator, which produces the colour covers) and the press operators of Shepparton News, who print the text pages.

"Clay Target Shooting News" is assembled and packed for posting by a team of Shepparton girls, led by "The Gun", Russell Torney.

These operators form a pretty formidable team, and the Administrative Unit of the Australian Clay Target Association is grateful for the deep personal interest each member of the team takes in the progress of "Clay Target Shooting News".

WAGGA GUN CLUB (NSW)

At the Annual General Meeting of this club, held on February 11, the following office bearers were elected: President, Garry Ings; Secretary/Treasurer, Don Clout; Publicity Officer Mrs Jan Osborne.

The club provides extremely comprehensive shooting opportunities, with DTL being available on the first Sunday of each month, skeet available on the fourth Saturday of each month, and practice shooting available during each week.

RAAF POINT COOK GUN CLUB (Vic)

In a shooting marathon at this club on February 15, in extreme heat and strong windy conditions, David McLeod and Alan Ford respectively shot 206 and 201 trap targets.

A search of existing records shows that these are the only two RAAF competitors (other than Alan Chandler) to achieve these standards. The "double 100" is certainly a record for the Point Cook Gun Club.

Additional information from past RAAF members still in the force would be appreciated and should be sent to the club Secretary Sergeant P. Baldock of 1 Donald St, Laverton, Vic, 3028. Meanwhile, the club has announced the name of its new President — he is Flight Lieut. Gary Litherland of the School of Aviation Medicine, Point Cook.

GEMFIELDS GUN CLUB (Q'land)

Mr Charlie Edwards has succeeded Mr Ken Cross as President of the Gemfields Gun Club. Ken has finally stood down as President, after years of devoted service to establishing and operating clay target shooting in the Central Queensland Gemfields area.

The club also has installed a new Secretary, who is Mrs Elaine Shaw.

Mrs Shaw has replaced Mr George Bourne who has been the club's very efficient Secretary in recent years.

GEELONG CLAY TARGET CLUB (Vic)

After many years of devoted service to Geelong Clay Target Club, Mrs Allison Storrar has resigned as Secretary. Her place has been taken by Mr D. Holmes — these changes occurred at the Annual General Meeting of the club, which was held early in February.

Ron Green was re-elected President, and Ray Tremul was elected as Vice President.

KOJONUP GUN CLUB (W.A.)

Another club to experience a change of address is the Kojonup Gun Club in Western Australia, where the Secretary is now Mr Eric O'Halloran.

BENALLA GUN CLUB (Vic)

Benalla Gun Club held its Annual General Meeting early in February, and elected D. Fraser as President.

Vice President is W. Polwarth, and Mr L. Dickens of 20 Henry St, Benalla was elected Secretary/Treasurer.

BARCADDINE GUN CLUB (Q'land)

Office bearers elected for the 1981 season are as follows: President, Mr Ian Brown; Secretary, Mrs Robin Bourne; Captain, Mr Bill Chandler.

UPPER HUNTER GUN CLUB (NSW)

Mr Ron Waken has shown his dedication to the development of clay target shooting by stepping from the office as Secretary of Upper Hunter Gun Club to become the club's new President.

He has been replaced as Secretary by Mrs M. Muffett of 36 Parker St, Scone, 2337.

ESPERANCE GUN CLUB (W.A.)

Mr Ern Gorrett is President of Esperance Gun Club, following the recent Annual General Meeting. Secretary is Mr L. Havelburg and Captain is L. Naylor.

TAMWORTH GUN CLUB (NSW)

The Annual General Meeting of the Tamworth Gun Club was held early in February. The following office bearers were elected: President Rex Whitten; Secretary, Ray Melville; Assistant Secretary, David Menck.

This club has been selected as the host for the 1982 New South Wales Clay Target Association Trap Carnival, and Col Burt is the Chairman of the Organizing Committee.

PERTH GUN CLUB (W.A.)

Rod Franklin has been elected President of the Perth Gun Club following the club's Annual General Meeting held late in January. Club Captain is Robin Bailey (National Executive Committee member) while Mr Ross Arlow continues as club Secretary.

QUEANBEYAN/CANBERRA GUN CLUB (NSW)

At the recent Annual General Meeting, Brendan Smith was elected Club President. Jacqui Chilcote and Doreen Newcombe were re-elected to the positions of Secretary and Treasurer respectively.

Retiring President Rob Parker reported to the meeting that the club had had a very busy shooting year, holding 13 DTL day shoots (attracting an average attendance of 56 shooters), 43 night trap shoots (attracting an average attendance of 22 shooters, and 14 skeet programs attracting an average attendance of 20 shooters).

Club members to qualify for notable mentions include: Brendan Smith, Steve Balogh and Rod Hayes, each of whom were included in the 1980 State Trap team; Mary Lou Parker and Doreen Newcombe who qualified for the 1980 Ladies State Trap team, and Fred Rees who qualified for the 1980 State Skeet team.

MARY KATHLEEN GUN CLUB (Q'land)

Advice has been received that Mrs P. A. Wright of P.O. Box 109, Mary Kathleen, has taken up the position as Secretary of the Mary Kathleen Gun Club.

DERBY (W.A.)

The Annual General Meeting of the Derby Gun Club was held on February 1. Mr J. Ryall was elected President, and Mr M. Davidson was re-elected as Secretary.

The club commenced its 1981 season on February 15.

Moree Gun Club (NSW)

The Moree Gun Club conducted its fifth successful "MOREE 5000" shooting tournament on February 7 and 8.

Although the attendance was down on the record attendance set in 1980, 162 competitors attended, representing three states. Shooters from the north were unable to reach the club due to road damage following heavy flooding, and the club management was extremely pleased with the support it received.

Since the 1980 match, a fourth DTL field has been added, and a shower and toilet block has been completed. The new ablutions block caters for both men and women.

The club is already planning its 1982 "MOREE 5000" and is considering some changes to make the program even more attractive.

Club Secretary, Clyde Mitchell, says "We are endeavoring to streamline our Sunday program, so that an early finish is possible, which will allow those competitors who have to travel long distances, to get on their way a little earlier."

Mt Isa Gun Club (Q'land)

The Mt Isa Gun Club conducted its Annual General Meeting on February 1, at which John Hart was returned as President.

The club has a new Secretary — he is Ray Deverson, and his assistant is Bob Bentley. Club Publicity Officer is Mrs Lorraine Howard.

Lismore Gun Club (NSW)

ROYAL VISIT LEAVES MARK ON SPORT

During late March, His Royal Highness, Prince Phillip, Duke of Edinburgh, visited Australia for the prime purpose of acting as Chairman for a conference of the International Assembly of National Sports Confederations.

The meeting proved to be another feather in the cap of the youthful Confederation of Australian Sport. This is the second major success chalked up by the Confederation in just four months — the previous exercise was the staging of the "SPORT AUSTRALIA '80" awards last December (see Page 21 of February '81 issue of CTSN).

The highlight of the conference, apart from the professional chairmanship produced by the Royal guest, was the election of top Australian sports administrator Mr Wayne Reid O.B.E. as President of the International Assembly of National Sports Confederations.

When the Confederation of Australian Sport was first formed in 1976, Mr Reid became its inaugural President, a position he still holds. During his term of office, the CAS has racked up an impressive list of successes.

Not only has CAS provided a level of unity amongst national sporting associations that was previously unknown in Australia, but it has also filled a very useful role in lobbying governments on behalf of sport generally.

Prior to his involvement with CAS, Wayne Reid had become widely known for the job he performed in lifting the Lawn Tennis Association of Australia out of the doldrums. Additionally, he has been President of the influential Melbourne Football Club — part of the giant Australian Rules football machine that dominates sport in the southern Australian states.

Many observers have been quick to point out that the new International Assembly, with a membership that already lists 54 nations, will quickly overshadow the International Olympic Federation, in terms of total influence. The International Olympic Federation caters only for 24 Olympic sports, whereas the new group could ultimately claim to speak on behalf of up to 200 sports.

Those of us who are inside the sports administration machine are concerned at this type of publicity. Surely it is preferable for every encouragement to be given to the two bodies to establish the closest possible communications links to ensure top CO-OPERATION rather than CONFRONTATION.

The degree to which international politics are influencing sport decisions is becoming quite alarming and it must surely be in the best interests of sport to have all international representative bodies working closely in unison.

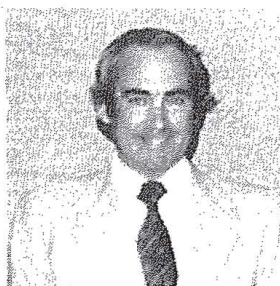

The Reid success is further evidence of Australia's increasing influence in the world of sport and all Australian sports people should be proud of such recognition.

One of the least known, but most important aspects of the conference, was the detailed planning required to meet security needs.

In many respects, the project became a sports version of the Commonwealth Heads of Government conference, one of which is scheduled for Melbourne later this year.

In view of the fact that the Federal Government assisted in the funding of the project to the tune of $50 000 — that's $50 000 of yours and my money! — readers can be excused for asking what did the Australian community get out of the conference.

Probably the most important factor is the increased international awareness of Australia's existence in the area of sports administration. Our country is so geographically remote that major sporting confederations in other countries rarely if ever, hear of Australia. So, acting as host nation for such an important occasion must provide some rub-off.

The undoubted success of the exercise in terms of each affiliate nation being seen to co-operate with its sporting neighbours also provides a giant "plus."

The election of Mr Reid as chief of the world body is further evidence that the "investment" has produced a worthwhile dividend.

Well done, Confederation of Australian Sport! ○
