1999 ACTA SPORTING NATIONALS

With a very full second half year of 1999 it is proposed to conduct the 1999 ACTA Sporting Nationals at Wagga Wagga on the 27th and 28th November 1999. In keeping with past years we invite members of the Field & Game and the Sporting Shooters to also participate. All shooters are encouraged to take part in this challenging event.

THE WAY IT WAS

The following appearing in the Constitution and Rules in 1948 of the Gun Club's Association of Victoria:

OBJECTS

- To promote, control and manage all trap shooting within the state
- To further the interests of field shooting and game preservation
- To protect the legitimate rights of shooting men in Victoria
- Protection against disqualified or defaulting shooters or bookmakers
- To do anything generally that will tend to improve the sport of shooting
- To reciprocate with other governing bodies in these matters.

I would like to bet our shooting ladies would have something to say if these were the "objects" today.

SYDNEY 2000 PIN COLLECTING

One of the most popular hobbies surrounding Olympic Games is pin collecting. The number of pins produced runs into hundreds and already many have been produced pertaining to the Sydney Games. I believe there is even a pin being produced every day in the count down featuring the number of days to go. To collect them all would not only be nigh on impossible, but also extremely expensive and it is because of this some collectors concentrate solely on particular sports.

With this in mind, I wonder how many different pins will be produced for the shooting sports, and in particular, the clay target events. Perhaps we could run a feature in the CTSN of different pins our members come across, or for that matter, any memorabilia pertaining to the clay target events. Let's have your thoughts.

PROMOTIONAL ITEMS

At present we are looking to introduce new lines of clothing and promotional items and would like your input. Have you seen any items selling by an organisation that has made you think "that would be great for the ACTA", or "why hasn't the ACTA got that?"

If so, please let us know about it, and we will see if it is viable and readily available.

Travel

Travel for some members of this team turned out to be a huge saga involving a cast of thousands, mainly customs and police in ports through which several people had to be routed.

Of the first group leaving Australia, three members of this team plus one person representing Great Britain departed from Melbourne and four others from Sydney with the intention of meeting in Singapore for a flight to Fukuoka International Airport in Japan. However, the Melbourne group was delayed by a defective battery in the aircraft's computer system. A borrowed battery from another recently arrived Singapore Airlines aircraft finally rectified this. Departure was delayed for this group by about 4 hours and led to a missed connection in Singapore by approximately 1-hour.

Michael Diamond — Gold

The next Singapore Airlines flight to Fukuoka was not until 24 hours later. It took some lengthy negotiations and a brainwave by our British colleague Claire Watts who remembered that the British Team was travelling via Hong Kong before a re-routing was arranged through Hong Kong and Okinawa. This would theoretically get us to Kumamoto on the same day as the missed flight. Further strenuous negotiations resulted in rooms being provided in the Airport Hotel within the terminal rather than out in the city for the three hours before we needed to catch the next plane.

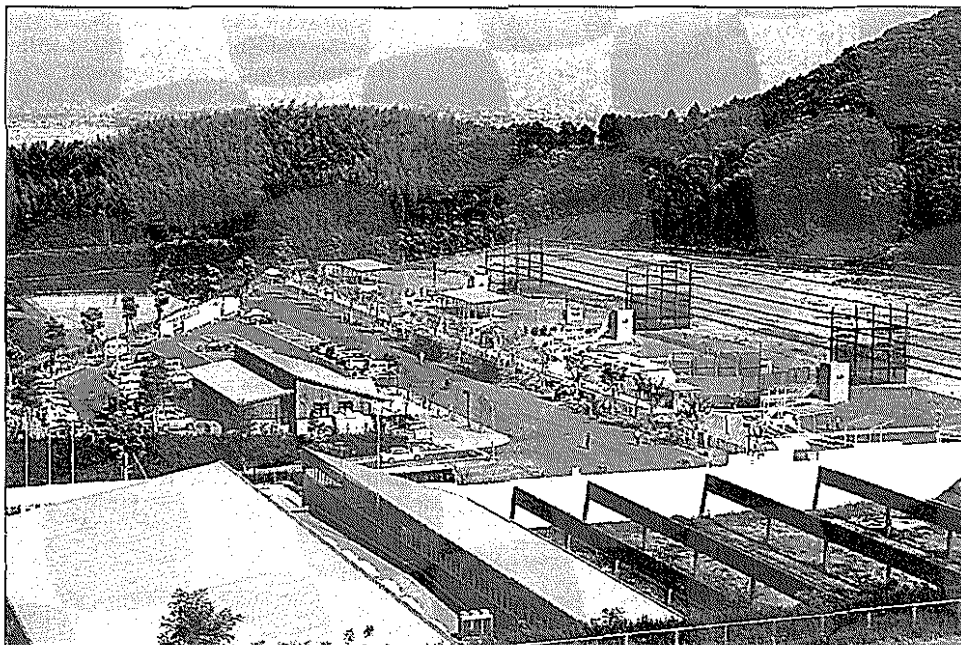

We knew going through Hong Kong would be difficult with firearms and it proved to be yet another lengthy negotiation - this time on the tarmac with about 14 customs and police officers before we were able to board our once again delayed aircraft. Full firearms inspection was carried out and every piece of official paper that we could find was produced. In the end the ammunition proved to be the biggest stumbling block but finally we were on our way with all our possessions.

The total journey of more than forty hours for at least one member of this group exceeded the time taken to travel to some South American cities and we arrived in Fukuoka just twelve hours late. Remarkably, every item of baggage arrived with us.

The range — SUS40million to build, 12 months old

This was not the case for the second group departing from Melbourne. Whilst their aircraft actually took off, after about an hour and a half it returned because a passenger had noticed a wire protruding from the wing and thought it was sparking. It was checked out and eventually this flight left Melbourne several hours later resulting in another missed connection to Singapore - this time by only about 30 minutes. This group was re-routed to Tokyo, after overnighing in Singapore, only to find that their baggage had not arrived with them. They were accommodated there overnight. It was not known whether their baggage had been re-tagged for Tokyo or whether it had gone on to Fukuoka. If the former then the case, guns and ammo would have to be cleared through customs in Tokyo and the team members would be flown direct to Kumamoto - if the latter they would fly to Fukuoka, clear customs there and then take the two hour bus trip to Kumamoto. As it turned out the first scenario applied.

The organising committee advised me that if they had to clear customs in Tokyo they would unlikely be able to bring their ammunition with them. Meanwhile new gun permits were hastily organised with the police in Tokyo in case their guns arrived there. Although there were apparently "discussions" with customs and police in Tokyo, mainly because the ammunition package was over 5 kilograms in weight, they were permitted to take it with them after it was split into two.

By the time this second group from Melbourne had arrived at the hotel, they had been in transit for more than two days, even longer than the first group out from this port.

Once everybody had arrived it was time to start organising departures. Three people were to leave the day after the arrival of the last group, two Australians and one British. This required a 5.00 am bus because the other teams were leaving on different flights and the need to go via the armoury at the range to pick up their firearms.

The last group of Australians to depart was scheduled to leave the hotel by bus at 6.00 am. This was advised at the team meeting the night before and on the morning the rooms of all team members were rung by the manager at 5.15. Only one person failed to respond, even though his room was rung at least 10 times between then and 6.00 am when the bus left. The conclusion I reached in the absence of any response was that he had not come home and we had no alternative but to leave without him. We were all at the ticket counter less than an hour before the plane was due to depart when he turned up luckily, having caught the last possible bus to connect with his flight.

Customs clearance in Japan.

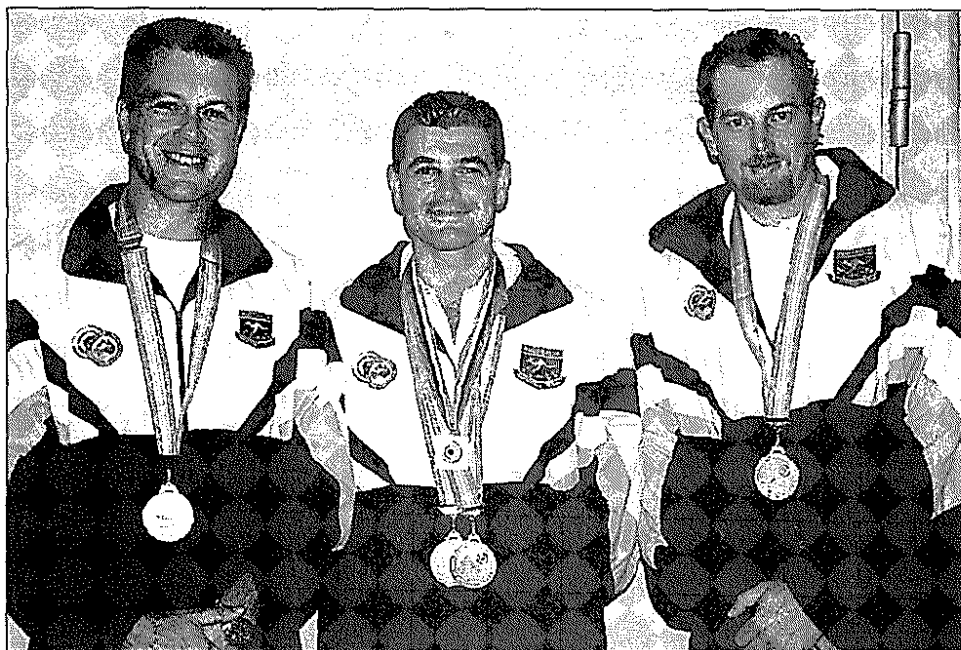

On arrival, each firearm was inspected and the serial number checked by customs officials. This was friendly and carried out quickly. However, the first group from Melbourne then had to wait for a further two hours for a bus to Kumamoto only 120 km away and then the trip took two hours, following which firearms had to be deposited in the armoury at the range. Processing then took place at the hotel before this group was able to reach their rooms at about 2.30 am totally exhausted. The only consolation was that the time change was minimal, Sydney being just 1 hour ahead.

The picture was much the same for each of the other groups on arrival.

On departure the inspection was less rigorous, the only hitch being that the person who missed the bus out of Kumamoto had all the paperwork from Tokyo for the two girls who came in with him and this was something of a hitch. This lesson had been learned many times in the past and that is that each individual shooter must carry all his own paperwork especially those pieces to do with his or her own firearms in the event of groups or individuals being separated which has happened many times before causing problems.

Ammunition.

Several members of the team brought ammunition packaged and in most cases there were problems, some on departure from Australia and certainly in Hong Long and Tokyo, even though each port had been advised in advance (albeit with short notice). I had been informed that shooters had been told not to take ammunition with them in case of problems. The shooters, however, told me that they had been asked how much ammunition they were taking with them and this was borne out by the paperwork sent to the organisers in advance from Australia.

Accommodation.

There were two official hotels and we were in the New Sky, which is generously described, in the Lonely Planet Guide as a luxury upmarket hotel. The other official hotel was the more upmarket of the two while the New Sky had definitely seen better days. However, it was comfortable and clean.

All team members' rooms were not on the same floor but the big advantage was single rooms for everyone. Meals at the hotel were fairly expensive so most team members ate most nights at other places such as the nearby hamburger place, a pizza house or local Japanese restaurants.

Competition venue.

The shooting range, built in 1998 at a cost of US$40 million for a major sport festival to be held later this year, is a good range for competition and is in a very pleasant location at the foot of Mt Aso, the resident volcano. Fitted with Mattarelli equipment the general consensus of opinion seemed to be that it is an excellent venue and could be expected to produce high scores as it did. The background was a fairly steep mountain slope covered with dark green trees with a foreground of green grass. The orange clays stood out well against this background and many shooters commented on how clearly they could be seen. This coupled with beautiful, sunny, mostly still weather all contributed to the high standard of competition.

Opening/closing Ceremonies.

The opening ceremony was held at the range and was a relatively short affair. The closing ceremony was buffet style at the official hotel, the New Sky. Medals for Trap and Skeet were presented at the start of this function, which was a relatively informal affair.

Ground Transport.

Organisers provided buses between the two official hotels and the range as well as between airport and hotel and vice versa. The trip to the range from the New Sky Hotel was generally about 40 minutes or longer depending on traffic conditions. Buses were always punctual if not as frequent as some might have liked.

Performances.

Performances of note included Michael Diamond's individual gold by a clear margin in the Men's Trap Event. Russell Mark placed fifth in the same event after going into the final in third place. Team silver in the same event was just a smidgen away from gold. The team bronze medal in Men's Double Trap rewarded a solid performance and Michael placed seventh in the individual. Otherwise everyone put in the best that they were capable of on the day and whilst some undoubtedly would have been disappointed with their performances, there is no question that they worked hard to produce their best.

The team.

Team members were responsible and conducted themselves well. All were cooperative and pleasant and it was a real pleasure to be associated with them. Particular mention must be made of the contributions of Luca Scribani Rossi and Greg Chan. Both are very competent and reliable. Being new to travelling with a solely target group I was pleased to have their help and advice which was willingly and pleasantly provided on several occasions.

The main problems we faced had to do with the travel delays, which were out of our control, and ammunition which was a concern to customs and police officials. Team members handled these problems with maturity and good will. David Cunningham and two younger team members must make special mention of the marathon journey of about 48 hours from Melbourne. David took responsibility for guiding the group through a very trying time and, by report, handled all the problems with efficiency and exemplary self-control under difficult circumstances.

Other than our travel problems and one team member who could Lisa Smith, who arrived with the last group, came down with the flu shortly after arrival and subsequently George Barton and Greg Chan caught the same bug. The services of the Doctor in the Italian team were sought and the medications provided alleviated some of the symptoms.

Maryborough Tid Bits Qld

These two old fellows just started at the old folk home and the nurse took them out into the garden and made them comfortable in armchairs in the sun, and made them a cup of tea and nice fresh scones. So one fellow said to the other, this is great, nice and quiet and warm in the sun, what a nice place to finish our days. But, there were these two old ladies who used to get up to a bit of fun and one said to the other, lets strip off and we'll run past those two new fellows in the garden and we will give them a surprise. So they stripped off and went past the old fellows so they could see the look on their faces.

One old bloke said to the other did you see that, what just went past? The other said yes, whatever it was it wants ironing.

We will have some results of May shoot which were too late for July copy.

31-5-99

The bible arrived on time again and reading the Presidents Notes, I say don't get upset about arrival of bible Glenn, there are bigger things than this to worry about. The way I look at it is, if it is late one month, it won't be long before the next one is here. To be on the safe side if your shoot is early in the month place your add in the month before.

With MTB it stated President Possum which should have been Resident Possum, sorry Chris at Gympie.

I thought it was great Graham, but don't give up your day job. Great to see Keith & Graham again, by the way Keith likes his mandarins hot, he put them on the car seat in the sun. Surprisingly enough they taste OK hot. Of course the cold ones will be tax-free and the hot ones will be GST, that is Great, Sweet, Taste. Thanks Keith. Good Company.

Inaugural "Jim Keen One Gun Triathlon Shoot"

Sydney CTC 11th April 1999

150 Target - 50 Skeet, 50 S/Barrel, 50 Trench - Not everybody's idea of fun, but not Sydney CTC member Jim Keen as for some time Jim had been pushing for such an event to be added to our programme. Well this year he convinced us it was time to do it, not that Jim himself, who was going to sponsor the event, had anything to do with our decision. It was a matter of shut the man up.

It was a pity for Jim and the Club that the weather was crook and it was a Greek Easter, it kept the expected competitors away (or was it just a cowardice).

Anyway, about 25 hardy souls turned out for one of the best day's fun we had had for years.

The event is to be shot with one gun from start to finish no changing of chokes or barrels, just sheer skill.

Starting skeet layout shot 50 skeet, then straight into 50 Single Barrel DTL. Then on to 50 Trench Targets, somewhere in between we stopped for a lovely sit down meal provided by Di Bonello, which was included in the days shooting.

I will not embarrass some of the contestants by telling of three dismal performances (least of all me) but I will say everybody had the most FUN they have had for a long time.

1st O/All 168/190 Craig Tilley

2nd 166/190 Vince Gatt

3rd 130/150 Victa De-Costa

4th 123/150 Tas Psarakis

5th 120/150 Frank Auditore.

Ladies Janenne Kidd

Junior Peter Auditore

All of these shooters received a sash each and split up over $1000 cash between them, while some of us were having fun, some were deadly serious!!!! And they got the cash....

Well Jim all we can say is well done, Jim has nominated to do it again next year, it will be on earlier in the year (late Feb) away from Easter so all you good shots can attend.

So lets get behind Jim next year and support the man that after all just wants to see his mates having FUN....

RELEASE TRIGGER!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

It's not everyday a Club member puts his hand into his own pocket to the tune of $1400 just to prove a point. Jim's Point! Lets bring some fun back to shooting, and also see just how good a shot some of us are.

We have some good skeet shooters, good DTL shots and some fine Trench shooters, but how many are good, or at least fair at all three disciplines?

To Editor

I would like to take this opportunity (better late than never) to congratulate the ACTA, QCTA & Roma Clay Target Club on great Nationals.

Sadly for me, my work determined that I could not attend for the whole duration. The five days that I did get to attend were memorable.

The grounds looked great & the opportunity to be able to camp was welcomed by many others & myself. The office, to the bar/dining area was so well prepared and ran without any problems.

The people running the traps, the Shoot Marshall Adrian Cousens and his helpers, the Office workers, the Volunteers from the ACTA, QCTA and RCTC need to be congratulated, and of course we can't forget the bar & kitchen workers who put in many long hours.

Although I am only a veteran of 4 Nationals, I must say this event for 1999 was by far the best I personally have attended. RCTC should be congratulated as well for their catering, with the great variety & quality of food. I especially liked the idea of nightly entertainment on the grounds, as the shooters got to relax and socialise, instead of everyone heading off in separate directions.

Should the opportunity arise for the RCTC to host another event for the ACTA, I feel that they should be given that opportunity without a second thought.

Yours sincerely
Janne Gear

To the Editor.

Congratulations must go to the Roma Gun Club and the ACTA for choosing to hold the 1999 National Championships at Roma. A number of members from our Club attended the event and were extremely impressed.

The high standard of the facilities, catering, entertainment and the overall running of the Nationals is a credit to the Roma Gun Club. Dedication, hard work and vision from the members of the Roma Club were obviously the key to their success.

Again congratulations to both the club and of course the ACTA for entrusting this years Nationals to Roma. Lets hope that those shooters who couldn't attend will get an opportunity in the future to experience Nationals the "Roma" way.

Yours sincerely

Tambo Clay Target Club
Queensland.

HERB BARNES

It is with much sadness that the Walmer Gun Club informs you of the loss of one of our Life Members Herb Barnes, who passed away on 5th of June, aged 82 years.

Herb enjoyed his shooting very much, both DTL and Tower and was a very regular participant until illness preventing him from attending.

Our deepest sympathy to his wife Nell, and family.

Walmer Gun Club

TOM GANNON

It is with great sadness that the Wonthaggi Gun Club advises shooters of the passing of Tom Gannon on April 14th 1999.

Tom was a keen and respected shooter, both field and trap, and an active club member and office bearer as well as a S.E. Zone committee member. He was a life member of the Wonthaggi Gun Club, who was actively involved in the coaching and training of Junior shooters.

Most of the South Gippsland will miss his weekly column in the Sentinel Times, which kept everybody informed with the club results and the latest field information. Tom was a keen supporter of all the Gippsland clubs and enjoyed the regular trips to the S.E. Zone Team Shoots.

The committee and members of the Wonthaggi Gun Club extend their deepest sympathy to Tom's family.

Farewell to a "UNIQUE" man.

VIC HARRISON

Vic passed away in early June 1999, aged 89. He was a Foundation Member and Foundation Secretary of the Sebastopol Gun Club when it was formed in 1955.

The original Gun Club was situated at the end of Gladstone Street until it was shifted to its present location.

Vic was the Secretary for those 9 years and for the first year of the club in its present location.

He was also an excellent shot and won numerous sashes and trophies during his career. He was also noted for his skill as a field shooter.

Vic will be sadly missed especially by the older shooters of the Ballarat District.

Brian Carter
Sebastopol Gun Club.

The W.A. Clay Target Association and the Katanning Clay Target Club regret to inform the shooters of Australia of the death of Scotty, after a short illness.

Scotty came to Australia from Kenya in 1962 and joined the Katanning Club in April 1963. Over the years Scotty was a Committeeman and Secretary.

Scotty was the complete shot, be it Trap, Skeet, Field Clay Targets or Duck Shooting, his knowledge of the technique required was in the top bracket.

His knowledge of reloading was legendary and his help was eagerly sort and always freely given. Scotty was one of the few to have shot breaks of 250 plus in Trap and 200 plus in Skeet, and achievement that is attained by very few shooters. He knew the rules as well as anyone in Australia and abided by them and expected all others to do the same.

Scotty played it hard, but always fair and at his funeral, which was a very large one, many tributes were paid to his generosity to Clubs, Shooters and people in general, be it nearly always anonymously given.

Our condolences go to Nancy and the family.

So passes one of the great characters - We will miss him.

T Catling, Katanning.

"OUR MATE ALAN"

Many a good day will not be forgotten and that yarn shall still be told when we remember our mate Alan Sydenham. Deepest sympathy to his Family from all Mornington Clay Target Club Committee and Members.

The Forest Clay Target Club Inc.

The Forest Clay Target Club Inc. conducted its Annual Charity Shoot, in aid of the Lakesland Rural Fire Service on the 15th and 16th May 1999.

This event has been conducted on an annual basis since the club rebuilt after moving from Sutton Forest to its present location in the early 1980's. This year the weather was kind to us, and shooting conditions were as close to ideal as could be expected.

Shooting commenced at 1pm on the Saturday with a 20 target Point Score event. This was won overall by Forest member Peter Munday with a perfect 60/60, the only possible shot.

POSITION VACANT

Applications are now open for the position of Shoot Marshal for the 1999 Skeet Nationals to be held at the Wagga Shooting Ground 18 to 21 November.

Interested persons should apply, stating experience, to:

Administration Manager
PO Box 466
Wagga Wagga
NSW 2650

Applications close last mail
30 September 1999

AA winner and high gun shield, Angelo Piazza.

A grade winner 100T double barrel, N. Gay.

B grade winner Andrew Malinowsky, 96/100.

Alex Hill C grade winner, 100T double barrel.

Worthy of mention also were the scores shot by two women, S Psarakis who won B Grade with 55/60 and Karen Berry who took C with 52/60.

The second event on Saturday 50T D/B was won outright by D Barnes a visitor from Victoria, with 69/70. Mr Barnes donated his trophy, a case of Winchester cartridges to the Rural Fire Services to be suitably disposed of. A very sporting gesture.

At the conclusion of shooting on Saturday the Rural Fire Service provided a complimentary dinner for shooters, with a donation asked for, for guests. As had come to be expected, the dinner was excellent, with the highlight being the Pig on the Spit prepared by traditional chef, Mick Freestone who is a master of the art. I am told that the cooking time this year took 19 stubbies, but then it was a rather large pig.

Sunday dawned clear and fine with 100 targets D/B on the programme. Angelo Piazza took AA with 99/100, from Gary Rootes with 133/135. In A Grade N Gay with 115/117 won from C Auditore with 114/117. In B Grade Club Vice President Andrew Malinowsky finished in with 96/100 from E Emery 95/100. It was very pleasing to see Forest member, Alex Hill win C Grade with 88/100. Alex has been shooting for less than 12 months, and there was plenty of improvement in him.

Forest Club member Peter Munday with 204/210 took out the two-day high gun.

Altogether a very successful weekends shooting. We thank our sponsors, Winchester Australia, and Club President Don Easterway who while not enjoying the best of health still has the Club at heart.

Jack Kelland, Honorary Secretary

Mount Isa Gun Club Annual Shoot 12 - 14 June 1999

Local Shooter has a break of 268 targets

Over the Queens Birthday long weekend Mount Isa Gun club held their Annual Shoot. Shooters traveled from Townsville, Burdekin, Normanton, Darr River and Cloncurry to compete in the weekend's events. The conditions for the shooters were pleasant with the temperature not raising much above 24°C and the breeze blowing slightly. Without the help of the following sponsors this event would not have been such a success. Thank you to Pump & Power, Simon Carves Electrical, Uniserve, Queensland Gun Exchange, Generator & Welder Services, Bushy Park Pastoral Pty Ltd, Medley's Wholesale, Bush & Palette and Mount Isa Irish Association.

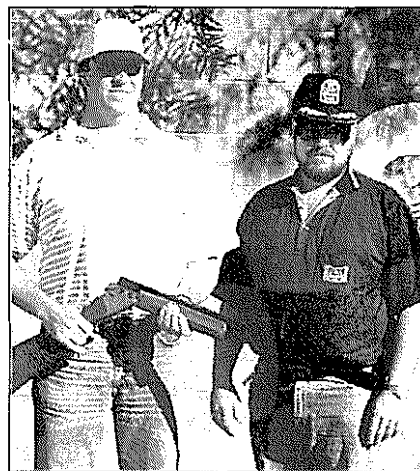

Club vice president Bruce Murphy, Copper City Double Barrel Champion Ross Walsh 190/190.

The first event of the weekend was the Points Score Eye-opener. This was a 25 targets points score off 15m event. Robbie Cusack from Mt Isa shot a perfect score of 75/75 to take out "AA" grade, Mick McGill (Mt Isa) took "A" grade with 72/75, "B" grade went to Rob Dean (Cloncurry) with 74/75 and "C" grade went to Cameron Brown (Cloncurry) with 66/75.

The next event of the day was the Mount Isa Gun Club Day Single

Barrel Championship. Wayne Reeves (Normanton), Diane Reeves (Normanton), Rod Maxwell (Mt Isa) and Gary Brown (Cloncurry) all shot 24/25, so the overall trophy had to be decided by a shoot off. W. Reeves won the overall and "AA" grade with 37/38 and second place in "AA" grade went to Maxwell with 36/38. "A" grade went to Brown from Cloncurry with 24/25, second place in "A" grade was won by Monty Hocking (Mt Isa) 23/25, First place in "B" grade went to Dean Cusack (Mt Isa) with 23/25. Second place in "B" grade had to be decided by a shoot off because Rob Dean (Cloncurry) and Jim Molloy (Cloncurry) both shot 22/25. Dean eventually won the place with 28/31. "C" grade also had to be decided by a shoot off after Helen Becke (Burdekin) and Dean Duncan (Cloncurry) both shot 21/25, Becke won the grade with 23/27 and Duncan took second place with 22/27. The best lady for this event was Diane Reeves (Normanton) 24/25 and the best junior for the event was Joe Sebastiani (Mt Isa) 20/25.

Evan Yanters winner of the gun. Evan was always borrowing a gun to shoot before this. Standing with Michael Coleman (club president).

Event 3 was the Copper City Double Barrel Championship (25 targets double barrel off 15m.). Ross Ohlsen (Mt Isa), Wayne Reeves (Normanton), Diane Reeves (Normanton), Bruce Murphy (Mt Isa), Brian Palethorpe (Mt Isa), Rob Cusack (Mt Isa), Ross Walsh (Mt Isa) and Monty Hocking (Mt Isa) all shot the possible of 25/25. After 35 targets D Reeves, Palethorpe and Walsh were the only shooters left in the shoot off, Palethorpe bowed out after 10 more targets and Reeves and Walsh shot another 55 targets to decide the overall winner. Walsh won with a score of 190/190 which also enabled him to take "AA" grade. Diane did not miss in 210 targets shot at and succeeding in take the best lady for this event. "A" grade went to Monty Hocking (Mt Isa) with 25/25, "B" grade Ross Ohlsen (Mt Isa) 25/25, "C" grade to Cameron Brown (Cloncurry) 23/25 and the best junior was Joe Sebastiani (Mt Isa) 19/25.

Walsh's perfect shooting carried onto event 4 the Annual Points Score Championship with him shooting 75/75 and then having to go into a shoot off against Rod Maxwell, Rod Cusack, Rob Cusack and Ron Power all from Mt Isa. Walsh won the overall and "AA" grade for this event with a score of 189/189. Walsh still had not dropped a target. "A" grade went to Ron Power 75/75, "B" grade to Ross Ohlsen 68/75, "C" grade to Helen Becke (Burdekin) 66/75, best lady Diane Reeves and the best Junior was Cameron Brown (Cloncurry) 62/75.

Event 4 was the last event for day 1, everybody gathered in the Clubhouse for dinner and to draw and auction the Calcutta.

Day 2 started with Event 5 the Mount Isa Day Double Barrel Championship. Once again Walsh continued on his winning streak shooting 60/60 to take the overall and "AA" grade. Second in "AA" grade was won by Wayne Reeves (Normanton). Walsh won the overall prize after shooting off against Jim Edmonds (Mt Isa) who also shot 50/50. Edmonds took out "A" grade and second also had to be decided by a shoot off after Dave Stitt (Mt Isa) and Monty Hocking (Mt Isa) both shot 49/50. Hocking emerged the winner of second place in this grade. The shoot offs continued to decide "B" grade placing after Ross Ohlsen (Mt Isa) and Jim Molloy (Cloncurry) both shot 47/50, Molloy took first and Ohlsen came second. "C" grade was won outright by Anne Coleman (Mt

Brown won the shoot off to take second place in "C" grade. The best lady for event 5 was Diane Reeves again with 46/50 and the Best Junior was once again Joe Sebastiani with 29/50.

Event 6 was the first leg of the Calcutta - 25 target Equal Score off 15m. This event saw "AA" graders Diane Reeves (Normanton), Rod Maxwell (Mt Isa), Brian Palethorpe (Mt Isa), Rob Cusack (Mt Isa), Ted Matthews (Mt Isa) and Ross Walsh (Mt Isa) all shoot 25/25. Walsh continue his perfect shooting and taking "AA" grade out with 54/54, Maxwell took second with 53/54. In "A" grade Jim Edmonds (Mt Isa) and Mick McGill (Mt Isa) both shot 24/25, Edmonds 26/27 took first place and McGill second with 25/27. First in "B" grade went to Allen Allenby (Darr River) with 24/25 second in "B" grade also had to be decided by a shoot off with Paul Pozzoli (Mt Isa), Dean Cusack (Mt Isa), Jim Molloy (Cloncurry) and Len Carty (Townsville) shooting 23/25. Carty from Townsville took second after only two targets. In "C" grade Joe Sebastiani (Mt Isa) and Dean Duncan (Cloncurry) both shot 22/25 and had to shoot off for first and second place. Duncan won first place with 24/27 and Sebastiani second with 23/27. The best lady in this event was Diane Reeves with 25/25 and the best junior was Cameron Brown with 20/25.

Event 7 was the second leg of the Calcutta - 25 target Equal Score off Handicap. Dean Duncan (Cloncurry) and Ross Walsh (Mt Isa) both shot 25/25. Walsh's record of not dropping a target came to an end with this shoot off. Duncan won first place with 26/26. Walsh has achieved a club record of having a break of 368 targets. Walsh was awarded second and Diane Reeves's Third place and Wayne Reeves Forth place.

Now it was time to add up the score to find out who would win the High Gun. Ross Walsh was the winner of the overall High Gun with the score of 295/300 followed closely by Rob Cusack with 293/300. The scores of the rest of the shooters was as follows "AA" grade Wayne and Diane Reeves 290/300, Brian Palethorpe 288/300, Rod Maxwell 282/300, Bruce Hall (Mt Isa) 275/300, and Bruce Murphy (Mt Isa) 261/300. "A" grade Dave Stitt (Mt Isa) 278/300, Mick McGill 274/300, Rod Cucask (Mt Isa) 271/300, Ron Power (Mt Isa) 267/300, Jim Edmonds (Mt Isa) 265/300, Glenys Palethorpe (Mt Isa) 262/300 and Gary Brown (Cloncurry) 242/300. 240/300, Allen Allenby (Darr River) 232/300, Bruce Goeldner (Mt Isa) 224/300 and Myrtle Anderson (Mt Isa) 218/300. "C" grade Cameron Brown (Cloncurry) 252/300, Helen Becke (Burdekin) 248/300, Peter Bosel (Mt Isa) 237/300, Cecile Edmonds (Mt Isa) 225/300, Anne Coleman (Mt Isa) 224/300, Chris Larter (Sydney) 206/300, John Whatmore (Mt Isa) and Joe Sebastiani (Mt Isa) 201/300, Howard Walton (Cloncurry) and Evan Yanitsas (Sydney) 195/300, Andrew Butler (Mt Isa) 192/300, Ray Burrows (Mt Isa) 190/300 and Peter Whelan (Sydney) 131/300.

The final event of the day was a Farewell event of 10 targets points score off 15m. Glenys Palethorpe, Brian Palethorpe, Rod Cusack, Ted Matthews, Ron Power and Monty Hocking all shot 30/30 to share the winnings of this event.

Day 3 was the Commonwealth Ball Trap Championship - 100 targets ball trap. Due to the trap failing at the end of the day the event was reduced to a 75 target event, these changes greatly altered the outcome of the event. Overall and "A" grade were tied by Ross Walsh and Wayne Reeves both scoring 67/75, "B" grade went to Jim Molloy 55/75 and "C" grade went to Mick Coleman 55/75.

CUZZO'S RAMBLINGS AUGUST 1999

Last month I elaborated at some length on the discrepancies between the World Standard Rules for Skeet Shooting, as laid down by the NSSA, and the Australian Skeet Rules as determined by the ACTA, which have run off at a shallow tangent over a period of time. If you read that article, there probably won't be any doubt in your mind about a couple of things. The first is that I firmly believe there should only be one set of Rules worldwide, and the second is that the ACTA Rules Committee now probably believe I am a trouble maker with a smart mouth and far too much to say. While I am forced to admit that there may be some semblance of truth in the latter, I am hopeful that our opposing positions may be able to be reconciled to some degree, and that the former can eventually pretty much come to pass.

On the basis of that assumption, I intend to elaborate this month on some other areas closely related to the Rules and their application and consequences. When quoting from the NSSA Rulebook, I do not intend to attempt to convert the measurements from Imperial to Metric for a couple of reasons. Firstly I do not believe that it is either relevant or necessary when dealing with international specifications. And secondly I know that such conversions are fraught with dangers, such as misunderstandings due to the inability to visualize abstract concepts, and the tendency to overlook seemingly obvious typos for much the same reason. A typical example of this can be found in our current Rulebook, where the distance between Skeet stations is incorrectly transposed from 26 feet 8 3/8 inches to 8.3 meters, instead of 8.13 meters. This type of error never becomes obvious until you try to lay out a field using these specifications and find that station seven ends up out in no-mans land.

First let's look at the flight path of a Skeet target. It is governed by the Rulebook, which states that the target shall pass over the crossing point at a height of fifteen feet and carry to a distance of sixty yards in still air. Thus each traphouse provides a target with a different trajectory due to the difference in height from which it is launched. The high house target originates from a point 10 feet above the ground and directly above the base chord. The low house target originates from a point 3 1/2 feet above the ground and 2 1/2 feet outside the base chord. The Rulebook allows a tolerance of plus or minus two yards in the target distance. Tradition allows a tolerance of plus or minus 1 1/2 feet at the crossing point in both height and direction due to the widespread use of a 3-foot diameter setting hoop.

I dwell fairly heavily last month on the difference in target speed created by the difference in stipulated distances between the NSSA and the ACTA, and the additional confusion created by differing practical applications of these distances between the two main disciplines that are jointly administered in this country. The reason I dwell on this is because the speed of the target is probably the most important of all the variable factors from a shooter's point of view, and the one most likely to cause a miss with the least amount of variation. Each individual target speed should theoretically be constant due to its necessity to conform to the standard target flight. The fact that the low house target needs to climb an additional 6 1/2 feet on its way to the crossing point, and yet still cover the same distance as the high house target, would seem to suggest that it would need to be launched quite a bit faster. However this is almost negated by the fact that the low house target covers its distance with a more arcing trajectory, and arrives at its distance marker with very little retained velocity. The high house target, on the other hand, is driven with a much flatter trajectory, and arrives at its distance marker with considerable retained velocity.

In actual fact, both targets leave the arm of the throwing machine at reasonably similar speeds of around 50 m.p.h. The invention of radar guns, and their application in recent years to clay target setting, has pretty much borne this out. It has been found that under normal conditions, initial readings of around 46 m.p.h. for the high house and around 48 m.p.h. for the low house, will provide targets which conform to standard specifications. Part of the reason for this apparent difference in speeds is due to the fact that practicality dictates the high house target being measured further out along, and from a greater angle to, its flight line than the low one. The major benefit of using radar guns, apart from being a little quicker and easier, is the consistency of target speed from field to field that they produce.

The initial velocity of both targets will also vary due to air density. Thus it will vary slightly at any given club from day to day, depending upon changes in barometric pressure. More noticeably, it will vary considerably from club to club depending upon elevation above sea level. The higher the altitude, the lower the average air pressure and density. This would seem to suggest that at higher altitudes, with less air resistance, the target would not need to be launched as fast in order to reach the same distance. If the target was spherical, like a shot pellet, then this would certainly be true. But as the target is somewhat aerodynamically shaped like an aircraft wing, it actually generates lift as it travels through the air. This elongates its flight as compared to a non-airfoil shaped object, and thinner air will provide less lift.

Thus, the question is, do these two effects cancel one another out or does one override the other? Practical experience has shown that, at high altitude, the effect of reduced air resistance outweighs the effect of reduced aerodynamic lift and thus the target does not in fact need to be launched as fast in order to conform to the specified flight path. A machine set in Savannah (sea level) and then installed in Denver (5000 ft.) will throw the targets about 65 yards and will require the speed to be backed off a couple of mph to bring the distance back to 60 yards.

At some time in every skeet shooter's career, they will probably shoot on a field that somehow just doesn't look or feel quite right to them. This has happened to me at least a dozen times and on all but two occasions it turned out to be an optical illusion. However any time that this happens it is much better to put it out of your mind by checking it, rather than have it cause you to shoot tentatively due to wondering about it. This is another good reason to arrive a day early at any clubs you have not previously visited, and shoot some practice on each of the fields. With the help of a friend and a list of basic measurements, and a measuring tape or a little ingenuity, a field can be adequately checked out in a few minutes.

Always start by making sure that Station #8 is exactly centralized between the two traphouses. First make sure that it is centralized on the base chord line by standing with your back up against the center of the face of the high house, having your friend stand in the center of Station #8, and making sure that he appears to line up with the center of the low house. Then make sure that Station #8 is equidistant from each house by measuring it. If you have a tape measure, it should be 63 feet 4 1/2 inches to each house from the center of Station #8. If you do not have a tape, use the pull-cord to make sure that the distance from the center of Station #8 to each house is the same, and then work on the reasonably safe assumption that the two houses are correctly spaced.

Then make sure that the crossing point is correctly positioned. First make sure that it lines up with the centers of Station #4 and Station #8. Then make sure that it is located 18 feet from the center of Station #8. If you have a tape, measure it. If you don't then use the target setting hoop, which should be 16 1/2 feet from the base of the pole to the top of the hoop, as the target height is 15 feet and the hoop diameter is usually 3 feet. Station #8 should be 6 feet long and 3 feet wide and thus the distance from the crossing point to the nearest edge of Station #8 should be 16 1/2 feet (the overall length of the target setting hoop). Now you are in a position to check any or all of the three areas that may not feel quite right to you - the station positions, the target height or the target path.

For the Shooting Stations to be in the correct position, the center of the front edge of each perimeter station should be 21 yards from the crossing point. The distance from the center of the front edge of each perimeter station, to the same point on each neighboring station, should be 26 feet 8 3/8 inches. If you have a tape, then measure them. If you don't, then use the pull-cord to make sure that at least they are all equidistant, and then work on the reasonably safe assumption that if they are all the same, then they are probably all correct.

Now for the Target Height. If you have a tape, measure the target setting hoop and make sure that it is 15 feet from the base of the pole in the center of the hoop. If you don't have a tape, check it against some other reasonably assumable comparison such as 2 1/2 times the length of Station #8 or five times the width of any station pad. Then use the hoop to set the target height, allowing for any elevation variation between Station #8 and the target crossing point, and you won't be far wrong.

Now that the height and line of the target are correct at the crossing point, the only other variable to check is distance, which will control the target speed. First establish the boundary markers by extending the line from the center of each target window, through the crossing point, to the position where it intersects with a line extended from the front face of each traphouse. If you wish to double-check the boundary markers, they are both 22 yards from the crossing point. The high target marker is 12 yards from the center of the rear of Station #7, and the low target marker is 11 yards and 6 inches from the center of the rear of Station #1. From these boundary markers, extend the "window center-crossing point" line another 16 yards and you have the distance marker points. If you don't have a tape, then 16 yards is twice the full length of the target setting hoop plus the length from the base of the pole to the center of the hoop. Now set the targets to fly through the center of the hoop and land at these distance markers, and again you can't be far wrong.

The only other questionable factor is the target emergence point. This should be the center of each target window. The center of the high house window should be 10 feet above the center of the rear side of Station #1. The center of the low house window should be 3 1/2 feet above the level of Station #7, and 2 1/2 feet beyond the center of its rear side. Sometimes, even if the window is correctly positioned, the target-throwing machine will be mounted incorrectly, such that the target does not emerge from the center of the window. From a practical shooting point of view, this is not particularly critical in either plane with the low house, or in the vertical plane with the high house. However, if the high house target emerges from either side of the window, it is advisable to be aware of this and adjust your shooting position on Station #1 accordingly.

Now, to change the subject. By the time you read this article, the NSW Skeet Carnival will be only a couple of weeks away. However, due to our 30-day publishing deadline, as I write it, that event is still six weeks away and the electronic bits for the first prototype of CVRIL's new Skeet Phono-pull System have just arrived on my doorstep. It's my job to figure out the best practical application for these items, and I am very hopeful that only a minimal amount of field testing and fine-tuning will be required to produce a good workable system. Thus I am confident that half a dozen sets will be available to the NSWCTA for their annual tournament in Wagga on the second weekend of August. Provided they work well there, and the shooters are happy with them, I see no reason why this year's Skeet Nationals cannot utilize similar technology to that which was so successful at the Trap Nationals in Roma earlier this year.

This Month's Shooting Trivia Question is the flip-side of last month's question: Who was the first New Zealand shooter to win the Australian Skeet Championship? Mail your answer to: Shooting Trivia, P.O. Box 265, Bairnsdale 3875 to arrive by 25-08-99. The first correct answer drawn will win a free entry to the National Skeet Championship this year. The correct answer to last month's STQ was: The highest score that has ever been shot to win the National Skeet High Gun was 399-400. This great feat was performed by Ian Hale in 1984 and I doubt if it will be equaled for a very long time, particularly in light of the fact that the National program now includes 100 Doubles. The winner of a free entry to this year's Commonwealth Skeet Championship is Trevor Jones of Peachelba in Victoria. Well done Trevor! If you have a good trivia question for me to publish, or an interesting subject you would like discussed in this column, please forward it to me at the above address.

Sarina Clay Target Club Inc.

The Sarina District enjoyed a full-bore rifle club for the past seventy years.

The Club stopped shooting on the range in 1996.

This was bought about with the sale of a piece of freehold land and the new owner is withholding his signature for the shooting rights over his piece of land.

The good news for Sarina shooters is a Sarina Clay Target Club was formed in the past twelve month's and now have their own incorporation and registration with the QCTA in place.

The SCTC operate on the existing rifle range, which does not have to rely on this freehold land for their safety zone.

The main aim was to maintain a shooting presence so there was not a chance of losing this rifle range through lack of use by the shooters of Sarina.

The land that the rifle club has their range on consists of about 44 hectares. There is a well-equipped clubhouse with kitchen facilities, gas barbecues, fridge's and a magazine to store ammunition and other valuables. There are good toilet facilities and a shed which house tractor and other range keeping equipment.

The Club has the full support of the local authorities. Their help so far has been very encouraging for the club in their endeavor to make a small shooting complex, which will hopefully accommodate shotgun, pistol and maybe rifle again some day.

With a district population of 10,000 it is important to maintain this area of land for shooting, especially with the new gun laws in place.

At this stage we only have one temporary trap layout with an automatic thrower which delivers very good targets. In the future we hope to have a three-trap layout.

The SCTC was accepted by the QCTA as a practice club only. This in Queensland means we cannot hold any trophy shoots of any description or give out any prizes until we are eligible to apply and be recognised as a club status.

This in itself stalls any chance of the club being able to do any fund raising for improvements which are much needed in any club, not to mention the fact that we have to maintain all day to day costs or try to be self sufficient in running our own club.

The club is only about 5kms from Sarina and the people are very pleasant. You will find the people very helpful in whatever your needs.

Sarina is only a short drive to the outlets of the ever-popular Whitsunday Islands. For the travelling tourists we have an area beside the clubhouse for camping and caravan sites. All we ask is a donation to our club for the use of this facility.

We do look forward to any visiting shooter to our area to come and have a shot with us or just enjoy our popular barbecue lunch.

The clubs monthly shoot is held on the first Sunday of the month.

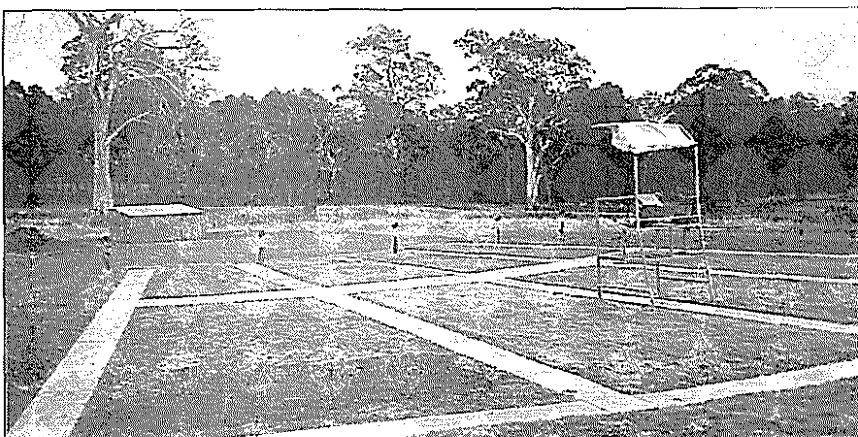

Good shooting all. Enjoy whatever shooting facility you have, because when you don't have one, then you really know how much you miss your favourite spot.

Bega Gun Club

The forward thinking Members, of the current Committee of the Bega Gun Club Inc. purchased two Voice Release Systems for both trap layouts in May this year, in an effort to provide improved conditions for Club members and visiting shooters.

The V.R.S. were put to use for the first time in June for the 50t 'Kent O'Brien Insurance Management Championship' and they proved very popular with all 29 competitors taking part in the 50 target Single Barrel event.

Ocular Dominance: (Master Eye)

The shooter will most accurately fixate the site with the dominant eye. The gun is usually held on the dominant side of the body for balance and steadiness. Ipsilateral dominance (same eye as hand) is more accurate than shooting with contralateral (different eye to hand). If cross dominant the preference should be to use the dominant eye and the non-dominant hand/arm. It is very difficult to rotate head more and use the dominant eye, with the dominant hand.

Ocular dominance should be tested in all junior and first time and novice shooters. These shooters should be encouraged as early as possible to use their dominant eye-matching arm.

Blinking:

A shooter should learn to control their blinking as it takes 1/5th of a second to blink (0.2 sec), this decreases the concentration, and is significant amount of time if the target has already been called.

Oculars/Two eyes open:

Each eye sees an image of the world. This gives what is called "Physiological diplopia". This allows recognition of depth and location of the visual target in space. This also means that a shooter will need to suppress (turn off or not use) the non-dominant eye as the trigger is pulled.

You should always keep both eyes open while shooting; this gives judgement of depth and the ability to locate the target quickly. If you cannot turn-off the non dominant eye when you shoot, and see two barrels or two targets, a very small spot in exactly the right position will occlude stop you seeing two exactly at the same time of firing. This will allow you to keep both eyes open at all times and give you better depth perception.

Keeping the non-aiming eye open allows peripheral input. This helps to keep balance, and spatial awareness while aiming. Closing one eye will cause the facial muscles to strain, and reduces the peripheral field seen and the ability to judge depth.

Visualisation:

This is an important tool for any sports person. When dry firing the shooter needs to visualise the actual competition taking place. This will help with relaxation, breathing control, and focusing on the task of shooting. The competitive shooter needs to learn to block out all other distractions and thoughts. Visualisation is a good way of practicing this. It can be practiced at any time, in any location.

Summary.

1. Maximum visual acuity for both eyes for distance
2. Any small prescription is very significant.
3. Don't close one eye when you shoot, a very small spot on the precise position of the lens is better.
4. Prescriptions change with time - they need to be checked regularly.
5. Thick plastic or polycarbonate lense for safety only.
6. Clear lenses with light tints.
7. Multicoating to stop reflections.
8. Vision training for depth perception and spatial awareness.
9. Vision training for changing focus quickly.
10. Blinking control.
11. Visualisation

Sports Vision Examinations.

A Sports Optometrist can examine your eyes for "normal" visual needs and ocular health, as well as sporting needs.

1. The Examination:

A Sports optometry examination specific to shooters will look at distance visual acuity (the amount of detail you see at distance), accommodative skills (your ability to change focus from trap house to target), ocular dominance (which is your master eye), fusion (the ability to put the picture from each eye together and see one image with depth), vergences (the ability to turn converge and diverge the eyes to follow a target). It may also include the ability to suppress the don-dominant eye, peripheral vision and the speed of reaction to a peripheral target, hand eye coordination, depth perception and spatial localization.

2. Sports Eyewear:

Suitable corrective lenses, frames, tints and coatings can be added to spectacle prescriptions and can be designed specifically for shooting, with both very sharp vision and safety involved.

Burdekin Gun Club Anniversary Shoot Report

A large crowd gathered at the Burdekin Gun Club on the weekend of 29th and 30th May for the Club's 50th Anniversary Shoot. Shooters from Mt Isa, Silkwood, Clermont, Mackay, Atherton, Cairns, Bowen, Ingham, Charters Towers, Townsville and locally attended with some serious competition going on. The shooters that arrived early enjoyed a Friday night tea put on by the club.

The weekend got under way just after 9.00 am with the Burdekin Laser Services 25 target Double Barrel Continental event to get the blood rushing. Overall was won by Bowen shooter Mick Blain with a score of 71/72 after a shoot off with Barry Bosworth, Richard Bell, Glen Rea, Bill Gall, Paul Pozzoli, Ross Walsh and Ray Collinson.

Ray Collinson was placed first in AA Grade from Ross Walsh. A Grade was won by Barry Bosworth with 27/28 from Bill Gall on 26/28. Paul Pozzoli was the best of the B Graders with 28/29 and Bruce McBow took out second with 36/37 after a shoot off with Bill Gillingwater, Sam Coco, Lawrence Falco, Geoff Dalton, Michael Zabala, Rino Broccardo and Len Catanzaro who all shot 24/25 in the event.

The women showed the way in C Grade with Helen Becke taking first with a score of 22/25 from Wayne Cislowski on 23/27 after shooting off with Troy Dennis. Kellie Rea took out the Women's prize with a score of 23/25 and Barry Nasser shot 25/26 to take out the Veterans after shooting off with Bill Gillingwater.

Event two was the Olympic Target 25 target Pointscore event with local Carrol Betteridge coming in with the only possible 75/75 to take out the overall trophy. AA Grade was won by Greg Maltby with 85/87 after a shoot off with Max Nicolaides. Keeping it in the family, Greg's dad Noel won A Grade prize with a score of 74/75 with Rev Taylor shooting 71/75 to take out second.

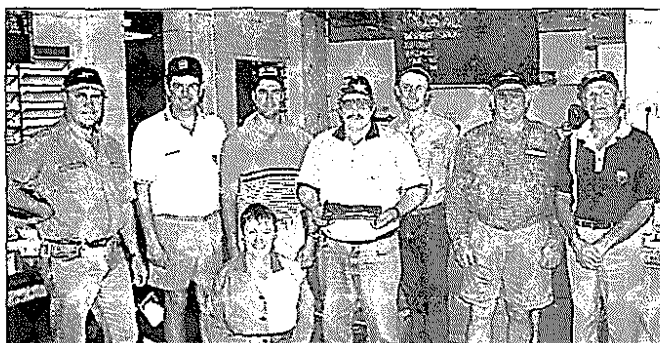

Gian Vassalini shot well to take out B Grade with 74/75 from Bruce McBow 72/75. C grade was won by Troy Dennis with 70/75 from Helen Becke with a score of 68/75. Carrol Betteridge took out the Women's prize with her 75/75 and Barry Nasser shot 68/75 to take home the Veterans prize again.

Saturdays feature event was event three being the Selected Meats 50 target Double Barrel Anniversary Championship. Ray Collinson showed the way here to take out the Overall with a score of 53/53 after shooting off with Robbie Dunn, Wayne Cislowski and Bruce McBow. Robbie Dunn took home AA Grade first prize with 52/53 from Ross Walsh who shot 81/82 after shooting off with Mike Collins, Joseph Rossato, Phillip Scalia, Mick Blain and Doug Killick.

Mick McGill won A Grade with a score of 52/53 after shooting off with Jim Laws giving Jim second. Bruce McBow continued his winning way to take out his last B Grade (now AA Grade) event with the score of 50/50. Geoff Dalton had to shoot off with Rino Broccardo and Bill Gillingwater before he took home second in B Grade. Wayne Cislowski showed everyone he is a shooter to be reckoned with after shooting 50/50 to take out C Grade from Troy Dennis who shot 46/50. Carrol Betteridge shot 48/50 to take out the Women's trophy and Bill Gillingwater finally got a first in the Veterans section with his score of 48/50.

Saturday night saw a large crowd enjoy a smorgasbord meal, which was prepared by the ladies of the club and coordinated by Dee Colls. Those in attendance included some past members who haven't been to the club for many years. An anniversary cake was cut by two of the clubs oldest life members in Bert Rubiolo and Lenny Ashworth and current club President Glen Rea. This was a highlight of the evening seeing the older members still being able to come out and enjoy themselves.

Sunday dawned with lots of hungry shooters attending the breakfast session getting ready for the day to come. With an 8.30 am start to proceedings, the Winchester/Honeycombes Sales and Service 25 target Single Barrel was a good wake up call. Local Shooter Robert Falco shot the only possible 25/25 to take out overall. Mike Collins, Robbie Dunn, Rod Cusack, Philip Scalia and Max Nicolaides went out for a shoot off in AA Grade after they shot 24/25 in the event. Mike Collins outlasted the rest to take out first with 34/35 from Robbie Dunn on 33/35.

Noel Benson had to shoot off with Barry Bosworth and Silvano Zorretto before he could claim A Grade with his score of 26/27, Barry shot one less to take second. David O'Donnell shot well to take out the B Grade prize with his score of 23/25. Rino Broccardo went into a shoot off with Tony LaSpina before taking second with 23/26. Wayne Cislowski shot a good score of 24/25 to clean up C Grade and Dennis Marchioni shot 20/25 to take second. Kellie Rea took out her second Women's prize with her score of 21/25. Barry Nasser had to shoot off again, this time with Karl Srb before he got his Veterans Prize.

The second last event for the weekend was the Pivot Ltd and Commercial Tavern 25-target Double Barrel event. Mt Isa shooter Mick McGill took out the Overall with a score of 57/57 after shooting off with Silvano Zorretto, Steve Nixon, Annette Vassalini, Tony LaSpina, Ross Walsh, Neville Sheehan and Ray Collinson. Ray took out first in AA Grade with 56/57 from Ross Walsh who shot 45/46. Neville Sheehan shot 37/38 to take out A Grade with Silvano Zorretto taking second with 27/28.

Annette Vassalini shot her first ever 25/25 in this event and continued on in the shoot off to shoot 41/42 to give her first in B Grade from Tony LaSpina on 31/32. Wayne Cislowski continued his winning way to come first in C Grade with 24/25 from Peter Bosel who had to shoot off with Helen Becke. Annette Vassalini was the best of the women to take home this prize. Barry Nasser had to shoot off again in the Veterans to take first place, this time it was Karl Srb and Phil Bonanno who were the lucky ones.

The weekend was coming to a close and the final was the Colls Earthmoving 50 target Double Barrel Handicap Event. Wayne Cislowski shot the only possible 50/50. Which was good shooting for someone who hadn't been shooting for a lot of years but it won't be long and he will be out of C Grade. Troy Dennis, Tim Edmonds, Noel Maltby, Peter Giardino and Steve Nicolaides all shot 49/50 and so the shoot off began but it only needed 5 targets to decide the winners. Steve Nicolaides took out second with 54/55 with Troy Dennis third and Noel Maltby fourth.

All that was left to do was to decide the Dwyer Aviation and Lui Populin High Guns and make presentations and this was no trouble as there were no ties in any grade. The Overall High Gun, with a score of 242/250 was Mt Isa Shooter Ross Walsh who took home the Colour TV and replica Cane Knife as a memento of the Burdekin Gun Club's 50th Anniversary Shoot.

AA Grade was local shooter Max Nicolaides just two targets behind on 240/250. Mick McGill of Mt Isa took out A Grade with 233/250. Bruce McBow was too consistent over the weekend to take out B Grade with his score of 233/250. Wayne Cislowski was much to strong for the rest of the C Graders and won this High Gun with a good score of 236/250. Carol Betteridge was the most consistent of the Women to take out this High Gun with a score of 231/250. The Veterans High Gun was a run away for Barry Nasser with his score of 232/250.

The club wishes to thank all the sponsors and raffle prize donors for their assistance, as without them the shoot would not have been the same. Thanks also to anyone who helped get the grounds to look the best they have done in many years. To all the people who cooked for the kitchen, to all whom helped Dee in the kitchen for the entire weekend, to Dee for doing such a great job organising all the food. Thanks also to all who helped in the bar over the weekend, to the shooters who helped with the refereeing and scoring and to the shooters for just turning up to make our anniversary shoot a very successful one. A big thankyou to anyone who did anything at all towards making this a successful shoot.

Lest we forget

A small boy once sat, impossibly still and silent for one so young, listening with the earnest intent of a scholar. He was totally absorbed in another of his grandfather's prolific stories, either from war in Gallipoli, France or Palestine or from the frontier of a pioneering youth. Such occasions were many and varied, from lounge room to gun room, from rifle range to creek bank; it was the shaping of a generation, the moulding of a boy's sense of values. It was the 1960's the era of the quintessential rural Australian family, when pastoral pursuits earned respect, shooting was an honorable past-time and traditions were respectfully observed.

On May 26th, 1999, the anniversary of his grandfather's landing at Gallipoli, that same small boy, now husband and father with receding hairline, gathered with his parents, fellow clay target club members and many returned servicemen from the merged recognition of two great Australian traditions.

The Warwick Clay Target Club, founded in 1950 by veterans of the first war and built on a site significant to the second, has proudly established its own memorial to those who served Australia in all wars. It was the initiative of Club President Greg Newey and brought to fruition by many enthusiastic and selfless members of a thriving club with generous financial support from the Department of Veteran's Affairs.

More than fifty people, mostly returned servicemen, attended the ceremony steeped in the tradition of Anzac Day. Club patron and returned soldier, Vic Wiedman unveiled the plaque, a permanent reminder to the wider community of the indisputable place recreational shooting holds in our culture and of the many great founding fathers who wished it so.

The plaque reads:

Warwick Clay Target Club War Memorial

The club was first formed after World War One by a group of returned servicemen who enjoyed the sport of shotgun target shooting, originally live pigeon and then clay pigeon.

Reformed in 1950, the club had many locations including Queens Park and rural properties. It was finally located permanently on this site in 1966 with the foresight of returned servicemen of the club from both major conflicts.

Morgan Park was also used for bivouac and training by the 11th Light Horse Regiment between the wars and was a major staging point for troops of World War Two.

The club has amongst its membership veterans of all military conflicts and this memorial is dedicated to them and their comrades.

Officially unveiled by club patron Victor H Wiedman QX28387 - 1st Armoured Division - 26th May 1999.

Lest we forget.

My grandfather would doubtless be somewhat dismissive of all the fuss we have created, even be bewildered by my sentimental ramblings, but deep down there would be limited approval.

For the record, he was Alex H Smith, pioneer, Anzac, horseman, successful grazier, craftsman, good shot and fisherman, bush philosopher and mentor.

I, Alex J Smith shall not forget.

(Alex J Smith is a member of the Warwick Clay Target Club, the Australian Clay Target Association and the Sporting Shooters Association of Australia.)

Thanks to all who helped in any way. The catering was great and everything went very smoothly thanks to a coordination of effort on and before the day.

Remember - Queens birthday weekend in June in 2000 is our next Annual Shoot. There is plenty of camping room and caravan or mobile home sites on the grounds, which are only 5 minutes from town.

Hope to see you all then.

Cheers from Dusted Bird.

Canterbury Voice Release

Introducing:

"the equipment that competitors demand"

Following on from the successful use of our voice release equipment at the 1999 Australian National Championships in Roma, we are pleased to advise that a supply of our voice release units are now available ex Melbourne.

This equipment is now well proven in the NZ market and being increasingly accepted in Australia and the USA where its ease of use and consistency of performance is totally unmatched. The unique electronic design eliminates almost all background noises, thus ensuring close to 100% fault free target release. By removing the need for manual operators, this product provides the perfect solution to requiring volunteer labour use at your shoots. However, it is the consistency of release that gives competitive shooters the ability to improve their performance and raise standards. No longer do you need to suffer from false or slow pulls and for those competitors who like to practice, well the day has finally arrived where you can practice 'by yourself' under the same conditions as if you were in a competition.

Check out what others say on this equipment and you'll agree, this is the biggest technical breakthrough in our sport for many years.

To order your units please use the freephone/fax supplied and talk directly with Bruce Rickard or Graham Callander in New Zealand or write to us.
