National President's Notes

Glenn G. Woodhatch

GST:

Having attended a seminar conducted by the Australian Tax Office on the introduction of the GST and its effect on sporting bodies. I am of the belief that all of our State, Zone and Club officials should attend one of these seminars before making any decisions re registering. The Taxation Office will have field officers available to attend meetings and it is anticipated that each State, and possibly each Zone will organise such meetings.

The impact of the GST is already making its presence felt with the necessary increase of the amount of annual subscriptions for 2000 to cover the second half of the year.

CHANGE OF OFFICE STAFF.

With the resignation of Mr Graeme BROWN the staff positions at the National Office have been reviewed and now Andrew SANDERS has been appointed as General Manager. Deborah BROWN continues as Accounts Clerk and Karen BRYCE moves to the position of CTSN/Membership Clerk. The position of Receptionist/Typist is to become a part time position and will be filled shortly.

WAGGA WAGGA COMPLEX.

The National Office and the Administration/Events Office are both nearing completion. It is hoped that Events Office will have been used by the time you read these notes, and that the National Office will be ready for occupancy by the New Year. It is planned that the official opening will coincide with the running of the year 2000 Trap Nationals.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE.

The last year of the 20th Century has almost disappeared and it is with enthusiasm we look forward to the next. The building of our National Office in Wagga Wagga and the development of the National Shooting Ground brings hope of an exciting era for clay target shooting in Australia for the next 100 years.

Our membership during 1999 fell from that of 1998, but still remains well above previous years. I cannot emphasise the importance of all of our members encouraging their shooting friends and acquaintances to join our Association.

During the year our international shooters continued with their outstanding form and our congratulations and thanks go to them. Michael must now be considered the best clay target shot in the World, and right there with him is Russell. These two can quite rightly stake their claim as being at the top of the best Australia has seen. ISSF gold medals won this year include Finland, Japan and Peru.

Our teams excelled at the World DTL Championships winning the Open, 3 Man, Veterans and Junior events, and our Ladies winning silver. A great effort.

What can you say!!! Three inches of rain the day before a Carnival followed by a further two inches of rain during the Carnival, is not only damn unlucky but also a recipe for disaster.

However, what else can you do, other than "soldier on" which is exactly what we did. Armed with fan heaters, towels and personnel for the "squad drying brigade", as well as a small band of willing workers, and nearly 250 shooters, we made the best of a bad situation.

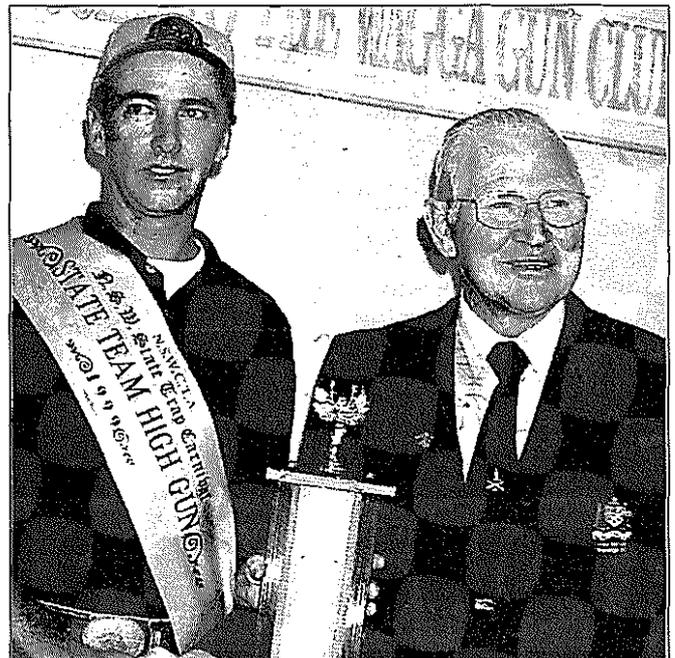

With the brand new Traps purchased for the National Shooting Ground by NSWCTA, and the work done in preparation of the Ground / Traps by the ACTA, as well as the installation of the Canterbury Voice Release systems, very generously donated by Canterbury Voice Release with the valued assistance of Steven Laffey, the shooting facilities were the best they have ever been.

The Carnival commenced this year with the inaugural induction of the first two recipients into the newly created NSW Hall of Fame. It was with much pleasure that Mr Arthur (Pud) Burgess and Mr Warren Charlton were presented with their specially struck Gold NSW Badge signifying their induction into the NSW Hall of Fame. A large crowd had gathered to witness the presentation and hear of the outstanding achievements of these two men, from NSWCTA State President Mark Mc Innes.

The shooting commenced with the Mark McInnes Trophy Inter-Zone Shoulder to Shoulder Teams competition, with all Zones selecting a representative team and most supplying team uniforms for their members. After two countbacks, the Riverina Zone Team of Glen Castellaro, Reese Ehlers, Tony Wright, Steve Guest and Gary Tabain were announced the winners with a score of 355 / 375.

The State Handicap had 216 competitors with Roger Duthie from Hamilton in Victoria winning the event 55 / 55 from runner up Arthur Turner 54 / 55. Rod Van Beek won third 69 / 70, Nick Xenos 4th 67/68, Ian Merrick 5th 63 / 64, JW Smith 6th 62 / 63 and Joe Caltabiano 7th 74 / 75.

The State Double Rise followed as the second event with Arthur

State team high gun winner Phil Headon with Pud Burgess

The team of Bryan Manns, Robbie Thompson and Ian Merrick from Cobar won the event with a score of 149 / 150. Well done guys on the win and the $300.

Sunshine Coast Clay Target Club

Last Sunday, the 17th October, the Sunshine Coast Clay Target Club (SCCTC) held their monthly Shoot. 30 keen shooters participated in very good conditions with a light breeze stiffening in the afternoon.

The main event for the day was the 25 Target Double Barrel Continental Championship. Terry Crowson eventually won this hotly contested event after a shoot off with 6 other shooters. Other notable achievements from the shoot were Quinto Porfiri continuing his good form over the last month in taking out the Overall High Gun and Dane Vincent has shown a return to form with his domination in B Grade.

The SCCTC is proud to announce a new sponsor of the Club's ammunition night shoots. Greg Nagy from Nagys' Store Maleny is doubling the ammunition per grade and putting on an overall high gun prize as well. The committee is currently formulating a new night trophy shoot program. This program will commence on 27 October and will be shot over the next three night shoots. Prizes to be awarded in all grades. More information to follow, therefore be at the next three trophy night shoots. Last weekend a large contingent of Club shooters attended the Gympie Two-Day shoot.
 Committee member Pygmy McAndrew had a good weekend picking up a couple of trophies along the way. Having celebrated a little too much, he did not notice a number of trophies were missing until arriving back on the Sunshine Coast. On this Sunday, a raffle was held as normal with Pygmy winning. The raffle prize being his winnings from the previous weekend. (He also had the only tickets in the "raffle"). Nicely set up by the Club President Steve Davison.

1999 QLD. STATE SKEET CARNIVAL ROCKHAMPTON

Queensland open skeet team

The third weekend in September was certainly a very busy one for Rockhampton — the US Marines arrived for Operation Crocodile — however their Aussie counterparts were off preparing for service in a location further to the North. The Bundy Bull Riding event was on with guest commentator Darrel Eastlake so it was going to be HUGE ! There was a rowing regatta with the Canadian Olympic Team involved as a training exercise there was a Jazz festival by the River, and it was also the Qld. State Skeet Carnival.

The Rockhampton Club grounds were in spectacular condition, the gardens were beautiful, the weather could not have been better, the hospitality from the members was also wonderful, but the number of shooters was very disappointing, both to the State and to the Club.

State Councillors Mick McGill and Dennis Harwood stood in for State President, Robert Nugent who unfortunately was unable to attend. Shooters were welcomed and introduced to Shoot marshal, Malcolm Bell.

In late August, Queenslanders were saddened by the sudden passing of former State President and National Executive Member, Richard Brook from Goondiwindi, as a mark of respect a minute's silence was observed prior to the commencement of the first event.

The first event to be contested was the 50 target State Doubles Championship, Adrian Cousens was the defending champion and this year 40 shooters took part. The overall winner was local member, Laurie Chelepy with the only 50/50. A shoot off was required to determine the AA Grade awards, with Dave Dundon (Brisbane) taking 1st with 53/56 from Max Barton (Toowoomba) 51/56. Rockhampton identity Mark Warnock claimed A Grade with 47/50 from Chris Langley (Gold Coast) 54/58. Errol Reeves from Townsville was the winner in B Grade with 50/54 from Malcolm Bell 49/54.

In C Grade, Doug Wust (Rockhampton) claimed the 1st place from Lyn Harrower also from Rocky. The Womens section was taken out by Margaret Denton (Roma) 49/54, Dan Makim from Toowoomba was the Junior winner with 46/50 and Bill Scott (Rockhampton) claimed the Veteran medal with 44/50.

The very popular State Handicap was the next event, third place was won by Toni Dierke (Toowoomba) 92/97, 2nd place went to Mick McGill (Mount Isa) 146/149 and the Silver Badge and Red sash went to our Shoot Marshall, Malcolm Bell with 146/150 and Malcolm was certainly an excited winner claiming that he would be wearing the sash to bed !!

Saturday morning was again perfect and we picked up a few more shooters — 53 paid up for the 100 target State Championship. This event was once again sponsored by Winchester and State Manager, Bob Dupuy was on hand to enjoy some skeet and present the awards.

At the end of the 100 targets — 2 shooters had returned 99/100 — Neal Dimmick and Margaret Denton. The eventual winner being Neal Dimmick 109/100. Nick Aird (Brisbane) was the AA winner with 150/152 from Laurie Chelepy 149/152. The 99/100 from Margaret saw her claim A Grade from Chris Langley 97/100. The B Grade winner was Toni Dierke (Toowoomba) 108/114 from Errol Reeves 107/114. Local Motel owner and Club Treasurer, John

Cuddihy was the winner in C Grade with 91/100 from Jeff Fittler also from Rocky with 88/101. The womens winner was Margaret Denton with 99/100. Toowoomba's Dan Makim claimed another junior medal with 96/100 from 106/114 was enough for Bill Scott to be named the Veteran winner.

1999 Qld. Skeet Champion - the combined total of 4 events plus the Team score - Laurie Chelepy 343/350 - the overall high gun award also went to Laurie 295/300 - congratulations Laurie.

This year's Carnival was also the final and compulsory venue for the Qld. Overseas Skeet Contingent. This was an initiative put forward by the Skeet Shooters - to lift the profile of the discipline and raise the attendance at the Zone Carnivals. The contingent to be made up of one from each Grade plus 2 juniors - the guidelines were set up and money was raised, donations received, raffles run and scores recorded.

With all scores in - the contingent to compete at the 2000 New Zealand Nationals - Dave Dundon (AA), Arthur Dierke (A), Bill Scott (B), Toby Witt (C) and Dan Makim (Junior). The Team will be outfitted with Tee shirts sponsored by Goondiwindi Cotton, Track Suits sponsored by Top Gun Used Cars and Shooting Jackets.

As this initiative has proven to be popular and successful - it will again be conducted in 2000 - over the 4 Zone Carnivals and the State Carnival.

One of the fund raising items for this Team was a beautiful hand-made gun case - donated by Master Craftsman, Rod Prior from Tamworth - this was raffled and raised over $2000 - the very happy winners being Doug and Dan Makim from Goondiwindi - now they will just have to decide who is going to use it!

Another carnival is finished - thanks yet again to Brett and Sharon Becker for their assistance and company in and out of the Office - to the Rockhampton Committee and Members - you can all be very proud of your effort - anyone who did not have a great time is very hard to please. To the shooters - thank you all for joining us again this year - we all hope you and your mates can make it to Townsville the 3rd weekend in September 2000.

New Australian Record Set at Callawadda-Stawell Clay Target Club

At our October shoot two shooters settled in for the Cont. DB Shoot Off.

Peter Goods of Horsham and Col Dunn of Stawell were going along well, although Col was using a lot of second barrels. Finally Peter won with a score of 91/91, with Col on 90/91. Col returned to his car boot muttering about the number of second barrels he was using, only to find his first barrel choke still in the Gun Case. So now Col is claiming a new record break in Cont. DB without choke.

From now on "Two Dogs Dunn" will be known as "No Choke Dunn".

1999 Silver Clay Open

High gun winners, C: Brett Davies, B: Peter Smith, A: Ken Fuller; AA: John Sleightholme, Overall: John Farrell.

Sponsor Michael Nesbitt (middle) with president John Kent (right) with Russell Rolfe, 1st B grade pointscore championship

Ladies high gun Cindy McBean.

The Annual Silver Clay 2 Day Carnival was held on the 21st and 22nd August at Inverell with 59 shooters being greeted with excellent conditions for shooting as well as perfect targets supplied by Olympic Targets and Gemini traps used in all layouts.

A fantastic array of trophies were on hand with major sponsors being Gemini Traps, Olympic Targets, Beaurepairs, Inverell RSM Club, PJ Nesbit & Son and many more. All clubs know that without this sponsorship a carnival is very hard to run.

With no problems experienced with the Gemini Traps or Targets the shoot was completed before dark each day with John Farrell and John Sleightholme battling out and ending up having to decide the High Gun. John Farrell shot a break of over 450 before he lost a target on the Saturday which created a lot of interest from spectators.

Shooters visited Inverell from far and wide and many new shooters experienced our hospitality by joining us for a spit and baked meal followed by a Calcutta on Saturday night. Fun and much money was spent by all.

High Gun Winners: O/All: John Farrell 250/250

AA: John Sleightholme 250/250; B: Ken Fuller 243/250; B: Peter Smith 242/250; C: Brett Davies 239/250; VETERANS: Peter Smith; LADIES: Cindy McBean; JUNIORS: Brendan McBean.

The Ernie Redman Teams Event was held on Saturday with Guyra being winners 149/150 and the C.L.A.S.S. Teams Event sponsored by Col Burt was held on the Sunday. This time Guyra had to share the prizes with Coff's Harbour as both Teams shot 143/150.

The weekend was a great success and the Inverell RSM CTC wishes to thank everyone involved from members, workers and especially the shooters for making it so and hope to see everyone there again next year.

BRIGITTE REGINA DOWER

Clay Target Shooting farewells prominent & loved Member. It is with great sadness that the South Australian Gun Club advises of the recent passing of Brigitte Dower after a severe illness.

Brigitte commenced clay target shooting around Christmas 1978 (following husband Robert into the sport) and spent a great deal of time and effort pursuing her chosen sport all around Australia.

Brigitte enjoyed much personal success in many disciplines during this time and will be remembered as a fierce and dedicated competitor with a wicked sense of humour, indeed one of the sports real characters.

A large contingent of clay target shooters participated in very touching and moving memorial service for Brigitte that was conducted in beautiful weather conditions on the Beach at Moana South.

Our deepest sympathies are extended to Robert and all family members.

To the Editor.

I would like to know when the ACTA Rules Committee are going to fix the new handicap rules.

Nearly every person that I have spoken to, believe that grades should go back to their minimum handicap marks, C-11, B-16, A-18 & AA-20, but lets think again about C Grade shooters starting on 15 metre & coming forward 1 metre for every 5 targets dropped out of 50 targets.

At the last Nationals, I attended a rules meeting and it was said, "that everyone will be on their right handicap marks after a couple of years & that it would sort itself out". Think about the higher grade shooters who are disadvantaged by our new rule. At this nationals we also had 2 A grade shooters, shooting from 11 & 12 metres, the same thing happens at club level. Think about it, a shooter starts at 11 metres, wins 5 handicap events to get back to 16 metres. Or if he shoots 95% from Common Mark will be rehandicapped to 16 metres, is this fair to most of our shooters.

To stop a lot of complaints that we're getting from around the traps, I believe would be best to bring back the minimum handicap marks tied to grades & the rule 2.02 (c) (ii) A shooter recording 95% or above, from 15 metres (with a handicap of 15 metres or less), will automatically be rehandicapped to 16 metres. I believe the percentage is too high, why not think about making the new percentage 87% instead of 95%, if a C grade shooters percentage from common mark is 87% and under 94% he will go to B grade, why not on handicap also?

While we are on percentages, it would be very interesting to hear some other comments from other shooters on raising the AA grade percentage 1% to 98%, what do you think?

Darwin Clay Target Club Annual Four Day Shoot

Four Day Shoot: How strange it was to see the locals sitting lined up in the sun - trying to get warm would you believe! A number of our southern visitors commented on this strange phenomenon, however even one of them was noticed wearing a jumper! The weather was certainly cool for Darwin - down to a minimum overnight of 13.90 C - and there was a rather fresh southerly blowing, but overall conditions were pleasant.

Brett Dunstan, winner of the Qantas Calcutta.

It was nice to welcome back old friends such as Sam Forsyth from WA, John Mollica and Dexter Barnes from Vic, Rocco Spinella from SA - "repeat attenders" if you like. It was also very gratifying to meet some of the new attendees such as Laurie Lewis, Bernie Scanlan, Bill Pavy, Merv Starr and the others.

Junior high gun winner
Colin Hennessy.

Christine Sawyer — winner ladies high gun and prettier than the bloke in the background.

Thursday 22/7/99 and the carnival commenced almost on time. The weather was a little cool with a good fresh southerly blowing. It certainly cooled things down but did blow the targets round a bit. On balance it was probably a whole lot better than the heat and high humidity we are confronted with so often.

Skeet was the first discipline to be determined and while it was rewarding to see local shooters do well it was also nice to see visitors, who had travelled such great distances, up there with the leaders.

Results - Pro Air Skeet Championship:

Overall: B Munt (NT) 93/100
1st A	B Dagleish (NT)	92/100
2nd A	S Forsyth (WA)	89/100
1st B	M Starr (Vic)	86/100
2nd B	A Brown (NT)	81/100
1st C	T Laker (NT)	84/100
2nd C	S Chambers (SA)	83/100

Overall high gun winner Dexter Barnes.

DTL practice was held throughout the afternoon and into the evening, following the Skeet finals. Then the Winchester State Night Championship, sponsored naturally enough by Olin Aust. - many thanks to Olin, and in particular to Bob Dupuy for his consideration.

This was a fifty target D/B event and was held in delightful conditions - the wind had dropped right off and the evening was typical of Darwin in the "dry" - cool and still. The results showed quite a good representation of our interstate visitors "in the money". Particularly satisfying though was to see one of younger juniors, Daniel Atkins, shoot so well.

Results were:

Overall & AA	L Lewis (Vic)	54/54
2nd AA	S Forsyth (WA)	53/54

1st C	C Sawyer (WA)	48/50
2nd C	D Atkins (NT)	56/60

Friday 23/7/99 and the real business began. The first event of the day was the Computer Sales & Leasing Champion of Champions 60 Targets (Mixed) event. Conditions were certainly not hot but the gusty wind persisted.

Overall & AA	B Dunstan (Vic)	96/100

The Saturday night Dinner and Calcutta were certainly among the highlights of the day. The dinner, which was catered for by our Treasurer, Nick Syrimi, his wife Bev and band of willing helpers, was rather good and was a fitting lead in to the Calcutta which followed. The menu contained Greek style barbequed lamb - smack the lips- and a host of other delectables.

The Calcutta was right up there with the best that the club has run with the total prize pool reaching $9,200.00. The top bid of $1,200.00 was paid for Brett Dunstan. It turned out to be a sound investment as Brett took out the event.

Sunday 25/7/99, the final day of the carnival, commenced with the Fishing & Outdoor World 30 Targets Handicap. This turned out to be an NT benefit event.

Results were:

1st	R King (NT)	30/30
2nd	J Yanko (NT)	37/37
3rd	G M Vazanellis (NT)	36/37

Finally, the Qantas Calcutta, 50 Targets Handicap and the major event of the carnival. Fittingly it was won by Brett Dunstan with a perfect score.

The general concensus seems to be that it was a most enjoyable and pleasant carnival. Naturally thanks are due to those who made it so: our sponsors, the shooters - particularly those who travelled such great distances to attend - the office staff, Range Officers, Shoot Marshall, trappers and the DCTC organizing committee.

Those of us at DCTC hope to see our visitors return next year to help us celebrate our 25th Annual Four Day Shoot.

This was followed by the Aboriginal Fine Arts 20 Pair Double Rise event. Results as listed below:

The final event of the day was the NAK Plumbing 50 Targets Double Barrel event, won by Brett Dunstan from Brett Hall of the NT. In the conditions a great result!

Another fitting result was from a real gentleman, Snow O'Connor of Mathoura Gun Club NSW. Snow won the C Grade event. I understand he had been considering swapping his "C" Grade Browning for a set of lawn bowls prior to the event. Onya Snow, a very popular win!

MARYBOROUGH TID BITS

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all. I hope you had a good year. Best of luck to all for Christmas and drive to survive, to have a safe new year.

Happy birthday to Harry. I won't say how old he will be, but to give you some idea Harry & I shot Deauville Doubles together at Gympie and our total age was 153 years, and I am only a bit over 50, so work it out for your self. Just as well we shoot off split Handicap & not split years or we would be a long way back.

Murphy kissed his wife goodbye, picked up his shooting gear and gun and off shooting he went. Three months later, he walked in. His wife said - Did you win?. Murphy said "no". his wife said- you are late, and Murphy replied Yes. His wife said "don't blame me if your tea is cold".

BUNDABERG 26-9-99

Arriving at Bundy Kaye & Rob stayed long enough to get the shoot under way, then was off on holidays. Have a good time and rest! Taken by surprise I did the score cards for Kaye, well the wind didn't stop, so the scores weren't so hot. Visitors were Frank Robinson (Central Burnett), Phil Warren (Gin Gin) & Stafford Smith, Harry Walker & Yours Truly (Maryborough). Jarrad Smith drew the Jackpot, but we left before he shot it, but knowing Jarrad, he would have shot it. In the Meat Tray Raffle I had tickets 83-84-85 and I was asked to draw it, and pulled out 82, which was my nice niece Cheryl. I kept it in the family anyway.

The top shooter for the day Gino Sergiacomi, who took A Grade 50T DB + 50T PTS, which gave him O/A 100 Targets & High Gun. Good shooting Gino in such windy conditions. In AA Bradley Peterson 1st, Phillip Warren 2nd in 50T D/B while Phillip 1st & Stafford 2nd in 50T PTS. In B Grade after a lengthy shoot off it was Bruce Walker 1st with Norm Dale 2nd in the 50T D/B and Brian Fourro 1st & John Butters 2nd in the 50T PTS. In C Grade Jarrad Smith 1st in D/B & PTS and Keith Palmer 2nd in 50T D/B & Adam Gardner 2nd in PTS. Bradley Petersen back to A grade and was down for the count when bitten by a Red Back Spider. Results are Brad is OK now, Spider died.

Bundy now shoot with Canterbury Voice Release, best known as Phono Pulls. Sounds better doesn't it. By the way we have a couple of old sets of Phono Pulls that didn't work so good, I am told many years back, any buyers? It looks like Phono Pulls are now the accepted method for getting your targets. Bundy shoot - Christmas Shoot Dec 5th 1pm.

MARYBOROUGH CHRISTMAS SHOOT DEC 19TH 10AM.

It was great to see both Jim Bulfin and Vince Dollinson back at the shoots as both were unfit for a couple of shoots. With Jim shooting and Vince selling raffle tickets after two major operations. It was good to see you both back. Take care.

As our remaining two sets of Phono Pulls were some where between New Zealand and Maryborough we were lucky Gary Redmond just happened to have a couple of sets with him and the shoot went smoothly, thanks to Brisbane for the Phono Pulls.

5-10-99 ARRIVAL OF THE BIBLE.

Congratulations to Michael Diamond on your latest Finland achievement. Keep it up. Also to Graham Michell for the coverage of the Trip of our young shooters and the difficulties they have in travelling before having to compete. With reference to Rule 2.02 (C2) for the rule book, it would read better as "A shooter recording 94% or above from Common Mark (15m) with Handicap of 15 metres or less will automatically be rehandicapped to 16 metres. Also when this rule was published in CTSN last year it stated 95%, but to be in line with A Grade would be 94%. Is that correct?"

GYMPIE GOLD CLASSIC 9TH, 10TH OCTOBER.

Well there is good news and bad news. The good news Geoff Fett and George Foster both turned 58 on the Sunday 10th Oct. Congratulations to both. The bad news is it is 58 that you start losing your hair, your eyes get dimmer and you can't see the targets so well and possibilities are impossibles. Just joking fellows, happy Birthday, hope you have many more and I am here to see them.

On the 15th April 2000, the sound of shotguns will be turned to Wedding Bells for Marivic Manalon and Karl Nasarenko. I was scoring on the 3rd Trap so I called out the shooters names for lanes and jokingly said to Maravic - why don't you change your surname to something easy to call and Maravic said I am - I am changing it to Nasarenko, that's a lot better to say, Best of luck to both.

All shooters give their deepest sympathies to Max Behm (Kingaroy) on the loss of his wife Jan. We hope you can carry on with life Max. Jan battled with illness for 2 years before the end. If you are around Max's place around meal time drop in as he says he can't get used to cooking enough veggie's for one. He always cooks too many. So pop in and have some veggie's, but meat is BYO. Good shooting Max. See you around the traps.

We arrived at Gympie Sunday morning to be told the sad news that Ike Osborne had passed away the day before Saturday 9-10-99. The age of 76. All that knew Ike, pass on their deepest sympathies to his family and to brother Dick and family in our Club and thank you for sharing Ike with us in Clay Targets, it was Ike who was the inspiration at Sunshine Coast for the interest in Skeet. One shooter called Ike the father of Skeet. Ike was also known as Fine Cotton in the Teams. So they got Ike who was a ringin from another Club and at that time the news of the horse Fine Cotton was big news. So Ike copped the ringin "Fine Cotton" and the team got up to win. Ike was a gentleman and anyone who had the pleasure of knowing Ike is richer for it. RIP Ike.

Talking Team shooting there is a Team Club Shoot between Caboolture and Gympie every year which was held on the Saturday of the 2 Day and Caboolture told me they bolted in. Strange that no one from Gympie told me.

Well in the kitchen was Yvonne, Marge and in charge Joan, who did a great job feeding 15 squads. Shooters came from Hell West & Crooked. Too many visitors to name as I usually do.

Event 1. D/B S/S. With so many shooting it is too many to name.

Event 2. D/B C/S "Stolberg Plumbing"

O/A: J Farrell; AA: 1st G Scaff, 2nd G Redmond; A: 1st P Groves, 2nd P McAndrew; B: 1st K Mill, 2nd L Stolberg; C: 1st G Post & 2nd A Stegman.

Event 3. PTS C/S "ken Mills Toyota"

O/A: I Hedger; AA: 1st B Minos, 2nd G Fett; A: S Corbett, 2nd P McAndrew; B: G Carew, 2nd C Post; C: 1st J Webb, 2nd M Manalon.

Event 4. With a Rizzini up for grabs and the light starting to fade, the shooter to win the Rizzini in the Handicap was 1st A Healey from Gladstone. Good shooting Adam. 2nd was L Stolberg, 3rd J Farrell, 4th G Scaff, 5th B Minds. To prevent a repeat of shooting in the dark for the next Rizzini on the Sunday, the program was altered & the Rizzini HCP was placed 2nd on the Sunday.

Event 5. Sunday D/B C/S "Albrechts Refrigeration"

O/A: G Redmond, AA: 1st G Fett, 2nd L Payne; A: 1st P Groves, 2nd P McAndrew; B: 1st J Davison, 2nd T Brereton; C: 1st S Sellars, 2nd T Clark.

Event 6. HCP "Rizzini". This time it was Garry Redmond (Brisbane) who added another Rizzini to his collection. Good going Garry. 2nd J Farrell, 3rd B Chain, 4th S Corbett, 5th A Healt.

Event 7. 50T D/B C/S "Cooloola Boats & Water Sports".

Thanks Vince for taking over the job on the cards. Good to see you back at the shoot I hope you can shoot soon. We had an auction on 2 caps which were from Canterbury Voice Release and had one of those real live taking auctioneers (Trevor). No wonder he sells houses. He had a wife bidding against her husband who wanted it for her husband and a bloke in the kitchen only chased a fly and got the other one. The best money maker all day.

Don't forget our Christmas shoot 19th December 10am Start. Members requested to bring salads for free BBQ & something for afternoon tea.

Good shooting to all till next time. See you at the shoots

Psychological Skills for Shooting, Concentration Skills for better results

In last months article I examined awareness and attention as components of concentration and looked at ways shooters can change the patterns of attending to improve on their results.

Shooting, regardless of the discipline, is an exacting sport and it is essential that the competitor has much less awareness of the things happening around him or her. The shooters attention must be sharply focused on the target and remaining calm with a soft focus on external influences such as wind, etc. It must also be remembered that shooting requires concentration only when it is your turn to shoot. Trying to maintain concentration for a full amount of time it takes for the squad to shoot 25 targets will fatigue the shooter, concentration should be focused on shooting 25 lots of one target rather than one lot of 25 targets.

If you are experiencing problems with concentration it may be necessary to examine the following areas to see where the problem really exists. Problems associated with concentration can be due to direction, time, width or length.

Firstly, direction.

Where is your attention being directed, (are you really paying attention to what you should be?).

Poor concentration can come from directing your attention towards the wrong things. For shooters the focus of their attention should be the target - seeing it leave the trap and shooting it. The American champion, Phil Kiner, on his way to being a top shot thought that others had or knew a secret that would allow him to win. Once he was at the top he was continually asked if he would share the secret of his success. Upon reflection he concluded that the secret was nothing more then focusing his attention and shooting this target. Poor concentration can come from directing your attention toward the wrong thing, therefore effective concentration involves focusing on the correct things.

Secondly, Time.

Is your attention in the past, present or future?

Shooting is here and now sport. If you start thinking about the future (winning, your longest break, the trophy, high gun, etc) then you will be taking away your ability to remain focused on the target you have to shoot, this is the most important target, not the next one or fifty. If you start thinking about the past, the target you missed, or what happened last competition then you are thinking and shooting in the past and again you are unable to focus your attention where it is needed: for this target. Poor concentration is not focusing on what is happening at the present time, therefore effective concentration means staying in the here and now.

Thirdly, width.

Is your span of attention too wide or too narrow?

New shooters are often faced with a number of things to focus on: gun hold, feet position, looking for and at the target, etc. If you are trying to concentrate on too many things then you become confused and nothing is attended to properly. Most of us get into a car and drive, we may be concentrating on the road or the traffic but we rarely think about the actual mechanics of driving. That's because driving has become an associative task for most of us. by this I mean that when we get into the car we know there are certain things we must do and we associate one task with another and do them. However, if we get into a unfamiliar car, it is dark and raining heavily and there are two children fighting and screaming in the back seat, then driving becomes a cognitive task, meaning that we start to think about all the aspects of the driving and the task is much harder and we fatigue and get tired much faster. Shooting for most of us should be an associative task; gun hold, position on the trap house, etc, should be so automatic that we only notice when it doesn't feel right. if it doesn't feel right, then stop and start again because your mind will pick up on the fact that it is not as it should be and will draw your attention to this and not the target. Poor concentration can mean widening or narrowing your attention too much, whereas effective concentration involves changing the span of attention to suit the situation.

Fourthly, length.

Does your concentration fall after a particular length of time?

As I stated above to concentrate for the whole time that the squad is on the tracks would be fatiguing and counterproductive. What is necessary is to have an internal mechanism that allows you to turn on. For instance, you should be able to focus your attention on any thing, the background, the people behind you, the cows in the next paddock, when it is not your turn to shoot. However, when you hear the shooter before you call for the target this should be the signal for you to focus your attention and ready yourself for your target. The moment you see your target break you should immediately relax and broaden your attention to things away from the trap. A word of caution, the things that you are focusing on between shots should have little or no emotional loading. Thinking about your financial troubles or an argument you may have had with your wife, husband, kids, boss etc will heighten your arousal level too high for you to be able to switch back immediately to the target. This technique of timing your attention should be practiced every time you face the trap house, either during practice or competition. Poor concentration involves straining or relaxing your attention for an incorrect length of time, whereas effective concentration involves concentrating for just the right length of time needed.

Internal or inner game factors that affect concentration are self talk, self confidence, tiredness, injury, your beliefs about your ability and the ability of your competitors, interests and goals, pressure and emotions, whilst external factors involve the weather, confidence in your gun, ammunition etc.

Concentration can be improved by:

- Evaluating your ability to concentrate, be honest. How are you on direction, time, width and length.
  - What are your main distractions; external or internal.
  - How can you alter your training to practice longer periods of concentration that will be required in competition.
  - Break up your competition into smaller segments to help you focus on the present more.
  - Do you know what your goals are? Long term and short term.
  - Make friends with your distractions by paying them deliberate attention so that they are no longer attract your attention when competing.
  - Consider other mental training skills, mental rehearsal, visualisation, relaxation, hypnosis (these will be dealt with in future articles).
  - Learn simple concentration exercises such as centering.
- Tim Gallwey, in the Inner Game of Tennis states that breathing has to be done in the here and now and focusing on your breathing should always bring you back to the here and now. Centering is a short breathing exercise used as a relaxation technique to calm you down before or during an event or as a means of gaining control if your attention is lost.

- Stand with your weight evenly balanced, feet shoulder distance apart and knees slightly bent.
- Relax your back and shoulder muscles.
- Focus your attention on your breathing, emphasize moving your abdominal muscles, keeping your back and shoulders still.
- Take a deep breath into your diaphragm (your centre), keeping your shoulders relaxed and exhale slowly letting your muscles relax.
- When you feel the calmness in your body - redirect your attention to one of the cues (I use the call of the shooter before me).

Practice this technique in as many situations as you can so that with one single breath you are able to relax and refocus your attention..

CUZZO'S RAMBLINGS

Back in March I had the pleasure of going to Roma to run the Trap Nationals for Robert Nugent and the QCTA. At that venue I was approached by Mark McInnes, who is the president of the NSWCTA to ask if I would come to Wagga later in the year to run his State Trap Shoot. The question was somewhat academic as Mark not only knows how much I enjoy this line of work, but also that the NSWCTA and I have a long history of working very closely together. So it was that on the first Friday in October I found myself sitting up in the passenger seat of Lynne Curtis's HSV "rocketship", clinging to the panic handle and enjoying the adrenaline rush of a quick trip over Mt Hotham to Wagga.

Prior to our arrival, the ACTA and its helpers had done a tremendous amount of work getting the new National Ground ready for the shoot. When we arrived, the place looked a picture, but unfortunately Mother Nature had seen fit to open the heavens with a vengeance the previous day and she allowed this to carry over into the shoot. However very few people allowed the rain to dampen their enthusiasm and the shoot was a great success. The only disappointment was the fact that the scores were somewhat lower than Mark had expected or would have liked. On the morning of the last day he called me into the office to discuss that matter with him.

Mark suggested that from his observations the lack of high scores might be attributable to several different factors. The first was that the throwing machines seemed to be producing a lower percentage of straight away targets and a higher percentage of swingers than usual. The second was that although the targets were set to the correct distance via the height stick, they seemed to be leaving the trap faster than usual. And the third point was that the targets seemed to be very hard and difficult to break.

I agreed with Mark about the apparent increase in angular targets and told him that I had seemingly observed this phenomenon previously and of a theory that I have to explain it. In the past we have done much of our shooting over manually loaded White Flyer traps and they drive the oscillation of the throwing arm from the rear. However in recent times there has been a big swing to auto-loading machines and many of these drive the oscillator from the side. I suspect that this change in the drive angle increases the time the arm spends at the extremes and decreases the time it spends in the center. However I am not a physicist and would appreciate any and all constructive criticism of my theory.

I also agreed with his observation that the targets appeared to be leaving the trap quicker without actually exceeding the distance marker. I have heard suggestions that the change from the coil springs that drive a White Flyer to the flat springs used to drive many of the new generation of traps may be responsible for this effect. Although I have my doubts, I am keeping an open mind on that one. I have also heard that the new generation machines may not spin the target as fast as the old White Flyers. This in itself would make the targets harder to break as centrifugal force plays a big part in target breakage. However, if it is true then it could also explain a faster emergence speed, as with less gyroscopic stabilization the target may not fly as far for any given launch speed. Again I would welcome constructive input on this theory also.

In relation to suggesting that the targets may be too hard, I asked Mark why he thought that, upon which he took me out the back and showed me all the pick-ups from the previous day. A large proportion of them had one or more holes punched through them and/or ricochet marks on them, indicating that they had been hit but had not broken. Although I had never previously encountered this particular brand of imported French targets that we were using for the shoot, I have of late been observing this exact same phenomenon with most of the commonly encountered target brands.

After careful examination of a fair number of these "wounded" targets, and a fair bit of head scratching and chin rubbing, Mark eventually got that "light globe above the head" look on him. He then asked "Adrian, what is usually the first thing we do in relation to targets when we are planning a big shoot?" When I replied that we call for tenders, he said "exactly, and that's the problem, we've become price buyers and we should be quality buyers". Upon reflection I agreed with him wholeheartedly as this is another of the issues that I have been unhappy about for some time.

Now this is not to suggest that the general quality of the targets we are using in this country is inferior. Quite the opposite in fact. I think the manufacturing quality of most current targets is excellent. What I believe the problem to be, is that we are trying to use an incorrect quality of target for the job at hand. Sort of like buying strawberry jam and spreading it on your vegetable garden and wondering why your tomatoes won't grow. There's nothing wrong with the strawberry jam but the product you really need to be buying and using is horse manure. What we have been trying to do in this country for some time is shoot Trap and Skeet using Trench targets and the undesirability of that exercise is now beginning to rear it's ugly head.

To explain the point, let's look at some history. Prior to 1956, Trap and Skeet was shot in this country using suitable targets and hardly anybody had even heard of Trench. Then along came the Olympics, a Trench layout was built in Melbourne and some ISU standard targets were imported and used. When it was all over the facility was bulldozed and forgotten and hardly a ripple was left on the shooting pond and that's pretty much how it stayed for another nearly twenty years until 1973 when Australia staged the World Moving Targets Championship. That time Trench and ISU Skeet caught on and gained a toehold in this country, albeit a minor one and that's the way it's stayed to the present day.

So what's the connection between this and our current "hard target" problem? Well this is how we came to have the problem in the first place. As soon as we tried to shoot Trench and ISU Skeet with our normal targets, we found that they were much too soft and brittle and that they simply tore apart coming off the machine, when asked to perform at the higher speeds and spin rates. So the local target suppliers then had to provide two different target qualities, to cater for the two different usages.

And this worked fine for a while, but in time both the suppliers and the users (read gun clubs) found a number of different factors arising, that eventually dealt the death-blow for Trap and Skeet targets. Such as the fact that inventorying two different targets was both inconvenient and expensive, and that Trench targets suffered much less loss in transport and handling than their more fragile counterparts. Throwing machines also played a part in this demise, as they did not need to be anywhere near as carefully engineered or finely tuned to satisfactorily handle the harder targets. You don't have to be a rocket scientist to work out where all that was going to lead and thus over the next decade or so, "soft" targets pretty much dwindled into obscurity.

So why was this able to occur then, and is only starting to become a problem now? Well, a number of different things tended to hide the problem, at the time all this was happening. The old Belgian Brownings, which were the "tool of choice" for most of the "top guns" at that time, were not only generally bored 3/4 and full, but their choking technology dated from the pre-plastic era. Thus the tightness of the patterns they threw with plastic wads would bring tears to your eyes. Also both larger shot sizes and heavier shot loads were the norm in those days. A fairly universal recipe was a Red Ranger #7 (1 1/8oz @ 1300fps) in the bottom barrel and a Black Ranger #6 (1 1/8oz @ 1350fps) in the top. And this was only for 16-yard work. Off handicap they brought out 11/4oz loads that resembled Roman Candles and would have made even Arnold Schwarzenegger flinch.

But both times and the rules have changed. We now use lighter shot loads at much lower velocities and shoot them through more open chokes. To make matters worse we then drop down to a smaller shot size (#7 1/2 or #8) in order to regain the pattern density we lost when we decreased the maximum allowable shot load to one ounce. However this in turn decreases not only the striking energy per pellet but also its ability to retain that energy downrange. Then we use a high antimony level in the shot, which makes it harder, in order to enhance pattern evenness. But the flip side of this, because antimony is lighter than lead, is even lighter pellets again for any given shot size, with a corresponding further decrease in energy levels and retention. And then to make it even worse, when these harder pellets strike a clay target, instead of flattening out and delivering their energy onto the target like a soft-nose rifle bullet, they tend to retain their integrity and act like a jacketed military rifle bullet. They either punch a small clean hole right through it or they simply ricochet off it.

Now take a Clay Target that has been designed to be thrown 80 meters and withstand the corresponding spin rate that such a launch speed would generate, and throw it only 48 meters. Immediately the reduction in spin rate means that the target is nowhere near the limit of its structural integrity due to centrifugal force and thus one pellet (the proverbial golden BB) now has very little chance of being able to crack it and at least break it in half. And finally try shooting at this target with a decreased shot load of small hard light pellets that are not travelling all that fast and thus have very little striking power. What you'll end up with is a score-sheet that does little for your ego and a handful of ventilated and scarred pick-ups.

So what's the solution? After discussing it with Mark, who also has considerable shooting experience in the United States, his answer is the same as mine. ISSF standard targets are perfect for shooting Trench and Olympic Skeet but are definitely unsuitable for Trap and Skeet. These disciplines need the much softer target that we used to shoot years ago. How do we get them? First we need to convince the target importers to bring in a majority of American targets and a minority of European targets. And secondly we need to convince the local manufacturers to go back to making mainly softer targets, with perhaps the odd batch of hard ones especially for the ISSF people.

A couple of weeks after returning home, I had to go to Brisbane on business and so I called into Olimpyc Targets to discuss the problem with Kevin Tunny and his brother Graham, who are our largest domestic manufacturers of clay targets. They both said they could not see any major problems in manufacturing a much softer target to the original American specifications. Furthermore they could probably have sample batches ready for both Mark and I to test within a few weeks and if they were successful, then commercial production could probably get under way before Christmas. Watch this space for further updates. By the way, clay targets are not made from clay and black paint and baked in an oven like bricks as many people surmise. While I was at Olimpyc, I was treated to a guided tour of the factory, which I found very informative and quite fascinating. I would strongly recommend it to anyone interested in clay target shooting. It gives you a whole new perspective.

This Month's Shooting Trivia Question: Who was the last left handed shooter to win the National Double Barrel Championship? Mail your answer to Shooting Trivia, P.O. Box 265, Bairnsdale 3875, to arrive by 25-12-99. The first correct answer drawn shall receive a free entry to this year's National Double Barrel Championship. The correct answer to October's STQ was: Reg Clarke was the last shooter to win the National Skeet Championship without recording a perfect score when 99s shot off in Townsville in 1990. The first correct answer drawn was submitted by Chris Rockliff from Sassafras in Tasmania, who wins a free entry to this year's Commonwealth Skeet Championship. Congratulations Chris. If anyone has a good trivia question or an interesting subject for discussion in this column, please forward it to me at the above address.

MOULAMEIN Clay Target Club

Moulamein Clay Target Club hosted its September day/night competition on the 25th in mild conditions, with a light frontal breeze. The venue was well attended with shooters and supporters travelling from Barham, Cohuna, Castlemaine, Deniliquin, Kerang, Koondrook, Mellool, Mildura, Piangil, Robinvale and Swan Hill.

The main daylight event was a 60 Target medley, comprising 20 Targets each of Double Barrel, Points Score and Single Barrel shooting.

For the first time officially at Moulamein, a special Junior Championship was incorporated into this competition and was contested over the 20 target, Double barrel section.

The Junior Championship was made possible by a generous sponsorship by Mesdames J Gorey and K Lowing. In all, ten Junior shooters took part with two in A Grade and the balance in C Grade. The juniors were also able to participate in the overall program if they desired.

The winner in A Grade (Junior) was Robert Kemp on 24/25 after a shoot off with James Petersen, both scoring 19/20 initially. C Grade winner in the Juniors was Brendon Blake on 20/20. Three other competitors 17/20, R Lowing, A Langridge and John Parker, shot off for 2nd place in C Grade and this was won by Parker on 22/25, third was A Langridge on 21/25.

AA Grade competitors turned in good scores, Ron Glenn 98/100 with Malcolm Absalom 97/100 runner up. A Grade was won by in form Geoff Manuel on 94/100 and runner up was Greg Paz, on 93/100. B Grade required a shoot off between Peter Costa and Neil Blackmore, both on 95/100. This was won by Blackmore on 105/110 to Costa's score of 102/110. C Grade saw a clear win by Ian Pollard on 88/100 from Dean Butterworth on 84/100.

A Single Barrel Championship of 25 Targets saw Norm Bromly win AA Grade with 24/25 and Malcolm Absalom second on 23/25. Greg Paz won A Grade with a perfect score of 25/25. Second was James Peterson on 22/25. Brain Hutson won B Grade on 22/25 and Steve Landsborough was runner up on 21/25. Andrew Langridge won C grade on 22/25 and runner up was John Parker also a Junior on 21/25.

Following a break for a barbecue tea and the arrival of darkness, a 5 target Continental Sweepstake was held and success in this with 5/5 went to C Hare, I Pollard, I Dower, C Langridge, R Kemp, R Glenn and J Petersen.

The Final Event in the night program was 25 target Continental Championship and AA Grade was won by Noel Blake on 25/25. A Shoot off was required between Jim Finis, Eddie Parker and Guisepe Finis all on 24/25. This was won by Parker on 27/28. J Petersen won A Grade with 23/25 and again a shoot off was necessary to decide second place. This was between Chris Langridge, Danny Pay, George Smith and Darby Munro, all on 22/25. This was won by George Smith on 26/29. Greg Hofmaier won B Grade on 24/25 and second was Neil Blackmore on 23/25.

Paul Bird clearly won C Grade with 24/25 and second was Rick Langridge in 21/25.

Finally to find the Overall winner for a case of cartridges over the four events required a shoot off between Ron Glenn and Malcolm Absalom, both on 148/155. This was won by Absalom on 160/167 from Glenn on 159/167.

Deputising for President Charles Peach, Geoff Manuel thanked all the sponsors and the many persons who had assisted during the day and night. The day's sponsors were Molin's Country Wide Petroleum, Geoff Manuel and Glen Atkins and Elders/VPC Barham.

Hamper raffles were won by Phyllis Epps and Frank James and a raffle for hardware was won by Mr Petersen of Deniliquin. Ladies Trophies went to Nola Blake & Lydia Gorey.

Club Newsletter November 1999

NATIONAL OFFICE

Construction of the National Office and the Events Office is almost completed. It is anticipated that relocation will occur in December 1999.

MEMBERSHIP AND GOODS & SERVICES TAX

As you may be aware the Goods and Services Tax (GST) is to be introduced 1st July 2000. All associations must participate in the GST system unless their annual turnover is below a certain threshold. For non-profit clubs and community groups, this threshold is $100,000.

If you are a non-profit club with a TURNOVER of less than $100,000, you will not be required to register in the GST system. Clubs under this threshold may need to look at voluntary registration so that they can claim GST input taxes. If you are in any doubt or require any further information in relation to the GST the Australian Taxation Office has set up a hotline 132478 or contact your accountant.

The ACTA is required to register in the GST system. This means that membership, affiliations, subscriptions, nominations and registration fees will attract the GST. We are therefore required to apply the GST to our registration fees for 2000 on a pro-rata basis. You will note from the enclosed registration forms that all categories of registration have been adjusted to comply with the GST requirements, full adult members are now $63, second family members and veterans $32 and juniors $16.

Veteran and Junior shooters will need to advise their date of birth or they shall be processed as full adult members

Half-yearly membership for new members has been altered to a pro-rata payment as follows: -

February .....	$58	August .....	$28
March .....	$53	September .....	$22
April .....	$48	October .....	$17
May .....	$42	November .....	$11
June .....	$37	December .....	$7
July .....	$33

The above rates are for new members and members re-joining after 5 years, it does not include the Legislation Levy of $5.00.

AFFILIATION

In order to process your club shooter registrations, the ACTA must first receive your 2000 club affiliation of $132.00, GST inclusive. Accounts for same is enclosed, please forward this amount promptly.

BREAK BADGES

A new national break badge has been created. This is for breaks at National Events only. These can be purchased from the ACTA Office at a cost of $10.00.

NEW STOCK

New stocks of chambray shirts embroidered with the new ACTA logo are now available. We also have a new range of towels with belt clips in burgundy, green and blue. Both these items have been popular as trophies.

CHANGES TO COMMITTEE MEMBERS

All changes to the club committee (office bearers) must be reported to the ACTA. Please advise details of names, addresses and contact telephone numbers as soon as changes occur.

A reputation built by hand.

The KEMEN philosophy is to produce only 300 - 400 shotguns each year, handmade to the very highest standards, for the most committed competition and field shooters.

There is no such thing as a 'standard' gun at KEMEN. All our guns are hand built to the owners' individual specifications in the tradition of the great English gun making houses while incorporating the latest technology.

Although we have only been exporting for a short time, we have already had success that took other makers many years to achieve.

This is reflected in KEMEN being the gun of choice for many high profile international owners who know and can afford the best. This list includes The Sultan of Brunei, The Emir of Dubai, the Royal Family of Spain and some of the world's best competition shooters including World Champions George Digweed and Richard Faulds and Australians Adam Vella and Arthur Turner.
