2004 NATIONAL TRAP CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Australian Clay Target Association National Trap Championships for 2004 were conducted again at the ACTA National Shooting ground in Wagga Wagga NSW with the championships running from Wednesday March 31 to Sunday April 4. With a record 56 days without rain the grounds were looking a little worse for wear however fine warm days greeted the shooters so some good scores were expected.

Prior to the Opening Ceremony, teams from all states and territory competed for the Australian Clay Target Association Cup presented to the winning state team in Open, Women's, Juniors and Veterans divisions.

New South Wales successfully won the Open team event, being represented by James Vardangea, Arty Del-Ben, Glenn Castellaro, Arthur Turner and Peter Fitzalan with a score of 125/373. One point behind in second place was the team from Western Australia with a score of 125/372. Third place went to the team from Queensland on a score of 125/369. Forth place went to Victoria 125/367, fifth place went to South Australia 125/363, sixth place went to Tasmania 124/368 and seventh place went to Northern Territory 124/363.

The Ladies from Queensland were successful in winning the Women's Team event. The team lead by Leanne Jarvis with Holly Wilson and Carol Betteridge scored 72/211 with the team from New South Wales coming in second with a score of 71/211. Third place was the team from South Australia with a score of 69/202

In the Junior division two states were tied after the event and a countback could not split the two teams thus for the first time a shoot-off was required to determine a winner. After the shoot-off the team from Western Australia comprising of Sam West, Darren McMichan and Nigel Miller were declared the winners on a score of 75/220. Second place went to the team from Tasmania with a score of 75/220 and third place went to the team from New South Wales with a score of 73/216.

Six Veterans teams competed for their shoulder to shoulder badges with the New South Wales team of Jeff Nash, Ray Kearns and Kevin Heywood shooting 74/219 to take the event from Victoria who shot 72/211. Western Australia was placed third with a score of 72/208.

5th Veteran Australia/New Zealand Trap Championship - Point Score

Fifty-three veterans competed for the Veterans Australia/New Zealand Trap Championship with a shoot-off required to determine the final winner. At the conclusion of the shoot-off Stan Collins from the Bairnsdale club was declared the winner with a score of 188/195 from Jeff Nash from the Orange club in second place on a score of 185/195. Third place was taken by Peter Fitzalan from the Dubbo club on a score of 152/156.

Allan Brown Club Teams Match

Competition was again very keen for the Allan Brown Club Teams Match, which attracted twelve teams all looking to be number one.

With a club score of 741/750 the Echuca number 1 team proved to be the best on the ground. Second place went to the team from the Cobar club with the Maryborough club in third place.

Mackintosh Teams

Weather conditions were excellent for shooting and as always, competition for a position on the team produced some very competitive shooting. The Open team was decided on three down with the leading qualifier being Rodney Wright on 300/300. It had been 11 years since a qualifier had shot the possible for the Mackintosh team and Rodney's name will be now added to the Holland Parker Perpetual Trophy.

Glenn Wyatt from the Maryborough club was the best junior qualifier with a score of 297/300.

Team photos were taken and all interest now focused on the Mackintosh Competition. As always at the completion of the matches the scores were sealed as required under the conditions of competition and forwarded to the English Clay Pigeon Shooting Association.

The open team produced some excellent shooting with Roger Duthie from the Hamilton club winning the Open High Gun with a score of 300/300.

The women's team was very competitive and produced a score of 296/300 by Wendy Barton from the Gunning Dalton club to win the Women's High Gun. Mathew Hawker from the Bordertown club claimed High Gun the Junior team with a score of 292/300 and Jeff Nash from the Orange club shot a score of 294/300 to High Gun the Veteran's team - a great effort all round.

3rd National Deauville Doubles

Unfortunately time was against the organisers and this event was left until the last day and several teams had withdrawn. However, forty-six pairs stayed and nominated. With the event being shot from 24 metres this is not an event for the faint hearted. The combination of Nathan Cassells and Robert Godfrey remained unbeaten on a score of 30/30. Second place went to the combination of Peter Mills and John Rowe, 29/30, with the combination of Simon Gloster and Terry Boucher in third place on a score of 23/24.

Veterans Aggregate

The Veterans Highest Aggregate Score shot over the three Mackintosh qualifying events was won by Peter Fitzalan from the Dubbo club with a score of 297/300.

Oldest Competitor

At 81 years of age, Arthur Page from the Gold Coast club was the oldest competitor at the 2004 National DTL Championships.

The Use of a Video Camera in Novice Coaching

Have you turned up at a coaching session and someone has produced a video camera to assist in coaching? The owner of the camera "watches" some of the novice shooters through the camera and then takes it all back into the clubhouse to play to the crowd. If the camera can be set-up & plugged into the TV a review could happen like this:

The "stars" of the show can see that their shirts needed tucking in or that their shoelace needed tying but they have trouble getting good information from the video. Was the camera "bouncing about" too much, focussing on the target rather than the shooter or was it that the operator was concentrating on one or two specific shooters only? Within five minutes of so the "stars" have lost interest for any number of reasons and are looking for another squad to go out & have another shot!

The loss of interest and the retreat could have been caused by:

- * Boredom
- * Embarrassment; or
- * Peer pressure as the pupils were "copping heaps" from the audience watching the replay.

For whatever reasons the opportunity for the coach and the pupil is lost, so what can we do about this??

When a coach is planning to hold a coaching day for either a group or in a one on one, and it is intended to utilise a video camera to assist, then the following guidelines may be of assistance.

Preparation

- * If possible the coach should not operate the camera, as his/her time will be better spent supporting and guiding the pupils.
- * The coach should ensure the camera operator is fully conversant with the operations of the camera, and that does not mean learning while videoing the first pupil.
- * A good camera operator will enhance the end result providing they know what to look for. To this end the coach should ensure the camera operator is aware of the coaches requirements. This may require the coach to "script" the operator (eg: I want the pupil to see firstly how they stand on each lane then secondly whether they lift their heads while shooting!)
- * The use of a tripod or "brace" is encouraged to reduce unwanted camera jitters.
- * Make sure the camera arrives with fully charged batteries and the relevant leads for replay and review operations.
- * Have a plan, if time permits start the video process with footage of the coach or a respected shooter, actually shooting on the day "as per the coaches manual" if you like include some specific faults. The coach can use this footage in an initial review process to highlight the benefits of the use of the video and introduce the pupils to the review & comment process.

Location

- * The coach should ensure the camera and its operator is located in a position of safety where they will be able to capture the required shots. (eg: for right hand shooters as above, the camera should be safely outside lane 5 about a metre in front of the shooters (and similarly outside lane 1 for lefthanders.)

Capturing the shooting

Following on from the coaches requirements above:

- * I would expect to see a full-length shot of the pupil to start, zooming onto the feet on the shooting pad, and then rising into an upper body shot to capture any movement of the head on the gun as it is fired.

* When shooting the video fill the viewfinder as much as possible with each pupil- there is no point looking for head movement on the gun or a pitch related "muzzle flip" problem when the "star" is only a blip in the middle of the screen.

* To identify & solve a particular problem ensure the operator captures the event in sufficient detail for the coach to be able to use the footage to advantage without having to "visualise" the event on the TV during review.

* When working with a squad of shooters, consider only capturing each shooter as they shoot from a particular lane. Ensure every pupil has an equal opportunity to be "captured" on film. This will not only reduce excessive camera movement but it will also reduce repetition and the period of time taken to review the squad's footage.

* To be successful with a group it may require the use of more than one camera or shooting smaller "five target events" to keep the interest up and the squads moving. This is especially important if you are coaching novice junior shooters.

* If you are coaching "one on one" it may be the pupil will request to keep the recordings from session to session to rate their improvement in style or the mastering of a problem, so ensure you have sufficient video tapes. The coach may require the pupil store and return their own tape each time they come to the next coaching session.

Review

It is very important to control the review process, as individuals may become quite embarrassed having an audience watch them miss or do silly things:

- * Attempt to limit the reviewing audience to the squad of shooters or the individual (if one on one) plus the coach and any assistants.
- * Attempt to rotate the pupils from the shooting lanes to the TV as soon as possible after the videoed event while the round is fresh in their minds.
- * Allow the pupil to firstly comment on their own technique then have others in the squad comment on each others style before the coach offers assistance.
- * The coach should utilise this situation as "experience based learning" for the whole squad as well as reviewing & discussing specific techniques, difficulties, or gun fit problems with the individual.
- * Remember to respect the feelings of the pupils, be supportive, guide and reassure as a rough handed report on their style/capability may well loose them from the sport.
- * If you are able to offer repeat sessions on the day then concentrate on the specific concern until it is mastered, do not jump around each time picking up other variations as this will confuse the pupil and devalue the result.

With experience it will be seen that short punchy review sessions will benefit each pupil the most. Their ability to concentrate will not be tested and the message will sink in.

Conclusions

A coach should always reflect on the positive outcome of a video session, as the camera does not lie, you will see "we are not all perfect". Reaffirm that fact and the benefits of video footage being such a strong reinforcement - "a picture is worth a thousand words."

ECHUCA CLAY TARGET CLUB MARCH SHOOT

Sunday the 14th of March, a magnificent day for clay target shooting with a fine, calm day of 29 degrees, bringing seven full squads of shooters to Echuca Clay Target Club for an afternoon's competition. With a program to entice shooters intending to compete at the upcoming Australian Nationals, some of Australia's best were present at the shoot. On such a good weather day scores were expected to be high and the results confirmed this with the days High Gun winner Simon Gloster only four points down. Simon, from the Loddon District

TAMWORTH CLAY TARGET CLUB 1ST ANNUAL TWO DAY FIVE STAND SHOOT

The Tamworth Clay Target Club held its 1st annual two day five stand shoot on the weekend of 13 & 14 March. Attendance was a little less than expected; however the end result was a successful and enjoyable weekend of five stand shooting.

The weekend was organised mainly by Bill Hodges who secured generous support from Tamworth Firearms, Fosters Firearms, Firetalk and Baiada Poultry.

Generous and appreciative assistance was also received from Roger Vidal and the Guyra Gun Club who supplied and operated a second layout to ensure that the program could be completed in good time.

The office was efficiently managed by Digby Richards and the ladies committee catered admirably for the some 37 shooters who attended.

Publicity was well covered by NBN television, ABC Radio and local newspapers.

The club was also pleased to have club members and Athens Olympic Games shooters George Barton and Tom Turner in attendance to take part in the competition.

Weather conditions were ideal despite heavy falls of rain in areas surrounding the club - some centres measuring up to 80mm - however there was no rain to speak of at the shoot.

Olympic representative George Barton was the overall winner on day one and for the two days and said that it was great to come to an enjoyable and relaxing shoot rather than the full on pressure of representative competition.

Geoff Lancaster, Rod Taylor, Roger Vidal, Peter Holmes and Frank Chaffey all featured in the results - a full list of which appears in the result section of CTSN.

It is with great sadness that the BROKEN HILL GUN CLUB INC, wish to advise the shooting fraternity of the passing of our foundation and life member after a long and courageous battle with an illness.

Ben William Murphy held various positions in the club from president to trap mechanic, but the most important role was that of mentor and coach of many a young shooter that graced his presence. To them he was the "GODFATHER" of clay target shooting and will always be remembered as the first major influence and impact into their lives.

Ben was extremely well known to many shooters in the nation.

He was a competitive shooter for over 46 years and was the winner of the first ever West Darling Double Barrel Championship in 1959.

To his credit he compiled over 250 district & state championships.

He was in the first and pioneer of the skeet discipline at the Broken Hill Club and the driving force behind its success. He will be best remembered for his story telling prowess and will be sorely missed at any competition.

WILLIAM IAN CLARK 1927-2004

Members of the Clay Target fraternity especially those of the Singleton Clay Target Club Inc and also members of clubs from the Queensland border to Melbourne are saddened to hear of the passing of Bill.

Bill passed away in the early hours of the 10.4.2004 after a battle with the Big C.

Bill, Ian, W.I. or Clarkie. Yes he answered to them all.

Bill was a foundation member and also a Life Member of the Singleton Club, he excelled in Skeet and was very competitive in DTL and ISSF Trap.

Bill was a very supportive member and generous in passing on his knowledge to new and older members when we needed it.

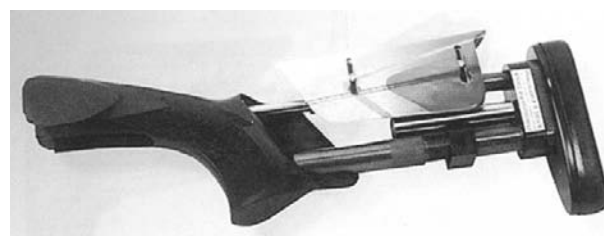

He wore a Referees Badge for many many years and in latter years did more than his share with the button and pencil.

Bill was so particular in all he did it was unbelievable. He was a top bloke, the best mate anyone could wish for and a gentleman.

We extend our sympathy to his wife Marcia, a special lady. There is no doubt his jovial attitude will be missed for a long long time.

Psychological Skills for Shooting

by Michael Kruger-Davis

SAMENESS

There is an interesting psychological construct called sameness. As babies develop they see objects and place them into categories or schemas. As their language develops they learn the names of these things and they start to differentiate between things that are the same but may look different; for example; a child sees a chair and puts the concept into the schema "of something you sit on with four legs." It doesn't matter from what angle we look at a chair it is still a chair. If we turn it upside down, back the front, look at it from above we can still recognise that it is a chair. From then on everything with four legs that you sit on goes into that schema until the child has to recategorise things because the new objects do not fit into an existing schema. A horse for instance, has four legs and you sit on it but it cannot be called a chair, so as the child grows older and has more and more experiences, the child constantly orders and reorders the schemas to fit what is logical for the child. The schema for chair may now include stool, lounges, benches and so on. The only time that children (and some adults for that matter) have difficulty with the concept of sameness is when they are learning to read: the letter "b" when reversed becomes a "d", and when turned upside down becomes a "p" and when reversed again becomes a "q".

So eventually most human beings can recognise those things that are the same and those things that are different. This is the case for clay targets. Clay targets are easily recognisable and the sameness principal applies for standard targets, high dome targets, minis, midis, rabbits, etc. Most shooters are able to recognise a target when released and most shooters can tell if the target is legal or it is a "no target".

I found the recent trap nationals fascinating. Apart from just enjoying the shooting, I was able to meet with a lot of readers and talk about shooting and mental skills necessary for shooting. What intrigued me was the overall positive attitude towards the 2004 national championships. I never heard a single person complain about the targets. The ACTA picked a winner in using CORSIVIA American Trap Hi-dome targets. Without exception, everyone I spoke to thought the targets were excellent; they were easy to pick up, they flew straight and they seemed to sit up in the air just waiting to be hit. What was even more intriguing was the fact that no-one I spoke to, complained about the traps either. Whilst there have been grumbings about the traps in the past, the way the Gemini traps presented the Corsivia hi-dome targets was faultless. Criticisms about the traps that have been made in the past, about the flight of the targets off the Gemini's or the inability to shoot high scores, lost all credibility when the last six shooters in the double barrel all shot over 400 and the winner, well done Arthur, went on to shoot 611. That consistency of shooting says something positive about both the traps and the targets. Matching Corsivia hi-dome targets to Gemini traps appears to have worked well at Wagga and I've also heard locally that other clubs are going to order the Corsivia hi-dome targets because of the positive experience at the Nationals. Consistency and good target presentation is what brings shooters back to your club.

The psychologist in me is always looking to see what the research is saying about this or that and during the Nationals I discussed with some shooters an experiment that I would like to conduct. The hypothesis would be that because of "sameness" shooters could not tell what type of trap was throwing the targets. The method of the research would involve getting one of each trap commercially available in Australia and, if for example there were 10 different traps, randomly allocate one to each on the 10 trap houses. Shooters would then be given a sheet with the names of the traps and they would have say what type of trap was in which trap house. It would be interesting to see if shooters could, after shooting five targets from each trap, tell what make of trap they were shooting over. I would argue that most, if not all shooters would not be able to correctly identify the type of trap they were shooting over. If we extended the research to include targets, and asked shooters to identify what make of targets they were shooting, there might be a slight improvement in their ability to pick one or two types but in general the principal of sameness would help shooters recognise the object as a target and they would shoot it before they could discriminate what make of target it was. This is assuming that anyone could discriminate between different makes of targets in flight anyway. What would be possible is that the Corsivia Hi-dome targets may stand out differently from other standard targets because of their ability to fly straight and the fact that there is more target to be seen.

So if you take the targets, the way they were presented, the weather, location, ground presentation, the new program, trade displays and the social events; couple these with some great shooting, a feeling of belonging, acceptance, freedom and fun then the 2004 Nationals, for me anyway, were a resounding success. What was also indicative of success was the great crowd that turned up to shoot. I was delighted to see a new shooter, whom I had met two weeks before at Albury turn up. He had won a C grade championship at Albury and I said to him that he should come to the Nationals because if he shot like that he could easily win his grade. He turned up and he was placed somewhere in C grade. I've said in the past that B and C grade shooters should attend more of these big shoots because your chances of winning something is far greater than AA grade and it will improve your shooting back at club shoots. Also the new program of two events per day probably helped this as shooters could spend more money on shooting and less on accommodation, food, etc. Whilst there were some bugs this year because of the crowds I hope the ACTA looks at how they resolve these small problems but still retain the concept.

MANLY NSW 2095

The Editor March 30, 2004

ACTA Shooting News

P.O. Box 466

WAGGA WAGGA NSW 2650

Dear Editor,

Reading Dr. Page's careful account of the theft of his firearms makes it pretty clear he was the victim of a planned theft as opposed to a random criminal act.

We are all liable to be targeted by information passed to criminals by dishonest police, public servants, hackers and the like.

I entreated with the NSW Firearms Registry not to correspond in envelopes revealing their source, and they have wisely ceased doing so.

I would ask that the ACTA correspond in envelopes not revealing the contents. Any dishonest postie or sorter can provide vital and valuable information as to a likely stock of firearms and ammunition to be stolen.

The ACTA might persuade the SSAA and all shooting clubs to follow the same practice.

We can never completely prevent the violent and determined felons from stealing our property, but a bit of commonsense behaviour on the part of those controlling our sport could make it a lot harder for them. Absolute security is a chimera, particularly so when we are travelling. The points the good Doctor makes are validly and lucidly made, and I don't think our Government or police force can provide us with a solution to our dilemma.

I wonder what the police attitude would have been had the good Doctor taken the added precaution of not packing his guns' fore-ends the night before so as to render the guns unusable? Don't ask me!!!

Yours faithfully

THE HON. PETER DENT Q.C., Member

Gun Fitting

It is not my practice to become embroiled in matters published under Letters to the Editor (Your Say), but I fancy some logic needs to be applied to the complex matter of Gun Fitting. The original article by Rick Hacker (see Feb. 2004), was interesting, informative and gave a light insight into the practice.

The reply to said article, by Pat Loeffler (see April 2004), gave a clear indication of his thoughts on the matter, but did precious little to illustrate how a process which has been carried out for some 200 years with proven success can be such a vital constituent in the art of "Shooting Flying".

I respect Mr Loeffler's view that he would not want his stock bent under any circumstances, but too my mind putting a band-saw through the comb of a fine piece of walnut, inletting a myriad of plates, tubes, rods, screws and allied paraphernalia would disfigure and scar a gun far more than professional altering by "setting". Albeit that the wood be suitable.

As far as stocks moving after setting, I agree they can and do, but any stock at any time can move if the mood takes it. Has anyone had a door warp and jam for no apparent reason?

Wood is alive and if it is not alive it rots. It takes in moisture in humid climes and gives up moisture in arid climes. If it chooses to move it will, as no wood is immune to the forces of nature.

Readers maybe amazed that any one of their stocks could have taken on different measurements over the years without them even knowing, especially if the stock has been removed for any period of time.

Have you ever known a Shooter experience a sudden unexplained slump in form? This slump is usually redressed by altering recoil pads, moving adjustable combs or sticking bits of leather or the like here and there.

The truth is the stock has most probably moved.

Just attend any Trap competition, and as the day goes on up pop the stock fiddlers, beaver away for all they are worth. Remember world class Shots rarely alter their stocks, and if any change is detected this is corrected in a calculated methodical and professional manner.

Alteration by setting does not change how a gun feels it alters where it shoots. Moving an adjustable comb alters where it shoots and alters how it feels, a subtle but important difference which should not be ignored.

An example of how fickle stock dimensions are can be illustrated in pairs of game guns. These are always made to match in every respect, but over time a Gentleman would adopt a greater liking for either one of the pair.

He does not know why he just tends to shoot better with it. If a single gun day were on the cards the favourite gun would be used. Eventually the pair would be taken to the gunmaker for service, and measurements checked as a matter of course, only to reveal that one of the stocks had moved. The second gun would be set to match the favoured gun and the status quo returned.

I hardly think the fitting of an adjustable comb to one of a pair of guns would be a sane proposition, the setting by experienced craftsmen is always and always will be the favoured route.

Of late I have noticed the trend for modern gun makers to use highly figured stock blanks often with unsound grain structure in the head/hand area on guns with stock "through bolts". Obviously the logic being the bolt will hold everything together! Stocks with unsound cross grain in the head or hand should not be set for fear of breakage. However, it is not unknown for stocks of this nature to crack of their own volition, especially if the stock bolt is overly tight, loose, or the gun having experienced overly rough usage.

As always nothing in life is guaranteed!

I hope this letter gives Readers food for thought and in some small way assists them to attain success in this fine sport.

Currently in Victoria some clubs have reverted to the skeet rules pre 1 Jan 2003; i.e., old course of fire old distances, i.e. 50 metres and not 55 metres.

What I would like to find out from other shooters is:

1. Should Break Badges shot today under old rules be recognized by the A.C.T.A.?
2. With regard to the Briley Awards should breaks be recognized by A.C.T.A. and Briley if they are obtained by shooting at targets that are not shot in accordance with current A.C.T.A. guidelines?

My opinion is that as the targets have not been thrown in accordance with A.C.T.A. guidelines, break badges and awards should not be granted.

Official comment from the A.C.T.A. would be appreciated.

GOLDEN IBIS — 2004

My how times flies when you are having fun shooting clays. Once again the Golden Ibis has come and gone. This year to a new home. The great Roger Duthie had won four on the trot however was outshot this year by a young gun by the name of Clint SHIELDS. (Well Shot Cuz).

Approximately 130 shooters took to the tracks both days and the weather held to make for some great shooting. Some forty possibles shot the first 25 to share in the money, and then onto the real business with the first championship of the weekend being the Lower Macquarie Pointscore.

Big Brad Hooper paved the way out lasting Bryan Manns from Cobar to finish on a perfect 183/183 to Bryans 182/183. Robbie Thompson made it a double to Cobar in AA grade taking second with 92/93.

Tony Mitchell led the way in A grade with 74/75 from Jim Allan

Walsh from Parkes. Walshie was heard to say he had to come back this year as he got such a flogging last year, it couldn't happen twice in a row surely to god. Ross shot a great 55/55 to win from Glen Harvey from Coonamble who took AA grade from Roger Duthie.

Clint Shields, overall high gun winner.

Veterans overall high gun, Frank Bradwell.

taking second in the shoot off with 94/96. B grade went to Ross Mclean with 80/84 from Cracker McDonald on 79/84.

C grade was won in great style by that never ageing gentleman from Brewarrina Wulf Reichler shooting 66/75 from new junior Kyle Walton with 65/75, the first of the locals to take a pot.

Kathy Gault cleaned up the ladies division with 74/75, Kirk Neill the juniors with 74/75 and Pud Burgess taking the veterans to make it three pots for the Cobar troops.

Event two the Single Barrel Trophy was won in fine style by Ross

Brendon Bugess, overall double rise and overall junior high gun.

Graham Wilson from Tamworth who hasn't been back since the big wet in 22000 cleaned up in A grade with a great 53/54 from Tony Mitchell who collected his second prize for the day. Bryce Hallam took B grade shooting 25/25 from Mark Welsh from Lake Macquarie shooting 24/25.

C grade went to David O'Brien with 23/25, second scalp for the locals from Wulf Reichler on 32/35.

Now onto the Golden event of the day with the Lower Macquarie Double Barrel. Many shooters shot the 25/25 however after a very extended shoot off Glen Castellaro out shot the lot to take the Overall prize and the Bar Fridge with a great 347/347 from Nathan McDonnell on 346/347 who won AA grade. Ross Walsh took second in AA with 273/274. Ross tried all sorts of tricks including a gun break down to shake the others off however, with their concentration they out lasted him to again give him a lesson. Great shooting chaps.

Graham Baylis from Narrabri out shot arch rival Rex Lehman to win A grade shooting 92/93 and 76/77.

Great to see Peter Wyner from Mendooran winning B grade with 61/62 from Ross Morris on 25/26. Nancey Kilmartin from Hermdale won the C grade with 27/28 again from Wulf Reichler who by now has won his third trophy.

Kathy Gault backed up to win the ladies with a possible. Kirk Neill the juniors and his second for the day and Kevin Heywood took the veterans with 25/25.

Sunday morning bright and early with an 8 O'clock start saw many bleary eyes and sore heads from the night before. First event being the mixed targets, and mixed it was, supposed to be shot of 18 meters however the shoot Marshall hand a blank and decided the targets looked better from 15 meters to give the sick a better chance. This must have been the case by the look of the possibles shot. The shoot off lasted a further two rounds and Roger Duthie showed his skill outlasted Glen Castellaro to win with a perfect 150/150 from Glen on 149/150 who took out second in AA grade.

Max Betts sneaking along quietly took A grade shooting 49/50 from Kevin Shields (We'll Done Unk) who shot 98/100 to take second. Ross Mclean also going about things quietly took B grade for his second prize of the weekend from Scott Moody from Coonamble who poked over for the day. C grade went to Craig Haymen shooting 44/50 from Scott Walton on 43/50. Scott couldn't let his son be the only family winner.

B grade high gun, Ross Mclean.

Nathan McDonnell, overall presidential pointscore winner.

Brad Hooper, pointscore championships winner.

Event six the Lower Macquarie Single Barrel Championship. Another Burgess by the name of Brendon and a junior as well (I believe no relation to great Pud from Cobar) completely out shone all behind him to win overall with a great 55/55 from Bryan Manns who won AA grade from Nathan McDonnell who shot 43/44.

Daniel Allan won A grade also shooting the possible from John Gemmill on 24/25. Scott Moody showing the one day wonder won B grade in a shoot off with Garry McDonald with 28/29 to Garrys 27/29. Scott Walton made it a double to win C grade And relegate his son Kyle to second.

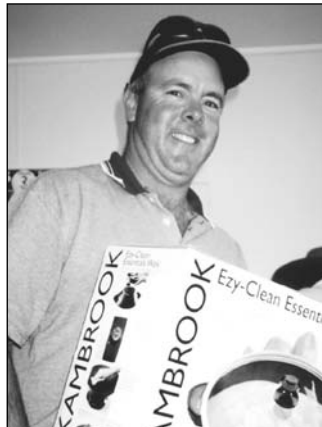

Kathy Gault having a field day won the ladies on 24/25. Brendon Burgess made it a double win in the juniors and Pud Burgess with a 23/25 won the veterans.

Nearing the finish and only two chances to go to see who is top gun for the weekend. The Presidential Pointscore saw Nathan McDonnell eventually crack a win shooting a great 114/114 to again out last Bryan Manns becoming a bridesmaid for the third time for the weekend on 113/114 to take AA grade from Pud Burgess on 87/90

Unk Kevin Shields cleaned up in A grade from Dave Miller. Another Cobar winner for the weekend shooting 89/90. Ross Morris took B grade with a great 74/75 from Bryce Hallam on 73/75. C grade went to David O'Brien taking his second C grade title for the weekend, and Kyle Walton second for the third time shooting 66/76.

Wul Reichler, C grade double barrel championship

David O'Brien, presidential pointscore C grade winner.

Last event before the long drive home for many and the last chance of a win. The Lower Macquarie Double Rise two targets in the air at the one time. That junior Brendon Burgess was on the podium once again shooting a great 28/30 to win outright Ted Schneider shot 46/50 to win AA grade from Cuz Clint on 45/50. John Gemmill won A grade shooting 36/40 from Max Betts on 34/40. B grade went to Brendon Pickette who was regraded during the weekend from C grade. Well shot Brendon. Scott Moody made it three placings in a row.

Wulf Reichler, it seems this name comes up often in C grade everywhere shot 36/50 to outlast Junior Robert Fullwood-Hosking.

No need to mention the ladies winner, ok it was Kathy again shooting 31/40. Brendon Burgess took the Juniors with 28/30, and Pud again the veterans with a 31/40.

Well, all over and now the High Guns. As earlier Clint out shone all to take the Overall and the Golden Ibis for 2004. Great shooting Cuz. Clint only dropped 8 points for the weekend.

Bryan Manns again the bridesmaid and Robbie Thompson shared AA grade shooting 320/330.

Max Betts outlasted all to take A grade with a great 310/330 to take the 51cm Flat screen TV and sash. Well done Max. Ross Mclean from Lake Macquarie having a great weekend took B grade with 303/330. Ross like all High Gun winners also took home a lovely 51cm TV and sash. Brendon Pickette ended up in B grade and not quite A grade won C grade with 286/330.

We all know who won the ladies. Yes, Kathy Gault with 306/330. Brendon Burgess topped off a great weekends shooting taking the juniors with 314/330. My wasn't his Dad a happy chappy. To finish the High Guns and I am not sure how this could have happened. I know Bill Jones and the boys will not hear the end of it. Frank Bradwell the whingeing pom shot 304 to out last all other distinguished shooters.

Haven't heard any complaints as yet so I assume everyone had a great weekend, enjoyed the hospitality of the Warren club and its members and had a safe trip home.

Tony Doable finished up a winner taking the lucky shooter prize of $250 donated by Safari Firearms, who also donated 1000 shells, which went to the juniors over the weekend. Many thanks to Gary for your generous donation. Webby had a great weekend again. Thanks Webby, was great to see your dad Bob here. Hope alls well Bob, and hope to see you next year.

Local Adam Boyd won the big raffle, Peter Dennis from Moree second and our shoot

Marshall John Coaker took the BBQ for third prize.

To all the business people who donated to make the weekend the success it was our heartfelt thanks. The small but willing band of workers, Office Ladies, Backboard and Kitchen Ladies, Trappers, Shoot Marshall, Refs and Scorers and the chappies who helped setting up and cleaning up many thanks. Please come again next year we really appreciate your assistance.

2004 Easter 2 day Trap Carnival held on 10th & 11th April.

With our new and very hard working committee putting in some extra hard yards, all systems were ready on Good Friday in time for the arrival of our visitors. As more shooters turned up for our practice shoot and to stay for tea, it was decided to have a night event with O/A going to Tony Halpin.

Over the weekend we had great club representation from 20 clubs, including Normanton, Sunshine Coast, Mackay, Charleville, Tallawalla, Blackall, Callide Dawson, Gemfields, Maryborough Ilfracombe, Port Denison, Clermont, Springsure, Bundaberg, Rockhampton, Tambo, Central Burnett, Wandoan, and Showmans Club.

As Gladstone had the Harbor Festival on, as well as the finish of the Brisbane to Gladstone Yacht race, the Go-Kart Racing & Bare Foot skiing competitions just to mention a few, a lot of our visiting families took the opportunity to enjoy the local attractions & entertainment on Saturday Night. But for those who decided to stay at the club, had a very enjoyable night, which included being entertained by a visiting lady shooter/belly dancer...

Sunday's weather was great only a little gustier. The O/A winner of the case of shells for the 10 T Points was Mark Warnock 18/18, and the O/A winner of the 25 T Points was Liam Bunker 73/75. 1st AA Neil Berry 72/75, 2nd AA Wes Humphries 71/75, 1st A Bill Gall 73/75, 2nd A Les Moore 71/75, 1st B Mark Hetherington 71/75, 2nd B Carlo Barletta 63/75 1st C Charlie Buhagiar 52/75, 2nd C Nic Reynolds 47/75.

We had great sponsors for the 25T Handicap event, which was won by Allan Grimshaw 24/25 taking the "Bose" Clock Radio home valued at $700-. 2nd Place went to Matt Gall 27/29 who won for himself a Magellan GPS and 3rd went to James McIntyre 26/29 who took home a TV sponsored by Gladstone Nissan & Hyundai. 4th Place went to Cherie Reeves with 24/26, which won her a huge torch sponsored by Gladstone Hi-Fi. Ladies High Gun was sponsored by Beta Electrical of Gladstone and was won by Cherie Reeves, and Matthew Gall won Junior High Gun with 230/250.

We also had great support from our locals like The Club Hotel, Channel 7, Gladstone City Council, Livestock Datalink & Industries NRG, QAL, Comalco, GPA & Boyne Smelter who donated prizes so that all shooters who shot both days and were unsuccessful receive something at the presentations. It was the committees' way of thanking all those who turned up to help make the weekend a great success & would like to thank all of our generous sponsors who helped make this happen. With the introduction of a new computer system and operator in the office there was huge potential for a major disaster. But with great support from the "experienced ones" most hiccups were avoided. To all members who helped in some way to make the weekend go smoothly, whether it is serving in the kitchen, writing up scores or bringing those in need coffee, a big thank you. Hope to see you all next year.

Narromine News and Trangie Advocate.

Narromine Clay Target club can now proudly claim to own their shooting range after the official handover of land on Saturday.

The club has been located at the current site under lease for the past eight and a half years, but through a $25,000 state government grant they were recently able to purchase the property from Dr Robert Kirkby.

Club president Ian Piddington said it was a great day for the club knowing they had the security of owning the land.

"The biggest thing for us is to know that now the land can't be taken away from us," he said.

"And all the hard work and money invested in the land hasn't been for nothing."

The club has invested more than $70,000 in developing the area for their needs including providing power to the site.

John Tingle MLC, who was instrumental in accessing the grant money for the club, was on hand on Saturday to officially hand over the land.

"The whole future of shooting ranges depends upon the clubs owning the land," he said.

"Of the 396 ranges in NSW only 12 own the land."

Mr Tingle said the ownership of land was critical to the perpetuity of the clubs with only very limited land available for future range development.

Narromine Clay Target president Ian Piddington, John Tingle MLC and Dr Robert Kirkby celebrating the purchase of the land for the clay target club.

"They need the land for the guaranteed tenure. Most leases are only five to 10 years and at the end and after all the hard work the clubs have done they can just take back the land if they want."

Retiring mayor Marty Havercroft said the work they have done to create such brilliant facility with a growing membership was a credit to the club and the success of their purchase was a just reward.

SOUTHERN YORKE PENINSULA CLUB 40TH YEAR

From hard loaded traps behind hay bales, to a lever operated snipe layout at the old Bluff club, to not so new electric traps over two layouts plus skeet at the new Hartland Range club is the story of 40 years of Clay Target shooting on S.Y.P.

Our 40th year Birthday shoot was held on the 27th March, with 24 shooters from Ungaura, Broken Hill, Pt Pirie, Mid North, Barrera, Meringie and local shooters competing for trophies donated by local businesses on the Peninsula.

Following the shooting, a dinner was held at the club where several original members attended and spoke on the formation of the club and amusing stories from the past.

Keith May, Bill Braithwaite, Bob Edwards, John Swartz and Peter Quire were all involved in forming the club and it is great to see Bob and Peter still shooting. First president, Col Parsons could not attend due to poor health.

The club expresses appreciation to all those who attended and assisted on the day, which made this event one to remember.

NEZ TITLE SHOT AT MATHOURA

The fourth Friday of March at Mathoura Gun Club, and shooters arrived at 7pm to do battle for the placings in the three events on offer for the evening's program.

One of the events was a 25 target Victorian North East Zone Night Continental Championship, a very difficult event to achieve high scores easily.

22 Degrees and a clear calm evening ensured a very enjoyable shoot for all that turned up for the nights competition.

All three events for the night were shot in the continental format, giving shooters the chance of improving as the night wore on.

Event one was a 10 target Double Barrel Continental cash divide, and only two tens were achieved, Ben Kerslake and Trevor Berryman both on 10/10 collecting cash.

Event two a 25 target NEZ Night Continental Championship, and Ben Kerslake having an excellent night taking out the Overall Sash and A Grade on 1 target down, Trevor Berryman also shooting well taking B Grade on a 23/25, Shane Howe 22/25 collecting C Grade.

Event three a 15 target Continental Points Score, and local shooter Harry O'Conner showing the way dropping only one point to collect first prize on an very good 44/45, Roger Kerslake after a short shoot off taking out second on a 50/57, and Shane Howe dropping one more point to collect third on a 49/57.

The shoot complimented by good weather and good catering by the ladies, ended at an early 10-30pm, allowing shooters ample time for travel.

CRAIG SCOTT WINS ECHUCA SHOOT

Easter Sunday at Echuca Clay Target Club, and as usual not a good time of the year for attendance as most of the shooters are usually holidaying somewhere.

However as it was a perfect day for Clay Target shooting, with 25 degrees, clear sky and no wind at all, it did attract four squads of shooters to attend.

The first event was a Fifty Target Skeet Championship and three shooters lined up for a crack at Overall, all only two targets down.

Craig Scott OA Skeet being congratulated by Ron Traill

Club president Ron Traill, Craig Scott, and Peter Jamison, Peter dropping his third target on the first station, then Ron dropping his third target on the second station and it was all over with Craig taking Overall and A Grade in the Skeet on a 56/58.

B Grade was contested by two shooters, John Harris and Murray Roberts, both three targets down, station one was enough to get a winner with Murray first on a 51/54.

C Grade was Collected by Ron Traill with a score of 54/57.

Skeet shooting all over, now time to contest for Down The Line events.

Event Two, a Twenty Target Points Score Graded Cash event, and R Traill in the winners circle again taking out A Grade with a very creditable one point down 59/60.

B Grade was H Hawking on 52/60, and C Grade S Boyd on a score of 34/60.

Event Three, A Twenty Target Single Barrel Graded Cash event, and once again, a winner with very good shooting, on one target down Ron Traill 19/20, taking out A Grade First, B Grade first was Howard Hawking on 14/20, and C Grade first Craig Cameron on a score of 13/20.

Although numbers were low all shooters declared they had a very enjoyable days sport and were looking forward to the next shoot.
