NATIONAL PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Bill Jones

I have recently returned from the ISSF Nationals held at the Brisbane Gun Club.

Attendance was good particularly the Junior section. The Brisbane Gun Club officials had the facilities in great order which in turn produced some very fine shooting.

The office staff and tournament officials produced yet another top class competition.

Overcast conditions made high scores difficult. However Michael Diamond shot a PQS 121 and took out two Championships and the High Gun. Adam Vella also performed well with one Championship and two second places. These two shooters are the benchmark and together with Tom Turner continue to produce top class scores.

Special mention to Simone Tigani with two Championships and obviously a shooter of the future.

The Double Trap competition saw Craig Trembath, Adam Vella and Russell Mark share the honours with Adam taking the High Gun trophy.

Special mention to Helen Overton with two Womens trophies and also the High Gun.

I am suitably impressed with the number of Junior shooters and their performance.

Congratulations to Paul Rahman for the Skeet win and George Barton the High Gun.

Thanks to Brisbane Gun Club, tournament official and competitors for a top class performance.

Spring Bay Clay Target Club Taipan Shield

Location east coast Tasmania

Spring Bay Clay Target Club has only been in operation as an ACTA affiliated club for one year and yet they have fielded a Ladies Taipan Shield Team in the 2006 competition.

The rules require that a club has to have three registered female members. Given that Sandy Ellis, Karen Kempton and Cheryl Arnol had registered with the club, Sandy decided that a team was the order of the day and set about organising the first ever SBCTC Ladies Taipan Shield Team. Katrina McLaren and Kathy Von Stieglitz were invited to make up our team.

Sunday 17th December arrived with much anticipation. Cheryl had only shot twice in 7 months due to a shoulder injury, Sandy had been busy at work and had hardly shot at all over the previous 3 months, Karen had not been well and not shooting for some months and Katrina is primarily a skeet shooter! Kathy had shot a bit leading up to the day but in the big scheme of things she had had about as much practice as the rest of us. At least we all got on well together so we decided that we did have a good team.

Fortunately the day had dawned fine and reasonably warm with little wind. After the first event Katrina's firearm decided to malfunction. Glenn Arnol turned the back of his Ute into a gun repair shop but to no avail. After presentation of team shirts by Club President Percy Tatnell, we lined up to shoot the 125 targets with Katrina using Grant Ellis' gun.

The final score was 120/125. Guess it just proves you don't need "hot shots" to shoot well as a team; just respect for each other and not taking it too seriously. We had a great time both on and off the track. Girls with guns really do have more fun!

Thanks to Spring Bay Clay Target Club, their members and competitors on the day for their support of the team.

Cheryl Arnol
Club Secretary

NEW YEAR'S DAY AT WARRNAMBOOL

Located on the Coast in South West Victoria

Sixty-seven shooters gathered at Warrnambool on New Years Day to compete for the two prestige events. First up, the 25 target G.B. Corsivia Single Barrel Championship. And the second event, the 25 target G.B. Corsivia Double Barrell Championship.

Shooters traveled from a large area, representing the following clubs: Woods's Point, Macarthur, Myamyn, Hamilton, Callawadda-Stawell, Central Wimmera, Noorat, Colac, Sebastopol, Maryborough, Geelong, Tyrendarra, Down Side N.S.W. and Warrnambool.

Local Members, Les, Ted, and Tony had the ground and club surrounds looking excellent. Considering the dry times. Wayne on the BBQ, Helen and Christine in the kitchen did a great job catering throughout the day.

Weather conditions were fine, with a very gusty southeast breeze off the sea, keeping targets interesting throughout the day.

Psychological Skills for Shooting

by Michael Kruger-Davis

ROADBLOCKS TO MENTAL TOUGHNESS

Over the past couple of months I have been involved with the Southern Sports Academy based in Wagga. The Southern Sports Academy provides opportunities for young, elite athletes, in cycling, golf, basketball, netball, hockey and tennis, to work towards developing their potential as a precursor to moving on to the NSW Institute of Sport. My role in the Academy is to provide mental skills coaching for the teams and individuals. Setting up a mental skills program for these junior, elite athletes at the beginning of their sporting careers, may help them perform to their potential. So having to focus on teaching teenagers about mental skills and with the Nationals fast approaching, it seemed a timely reminder to go over some of the reasons why we should all have our own personal mental skills program.

I subscribe to an American E-magazine, organized by Dr Patrick Cohn from the Peak Sports Network, and in a recent article he explored the common roadblocks to success.

It doesn't matter how much talent you or your team possess or how much money you spend on equipment and physical training, you cannot reach your potential with below average or average mental toughness! Mental toughness can be limited by self-doubt, fear, poor goal setting, low self-confidence, a lack of focus or an inability to concentrate.

According to Cohn, one of the most powerful mental blocks for athletes is called negative self-labels. Self-labels are names you give yourself that place limits on your performance, such as "choker", or "loser". The worst thing is that we would be annoyed and angry if some else called us these names but we are ready to give ourselves these labels, which do nothing but make us doubt our ability even more.

So, what are the mental game challenges that hold you back? What mental blocks sabotage your success in sports?

Cohn identifies 10 mental game challenges that get in the way of us being mentally tough and succeeding.

1. You do not have well-defined goals or lack goal specificity. Remember your goals need to be SMART: specific, measurable, achievable, realistic and have a time frame.
2. You are self-conscious and you worry about what others think.

As I have said previously, "what others think of me is none of my business." How we perform on a given day, is just that how we perform on that day. Our sense of being as a person is more than just our score and in a day or two it won't matter what the score was. It's also possible to shoot well all the time but still fail at life; relationships, work, health, etc.

3. You maintain many self-doubts about your sport. Let go of the judgements and just enjoy the sport. Be prepared to have a go and be prepared to fail, and remember to have fun; Fun will get rid of the self doubt.
4. You worry about letting others down by not performing to their expectations. Why should you ever let other people's expectations dictate how you play and how you perform? If success is so important to them, then let them compete.
5. You suffer from anxiety, worry, or excess tension when in competition. This is normal, especially in a big competition, but what is the point? Life will not come to a screaming halt just because you miss a target. Get some perspective into your life.
6. You attach your self-worth to how well you perform in sports. You are more than your sport: think of your other roles, parent, businessman, co-worker, carer, son or daughter, etc. If you have success in these other aspects of your life then start to reframe how worthy you really are.
7. You lose focus or have mental lapses during critical times of the game. This is a hard one because we are all human. Learn to concentrate out of competition so that it easier to focus during the competition. Also learn to re-establish your attention once it has moved. This also needs to be practiced out of competition.
8. You are distracted by little things in your environment. Learn to focus on the target and put everything else out of your mind. Use visualization techniques, such as the Black Box technique to achieve this.
9. You become easily frustrated because of high expectations. When we get angry we tend to try harder. Trying fails and therefore we miss more targets because we are doubting ourselves and our muscles are tensing up and stopping us from performing fluidly.
10. You cannot perform with freedom or trust in competition. If you can't trust then you will always fail. Tell yourself: Trust and let go.

If any of the above apply to you (and being human, some or all of them will) then you need to look at setting up a mental skills program, that will allow you to perform without the above roadblocks to success getting in your way.

It's Your Call

No. 15

By Bill McCarthy

You are the Referee of a shoot off for a 25 Target Double Barrel Event. The Shoot Marshal whose duty it is to be at all shoot offs, is busy with another shoot off on another trap. You have been delegated full authority in this case.

You have four shooters in the shoot off squad and all is progressing well until the 23rd target. No one has missed so far.

However, No 2 shooter turns to you and says he is out of cartridges. Can he get some more.

ITS YOUR CALL:

The answer under Rule 3.22 is No! And you rule "Lost Target" for the next target.

Rule 3.22 is quite specific in that it requires a shooter in a shoot off to have sufficient cartridges for a complete run over each trap (where there is more than 25 targets) or enough cartridges for at least 25 Targets where the shoot off is being conducted over one trap. The cartridges carried should be sufficient for any eventuality, eg misfires, no targets etc,

Referees officiating at shoot offs should ask the shooters if they have sufficient cartridges to complete the maximum number of targets programmed for the first phase of any shoot off. It saves embarrassment for both the shooter and Referee in the event that someone has forgotten to bring enough cartridges.

However, it should be borne in mind that if the Referee fails to remind the shooters of their responsibilities in this matter it does not mitigate nor excuse any shooter from complying with the Rule. The shooter will be held responsible for his own oversight in the event that he runs out of cartridges.

ECHUCA SHOOTS FOUR EVENTS

Echuca Clay Target Club attracted six full squads of shooters for the January 2007 competition. Usually January is not a good month for attendance, as a lot of shooters are away on holidays or just busy organising school return for the kids. So six squads is a good rollup and it included a big percentage of Echuca members, and in fact all the Overall wins, and all the grade wins, were taken by local shooters which is probably a very rare occurrence and speaks well for the quality of Echuca shooters.

Four events were on offer for the day with the weather virtually perfect, clear, calm, and about 29 degrees, and the first event was a 25 target Ball Trap Championship. Two shooters on 24 to shoot off,

Arthur Turner OA & AA Ball Trap OA & AA Double Barrel

Saun Everett
OA 1st Handicap

Steve Atkins and Arthur Turner and Steve dropped his 38th target giving Arthur the Overall Sash and AA grade win on a score of 38/39. Steve taking 2nd in AA on 37/39, A grade 1st was Steve Traill 22/25, A 2nd Rex Piastrri 21/25, B 1st Ron Traill 21/25, B 2nd Ian Gebhardt 20/25, C 1st Warrick Kelvy 20/25, C 2nd Michelle Felmingham on a score of 18/25.

Event Two, a 20 target Points Score, and AA 1st was S Atkins 58/60, AA 2nd L Fitzgerald 81/84, A 1st Ron Traill the only shooter to shoot a clean score of 60/60, A 2nd K Yates 67/72, B 1st John Jamison 59/60, B 2nd Peter Sing 56/60, C 1st Doug Faulkner 48/60, and C 2nd S Everett on a 41/60 score.

Event Three, a 20 target Handicap, and Overall first was S Everett after a very short shoot off on a 22/22 score, 2nd was W Kelvy 21/22 & 3rd H Nihill 20/21.

Event Four, a 20 target Double Barrel Championship, and again, Arthur Turner showing his skill by outstaying Peter Gobbo in the shoot off, which lasted until Peter dropped his 98th target, Arthur taking out Overall & AA grade on 98/98, 2nd in AA was R Morrison on 63/64, A 1st was P Gobbo 97/98, A 2nd I Gebhardt 32/33, B 1st W Kelvy, probably on his last competition as B grade as he has been performing very well of late, Warrick shot a 28/29, B 2nd P Sing 19/20, C 1st S Everett 19/20, and C 2nd was Doug Faulkner on a 16/20 score.

A popular program, which very ran smoothly, with all shooting, and presentations over at an early time, giving all who attended an early departure time, especially those with any distance to travel, pleasing everyone who attended. Club President, Ron Traill, along with all the committee, thanked shooters for all their attendances at the Echuca club, and to shoot well in 2007.

ECHUCA COLLEGE ON TARGET

Teacher, Eleisha Murphy, arrived with her year nine students, to Echuca Clay Target Club grounds on Friday the 1st of December, for another round of clay target shooting for the year. The Students from the College Drive Campus were fairly confident of scoring well, having attended several clinics throughout the year. And score well they did, with 9s and 8s and 6s out of 10 targets, shot with a single barrel only. The students were evenly distributed, male/female, and normally the girls are a bit dubious about the recoil or the noise, but now being old hands at the sport that was the last thing on their minds, all they were thinking of was to get a good result on the score sheet.

Ben Lubke Overall 1st 9/10

Kasey Heywood

Shot over two Skeet layouts with high and low targets to contend with, and a stiff breeze to further hinder easy shooting, the boys easily outscored the girls with Ben Lubke only dropping one target to score a 9/10 finish. Kasey Heywood led the charge for the girls shooting a very respectable 6/10, with Brianna Rudeforth a clear second in the girls' squad with a 4/10 score. Matt McDonald ran second in the boys' squad with a very good score of 8/10. Further scores were sixes, fours, threes and twos all good when the targets are being moved around with the wind, and only one shot per target is taken into consideration.

Once again the Echuca committee members who coached the Students, aided by two helpers from the Mathoura Gun Club, were impressed with the attitude and the interest shown by the Echuca College Students and wish to thank Eleisha, and the College, for taking an interest in the sport of Clay Target Shooting. Certainly by the Students excellent behaviour, and the attention they paid to the coaches, they will always be welcomed at the Echuca Clay Target Club.

Riverina Ramblings

The adventures of a couple of ordinary blokes in the Eastern Riverina

The Child Bride and the Golden child are on annual leave (I just drive the car and carry the bags) and as such we are visiting El Presentito and Nana. This being the case El Presentito, Col Dunn ("The Green Elf") and myself had pressing and urgent work to do on the trap house for Callawada's new Canterbury Trap and a very nice bit of kit it is. The Green Elf must have actually fathered the thing, such is the pride. He was like the Golden Child (Tess, who is six) at Christmas time, fair dinkum. "If you push this button, it goes up, and if you push that it will throw double rise" enthused Col. "Yeah mate" goes I, "do you mind if we just shoot a few targets, Tiger". "Yeah, Yeah but check this out". Had to nearly drag him back behind the common mark so we could have a shot.

Beaufort, according to their president were going to cancel their shoot on the 30th of December as they didn't reckon anyone would turn up. I don't think anyone was more surprised than the ladies in the kitchen when nine full squads subbed up to shoot the program plus partners and kids. A 25t Continental just as a warm up, followed by 25t Single Barrel comprise the event called the "Rock". No one actually shot the 50 targets but half a dozen shot a 49 in perfect conditions. The second half of the event comprised 15t of 18m Double Barrel and then a 15t Points also off 18m. With this kind of program it will come as no surprise that the shoot off's didn't last long. Another very friendly club this and as it was the only shoot on it drew shooters from far and wide. The Callawada club had a very good day out and took a fair haul of the prizes on offer. Pleased the Callawada President was let me tell you.

Pee Wee has made a new years resolution to improve 1% from a 98% average to a 99% average for this year. (Who knows, if he sorts out the gun malfunctions he just might make it). He made the final in the West Wyalong "Hangover Trench" on boxing day but for one of a multitude of reasons, (I sometimes find it hard to plumb the dark depths of Pee Wee's logic) he didn't win. I am not sure if it was the fly that follows him from shoot to shoot or Clive Foster and Dozza Adams sledging him or a mix of the three. MKD seemed a bit confused as well, but at least his triggers didn't fall out.

Talking about Pee Wee, he went down to Kerang for their new year days shoot and cleaned up the Points and missed the High Gun by a point or two, I am not sure if it was "The Fly", the wind or the rain which caused this hiccup. Meanwhile I was in Warrnambool with "Terrible Tim" Hughes, "The Green Elf" and El Presentito and after our success at Beaufort we were feeling pretty good on the way down. That feeling didn't last long. As per usual my standard Rooster to feather duster routine continued and if I felt miserable I reckon El Presentito was on the point of Harri Karrie. It was pretty windy down there which would have suited Pee Wee as I reckon "The Fly" would have needed super glue on his feet. Quite a few were looking for the Yard Boy at the shoot but as I had to explain he was "on call" with the mower and couldn't attend.

Met a bloke called "Killer Whitney" at the Beaufort shoot and he had a few yarns to tell, shot his first DTL target in 1969 and is still pulling the trigger, goes all right too does "Killer". "Killer" is the vice president at the Warracknabeal club and he took me to task as he reckons that his sponge is even better than Roger Lehman's and if this is fair dinkum I had better pull up stakes and move back to the Wimmera. I have never seen cakes engender such passion as at this great little club. "Killer" was telling me that the Warracknabeal club were having a working bee to fit their new trap and that is where most of the boys were. With a name like "Killer" I wasn't going to ask why he was at Beaufort and not at the working bee.

The mighty Downside club had their Christmas shoot last week-end and Pee Wee's "Juniors shoot for free" policy saw a good number of Juniors and their parents in attendance. Young Megan Grassi had the severe miss fortune to draw me in the Deauville Doubles. I think she shot about 14 out of 15 targets and I shot about 18. Did Pee Wee and MKD love that, I thought the pair were going to join our president in hospital they were laughing to the point of tears (mainly mine) I Don't know what I have done to them to engender such mirth and ridicule.

(Get well soon, Bob Blake, you're needed and missed by all)

Cheers,
keep knocken chips off 'em.
Chris Levitzke- Stawell

L to R Col McPherson Corsivia GB who came second, Col Dunn, the Green Elf, from the Callawada Stawell club who won this event, "Terrible" Tim Hughes also of the Callawada club who came third

ECHUCA RUNS A SUCCESSFUL BOXING DAY SHOOT

Location on the Murray River which forms the border between Victoria and New South Wales

Echuca Clay Target Club committee, are pleased with the results of their Annual Two Day "Boxing Day" shoot for 2006. Although attending numbers were slightly down on previous years, when the serious drought and fire conditions are taken into account, shooter numbers were really quite reasonable. Surprisingly a large number of competitors were from other States. And to the frustration of Victorian shooters and particularly local top shooters, the main prize, "Overall" was won by a Sunshine Coast registered competitor, Wes Humphries, on a score of 292/313 which included the scores shot during the shoot off for the title, with local member Craig Fitzgerald. Both shooters scored well throughout the carnival with Craig slipping out in the shoot off, well shot by both and congratulations to Wes on his winning of the Overall High Gun.

The weather was kind to the shooters for the two days, with 23 and 26 degrees consecutively, clear sunny skies, but unfortunately, with just enough gusty wind to make the targets a little more difficult. With a total of 22 squads over the two days to move over the six layouts employed, the shoot ran very smoothly, and finished early on both days, to the pleasure of the competitors, giving them ample time to spend with their families and friends at venues in Echuca and Moama.

With so many youngsters entering the sport of clay target shooting today, it was a nice moment to realise that local member Rob Viney's grandson, Rheese Viney, who has just turned thirteen years old, shot a 29/40 in the difficult event, the Double Rise, to pick up his first Sash in C Grade, even out shooting "pop". Well shot Rheese, and we all know there will be many more sashes you will win!

Other High Gun Winners were A Grade Numurkah shooter Brad Harbor 235/265, B Grade local member Rob Vesty 227/265, C Grade another local member Glen Calleja, 209/265. Leanne Harbor, made a mother and son High Gun win by collecting the Ladies HG on a score of 173/265, Junior HG Brad Harbor 235/265, and lastly, picking up the Veterans High Gun was John Soppi with a 193/265 score.

Individual event results are as follows, Event 1 a 25 Tgt Double Barrel Championship and Overall & A grade 1st Michael Manley on a clean score of 43/43, A 2nd Rob Williams 28/29. AA 1st Glen Evans 42/43, AA 2nd Jamie Elliott 40/41. B 1st Warrick Kelvy 26/27, B 2nd Allan Patten 25/27. C 1st Tom Callaghan 33/35, C 2nd Dave Edwards 32/35.

Event 2, a 25 Tgt Handicap, and 1st shooting well from a back mark was local member Craig Fitzgerald 25/26, 2nd was Tom Callaghan 24/26, 3rd Brad Harbor 36/38, 4th Glen Calleja 35/38, and 5th was another local, Steve Lindberg 23/26.

Event 3, a 25 Tgt Points Score Championship, and taking out Overall & AA Grade 1st after a reasonable shoot off with Rob Kirley was Wes Humphries with an 102/103 score, Rob collected 2nd in AA with his 101/103 score. A 1st was Neil Morrison 76/81, A 2nd Brad Harbor 74/81. B 1st W Kelvy 71/75, B 2nd Peter Lindberg 77/82. C 1st T Callaghan 66/75, and C 2nd was Sean Everett 64/75.

Event 4, a 20 Pair Double Rise Championship, and without the need of a shoot off, Echuca member Steve Atkins collected Overall & AA 1st with a very good score of 36/40. AA 2nd Jamie Elliott 43/50, A 1st B Harbor 32/40, A 2nd N Morrison 30/40. B 1st Rob Vesty 35/40, B 2nd P McDonough 31/40. C 1st R Viney 29/40, and finally C 2nd was S Hore on a 26/40 score. Ending

AUGUSTA – ABSOLUTELY!!

2006 Hillview Challenge Field Carnival

The Augusta Clay Target Club held its 2006 Hillview Challenge Simulated Field Carnival over the weekend of December 2nd and 3rd 2006. Augusta's Hillview Challenge has been held for 9 years and has become a firm favourite amongst the clay target shooters of WA. Augusta is situated 350 km south of Perth on the coast adjacent to Cape Leeuwin in the South West of WA and lies at the confluence of the Indian and Great Southern oceans. The Augusta area boasts beautiful beaches, excellent ocean and estuarine fishing, a soft climate and being approximately 30 km south of Margaret River, some of the best wineries and wines in Australia.

The Club boasts the most picturesque of settings. Situated high on a hill above the town of Augusta, the grounds of the club overlook Flinders Bay and the Great Southern Ocean as well as Hardy inlet and the Blackwood River. The simulated field course has been specifically laid out to make the most of this fabulous scenery.

The Hillview Challenge Carnival is traditionally held on the first weekend of December and has built a reputation of presenting shooters with targets that provide an excellent contest whilst still enabling the best to shoot the possible. Plenty of easy targets are not the order of the weekend.

Corsivia GB Stakes, Saturday afternoon December 2nd

An excellent rollup of 60 shooters nominated for the 52 target Corsivia GB Stakes and enjoyed bright sunny weather conditions. Eight stations were used for the event and each shooter had 2 rounds of challenging targets. Sponsor for the event was Rio Oceania and the company's local representative Tony Trayner attended and also generously supplied 5 remote controlled automatic loading traps for the weekend. Well done and many thanks Tony.

Many of the State's best simulated field shooters were in attendance so scores were expected to be good. After the first round Roy Meagher led the field with an impressive 24/26, local hotshots Phil House and Kevin Dickens shot well to card 23/26 with Neil Tarves one target behind on 22. A raft of other shooters including Robin Bailey, Neil Yates, Tony Trayner and Jon Dyas were one target further behind. Scores generally improved in the second round and Phil House and Danny Partridge each performed a rare feat at Augusta by shooting a perfect 26/26. Tony Trayner and Neil Yates also increased their rating with each returning a creditable 24/26. Phil House was in fine form and was clearly the best shooter on the day and his 49/52 gained him the overall winner's prize. Neil Yates and Tony Trayner shot off to decide first in AA/A grade with Neil prevailing and relegating Tony to 2nd place. B grade was won by Roy Meagher on 46/52 with Clive Hallett 2nd on 44/52. Junior shooter Josh Fleay and Veteran Ken Foster (both 44/52) shot off to decide 1st and 2nd in C grade with Josh being too good.

Winners and placegetters were presented with plenty of GB cartridges and Hamelin Bay premium wines to mark their success. Later in the evening shooters and guests thoroughly enjoyed a great dinner and a few Two Oceans, Hamelin Bay and Broomstick Estate premium wines in the new spacious club house.

David Fox 1st B Grade, Neil Yates 1st A Grade, Kevin Dickens Hillview Challenge Championship winner and Phil House AA winner and 2 day High Gun winner. We are the Champions!!

Hillview Challenge Championship, Sunday December 3rd

Perfect weather greeted the excellent field of 75 shooters on Sunday morning. The course comprised 15 stations of standard, super minis, midis, battues and rabbit targets in various colours for a total of 52 targets for each of the 2 rounds. Augusta members had been very busy resetting the course after Saturday's event so as not to provide any advantage to those shooters who participated in the Corsivia GB Stakes.

Sponsor and sponsors representatives, John Austin, SilvaFox Sports; Steve Sayers, Beretta; Tony Trayner, Rio Oceania; Kevin Dickens, Two Oceans Wines; Alan Thorp, Xtreme Sports and David Fox were warmly welcomed and acknowledged by all of the shooters.

Jim West and Neil Tarves in full relax mode

Phil House was again in good form in the morning round as were Neil Yates and Clive Hallett, all carding 47/52. The springing teal, a pair of sharply rising targets was the station causing the most difficulty and a good deal of grief to many shooters. Five shooters scored 44/52 in round one including Kevin Dickens and David Fox so the scene was set for plenty of keen competition in the afternoon round. A great lunch of grilled whiting and game burgers was enjoyed by all and there was plenty of discussion and analysis of the targets in preparation for the afternoons shooting. As with dinner the evening before, shooters and guests were full of praise for the wonderful meals and a special thanks goes to Tricia Casselton, Carol Thompson, Queenie Elliott and all the other helpers for a wonderful contribution over the weekend.

As with the morning's round, a shotgun start was used in the afternoon thereby ensuring that all shooters were competing at the same time and avoiding the lengthy delays caused by a sequential start. Some excellent scores were recorded in the afternoon with the best being Kevin Dickens with a great 49/52. Mike Daden had a vastly improved round of 48/52 and Junior shooter Josh Fleay followed up his good morning round of 43/52 with a fine round of 47/52. David Fox may yet become a champion field shooter in addition to his very impressive trap and skeet credentials as he added a strong 45/52 to his earlier round of 44/52. As with last year the rabbit brought him undone!

with a fine 93/104. Kevin was on one leg for the shoot after badly twisting an ankle earlier in the week and perhaps this was the secret to his success. Phil House took the CSBP sponsored AA grade 1st with 91/104, Neil Yates A grade with 90/104 and David Fox was B grade winner with 89/104 (Both A and B grade prizes were sponsored by Beretta). Joss Fleay had a wonderful weekend and easily won the Winchester sponsored C grade from his dad Greg 6 shots in arrears. Veterans was ably won by Alan Sexton with 80/104, Amada House was 1st of the Ladies with 77/104 and Jessica Price took out the Juniors with 72/104. Local organisations SilvaFox Sports and Xtreme Sports sponsored these prizes.

The coveted two day High Gun prize and sash was ably won by Phil House shooting a very good tally of 140/156. Phil has had a bumper year in trap and skeet and this win capped off a great year for him. Thanks to David Fox for donating the case of shells for this prize.

A very big thank you to our generous sponsors and we were very pleased to have either sponsors or their representatives competing over the weekend.

This Carnival is improving each year and shooters can be assured that next year's event will be a beauty!!

David Fox and Steve Sayers pondering how to nail the rabbit. Maybe 2007!!

CECIL PARK CLAY TARGET CLUB

50th Anniversary 2 Day Boxing Day Shoot

26th & 27th December 2006

Location Sydney

The committee and members of Cecil Park Clay Target Club had the grounds and club looking great for the 50th Anniversary Boxing Day 2 day shoot with approximately $20,000 worth of cash and prizes up for grabs. The weather was fine with the wind playing a bit of havoc at the end of the day. Day one had seen 143 competitors from all around the nation line up for the three scheduled events.

Event 1 was a 30 target Mixed Championship. The Overall winner after a shoot off with a few persistent competitors with a score of 115/115 was John Maxwell. AA grade was taken out by Joe Camilleri with a score of 114/115 and 2nd place in AA went to Tas Psarakis on 113/115. A grade was won by Paul Farrugia 64/65, 2nd place going to Andrew Petriella 63/65. B grade was won outright by Mohammed Kheir 49/50, 2nd place in B grade after a shoot off with a final score of 61/65 going to Mohammed Saad. C grade was won by Charlie Kyriacou and 2nd place in C grade was taken out by Robert Wade.

Event 2 was a 30 target Single Barrel Championship. The Overall winner with a score of 59/59 was Peter Holmes with John Maxwell hot on his tail taking out 1st in AA with a score of 58/59 and Charlie Sherry securing 2nd in AA grade with a score of 38/39. A grade after a shoot off was won by Joseph Galea 37/37 with Darren Wells taking 2nd place with a score of 36/37. B grade was won by Nick Hatziangnosteu 27/30 with 2nd place going to Ross Hill. C grade after a gutsy shoot off was won buy Robert Wade 33/35 and 2nd place going to Charlie Kyriacou.

Event 3 was the 50 target Double Barrel Peter Abela Championship. Possibles were posted by shooters from AA grade through to shooters in B Grade, one of these shooters being the well liked Dominic Bonello who posted his possible with the use of only one arm to shoot with (Well done Dominic). The Overall winner for this event which took an extra 149 targets to finalise was Arty Del-Ben, with 2nd place in AA grade going to George Hapeshi 130/131 / Fillipo Petriella 128/129. A grade winner was Joseph Galea posting a final score of 56/57 and 2nd place going to Samantha Peck 50/51. B grade was won by Ross Hill 55/56 and 2nd Place going to Dominic Bonello 53/54. C grade was won by Karl Herz 49/50 with 2nd place after a shoot off going to Demmese Vella 72/74.

Day 2 started out the same as day one with the sun shining with perfect conditions for the fourth event which had seen 5 full squads posting a possible. From that point forward the winds were gradually getting stronger as the day progressed

Event 4 had seen 112 competitors line up for the 30 target Double Barrel Championship. The shoot off for this event was not going to be finalised quickly and we had to send the remaining squad down to Trap 9 to sort the men from the boys. Within a surprisingly short space of time of doing this it was down to (The almost Veteran) Gary Rootes and (young gun) Greg Colman. Gary was going to pull out of the race due to another commitment that he had to keep but Greg would not have a bar of it, we therefore postponed the shoot off for this event until later in the afternoon. After the restart and approximately 290 targets we had an eventual Overall winner and it was Gary Rootes with Greg Coleman taking AA grade honours, 2nd place in AA grade was taken out by Harry Guerio A grade was won by Charlie Andrews 181/182 with 2nd place going to Joe Camilleri 121/122. B grade was won by Gary McDonald 30/30 with 2nd place going to Vasko Krkovski 63/64. C grade was won by Alberto Muoio 30/30 with 2nd place going to John Doherty 84/89

Event 5 was the 30 target Points Score Championship with freakish wind now starting to take command we had only seen three possibles posted and it only took 1 target per shooter to finalise the Overall, 1st and 2nd places in AA grade. Overall went to John Maxwell 93/93. First in AA went to George Dominello 92/93 with 2nd place in AA going to Peter Holmes 90/93. A grade winner was Paul Farrugia 88/90 with 2nd place going to B Christodoulou 88/93. B grade was won by Mathew Salem 86/90 with 2nd place going to Vasko Kirovski 88/93. C grade was won by Alberto Muoio 86/90 with 2nd place going to Tracey Roberts 82/90.

The final event for the program was the 30 target Presidents Cup Meterage Trophy event. With 11 people posting a possible and five prizes of guns and one prize of a shooters pack up for Grabs. Twelve targets later our sixth place prize winner was Tong Shong 41/42.
