NATIONAL PRESIDENT'S NOTES

John Mack

In last months edition of CTSN our interim Executive Officer, Geoff Kidd, gave an overview of proceedings at our recent National Executive meeting, one of those being the formation of a new management board in place of the old management structure.

That new board structure allows for the Board to co-opt a member or outside expert, for a 12 month period, to assist our association in key areas. I hope that this will be the beginning of a new era and in future year's the board will consist of more than one co-opted member.

Another topic of discussion was the implementation of shoot results only by email, this would result in a considerably time saving at the national office along with the added benefit of ZERO spelling mistakes or score errors. When we consider how technology has dramatically grown at all levels and now it is commonplace for computer scoring systems being used at club shoots, when this policy is put in place your national office staff can be better utilised to work with State and Territory Associations and to assist clubs with membership retention and other key initiatives.

As your president, I will look forward to representing and meeting as many of you as my term permits and I will strive, with the support of the Board & the National Executive, to improve all areas of our sport.

NATIONAL SPORTING CLAYS

Let me begin at the end and congratulate John Younger on some terrific shooting to become our National Sporting Clays Champion with a score of 191/200 after an almost unbelievable 99/100 on the 1st day. It was a pleasure to watch him shoot and he is a most deserving Champion.

Day one commenced on schedule with a temp of 10°C and a prediction of 17° - 18° C with a westerly wind averaging about 10 knots. After approx. 30 mm of rain over the creating the range of targets that were thrown over the 4 layouts and the various rounds proceeded smoothly and with a minimum of interruptions.

Around midday on day 1, the sun was shining through the clouds, but the event continued under the threat of showers and the wind blowing lightly from the W & SW. After 2 rounds of day 1's events, John Younger was in the previous 2 days, the local Cockies were smiling but the shooters were a little damp under foot.

While there was a chance of showers and it was overcast, by 09.30am we had 85 entries with some still trickling in..

David Coleman and the workers within Wagga Gun Club did a terrific job in setting up the grounds and Clubhouse with a 49 with Sox Pilipasidis knocking on the door with a 48, Leigh Roberts with a 46 and Bart Brighenti with a 45.

Shooting was finished for the day around 4.30pm in late afternoon sunshine with a final total of 88 shooters enjoying the conditions and a fantastic overall lead by John Younger with 99/100 and a smile to match.

Day two of the competition started right on time, with a couple of additional entries arriving to shoot the day. There was a very light shower overnight but Day 2 kicked off clearer, with high broken cloud and just a hint of wind from the W or NW. The temperature was 10° C again at 8am and 16° or 17°C predicted, so on the face of it both days involved similar light and weather conditions, but Day 2 was a little dryer under foot. However the 2nd day saw streets of dark cumulous clouds streak through and this made many of the high targets an interesting challenge at various times.

The early rounds of Day 2 involved a tight tussle for overall between John and Sox, however by the end of the day, after the clouds once again rolled through in the afternoon we ended with the Day 2 scores showing that they were both overtaken by Marty Seymour with a Day 2 score of 93/100.

However Marty's win on Day 2 was not enough to overtake John for the overall title.

All winners are shown below and congratulations go to them all.

Thanks from the ACTA to all competitors for attending. We hope that you enjoyed the events and will come back next year. Thanks also to David Coleman, Hugh Fairfield-Smith and the other workers from Wagga Gun Club who presented a set of layouts and targets that were both rewarding + challenging and well worthy of a National Championship.

Harassment and Vilification Of Our Members - By Our Members

During the past month the ACTA have been asked to address an issue involving the harassment and vilification of one of our members at a recent shoot.

I would like to take this opportunity to remind all members of their obligations not to harass, malign or denigrate any member in any way, and in particular not due to their sex, race, religion or sexuality.

GOLDEN TROUT 2007

Golden Trout High Guns – L to R Ray Kearns (V), Wendy Barton (W), Andrew Petriella (J), Ross Leirsch (Overall), Glenn Barton (AA), Peter Ewart (A), Dave Markee (C)

Fine weather greeted the shooters for our 6th Golden Trout shoot on Saturday 22nd April with 68 competitors shooting for the five championships on offer. As usual thanks to the support of our sponsors great trophies were waiting for those competitors.

The first championship was the 25tgt Ellcon Single Barrel Championship. Five shooters shot the possible with Craig Ceely from the Downside Club prevailing after 9 targets. AA graders David Crane and Ross Liersch continued for 2 more targets before Dave took AA grade from Ross. George Kazolis exited from the shoot off early but was still good enough to take A grade, 2nd in A went to Bruce Edlington. B grade winner was Stefan Seckar from junior shooter Michael Coles, C grade was won by Christine Nyveld of the Yass CTC with David Markee taking second. Veterans was won by Ray Kearns, Ladies went to Melissa Crane and Andrew Petriella won the Juniors.

The 30tgt Queanbeyan City Council Handicap worth $1,200 saw 6 possibles line up for the shoot off vying for the 5 cash prizes on offer. The shoot off went twenty more targets before Peter Ewart, off 22 metres was the last man standing with a score of 50/50. Second went to Charlie Sherry, third to Paul Deland, fourth to Matthew Patmore and Neil Privett taking 5th.

Last Event of the day was the 50tgt Winchester Double Barrel Championship and the number of possibles registered in this event

Golden Trout Overall High Gun winner

was 18, hence the shoot offs commenced as soon as possible. The good shooting continued on into the fading light with the last two shooters, Ross Liersch and Glenn Barton preferring to put this event to bed on the day rather than come back in the morning. After a total of 99 shoot off targets Ross prevailed over Glenn with a score of 149/149. Glenn's score of 148/149 saw him take AA grade from his Dad Tony Barton on 70/71. Other grade winners were A grade 1st Ben Allan 106/107, 2nd Bruce Edlington 105/107. B grade 1st Michael Coles, 2nd Col Wakelam. C grade 1st Ric Cleminson, 2nd Nicole Crisp. Ladies was won by

Sunday dawned another great day for shooting and it was time to get started with event 4 which was the 25tgt Fyshwick Firearms Points Score Championship. Three shooters didn't drop a point and went to the shoot off to decide the event winner and the AA grade placings. Andrew Petriella took the event with a score of 90/90 from Rodney Van Beek on 89/90 with Peter Whitlock taking 2nd in AA on a score of 80/81. The other grade winners were A grade Stewart Crain from Ben Allan, B grade Stefan Seckar from Geza Kruppai. C grade was won by Frank Cicala from David Markee. Ladies was won by Wendy Barton, Juniors went to Jack Ewart with Ray Kearns taking Veterans.

Event 5 100tgt Central Tyre Service Double Barrel Championship began well for most competitors but by the time the 4 rounds were completed only two shooters had shot a perfect score of 100/100. Once again Ross Liersch and Glenn Barton went to the shoot off to decide the event winner. After a short shoot off Ross won his second Championship with a score of 110/110 and Glenn Barton took first in AA with a score of 109/110. Second in AA was Charlie Sherry with a score of 155/156. A grade was won by Chris Milligan from Lennie Glover. B grade was won by James Richardson from Murat Turkeli, C grade was won by David Markee with Ben Ceely second. Wendy Barton (Ladies), Ray Kearns (Veterans) and Andrew Petriella (Juniors) completed the placings in this event.

High Guns over the weekend proved to be a close affair in all grades. Overall and winner of the Golden Trout for 2007 was won by Ross Liersch after a shoot off with Glenn Barton. The grade winners were, AA grade Glenn Barton, A grade Peter Ewart, B grade Stefan Seckar, C grade David Markee, Ladies Wendy Barton, Veteran Ray Kearns and Junior Andrew Petriella.

Many thanks go to those sponsors who joined us and presented prizes for their events, Steve Elliot from Ellcon Concrete Services, Chris Milligan from Winchester Australia, John Petriella from Mutual Brokers and Bevan Brown from Fyshwick Firearms.

Thanks once again to our major sponsors Queanbeyan City Council, Fyshwick Firearms, Winchester, Ellcon Concrete Services, Central Tyre Services, Mutual Brokers and Blackett Homes for their support and to all our other sponsors whose contributions were significant in making this great shoot for both competitors and club alike. I can't stress enough how much we appreciate their support, in many cases many years of support. To paraphrase one of our sponsors "Our support of their businesses helps them support our sport", I'd encourage you to take this to heart and support any of the sponsoring businesses you see mentioned in the pages of this magazine if you can.

A special thanks to Frank Auditore who came down from Sydney to watch over us as we used his shoot day management program, Shoot Master. Thanks for giving up a lot of shooting time to help us over the two days.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE OFFICER

It has been another interesting but satisfying month since my last column and the business is settling down nicely at the moment.

I am still surprised at the range of issues that come into this Office from our members and I never realized how much peripheral activity goes into trying to pull soot out of little rotating discs.

The effort here over the past month has been concentrated on making sure that the Association meets all of its statutory and legislative liabilities, and that all of the decisions taken at the National Executive Meetings are being actioned in an appropriate way.

Organization has also commenced for the 2008 Trap Nationals and while it is still early days, the best way that I can describe that Nationals is that it will be a "Carnival".

Initial arrangements have been made with 2 bands to provide evening entertainment, quotes have been received for the supply of Marquees and facilities, a Beer tent & BBQ are being arranged, the new areas for the Trade Displays & marquees have been set out on the grounds, arrangements for extra tree plantings have commenced, discussions have commenced with a range of good quality caterers, and an area has been set aside for "Ladies and Children" and we have started discussions with contractors who supply kids face painting and the like so that the children (or dare I say) grandchildren of our members will be occupied and add to the overall family atmosphere and enjoyment. Complimentary face painting can also be arranged for any competitors who think that might improve their chances.

B & C grade members please also keep on eye on the CTSN as we are presently developing some initiatives that will make the Trap Nationals very attractive for you to attend. If you are in those Trap grades, I suggest that you now give consideration to attending the 2008 Trap Nationals Carnival as you will have the opportunity to compete in your Grade and a win in any Grade at the National Carnival is something that you will cherish for the rest of your days. You will also have the side benefit that you can watch, meet and learn from the best shots in the Country.

For you regular or intending campers at the Trap Nationals or other events, please note that unpowered camping will be available in the wooded area behind the national office (behind traps 11 - 15) and also along the northern fence at the western end of the grounds. But will all campers please note that due to the boom in small generators, you will need to have some form of earth leakage protection fitted to ensure that you and your neighbours cannot be electrocuted, and to comply with relevant NSW legislation.

The 1st Board Meeting is now scheduled for end July, so by the time that you read this we will have the improved governance of the ACTA that will surely flow from more regular meetings of the Executive.

The recruiting of a new National Executive Officer is also well underway and initial indications are that a group of excellent candidates have put themselves forward. That recruiting process will be progressed through late June and early July and hopefully by the time you receive this issue of the CTSN, a new EO will have been selected or in place.

I believe that the working relationship between the National Office and our new President, John Mack, is an excellent one although I am equally certain that John has been a little surprised at the number of issues that need consideration on a daily basis. Thank goodness for modern communications as we appear to now have a system where key issues are circulated and addressed quickly between the office and the President, and also where Board Members can also be canvassed quickly and efficiently between meetings on key matters.

Preparations are also now underway at the National Grounds for the NSWCTA's Skeet Titles in mid August, the NSW Trap Titles in late September, two Junior Development Camps in early July and late September and our own 2007 Skeet National Championships mid November. All work being undertaken at the National Grounds will work around those events and will hopefully enhance those.

Finally I would like express the ACTA's appreciation to all of those members who responded to my note in the June CTSN asking for your suggestions. Let me assure you that all of the points that you all made in your emails and letters has been given detailed consideration and will be implemented to some degree if possible. I particularly want to thank Life Member Ernie Hawkins for his letter. I tried to call Ern to discuss some of his points but he has been ill and in hospital, so hopefully I will have spoken to you Ern, before you get this Magazine. To all who sent in submissions, thanks again and I hope that you will now block out March 29th to April 6th and come to see the result at the 2008 Trap Nationals.

All members may be interested in the fact that recent editions of this magazine are also available on our website and each new magazine will be added a week or 2 after it is in your hands. These are large PDF Files, so those of you with Broadband should only apply, however this will allow you to easily access those photos & articles about yourselves or your friends and all Clubs and advertisers will have their data both in the published magazine and on our website. We hope that you all find this to be of use.

Regards to all Members

NSW TAKE BACK THE TEAMS MATCH TITLE - BUT NOT THE CLEAN SWEEP

Location 20km South of Stanthorpe on the New England Highway south west of Brisbane

Ballandean Clay Target Club hosted their annual 2 day shoot over the weekend of the 19th & 20th May 2007. Over the weekend 116 shooters from across New South Wales and Queensland made their way to Ballandean for a weekend of fantastic targets, fantastic food and a fun, friendly atmosphere.

Saturday morning bought with it a chilly breeze, this did little to hamper the enthusiasm with 25 shooters shooting the possible in the 1st event, Granite Belt Fruit Freighters 30t Double Barrel, indicating the quality of targets presented, and the level of competition. After a lengthy shoot off, David Robb of Texas shot 202/202 to win the event, with Peter Holmes of Tamworth taking 1st in AA. (Other results in results page).

The next event, Withcott Seedlings 25t D/B Continental went to Wes Humphreys of Sunshine Coast with a creditable 137/137 after a another lengthy shoot off for David Robb, who took 1st in AA.

Joe Rapisarda of Gold Coast was the Overall winner of the Ralph Johns Pty Ltd 20pr Double Rise with a brilliant score of 39/40. Guyra's Geoff Baxter took AA grade with 53/60.

Throughout the day, punters collected tickets for the Calcutta drawn that evening. After a great meal with plenty of Italian flair, a good gut full of amber ale/red wine...etc.etc...etc, an evening of crazy auctioning began. We thank David Watts of Moree for standing in as part-time auctioneer, and for his comic genius!

With Sunday morning dawned perfect shooting conditions. The day began with a Burton & Sons 50t Combination (25t D/B; 25t S/B). Five shooters (presumably the ones without headaches) shot the possible. NSW North Coast shooter, Ray Turner 150/150 was the last man standing after a lengthy shoot-off with Brad Henshall.

The next event to follow on for the day was the Shamrock marketing 25t Points Score, this event also decides the top 12 shooters from each state to make the Queensland and NSW Teams. Overall winner of the event was Ian McDonald of NSW North Coast, with Arty Del-Ben picking up AA grade with the shoot-off finalized.

Stanthorpe Rural 1000 winner Arty Del-Ben receives $1000 from Stanthorpe Rural Wayne Cosmo

With the teams decided NSW went into the Teams match as favourites after the narrowest of losses last year. The NSW team was made up of Ian Mc Donald, Barry Finch, Wade Hawkins, Arty Del Ben, Peter Holmes, Brian Kniepp, Mark Formaggin, Ray Jenkins, Brad Henshall, Paul Lynam, Stuart Boydell and Michael Hickey. The Queensland Team was made up of Frank Robinson, Robert Harwood, Terry Rogers, Sam Cannizzaro, Paul Hill, Steve Whitehead, Leah Costanzo, Tony Robb, Frank Musumeci, Brett Pile and Liam Murray. For the second time, Ballandean hosted a Ladies teams match, with a NSW Team of Dimity Boydell, Tammy Kelly and Ros Roughen. Ladies to make the QLD team were Leah Costanzo, Georgia Costanzo and Beth Ekblad. With teams selected, shooters prepared for the games to begin!

Next up was the much anticipated Stanthorpe Rural 1000, 30t Grade Meterage. Arty Del-Ben proved too tough to topple, shooting a 96/96 to take the event. Mark Formaggin of Richmond River Gun Club took 2nd; Monty Klingner of Glen Innes was 3rd, and Wade Hawkins 4th.

Lastly ... the teams match. NSW proved too strong this year taking the match by 9 points. Fortunately for Queensland, the Ladies team was too strong again this year.

It's Your Call

No. 20

By Bill McCarthy

Yet another scenario arises from this very recent incident which highlights a need for us all to be especially, careful when determining the results of incidents which occur from time to time.

A referee in a shoot off with 5 Shooters in the squad, the situation arose where the first four shooters shot their target. This was the start of the shoot off and was the first shot of the shoot off event. No 5 shooter failed to fire. When asked by the Referee what the problem was, he replied that he had the safety catch on. The Referee then ruled "Lost Target".

Was he correct?

IT'S YOUR CALL:

If you answered that the Referee was wrong you would be quite correct. Rule 1.07(viii) is quite explicit. It says: "No target shall be allowed for the first target of any visit to a trap if the safety catch is engaged. This was the first target, therefore the ruling was incorrect.

However there is a happy ending to this situation. A very senior member of the ACTA fortunately observed the incident and interceded on behalf of the young shooter who was penalised and explained the correct ruling to the Referee. The Referee simply was unaware of the correct ruling.

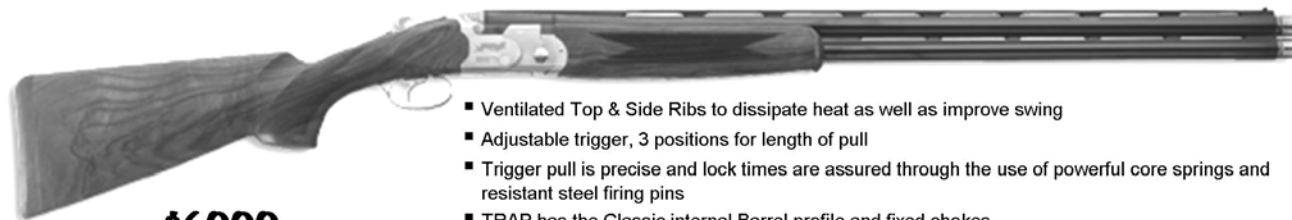

A number of issues come from this incident. It appears that of the 8 people at the tracks on that occasion not one seemed to be aware of the rule. Hence the necessity for the official to intercede.

As a Referee, "badged" or not we should always seek advice if there is any doubt, especially where major decisions are to be made. It is a courtesy we owe to our shooters, our club and our sport. There is never any indictment on a Referee who seeks help, it is far better to ask than to make a major mistake. In this case the Referee said he wasn't aware of the rule and like the gentleman he was, he accepted the intervention with very good grace and is to be commended for it.

The intervention of other shooters to Refereeing decisions where there is uncertainty can be helpful. However, it should be borne in mind that unless you as a shooter are fully cognizant of the particular rule under dispute, you should merely encourage the Referee to seek assistance with its interpretation. In this case though, the person who intervened was a highly qualified rules executive of the ACTA. His reluctant but necessary intervention was done very nicely and indeed very professionally.

No reference has been made in this case to the absence of the Shoot Marshal, who, under Rule 4.23(b) should have been present at the shoot off. One can guess that he was busy elsewhere which is quite understandable these days. Similarly, a Referee Examiner, (if available) could have been involved under Rule 4.24(c). Among other things, he is required to do under that rule to observe the actions of existing Referees on the shooting grounds.

Psychological Skills for Shooting

by Michael Kruger-Davis

ARE YOU A FEARFUL ATHLETE?

This article explores fear and anxiety in relation to sport. Some parts of this article appeared some time ago in another article entitled Fear and Anxiety.

In past articles I have explored the elements of mental toughness which is defined as a set of beliefs about yourself, your work, your sport and how they interact. Those behaviours and beliefs; competitiveness, confidence, control, commitment, composure, courage and consistency are all skills that we can learn and adopt easily. Why then don't we all have them? Why aren't we all mentally tough all the time? What gets in the road of us being mentally tough? Before answering these questions, I asked what shooters would be scared of.

The simple answer is that we get in our own way. Our own self defeating thoughts and behaviours are the roadblocks that undermine our ability to perform: fear, anger, anxiety, self-consciousness, and perfectionism, and stubbornness, lack of motivation, competitiveness, distractions and persistence.

Fear is a mental response to a perceived danger or threat. It's a primitive response that allows us to fight or flee from a threat. The fight/flight response was necessary when as cavemen we wandered the jungle and had the threat of sabre-toothed tigers lurking behind every bush. We had to develop a system that allowed us to either stay and fight or get the hell out of there. The threats have now gone but as modern man we have retained the fight/flight response when the majority of our fears are not life threatening at all.

Recently, I did a workshop with the cycling squad for the Southern Sports Academy. Not knowing much about cycling, I did a bit of research before the presentation and realized that fear was an integral part of the sport because of the dangerous nature of cycling. Crashing your bike during a competition is one risk but so too is the danger of training on roads and being at the mercy of car and truck drivers.

So what is so fearful about clay target shooting? Most readers will probably have answered this question with "missing". But is it? Maybe the thought of missing and the fear of failure presents itself as our greatest fear.

Look at the following statements:

1. I am OK at practice but cannot follow through in competition.
2. I am more confident about my shooting when I practice than I am in competition.
3. My performance is cautious because I want to win and afraid of making mistakes.
4. I focus on the outcomes (score/results) and not the process.
5. I am impatient in competition and want the improvements that happen in practice to happen faster.
6. I feel bad about myself when I do not perform up to my expectations.
7. I worry about what others will think about my performance.
8. I worry about letting others down if I perform poorly.
9. I tense up in competition.
10. I get too tensed up when I shoot and have trouble shooting in a relaxed way.
11. I do not trust my ability and end up doubting myself.
12. I try to be perfect.

If you were able to tick 5 of these questions then it is possible that fear of failure hinders your focus in competition and cause you to doubt and trust your ability.

Whilst missing a target may seem bad at the time and may deny you the opportunity of winning, your world as you know it will not come to a screaming halt just because you missed a target. There won't be lightning bolts or terrible troubles that will beset you.

The only thing that will happen is that you may be too hard on yourself: and the more you punish yourself the poorer you will perform and the fear of missing will be greater next time. This will happen because fear will lead to failure and the failure will lead to the fear of failing again and this will manifest itself as anxiety.

So what are the common types of fears that athletes experience? According to Patrick Cohn, The Fearless Athlete, there are several types of fears that we all experience from time to time.

- Fear of losing a match or competition: you want to win so badly but you are afraid you will lose.
- Fear of negative social evaluation: the fear others will view you as a failure.
- Fear of embarrassment: the fear you will feel embarrassed in front of others.
- Fear of letting others down.
- Fear of putting in the effort and not getting the rewards or shooting to your potential.
- Fear of not meeting others expectations.
- Fear of being rejected, losing respect or not gaining approval.
- Fear of not performing perfectly and making mistakes.

These fears usually manifest themselves as anxiety. Anxiety and fear are not the same; anxiety is your response to fear – apprehension, heightened vigilance, and hyperventilating, dilated pupils, sweating, racing pulse and running faster than a speeding bear. (Farnbach, 2001) Farnbach defines anxiety as a state of heightened arousal of the mind and body, associated with a belief that the individual is at risk and that he/she has a diminished capacity to control what is happening, or what might happen, to him or her. Anxiety can range from mild to severe.

The effects of anxiety can be on the mind and/or the body and can involve;

- The emotions or feelings – effects can be irritability, apprehension, uneasiness, fear, panic and terror.
- Mental or cognitive functioning; the mind can be racing, frozen, disorganised, inability to attend, concentrate and remember.
- Physiological or body reactions – can be either increased muscle tension and can be shaking, jerky movements and poor co-ordination, or overactivity of the sympathetic nervous system – can be sweating, shaking, palpitations, etc.
- Behavioural patterns – including restlessness, talking excessively, irritable behaviour and self medicating with alcohol or drugs.

The problem with fear and anxiety is that they have the ability to interfere with what we like to do. Because humans do not like being in an anxious state we often subconsciously do things to avoid it. If we are shooting well and are starting to get nervous about shooting so many straight, then when we miss a target we subconsciously feel relieved because now we do not have to worry any more about missing a target. The same thing happens when we freeze on the trigger; the fear of missing a target creates anxiety that stops our ability to move our muscles and therefore we can't even pull the trigger. This then makes us more anxious and so on and so on.

Anxiety, self-doubt cannot exist if you are able to trust in your ability, feel confident in what you are doing and are competent in doing it.

Sporting Clays

Michael Elms rang me a few weeks ago and wanted me to come and have crack at the 5 stand Nationals being run at Wagga, the weekend 19th & 20th of May 2007. "You got to learn mate there is more to shoot than just DTL" says Mick. "No there's not" Thought I at the time. If I go anywhere it would be down to Wangaratta as Hunty has been pestering the Pee Wee and Myself for a good while. I keep telling Hunty (In public) that the second shoot I attended was Wangaratta with El Presidendo and whoever set the traps for the continental had 'em going a million miles an hour and that they were that low I felt we were shooting trench. This makes him as mad as hell, but then that's the whole point really.

That being said Pee Wee and I determined that we should go. However the rain Gods finally smiled on our poor souls and Wang was out due to work. So Pee Wee goes to Wang WITHOUT ME. This leaves me at a loose end Saturday arvo and the Child Bride wanted to partake of Her favourite pass time (which occurs indoors at Wagga or Albury) and is something I am very poor at. So with Mother and Daughter duly despatched into the Female mystery called the Mall, I sneak out to My favourite place.

Struth lots of Miroku and Browning's, there must be some proper people here somewhere. Crickey there is even a West Australian team member who is obviously sexually challenged by the look of his shooting iron. He sounded a lot like a Black Duck when calling for the clays and was shooting some monster crackers. The boy could shoot a bit, I am sure Pee Wee and he would have been soul mates. In fact all the W.A Team had a clue how to set about this caper. Then I noticed one of the boys shooting in the W.A squad who had a high grade Beretta 686 sporting gun and immediately thought these people can't be all bad.

I gotta have a crack at this.

16, SIXTEEN OUT OF TWENTY FIVE, I should have gone to Narrandera. At least I know the people laughing at me over there. Barry Hall says "How did Ya go mate" I mumble "16". "Geez" goes Hally "that's pretty good first time at bat". "Is it" thinks I. That the first lesson, no one shoots 100% of these targets. The absolute guns appear to shoot 95% (that is probably 2, maybe 3 people in the nation) and the good shots shoot about 80%. 20,21 out of 25 would have put you at the top of A grade I reckon. If my DTL mates shot 20/25 they would commit ritual suicide on the spot. Pee Wee would be kicking the shell baskets all over the park like he did up at Mt Bogong (just thought I should add that)

Mick Elms pointed out some of the top shots and they are poetry in motion, absolute economy of movement and as smooth as a silk stocking. It is also obvious that they have done a lot of this. You can tell when the Browning has all the Blue worn of the side of the barrel where the fingers grip the forend.

This is David Colemans baby and I always reckoned that He was a tricky bloke and the setting of these traps is obviously and art form. When you shoot DTL everything is rising, even our low continental targets rise from the trap house. Not so in 5 stand, they have Crows (these are even harder than the real ones), Springing Teal (I have shot hundreds of feathered ones and I am yet to see one of those that can rise vertically 100 feet in the air at what looks like 160kph). Loopers, these give you the choice, you can try and shoot it with a relatively flat trajectory but at about 80 meters or you wait till it gets closer but by then is falling at about 20 feet/sec which means you have to "lead it" by shooting 5 meters under it as well as 3 meters in front. Easy isn't it ?

Are yes, then there are the crossers from the high and low skeet houses. Someone forgot to tell Mr Coleman about the speed and height at which these targets are normally thrown. Yep, here you can get a high house thrown at ISSF speed which lands about even with the low house, (at least they land when I am shooting at them) and a low house that takes off like a low orbit satellite booster. There are also some angled targets thrown from behind fences and from the DTL Trap houses and these were understood by the DTL guys and dispatched accordingly. Did I mention Rabbits, Not our introduced English variety, oh no, but American Jack Rabbits, I watched one get shot at over a meter from the ground, probably the best shot of the day truth be known.

Battues, No idea, never shot one for the day. In fact Michael Elms showed me the ground where they were landing. The ground being soft following the rains and there were literally a hundred or so battues sticking upright and unbroken in the mud like a field of mushrooms. I am not the only bloke with no idea obviously. Mick wanted to go out and kick them all over, but the club wanted them for the juniors. Good luck Kids.

Hard, Yes, Challenging, Yes. Going to do it again. Bloody oath. Thanks to Michael Elms and Michael Ling who I shot with, good sport, better company.

RIO GRANDE

"That's the factory there," said my guide, Sales and Operations Manager for the US, Inigo Rodriguez, gesturing in the direction of a tall, heavily forested mountain. Seeing nothing but 1000 feet of rock and trees, I must have looked puzzled. "You can't see much from here", he admitted.

We were in the village of Galdacano, close to the city of Bilbao in Northern Spain to visit the production facility of the UEE group's explosives division. It is here that the propellants for the company's Rio cartridges are made and I was to be given a crash course in gunpowder production, the first call in a tour to see the whole cartridge making process from start to finish. UEE is one of the very few companies in the world that can do this, for only a handful of

UEE OF SPAIN AND FINDS
THINGS ON A MUCH LARGER

businesses have all the production processes under their control. Most cartridge manufacturers should more properly be called loaders, because they merely assemble components bought from a variety of suppliers; at UEE they make it all.

First a brief history. The group was formed in 1896 as an amalgamation of Spanish businesses involved in the production of explosives, including one founded by Alfred Nobel to produce his invention – dynamite. The initials stand for Union Espanola de Explosivos (Spanish Explosives Union). Galdacano was chosen as the site for production because of the region's iron ore industry and it has remained one of the key sites in what has now become a major international group.

But why a mountain? Well, explosives are dangerous things – very dangerous. Every part of the production process is risky and safety is of paramount concern. “Most businesses are concerned with quality, safety and profitability”, Javier Jimenez, manager of the powder production plant told me. “Here our priorities are first safety, safety, and safety, then quality and hopefully, after all that, profitability.”

“And a key principle in safety is separation, keeping the processes as far apart as possible. The bigger the risk, the smaller the quantity of material and the greater the distance. This site covers over four million square yards and we have over 25 miles of roads, all hidden by the forest.”

The forest element of the site is only lightly managed. Deer and wild boar flourish among an abundance of wildlife, while to keep the undergrowth under control a herd of over 100 wild horses grazes the land. This is truly unlike no other factory I have ever seen. The safety element is visible at every turn. Massive concrete walls – many with sand infills – enclose each operation. All are designed to keep people one side and product the other. Each building has one weak wall, designed to blow out first, usually towards the sheer rock face of the mountain.

Today 500-600 people are employed, according to season, and from the mountain top you can see the sprawling city of Bilbao, just a short drive away. 100 years ago that was a far more difficult journey and the factory and village were one and the same, the company providing homes, a school and hospital and even building the church which carries the date 1912 above its main entrance.

Galdacano produces not just the powders and primers for sporting cartridges – my main interest – but also bulk explosives for civil uses such as mining and construction. “We like road construction”, said Jimenez. “To build roads in a mountainous country like Spain you need lots of explosive!” As if on cue, there was the muffled thump of an explosion in the distance. “Just testing,” said my guide. “If we go white – then you should worry!”

By now we had driven several miles up the hill to the start of the powder production line – a line that itself is almost two miles from start to finish. Here UEE’s famous PSB and CSB powders are made, used not only in the company’s own Rio brand, but a favorite of many loaders around the world.

It starts with containers of nitrocellulose, produced by another UEE division. This is the raw material of all modern gunpowder and deceptively harmless in appearance, looking just like fluffy cotton wool. In fact it is very unstable in this state, made manageable only by being mixed with water, 30% by weight. "Nitrocellulose burns at the surface," explained Jimenez, "and in this state it is virtually all surface. The production process is all about making it stable and controlling the surface area and hence the burn rate. Predictable and consistent burning is essential for each type of powder we produce because that is the key element in the formula for each different load."

TODAY 500-600 PEOPLE ARE EMPLOYED, ACCORDING TO SEASON, AND FROM THE MOUNTAIN TOP YOU CAN SEE THE SPRAWLING CITY OF BILBAO, JUST A SHORT DRIVE AWAY. 100 YEARS AGO THAT WAS A FAR MORE DIFFICULT JOURNEY AND THE FACTORY AND VILLAGE WERE ONE AND THE SAME, THE COMPANY PROVIDING HOMES, A SCHOOL AND HOSPITAL AND EVEN BUILDING THE CHURCH (ABOVE) WHICH CARRIES THE DATE 1912 ABOVE ITS MAIN ENTRANCE.

Around 20 different powders are produced, covering the needs of all the different shotgun gauges and the range of loads from light to heavy. The market drives the product development and production process; for example, the Type 5 powders were specifically developed for use in 28 gram (1 ounce) competition loads. When the Olympic shooting disciplines changed to 24 gram maximum this presented loaders with fresh ballistic challenges and the Type 6 powders were developed by the Galdacano R&D department to meet this need.

This is a key part of the operation, with its own pilot plant able to replicate the main production processes in miniature to deliver batches of trial product. Within the same complex is a test range that allows velocity and pressure testing to be carried out immediately. It is the link between the commercial operation and production, able to respond swiftly to requests for new or amended products.

All UEE's powders are single base (nitrocellulose only) rather than double base (a laminate of nitrocellulose and nitroglycerine based components). "Double base powders can be dangerous to make and many production plants around the world are closing," I was told. "We also think single base is superior because it is cleaner burning and easier to make a homogeneous product. With double base powders the thickness of the flakes is critical and very difficult to control throughout the production process."

THE GUNPOWDER PLOT STEP BY STEP

- The water content of the nitrocellulose is replaced by alcohol, pressing the mixture together to expel the liquid and produce what looks like a large cheese
- The active solvents and soluble salts (potassium nitrate) are added along with colorants in what looks like a large food mixer. The solvents determine the porosity of the finished product and hence the burning characteristics.
- The resulting paste is then extruded into long strands like spaghetti which are air dried and then cut into flakes (square for PSB powders, round for CSB)
- The powder now goes to the laundry! Hot water is added to remove the potassium nitrate, which has now done its job.

Transferring to giant drum dryers, the powder is given clean water washes and then dried under vacuum at 35 degrees Celsius.

• Graphite powder is then added. This is a key ingredient which not only improves the flow characteristics in loading machines but also gives the powder conductivity and prevents the build up of static electricity. Static and gunpowder is never a good combination!

• The output from up to eight dryings is blended together for a more consistent end product before final quality control checks, sieving to remove surplus graphite dust and packing. Job done!

The whole process takes at least a week from start to finish before the drums of end product are ready to be shipped. Around 30% of the production takes a short journey south to the UEE loading plant near Vitoria, our next destination

THE ROAD TO RIO

Leaving Galdacano, we set off to the cartridge factory at Nanclares de la Oca, with just a brief pause for a splendid lunch at a typical Basque restaurant in Vitoria.

I have been to several loading plants in Europe but the UEE facility is without doubt the most impressive. It even has its own access road from the highway.

The Rio brand is relatively new to American sportsmen – although the recruitment of Jon Kruger, Scott Robertson and a host of other top shots to the Rio Star Team is sure to raise the brand's profile in the coming months – so some idea of scale would be useful.

The factory produces around 400 million shotshells a year, a figure that puts them firmly in the world major league. Laid end to end, I calculate that they would stretch for over 17,000 miles – or more than enough to take you around the globe from UEE's Madrid headquarters via Beijing in China and New York and back to Spain!

Welcome to the 2007 NSWCTA Trap Carnival September 28 – October 1

Due to the change of administration at the ACTA, for the first time in many years NSW Clay Target Association will conduct the carnival entirely "in house" i.e. all facets of the carnival will be run by and in the control of NSWCTA.

Nominations – Due to the generosity of our major sponsors, Casella Wines, Access Training Group, Horsley Park Gun Shop, Don Johnson, RIO Ammo & White Flyer, GRH Transport and Singleton Retravisation we have been able to hold the event nominations at last years levels for all shooters except juniors. Junior shooters will receive FREE nominations. All shooters will still be required to pay $1 per day enviro levy.

Targets – NSWCTA will purchase targets independently of the ACTA.

Due to time constraints a full Tender and Test Procedure could not be conducted, however the target selection took into account all information and test data available to the NSW Executive Committee with least emphasis on price. The Committee believes that the selection of the White Flyer Fluro Target will enhance the competition.

Administration – all major admin positions will be filled by NSW Executive Committee members

Tournament Director – David Hagarty

Shoot Marshalls – David Coleman, Garth Hosking, John Finn

Trap Mechanic – Fred Rapley

Trapper Co-ordinator – Bob Blake

Jury – Daryl Pasfield, Fred Rapley, Paul Watchorn

Handicapper – Daryl Pasfield

At this Club competition a Special Annual SINC-AIR ELECTRICAL 100 TARGET CHALLENGE TROPHY sponsored by Mount Isa businessman Mr Neil Sinclair was used by certain Members of this Club and other nearby North-western Clubs such as Cloncurry and Normanton for training preparations and practice towards their attendance at other Northern Clay Target Gun Club Special Competition Events and the Queensland State Trap Carnival held recently at the Townsville Clay Target Gun Club over the Labour Day Weekend of May 5th – 7th.

These members being Jamie Cameron, Neil Sinclair, Robbie Cusack, Roderick Cusack and Chris Wilson. Members from other nearby North-western Clubs such as Diane and Wayne Reeves from Normanton and Darryl Grant from Cloncurry attended the Queensland State Trap Carnival.

During this period the Mount Isa Club has also been busy installing 2 new Skeet Clay Target Throwing Machines with the help of certain technically able members after receiving a grant for their purchase from the Community Assistance Gambling Benefit Fund with assistance from the Former Mount Isa MLA Mr McGrady. After a long wait for their arrival into Australia the new Skeet Clay Target Throwing Machines which are also similar to those installed at the National Trap Clay Target Grounds in Wagga Wagga NSW and other large clubs throughout Australia will assist in a forthcoming Mount Isa Special Skeet Competition later in the year.

Korumburra Round Two Teams Event

The weather forecast for the week before the shoot was in a word bleak.

As it turned out the day was just fine and the 103 shooters that participated did so in mild conditions. Seventeen teams contested the second round, also four junior teams.

The first event a 25 target Handicap saw six possibles with Chris Murphy 53/53 out lasting Burnie Stokes 52/53 and Serg Zotti 47/48. The Back Markers shoot off lasted longer the main event with Steve Parks 54/56 out lasting Chris Carrol. The junior front Marker was B.Young 23/25.

At the half way point of the teams section, it was Werribee 117 from Melbourne 116 with Nepean and Korumburra on 115.

Chris Murphy
High Gun and Handicap Winner

Event two the 25 target Double Barrel started with an ominous tone, the first four shooters in squad one shot them all, in all there were 27 possibles and it took some time to get down to the last squad and to make it that far you had to have broken 85 and six shooters had done that. At 150 only three remained Hecta Crawford, Steve Parks and Lynne Curtis. Hecta dropped the 178th and Steve the 183rd leaving Lynne the Over All winner 183/183. Continuing on his good form from the Nationals.

A: grade W.Woodward 122/123 D.Raspin 59/60, B: D.Clark 56/57 M.McKernan 51/52, C: B.Young 30/31 M.Rodes 29/31.

Winning Team Werribee

Chris Murphy was the High Gun with the only 50/50, Pam Widows was Ladies High Gun 45/50, Junior High Guns C.Bell 54/64 and B.Young 47/50.

The winning team was Werribee 238/250 S.Trembath, N.McDonnell, I.Urch, N.Cooke and T.Psalia. With two wins from two starts Werribee are on top of the ladder 479 from Morwell 469 With Melbourne and Korumburra equal third on 467.

The junior winning team was Mornington 91/100 B.Young and D.Cleary and they are also on top with 174 from Cerberus 169 and Wonthaggi 165.

Surat's 2007 Annual Shoot off to a Wet and Wonderful Start

Located: Between Roma & St George on the Canarvon Highway South Queensland

Skies Open Up

What a glorious sight to see the skies open up and the rain falling down on the morning of the Surat Clay Target Club's Annual shoot on the last weekend in April 2007. The wet weather did not deter any sporting enthusiasts with a total of one hundred and six shooters nominating for the weekend. Out came the rain jackets and the weatherproof boots and shooting commenced at 9.00am.

We had a vast array of shooters from Sydney, Orange and Moree in New South Wales and from as far north as Mount Isa, from out west at Cunnamulla and along the North East coast from Townsville, Rockhampton and Bundaberg down through to the Gold Coast and lots of clubs in between! We had twenty nine different Australian Clay Target Association affiliated clubs represented over the weekend.

Wearing Sashes - the Event Winners

Saturday night's dinner was followed by a Calcutta on the shooters competing in the Handicap event on the following day. There was a lot of good hearted banter with the sale of the shooters and the Hot Chicks Syndicate (catering crew) thought they were up with a good chance drawing two AA marksmen! (unfortunately, they were not the winners of the event!).

Sunday morning started with a thick fog and plenty of moisture but a very favourable day for shooting. All competitors were working hard to hit their targets to be in the running for some of the $8,000 worth of prizes spread over the shooting grades of AA, A, B and C. Our Surat club members fared well with prizes going to Brett Johnstone, Andrew Moore, Shorty Swilks, Warren Butler, Jill Moore and Michael Smith. The New Royal Hotel Motel Surat Perpetual Trophy was also won by Michael Smith.

Brian Kneipp won the Overall prize on the Handicap Event which was an impressive eight gun safe donated by Lockaway Safes and Cleaver Firearms (Brisbane). Tony Cleaver was at Surat on the weekend and presented the prize with club President, George Moore.

As with most sporting events the Surat Clay Target Club's sponsors are to be thanked for their generosity and support for the weekend. The Club Committee and Members are to be congratulated on working as a team to achieve such a successful weekend.....we can all catch our breath now and get ready for the next one in 2008!

RAINY SHOOT AT ECHUCA

Overcast, cool and showery weather greeted the shooters who braved the weather to compete at Echuca Clay Target Club on Sunday the 29th of April. Although the rain was much needed and enjoyable to see, it was probably responsible for a small turnout for the competition. Only four squads of shooters arrived to compete for placing's in the four event program. With three championships on, offering four grades with 1st & 2nd places, and a Handicap with three places available all with sashes and trophies it was disappointing that there was not more shooters to vie for victory.

With an early start time of 11.00am and the shoot running very smoothly all competition and the presentations were all over by the early time of 4.00pm, giving all those that shot an easy drive home in daylight. Even though the weather was unkind to the shooters and the low light kept scores down, with the visibility of the targets poor, and the fact that three of the events were Continental format, making it that much more difficult for the competitors, everyone present commented that it was a very enjoyable Sunday shoot at Echuca.

Full results for the shoot are as follows, Event One, a 20 target Continental Points Score Championship, Overall Winner was Peter Lindberg (Echuca) also taking out B grade 1st on a score of 57/60, 2nd in B was Jack Colliccoat (Deniliquin) on 51/60, AA grade 1st Steve Traill (Echuca) 56/60, 2nd in AA Steve Atkins (Echuca) 61/66, A grade 1st Geoff Ervin (Echuca) 59/66, A 2nd Conrad Robb (Echuca) 58/66, C grade 1st Liegh Calleja (Echuca) 48/60, C 2nd Saun Everett 47/60.

Event Two, a 20 target Continental Single Barrel Championship, and Overall Winner taking out AA grade 1st as well as S Traill 19/20, AA 2nd S Atkins 18/20, A 1st Peter Gobbo (Echuca) 17/20, A 2nd Warrick Kely (Echuca) 21/25, B 1st P Lindberg 16/20, B 2nd S Milojevic 16/22, C 1st S Everett 16/20, C 2nd N Lester 12/20.

Event Three, a 20 target Handicap, and Overall 1st was junior Deniliquin shooter Jack Colliccoat on the only clean score of 20/20, Jack showing his ability at handicap shooting having won a handicap event 2 days prior at Mathoura Gun Club, and after a short shoot off 2nd place winner was W Kely on 28/29, with 3rd place being collected by P Lindberg on a score of 27/29.

SOUTHERN ZONE SKEET CARNIVAL

Location Sydney

On Saturday 12th of May, the Southern Zone Day/Night Skeet Carnival was held at the Cecil Park Clay Target Club.

With clear blue skies, a slight breeze and temperatures in the low twenties the scene was set for what promised to be a great day for shooting. Thanks to our hard working grounds man, Barry, the grounds looked an absolute picture and with the help of assistant shoot Marshall, Mike Maloney, Wayne Petersen and the ever present and willing to work John Cunningham it didn't take us too long to have the targets flying through the hoops on four layouts.

Ten squads nominated for the daytime shooting and the first three squads were under way at around ten o'clock.

Event one was the 50 target Cecil Park Championship and the results are as follows, Overall - Julian Lucchitti 95/97, AA 1st - Mark Newman 58/59, AA 2nd - Charlie Kyriacou 53/54, A 1st - Rene Kuehn 94/97, A 2nd - John Cunningham 58/59, B 1st - John Harris 78/79, B 2nd - Jess Sheather 57/59, C 1st - Don Badewitz 48/50, C 2nd - Wayne Petersen.

Event two was the 50 target Southern Zone Skeet Championship and again the Overall winner was Julian Lucchitti with a perfect score of 68/68, AA 1st - Mark Newman 67/68, AA 2nd - Colin Sim 59/60, A 1st - Ian Stewart 66/68, A 2nd Santo Manuele 65/68, B 1st - John Pethybridge 59/62, B 2nd - Carina Cavallaro 58/62, C 1st - Wayne Petersen 47/50, C 2nd - Harry Kassianou. AS if it were script written the shoot-offs for the second event finished just before the last of the daylight. The 2007 Southern Zone Skeet team consist of, in order, Julian Lucchitti, Mark Newman and Colin Sim.

It was time to break for dinner and thanks to Peter and his team in the canteen we were all well fed.

Six squads remained for the night shooting, with the first event being 25 target Cecil Park CTC cash divide and the winners were, AA 1st - Julian Lucchitti, AA 2nd - was shared between Mark Newman and Charlie Kyriacou, A 1st - Ben Buhagiar, A 2nd - was shared between John Cunningham and Rene Kuehn, B 1st - Paul Bone, B 2nd Mathew Maloney, C 1st Don Badewitz, C 2nd - Amanda Coss.

The fourth and last event was the 50 target Southern Zone Night Skeet Championship and the results are, Overall - Yep you guessed it, Julian Lucchitti 76/77, AA 1st - Mark Newman 61/63, AA 2nd - Adrian Lucchitti (finally he says) 48/50, B 1st - Mike Maloney 48/50, B 2nd Robert Duncan 55/62, C 1st - Charlie Michael 48/55, C 2nd Don Badewitz 47/57.

Again the finish of the shoot-offs was timed to perfection with just one minute and forty seconds left before our ten o'clock curfew.

The section wins are, Overall High Gun Day & Night - Julian Lucchitti 174/175, Junior - Lucas Statz - Cowell 118/175, Lady - Carina Cavallaro 145/175.

Congratulations to Julian Lucchitti who had a clean sweep win on all the events, congratulations to Mark Newman who also shot brilliantly all day and night and finished only one point behind Julian.

Thank you to my assistant shoot Marshall Mike Maloney, also thanks to Shelly who did a great job in the office and a huge special thanks to Frank Auditore who designed the computer program that we used during the shoots, the squad sheets and all the print-outs were very professional. Frank also gave up his time during the day to ensure all ran smoothly in the office.

The next big skeet shoot at Cecil Park will be the two day shoot in October which promises to be even bigger and better than last year, keep an eye out for the ads in the CTSN. Cecil Park Clay Target Club would like to congratulate Samantha Peck for her performances at the New Zealand National DTL.

Samantha won: Ladies over all High Gun, Ladies Minis, Ladies Grants Whiskey Trophy event. Shoot off: Double Rise, Single Barrel, Double Barrel.

Dear Your Say,

I am writing to inform shooters that suffer from colour-blindness that help is available. I have suffered for years and have found no help until recently. An optometrist in Nerang Qld is importing a lense for glasses that corrects the problem. I have had a test done and was found to be very badly affected after which I tried various lenses till I found a set that was suitable. I now wear them full time and have found that I am now able to see fluoro targets as fluoro. Before they would have no glow at all and be a very dull red. Also many colours in everyday life are able to be seen for the first time. I can recommend that anybody who suffers from this problem at least contact these people as it has made a huge difference to my everyday life as well as my shooting. Location 151 kilometres north of Sydney

Cessnock Clay Target Club held a 2-day Down the Line shoot on the weekend of 26th & 27th of May. For those shooters who arrived Friday afternoon or early Saturday morning they were luck enough to partake in Craig Mains Big Breakfast to charge themselves up for a great day of DTL. To kick off Sunday morning Craig once again cooked up a storm to fill you up or straighten you out depending on whether you had a few quiet ales or the type that went a little too long into early Sunday morning. # Herbert River Gun Club Annual Shoot

Location approx 200km north west of Townsville

On the Queens Birthday weekend the Herbert River Gun Club came to life with the clubs annual 3 day shoot being held with 46 shooters coming from as far north as Atherton and Cairns and as far south as the Sunshine Coast and west to Charters Towers. The temperature plummeted to a very cold 10o overnight and the skies were clear and the air crisp. The grounds looked great after the rain that fell earlier in the week.

Tristan Gollogly, Willie Taylor, Allan Bredden, Bruce Murphy and Ted Matthews

The first event on the program was a 25 target Double Barrel cash divide with AA Grade cash going to Bruce Murphy & Ray Collinson. A Grade was shared by Allan Bredden and Jeff Taylor with Malcolm Collins and Steven Rosendahl splitting the cash in B Grade. Terry Faulks and Richard MacCormack shared C Grade.

Event Two was a 75 target Medley and with great conditions the scores didn't reflect how easy it looked. Barry Bosworth shot 122/125 to claim AA Grade from Ray Collinson. A Grade saw a shoot off between Carol Betteridge and Allan Bredden and Allan was a gentleman and Carol walked away with first place with a score of 125/135. A shoot off was also needed for B Grade with Willie Taylor and Malcolm Collins both shooting 116/125. Willie was the victor after shooting all his targets in the shoot off. Garry Gimbert's score of 113/125 was good enough to take first place in C Grade with a shoot off needed between three shooter to sort out second place which went to Arthur Hobbs.

Saturday night saw some interesting scores coming in with a 25 target Point Score shot. AA Grade was won by Ross Cannon from Ted Matthews on 70/75. Allan Bredden shot 65/75 to take first in A Grade with Peter Ward second. B Grade saw the best score of the night with Andrew Casella shooting 71/75 giving him first place from Tony Vincenzi. The C Graders were far better than some of the much more experienced shooters with Tristan Gollogly shooting 66/75 to take first and Arthur Hobbs taking out second.

Sunday morning dawned as clear as the day before and the first event was another 25 target Points Score. Ross Cannon proved he can shoot points in the daylight as well, taking out AA Grade with 72/75 from Greg Maltby and Bruce Murphy, who decided to share the prize. Neville Sheehan turned up late but promptly went about defeating Noel Beale for the A Grade prize in a shoot off with a score of 82/84. Peter Mackey was another new shooter for the weekend and shot 72/75 to take out B Grade from Sam Coco. Terry Faulks continued his form from the day before shooting 62/75 and taking first in C Grade from his wife Judy.

A 50 target Double Barrel event was next on the program and the only possible shot was by Barry Bosworth. Bruce Murphy had to shoot 22 targets in the shoot off before he could claim second place. Malcolm Collins who went from B Grade to A Grade in the previous event had no trouble taking his first A Grade prize with a score of 50/51 after Neville Sheehan missed his first target in the shoot off. Andrew Casella shot a very creditable 49/50 to take out B Grade from Sam Coco. Arthur Hobbs shot 45/50 to take C Grade from Judy Faulks.

The dreaded Single Barrel was next up with Barry Bosworth having to shoot off to gain first place from Bruce Murphy. The only possible shoot was by A Grader, Tom Comerford, with second place going to Carol Betteridge after a short shoot off. Mark Kirk and Andrew Casella had to shoot off for B Grade after they both shot 24/25. After a further 6 targets, Mark was the winner. Terry Faulks shot 21/25 to take out first in C Grade from Arthur Hobbs.

Finally the day was coming to a close and the only event left was a 25 target Handicap. There were only 2 possibles shot. Allan Bredden and Malcolm Collins headed for the tracks and after only 9 targets Allan gained the metre. Malcolm second, with Ted Matthews shooting 24/25 to take out third.

A great meal was had by all who stayed with the pig that had been on the spit all day served up with some lovely sides. Thanks to Mark Kirk and all his helpers who kept an eye on the pig.

As it was a long weekend the Monday was utilized for a 50 target Continental event. AA Grade saw Ted Matthew's score of 49/50 enough to give him first from his mates, Bruce Murphy and Rod Maxwell who shared second. Willie Taylor sort-ed himself out from the day before and shot 46/50 to claim first in A Grade and Allan Bredden only needed 1 target in the shoot off to take out second. Mark Kirk shot 46/50 to give him first in B Grade with Tony Vincenzi taking out second. Terry Faulks was having a good weekend and shot 45/50 to take home first place in C Grade from a surprised Herbert River Gun Club president, Garry Gimbert.

After all the scores were totalled, the Overall High Gun was won by Bruce Murphy with a score of 421/450. Ted Matthews stormed home to take out AA Grade with 419/450. There was never any doubt in A Grade, with Allan Bredden in top form shooting a score of 415/450. Willie Taylor came from behind to take out B Grade with 400/450 but now he is in A Grade things may change. Tristan Gollogly took out his last C Grade High Gun for awhile, after going to B Grade, his score of 372/450 was streets ahead of the rest.

Thanks to all the sponsors for the weekend and all those who helped out in any way.

An enjoyable weekend was had by all, with everyone invited back on the 29th and 30th September for the Northern Zone trap carnival.

Perazzi Australia and the Suzie Balogh Shooting Foundation

At this years 2007 National Trap Championship Perazzi Australia and The Suzy Balogh Shooting Foundation launched a new quest to develop the future of junior and ladies international representatives.

Using the trap nationals as the selection criteria, Perazzi Australia and The Suzie Balogh Foundation selected the best male junior and the best female junior competitor.

The two successful winners of this years quest will have 50% of their Trap National's nominations reimbursed and a further $800 each towards their attendance costs at next years ISSF Nationals in Perth.

The winner of the best male junior quest was Tom Holt from the Colac Gun Club and the winner of the best female junior quest was Lauren Duthie from the Hamilton Clay Target Club. An extra award was presented this year to Amanda Holt from the Colac Gun Club due to her great performance at the Nationals.

Congratulation to all of them.

It should also be mentioned that this year Perazzi Australia raffled a new shotgun at the Trap Nationals with the lucky drawer having to shoot one target from 25 metres to win the gun. If you broke the target you won the gun, if you missed it was drawn again until there was a winner and this added to the entertainment prior to the day's presentations.

This is the second consecutive year Perazzi Australia have run a raffle to promote a carnival atmosphere at the National's with all the proceeds of the raffle going to the ACTA.

On behalf of the ACTA and our junior shooters I thank Perazzi Australia and the Suzy Balogh Shooting Foundation for their generosity and for developing this concept.

Victorian North East Zone Trap Carnival

Location two hours north of Melbourne

Eight full squads of shooters arrived at the Numurkah/Shepparton Clay Target Club on Sunday the 27th of May to compete for the winning places available on the day. Not only was the weather in their favour, with clear, calm and mild conditions on offer, but also everyone in attendance would have had to be impressed with the immaculate state of the grounds, a big thank you to the workers for the obvious effort they must have put in.

With over $4,000 worth of trophy's, cash, sashes and High Gun tray's on offer, the competitors were keen to get underway, so it was very soon after the 9.30am advertised start that shooting was underway. And at days end it was a very proud Yarrawonga shooter, John Gemmill that led the way, to win the Victorian Clay Target Association, North East Zone, Overall Trap High Gun, trophy, with an excellent score of only five points down over the whole program. John will, I am sure, look after his engraved silver HG tray for a long time, which he won on a 145/150 score. Ladies High Gun went to Michelle Felmingham, a Cosgrove shooter, on a very good score of 141/150, Veterans High Gun was won by Euroa member, Reg Walker, on a 136/150 score, and the Junior High Gun was won by an extremely competent Deniliquin member, Jack Colliccoat, with a very high score of 142/150, only three points further down than the overall winner.

Event One was a 25 target NEZ Points Score Championship, and after a very short shoot off of only three targets, Anthony (Tony) Bradshaw, an Echuca member, collected Overall and AA grade with a clean 84/84 score. AA 2nd was Michelle Felmingham on an 83/84, A grade 1st was J Gemmill 78/81, A 2nd Alan Cole 74/75, B grade 1st J Colliccoat 74/75, B 2nd A Fraser 69/75, C 1st J Barker 71/75, and C grade 2nd was Rhys Viney on an 66/75 score.

Event Two, a 25 target NEZ Single Barrel Championship, and with no shooter able to put all 25 targets down, 24s shot off, with Overall and A grade going to a Numurkah member, Bradley Harbor, one target down on 66/67, A grade 2nd was J Lowndes on 33/34, AA grade 1st was Craig Fitzgerald on 65/67, AA 2nd Rob Viney 45/47, B grade 1st was A Fraser 23/25, B 2nd J Colliccoat 22/25, C grade 1st was Rhys Viney 23/25, and C 2nd was Lauren Harbor on a score of 19/25.

Event Three, a 25 target, NEZ Handicap, shot American style of 5 targets per lane, allowing the use of the phono release system. And shooting off the 17 meter mark was Numurkah member Rob O'Dwyer, and, he was the only shooter able to shoot a clean 25/25 score, receiving cash in hand for his 1st place win and a meter back movement on his score card, Rob who is shooting so well, also was moved up a grade to A grade at the end of the day, unfortunately moving him back another meter to 19 meters handicap. Rob who is improving so fast will obviously rise to this test. 2nd in the handicap was A Fraser on a 43/44 score, 3rd was Jack Colliccoat having a very rewarding Zone carnival with a 42/44, and 4th was Jeff Plum on a 33/35 score.

Event Four, a 25 target NEZ Double Barrel Championship, and after a reasonable shoot off, Echuca member, Stephen Atkins collected the Overall Sash, and AA grade 1st with an excellent 91/91 score, AA 2nd was Buddy Morris with an 100/101, A grade 1st Steve Harbor 52/53, A 2nd was Alan Patten on a 43/44, B grade 1st Jeff Plum 24/25, B 2nd Jim Vale 47/49, C grade 1st Justin Barker 24/25, and C grade 2nd was Rhys Viney on 23/25, also enjoying a good carnival result.

After counting all eligible scores out of a possible 125, the Victorian North East Zone Trap Team will consist of these shooters, John Gemmill 122/125, Ron Traill 122/125, Tony Bradshaw 121/125, Michelle Felmingham 120/125, and Alan Cole also 120/125. Reserves will be Craig Fitzgerald 119/125, and Terry Walls also 119/125.

Another very successful Zone Carnival, running very smoothly, with no hitches and all shooters praising the organisers for a well run shoot, with presentations all over by the early time of 4.45pm. The only possible complaint that could be laid, was, it could have been a more financial success for the Zone had a few more shooters competed, but in the drought situation the country has been in for so long, and fuel the price it is, it seems only shooters who feel they are at their peak of performance bother to attend carnivals, so the attendance of almost fifty shooters could probably be deemed as a reasonable result.

Run in conjunction with the 50 Target Points Score event was the Paw Paw Club's Linda McPherson Memorial Team Challenge. Teams consisting of 6 shooters can be entered as many times as you wish, provided they contain at least one B grade and one C grade shooter. All proceeds go to charity, to be selected by the winning team. Strong performances by Donna Nugent in C grade with 47/50 and Celeste Allan in B grade with 46/50 won success for their team and charity. Other team members were Rodney Woodrow 49/50, Spike Scouler 49/50, Bill Allan 49/50 and Brett Pile 50/50. The Paw Paw Club is a great institution that raises thousands of dollars each year for charity. Well done to the winning team and to all those that entered teams to support this challenge.

SWAN HILL 100 TARGET RETRAVISION CHAMPIONSHIP

Location 338km north of Melbourne

On Saturday the 19th of May the Swan Hill Clay Target Club hosted the 100 target Retravision Championship sponsored by Ian Ray of Swan Hill. The championship was a single event comprising of 50 targets double barrel and 50 targets Points Score.

Thirty-six shooters turned up to compete on a day that was bright, breezy at times and with a couple of showers thrown in as well. Despite this the conditions were mostly good for shooting with some good scores posted.

Overall High Gun went to Roger Lehmann of Warracknabeal with a score of 197/200.

AA 1st Wayne Upton Moulamein 196/200, AA 2nd Stephen Atkins Echuca 195/200, A 1st Gary Cowland Swan Hill 186/200, A 2nd Malcolm Kenny Mildura 184/200, B 1st Allan Byrne Swan Hill 180/200, B 2nd Freddie Siciliano Swan Hill 171/200, C 1st Lou Mimmo Swan Hill 179/180, C 2nd Keith Pickering Swan Hill 177/200.

The day went smoothly and we finished early enough for the travellers to get on the road. Those who came enjoyed themselves and we hope next year many more will come along and compete. We probably won't be seeing Roger Lehmann about as he will be enjoying his new 42 inch plasma television.
