NATIONAL PRESIDENT'S NOTES

John Mack

Having just returned from Perth and the ISSF National Championships, these championships were a real revelation to me, the shooters organise themselves and are never late for their squad! We had nine days of first class shooting and the pressure is on for the final qualification round being held at Cecil Park in March for the Beijing Olympic team. Our upcoming juniors excelled with Nicholas Kirley placing 2nd overall in the National Double Trap Championship, and young Anthony Sottosanti took overall in the National ISSF skeet Championship. Adam Vella and Craig Trembath were too strong in their respective disciplines.

As with all our national championships we have a small but dedicated band of helpers and our nationals held in W.A. were no exception. The Western Australian Gun Club had the grounds looking perfect and put together with the recently installed new traps throwing good targets you have the recipe for a good championship. Our shoot marshal Murray Alexander led the way with his tireless efforts. My thanks to club President Christine Alexander and her club members and to the West Australian Clay Target Association for all their help.

Some members may have noticed the increase in media coverage that our sport is now attracting, this is in no small way attributed to Alex Smith a member of Queensland Club Warwick, as a journalist, Alex has given his time and expertise to work together with our chief executive officer in lifting our profile in the media.

Anyone contemplating going to Ireland for the 8th World DTL had better hurry as of 25th January there were only 135 places left.

ISSF – OCEANIA CHAMPIONSHIPS

28th OCTOBER – 3rd NOVEMBER 2007

The Oceania Championships were important in so many ways to so many competitors. For a Country to gain a spot at the Olympic Games they must win quota places. You can win quota places at World Cups, World Championships and for Australia the Oceania Championships. When a competitor wins a quota place, they win it for their country, not for themselves. A competitor must have an International Minimum Qualifying Score (MQS) before they are eligible for selection. A competitor then has to go through selection events to be nominated to the AOC for them to approve your nomination before you can compete for Australia at the Olympics.

This Oceania was the last chance for Australia to win quota places for the events which we did not already have quotas and also it was the last chance for competitors to gain an MQS. Along with this it was the first selection event for the Olympics. It was also the first opportunity for some shooters to compete at an International event. So, understandably there was a fair bit of pressure and nerves on these competitors. A lot of these shooters have put their life on hold and are trying to give it their all to gain selection and they need all the help, patience, practice and cooperation of others to succeed. It is beneficial to all when this can be accomplished.

Lauryn Mark was the only shooter on Day 1 of Oceania to shoot anything looking like a respectful score to win Oceania and a quota for Australia. Her shooting outclassed anyone else shooting today, including competitors in Mens Skeet and Mens Double Trap. Well done Lauryn. In Double Trap, Russell Mark just scrapped home to win the quota available with the scores extremely low by all the competitors. It was quite nerve racking at the end of the 2nd round with New Zealand in the lead. Russell put in a big effort and showed his experience in the 3rd round to go into the Final 10 ahead of his next competitor and win Oceania and the quota for Australia.

The New Zealanders performed way below what was expected of them for the Australians to win Oceania and the two quotas that were available in the Mens Skeet event. George Barton first, with Paul Rahman and Clive Barton shooting off for 2nd and 3rd. The scores were again low.

In the Womens Trap event we did not need to win a quota as Suzy Balogh had already won the quota at a World event. It was still an event for Olympic selection and this was the first of what is going to be a real tassel to see who gains the nomination. To win Oceania the final counts and this was won by Suzy. For the selections only the qualification rounds count and this put Stacy Roial one target ahead of Suzy.

Lucky we already had our 2 quotas in the Mens Trap event or we would have missed out on one with Peter Goodwin from New Zealand putting in a big effort to finish 2nd. As Adam Vella and Michael Diamond had already won quotas at world events, both the quotas went to New Zealand, with Fiji missing out. Brett Dunstan was the only Australian competitor to gain an MQS at Oceania and in this event.

The Juniors were only represented in the Trap event at Oceania. Some of these Juniors have an MQS and are eligible for selection but were chosen in the Junior event with their scores to count towards selection. Again the scores were low compared to their best but it was another event for them to gain experience.

I was please to meet Carrie Elton and to have her in attendance at Oceania. I have left out scores from this article but would really like everyone to check out [www.auss shooting.org](http://www.auss shooting.org) for lots of interesting information.

FROM THE CEO

By the time this message reaches you we will be well into the 2008 calendar of local, regional, state and National events around Australia.

I've just returned from Perth where the Western Australian Gun Club hosted the Olympic Discipline Nationals. What a fantastic facility! The clubhouse and grounds were the perfect venue for such a prestigious event in an Olympic Year. Thanks to ACTA President John Mack and Executive Members Elaine Forward (Tournament Director), Robert Fox, Vince Mollica and Geoff Faulkes who attended the event and provided welcome assistance. I add my thanks to those of the President to all of the Western Australian volunteers. There will be a full report about the championships in the next CTSN.

MOUNT ISA

Location: Heart of North West Queensland

On Sunday the 13th of January 2008, Mount Isa Clay Target Gun Club conducted its first monthly Club Competition Shoot for the year at its facilities at Kalkadoon Park, Mount Isa.

18 Shooters attended from Mount Isa and took part in the Club Shoot – Due to the weather conditions from the previous days experienced in and between Normanton and Karumba the expected shooters from those Clubs were unable to attend due to flooding. Two (2) new shooters who had attended at our Club Introduction and Coaching Weekend in October returned to the Club and also took part in the Competition.

The day was hot with high glare and steady 10 knot winds generally from the south with wind gusting at time over 25 knots. This gusty wind made shooting challenging, as targets would act unpredictably rising almost vertically hanging in the breeze or else dropping groundwards then rising very quickly, usually at the time of squeezing trigger.

The results of our Club Competition this Sunday 13 January 2008 shoot are as follows: Event 1 50 Target Skeet Prizes: A, B and C Grades. A Grade Mick McGill 47/50, B Grade Neil Sinclair 42/50, C Grade Chris Wilson 46/50. Event 2 25 Target Down the Line Handicap Eye-opener: Prizes: First, Second, Third, First Rod Cusack 24/25, Second Neil Sinclair 40/43, Third Chris Wilson 39/43. Shoot off was used to determine the minor Places. Event 3 100 target Down the Line Iron Challenge Prizes: AA, A, B and C Grades: Overall Ron Power 139/150, AA 1st Chris Wilson 135/150, AA 2nd Mick McGill 123/150, A 1st Ron Power 139/150, A 2nd David Stitt 130/150, B 1st Robin Buckley 130/150, B 2nd Mick Coleman 124/150, C 1st Gio Celona 114/150, C 2nd Anne Coleman 106/150.

Club Jackpot Mick McGill unsuccessful at 23-21-16-18-19 Metres, missing at 21 metres

Next Club Shoot is our February 2008 Club Competition commencing at 9am on Sunday 11 February 2008.

Darryl Reay
Treasurer / Publicity Officer

The final nominations for our Olympic representatives will be made after the Australia Cup in Sydney from 7th to 9th March. I wish all the contenders the best of luck.

In Wagga Wagga preparations are now on in earnest for the Trap Nationals, followed by the Sporting and Skeet Nationals. Although I knew there would be some compliance hoops to jump through in order to present the Trap Nationals, I've been surprised by just how many hoops and the level of consultation and approval processes required in NSW in order to provide the annual ACTA Trader's Fair in conjunction with the event.

To build on the progress that has been made on the National Grounds in recent years, I have been working closely with Wagga Wagga City Council to ensure the ACTA has a sustainable future and the ability to further develop the National Grounds to be the very best for our members. I should have lots to report by the time the AGM comes around at the end of March.

As previously mentioned, a Master Plan for the National Grounds will be ready for display at each of the National Championships, and your input will be important.

In closing, I offer congratulations to Russell Mark who has been appointed to the AISL Board for two years. Russell's appointment not only gives a voice for clay target shooting, but his high profile and enthusiasm as an ambassador will assist us in raising awareness and enthusiasm for our sport, and the shooting sports as a whole – to governments, media and the general public.

SCRUBBY CREEK ANNUAL TWO DAY SHOOT

Location: South-west Queensland

Forty years and another great Two Day Shoot, with over 100 shooters and camping under the stars. The weather was fine and dry, Brad had the traps set to perfection as usual, and no long shoot-offs. With Don, Brian and Bill in charge of shooting, it all went very smoothly.

First Event, Black Toyota Medley Cash Divide, with C Grade being the biggest, which is great to see. Bring back the 11m - 15m for Handicap events, so they have a chance to win one event.

Event 2, South West Ford & Nissan D/B, was won in great style by Alex Dallas. He wasted time shooting the longest shoot-off for the weekend, with 60/60 from the one-eyed, nail polish front sight & zip the browning. Event 3, Federal Top Gun Points, with only one possible being the man with the cast iron jaw and goes by the name of Roo Gut aka Geoff Seawright. The runner up, was the most popular bachelor shooting, Robbie Caban, with Junior shooter Zac Grimshaw, B Grade, shooting 88/90. Good shooting Zac - we wonder what Dad shot??

Event 4, Landmark D-D, with the new Gemini trap in the gully, throwing great targets and set cont. made it very interesting with 10 possibles. It was won by the Goondiwindi pair of Goodie and Jason Sipple with 15/15. Cameron Brown and Michael Rankin 19/20 after two of them dropped the same pair.

After a few drinks and a very nice tea we drew the Calcutta. It went off with a very big bang, with special thanks to the Landmark boys from Charleville. Great auctioneering and entertainment with free caps and stubby holders to the best bidders. With the Calcutta and H'Cap worth $10,000 in cash, it was off to bed early and no noise from the bar! Everyone was up bright and early with the weather very kind again. Event 5, VIP Pet Foods S/B, was won by a lady all the way from Port Augusta, who out shot all the men. Congratulations Deserie Baynes with a score of 32/35. Deserie, did Steve see you win it? Runner up was Shawn Ryan. Event 6, Suncorp Metway H'Cap, with $10,000 cash up for grabs. It was all very serious, but there was only one possible, being ex-Cloncurry shooter now living in Broome, Howard Walton 30/30. After a shoot-off, Alex Dallas scored 43/45 for 2nd, and local gentleman Alex Nugent scored 42/45 to come 3rd.

Event 7, Michael's Electronics 20 TG Points in the gully. It was won outright by Robbie Caban. A Grade won by Richard Schmidt who walked up the aisle two weeks later. B Grade won by young Beth Zillman and C Grade by a local lad Tim Keogh.

Taylor's Parts Overall High Gun winner was Geoff Bryant, who was the only Veteran in the field. AA Grade winner was Jason Sipple, followed by A Grade opal miner Jim Hunter. B Grade winner was young Zac Grimshaw, what did Dad win? C Grade winner was Rohan Jamieson. Junior High Gun won by Tom Doonar from Blackall. Ladies High Gun winner, Deserie Baynes and family drove up from Port Augusta three years in a row. Great effort, or is it our great QLD spirit and company that keeps bringing you back?! Low Gun Toilet Throne, won by Konrad Allis after a tough competition.

A big thanks to everyone for coming and to our sponsors because without them we would not function.

AUSTRALIA CUP

DECEMBER 2007

This was the 2nd Selection competition for the Olympics, with a bonus prize on for any shooter shooting an Automatic Nomination Score (ANS). Each discipline has an ANS. Mens Trap – 123, Mens Skeet – 124, Mens Double Trap – 144, Womens Trap – 73 and Womens Skeet 74. Any competitor who can qualify for the Olympics that shoots an ANS is nominated for the Olympic Team.

Michael Diamond looked very close in achieving an ANS in the Mens Trap event, missing by a target.

Again SISC was used for this selection match, Melbourne seems to be having a break from major events this year. I would like to thank the Australian Sports Commission, Australian Olympic Committee and the Australian Commonwealth Games Association for their support of this competition.

Anyone can compete at the Australia Cup events, even when it is a selection match. We encourage as many competitors as possible, so keep an eye on the AISL website for dates and nomination details – [www.auss shooting.org](http://www.auss shooting.org). The next event is in March 2008, again in Sydney.

Again as in other selection competitions the score (qualification) rounds count towards selection but the final counts for the winner of the Australia Cup 4 event. In other words the final does not count for the selection to the Olympics. In the Double Trap event Craig Trembath shot 44 46 45 = 135 + 46 to win the event. Russell Mark 46 43 44 = 133 + 45 2nd and Nicholas Kirley 42 44 45 = 131 + 44 3rd.

In the Womens Skeet event, Lauryn Mark shot very consistently with 23 23 23 = 69 + 22 + 9 to gain 1st position, with Natalia Rahman shooting 22 24 20 = 66 and a good final of 25 + 8 to finish in 2nd. Zita Dettori came 3rd shooting 21 24 19 = 64 + 24. George Barton proved far to strong in the Mens Skeet event shooting 25 23 25 24 25 = 122 + 24. Clive Barton came 2nd with 23 24 22 25 23 = 117 + 24 and Anthony Sottosanti 3rd 22 23 25 23 24 = 117 + 22.

As stated earlier, Michael Diamond shot very well with his score of 24 25 25 24 24 = 122 + 24. Adam Vella shot well in the final to finish 2nd with 23 24 24 21 23 = 115 + 24 and Craig Henwood 3rd with 23 23 24 24 25 = 119 + 19. All shooters shot well in the final to make it very interesting.

The 3rd selection competition is the national event at the ACTA Nationals in Perth, January, 2008. I would imagine that all Olympic contenders will be in Perth, along with other shooters wanting to shoot a PQS score that may qualify them for a possible overseas event. And I do hope we have people just wanting to enjoy their sport and catch up with friends.

Thanks to those that lent me a hand at this event, I did appreciate the help.

Gleniss Lawrence

Northern Zone Coaching Weekend with Graeme Boyd Atherton Tablelands Gun Club

Twenty shooters from five gun clubs attended the coaching weekend in picturesque Atherton. After an introductory talk from “Super Coach” Boyd the AA and A grade Down the Line shooters shot a round of targets, which was captured on video. B and C graders then hit the tracks to shoot their round, which was also recorded on video. Back to the school room to view the video tape and discuss styles and technique. Having the opportunity to view yourself shooting is very helpful in illustrating and identifying errors, and goes a long way to making positive changes in shooting technique.

Boydie conducted some one-on-one coaching after lunch, and six people began Level One Coaching courses. Some of the shooters partook in a few rounds of Skeet, and after the evening meal a general discussion and Question and Answer session took place amongst all in attendance.

On Sunday morning Graeme addressed the shooters and did an overview of what had taken place the day before. The shooters participated in some Miss-and-Go-Back shooting, where the shooter is challenged to shoot a predetermined number of targets without missing, and an unsuccessful attempt means they have to start from the beginning again. The new Level One Coaches did some coaching with some of the shooters and reported back to Graeme with their findings and he discussed their coaching literature with them. After lunch the shooters returned to the tracks and tried out what they had learned.

The Northern Zone QCTA would like to thank the Atherton Tablelands Gun Club for the venue and looking after everyone's meals and refreshment requirements and providing copious amounts of country hospitality. A special thank you must go to Graeme Boyd for all of his insight and expertise. This is the seventh year that Graeme has run coaching clinics for the Northern Zone, and we appreciate any opportunity to benefit from his vast experience and knowledge. We hope that everyone in attendance took something of value away with them after the weekend, as I'm sure all would have.

Revised Boxing Day Shoot a Success

Echuca Clay Target Club's decision to scrap the two day Boxing Day carnival for a one day, post Boxing Day shoot, proved to be a huge success for the club. Renamed the "Rich River Classic Annual Shoot" and shot on the day after Boxing Day, allowing family's more time together, before driving, in some cases, a large distance to a premium shooting event.

Kind weather, warm and clear with the gentlest of breezes, Excellent trophy's, magnificent ground preparation, thanks to the club's caretaker groundsman "Allan", and the knowledge that six traps would be used, ensuring the shoot would run on time, was enough to attract a full fifteen squads of competitors.

90 plus shooters, and in a lot of cases, also their families, require a lot of food and drink, and Dot Roberts and her helpers from the ladies committee, plus some helpers from other clubs, were up to the task, providing an endless supply of nutrition throughout the day. Amongst the competitors were shooters from WA, NSW, Tasmania, and even a shooter from England here to try out his skill.

Amongst such tough competition it was pleasing to see Victorian shooters dominate all events, with Echuca claiming the three Overall Winner sashes, and Numurkah/Shepparton member, Trevor Thomas, claiming 1st in the Handicap event. Trevor still in B grade had an excellent day, winning grade 1st's, the Handicap, and the B grade High Gun, ensuring him a very short stay in B grade.

The Overall Winners were event one the Points Score Steve Atkins (Echuca) on 156/156, taking the sash and AA grade 1st, event two the Single Barrel Rob Viney (Echuca) 44/44, taking the sash and AA 1st, event four the Double Barrel again Echuca member Rob Viney shooting superbly, taking the OA and 1st in AA with an unbeaten 62/62 score.

The high gun winners taken over the full program, were, Neil Cracknell, a Maryborough member, dropping only three points for the day giving him an unbeatable 147/150 score which gave him the Overall and A grade, High Gun Sash and Trophy, well shot Neil! AA grade High Gun winner was S Atkins, one point down on Neil's score 146/150, B grade High Gun winner was Trevor Thomas 145/150 and C grade HG was Sean Everett (Echuca) on a score of 126/150. Junior High Gun winner was Deniliquin member Jack Collicoat, Jack shooting an excellent score only two points down on the overall winner a 145/150.

Stephen Atkins AA grade High Gun plus OA 1st in PS

Rob Viney OA & 1st AA in SB & DB

With all shooting and presentations over before 6.00pm any competitors driving home would enjoy a leisurely drive in daylight. A well run shoot with a very good attendance and thanks must go to all who attended, making the day a success, and especially to all the sponsors of the events, named in the magazine advertisement that help to make these large shoots possible.

January Club Shoot

The January 2008 shoot at Echuca Clay Target Club attracted seven squads of competitors to battle for places in the four event program on for the day. Echuca members shone, winning every event, except for the Points Score, which was taken out by a visiting shooter, Robert Brodin, from the Tottenham Gun Club in New South Wales, being the only shooter on a clean 60/60 score.

Shoot off's were required in all events to decide winners, except for the Points Score, with the Double Barrel Championship going to almost 100 targets. Local member, Steve Atkins, survived all others to collect Overall & AA grade 1st on a good score of 97/97. And when you consider the weather conditions, although clear and a mild 30 degrees, the wind was an issue, with strong gust's shifting the targets, mainly down, the days score's were excellent.

The Handicap event needed only nine targets to decide between first and second. Echuca members Craig Scott and Ian Gebhardt shooting it out, with Ian dropping his 29th target giving first place to Craig on a 29/29 score. Craig Scott shooting well all day is the first Echuca member to move back on his handicap mark for the new year of 2008.

The Ball Trap was a 2 brother shoot out, between Craig (Echuca) and Leigh Fitzgerald (Cosgrove), with Leigh dropping his 31st target allowing Craig to collect the Overall winners sash, and 1st in AA grade trophy, on a score of 30/31, both having dropped one target in the initial 25.

An excellent run shoot, and a good program. Running a bit longer time wise than most shoot's, but still finishing at the reasonable time of 6.30pm. And it was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone in attendance.

Full results are as follows:

Event One, a 25 Target Ball Trap. Overall & 1st in AA grade C Fitzgerald 30/31, 2nd in AA Leigh Fitzgerald 29/31, 1st in A Steve Traill 24/26, 2nd in A Emma Cox 23/25, 1st in B Laurie Gee 25/27, 2nd in B Ron Traill 24/27, 1st in C

Craig Scott 1st Hcp

Stephen Atkins OA & AA 1st D/B

Glen Beer 20/25, 2nd in C Steven Lindberg 18/25.

Event Two, a 20 Target Handicap. 1st place Craig Scott 29/29, 2nd place Ian Gebhardt 28/29, and 3rd place was Peter Lindberg 21/22.

Event Three, a 20 Target Points Score Championship. Overall & 1st in AA Robert Brodin 60/60, 2nd in AA Robert Collicoat 58/60, 1st in A grade Ron Traill 75/78, 2nd in A Craig Scott 74/78, 1st in B Tim Maher 56/60, 2nd in B Steve Scott 55/60, 1st in C David Shepherd 54/60, and 2nd in C grade was Kurt Northausen on a score of 44/60.

Psychological Skills for Shooting

by Michael Kruger-Davis

MENTAL REHEARSAL

I recently attended a junior development camp at Newcastle-Lake Macquarie Clay Target Club, hosted by the club for junior shooters from the Northern zone. What impressed me, apart from the welcome I received or the preparation for the camp by the organisers, was the commitment and enthusiasm of the juniors who were participating.

One of the sessions involved mental rehearsal. For the benefit of the juniors who were there and other readers, I will reexamine mental rehearsal.

Mental rehearsal is defined by John Syer and Christopher Connolly, Sporting Body, Sporting Mind: an Athlete's Guide to Mental Training, as the process of imagining yourself performing a specific movement or skill.

According to Graham Winter and Cathy Martin, A Practical Guide for Sport Psychology, mental rehearsal is a strategy that involves imagery to help solve problems and to develop automatic and confident performances. Whilst it can be used with team sports, it is in individual sports, such as archery, shooting, diving, gymnastics, etc, where a competitors performance is a lot more controllable and therefore predictable, where it has the greatest application. Mental rehearsal centres around the accurate and composed execution of skills.

Mental rehearsal allows athletes to actively plan and evaluate their performance at training and in competition. It gives you an opportunity to examine your weaknesses and plan ways to improve on them. Mental rehearsal, according to Winter and Martin;

- Reinforces and strengthen existing skills
- Speeds up the learning of new skills and concepts "problem skills"
- Improves mind-body reflexes
- Increases self awareness and awareness of important clues
- Improves concentration and confidence
- Decreases anxiety

Mental rehearsal is not just wishful thinking: it must be used in combination with other training and competition strategies, such as goal setting, visualization, relaxation, etc.

How can mental rehearsal be incorporated in to training sessions?

1. Establishing your goals: decide what you are going to work on in a particular training session. Your goals should be more than just the skills you are working on, but also the mental and emotional aspects, such as concentration.
2. Creating the scene: closing your eyes and taking a couple of deep breaths, let your muscles go loose and relaxed. Winter and Martin continue by stating that you should create in your mind the sequence you want to perfect. You need to be as vivid as you possibly can be and in as much detail as you can: you should hear, see, feel, smell, touch and even taste the situation you are trying to create. Be aware of the physical surroundings: what the layout looks like, the background, weather, etc.
3. Automatic mental rehearsal. You should now be visualizing at normal speed, seeing and feeling yourself performing the skill or technique smoothly and accurately. Do this over and over until it feels comfortable.
4. Reviewing your skills. After the training session it is important to evaluate how the session went, especially asking did you practice the skills you had planned, and what improvements can you make for the next session.

Mental rehearsal can also be used during the competition. Winter and Martin outline the following;

Spend about five minutes relaxing, letting your muscles go loose and your mind go calm. Begin by creating the scene in which you will be competing as vividly and in as much details as you can. Picture in your mind... what you are wearing... who else is there with you... feel the atmosphere around you... sense the excitement.

Go over the performance in your mind, mentally rehearse your goals/strategies/particular skills or techniques. The mind can't tell the difference between what is real and what is imagined, so it can be convinced through visualization and mental rehearsal that you have already done the shot. Therefore there is no need to feel anxious or fearful, and because there is no self-doubt it will be easy to hit the target.

Use The Black Box Technique to deal with distractions before and during the competition. Visualise yourself handling all situations in a calm, focused, confident and composed way.

Important points to remember for effective mental rehearsal.

- Always make your mental rehearsals as real and as vivid as possible, so your mind and body will respond most effectively to the rehearsals.
- Except when initially going over a new skill or technique, always do your rehearsals at normal speed.
- Spend at least 15 minutes four or five times per week to practice mental rehearsals because they need to be practiced to get them right also.
- Mental rehearsal is not a thinking exercise. Imagine as much as possible to recreate a realistic impression in your mind.

Whilst mental rehearsal can be effectively used for all shooting disciplines it is most useful for skeet and sporting because the target path is known to the shooter before it is called for. Therefore during competitions shooters can and should mentally rehearse themselves shooting the target as they position themselves on the pad. Because in their mind they have already shot the target, they can keep the self talk down and limit self doubt. Because your mind already believes that the target has been shot, then it should let you perform the task (for real) with ease and no fear. It is important once the shot has been fired and the target has been hit to again rehearse in your mind what you have just successfully done, (that is, relive that shot again in your mind), before you walk off the mark. This will reinforce success.

Mental rehearsal should be an important part of your mental skills program. It is very useful in helping the learning of a new skill or technique and it is also useful when recovering from an injury or after a long lapse in competition. It is also an important tool for limiting anxiety and improving concentration and focus.

It's Your Call

No. 27

By
Bill McCarthy

You are the Referee of a squad wherein a shooter has an apparent malfunction. He raises his hand and you walk to his side. You take his gun from him and inspect it and then test fire it. Is this correct?

IT'S YOUR CALL

No it is not correct procedure. GRTS 14 is specific in that it says that the Referee does Not test fire the gun. In fact the gun remains in the shooters hands during the whole process.

In the event of a malfunction, GRTS 14 requires that a Referee inspect the gun for proper closure and check the situation of the safety catch. He then asks the shooter to put the gun on his (the shooter's) shoulder and test fire the gun once only. After that procedure has been completed, the Referee will then adjudicate on the malfunction.

When we look closely at GRTS 14 it clearly says that the gun is test fired "once only". The shooter who continues to pull the trigger a multiple of times may well be doing himself a disavour as the gun may discharge on the second or third pull. Therefore, Referees should emphasis to the shooter that he or she should test fire "once only". Moreover, it highlights a need shooters should make themselves aware of the correct procedure laid down for the adjudication of misfires and malfunctions so that they are not disadvantaged in any way.

No! I didn't forget the Mechanical Trigger situation.

It is important that the shooter inform the Referee if the gun has mechanical trigger operation, i.e. that the firing mechanism is not inertia operated. In this case, the gun will almost certainly discharge the second barrel which has proved nothing. Therefore, the decision on the malfunction of the first barrel will be up to the judgement of the Referee by inspection of the gun and the state of the cartridge in the first barrel. If there are visible signs that the primer has been hit it would seem to be easy. However, should there be no physical evidence that the cartridge has been subjected to normal firing, pin action it is not necessarily a "Lost target" (freezing). It may be that the first barrel does have a fault hence here is a need to further investigate with the gun unloaded. Consultation with the shooter about firing the mechanism with or without snap caps of empty shells must be considered.

The Mildura Clay Target Club held a 100 Mixed Target Cash Divide Shoot on Saturday the 19th of January, (25 target points score, 25 target single barrel, 25 target continental and 25 target ball trap).

With a good turnout of 20 shooters and quite a few spectators, the day was a great success. Even though the shooting conditions were not perfect, overcast and no rain, there were no complaints about the weather. Everyone enjoyed themselves with drinks and food that was available as well as fresh homemade biscuits kindly provided by Mrs. Barnes.

Jason Moore won C grade with a score of 121/150, Robert Long came second with 117/150. John Heley took out B grade with 130/150, Jake Hill-Ford coming second with a score of 125/150. First in A grade was Trevor King with 137/150, Closely followed by Matt Johninke and David Farnsworth with a drawn second 132/150. Gus Clarkson once again shot well with 136/150 becoming the winner in AA, Joe Finis on his tail with 132/150.

On behalf of the gun club, I would like to thank all that attended and made the day a fun and enjoyable one.

CLUB SHOOT AT KEMPSEY

Location: Situated right in the heart of the Mid North Coast of NSW

The Christmas Shoot on Saturday 15th December was obviously on many shooters' calendar. We had seven squads turn up hoping to take home hams, chickens and wines. Not many people went home empty handed after the completion of the shoot. We had shooters from as far away as Sydney and other shooters were on holidays on the Mid North Coast. This shoot helped make their holiday even more enjoyable by squeezing an extra shoot in before travelling on.

The program for the day was a hundred target event which was shot in four walks. The shooting started with 50 Target Double Barrel, shot in two walks, then 25 Target Point Score and concluding with a 25 Target Single Barrel, all from 16 metres. It was a lovely day to be out in the sun with a lot of others all there to have a fun shooting and that's exactly what transpired. The final results were: AA Grade: D Pasfield 146/150, B Hooper 143/150, J Shepherd 137/150, J Webster 134/150. A Grade: M Flanagan 147/150, B Ellison 146/150, K Saunders 140/150, K Raymond 159/170. B Grade: D Piper 135/150, A Rowe 131/150, A McWhirter 130/150, J Gosling 128/150. C Grade: S O'Leary 133/150, C Lambous 129/150, C Drew 156/180, G Goodwin 154/180.

High Gun for the day was won by Michael Flanagan 147/150, a regular at the winners table. As per usual we had a wonderful afternoon tea with a Christmas theme which was again organized by our fantastic ladies who support their family and friends who shot.

Shooters had to race off after the shoot to shower and scrub up for our Christmas Dinner and presentation evening at a local venue. We had a fantastic group of shooters, family and friends who all enjoyed a great meal and a few drinks together before the presentations of the club trophies for the 2007 High Gun for each grade. The AA Grade was won by Brad Hopper, A Grade by Bill Neil, B Grade to Ken Saunders and C Grade for the second year in a row was won by Lesley Langer. The Kempsey Clay Target Club awards the Jim & Lyn Welsh Clubman of the Year Trophy to the shooter who it is felt has given a great deal to the club throughout the year. This was won by Lesley

We will make you feel welcome so come and have a great time at the traps with us, if you can't make it, have a fantastic time shooting somewhere but keep the sport alive and strong, keep breaking those targets. # ISSF YOUTH NATIONALS

This was the 2nd year that this event has been held, both times at the SISC. This venue was chosen so that all ISSF events could be at the one complex, with Rifle and Pistol events also being contested. The Youth Nationals has free nominations for all Australian competitors with different age categories. The event gives those shooters that have shot ISSF more competition and a chance for others to give it a try. The three different age categories of 12 – 16 years, 17 – 20 years and 21 – 25 years, gives more competitors the opportunity to compete closer to their age rather than normally everyone being a Junior which is under 21. The under 25 age gives a look at the possibility of development options.

With National Coach Valeriey Tomekin and Retired National Coach Greg Chan in attendance it was such a great opportunity for our Youth to gain knowledge and interest in ISSF Shooting. For some this was their very first time in trying ISSF, so having Coaches of this calibre in attendance was really a great help to these shooters. These two guys along with Nick Sanders, who is a Sports Scientists who works with AISL put a huge effort into making this a successful event. Thanks must also go to Beretta Australia for their generous sponsorship of this event.

In the Double Trap event in the 12 – 16 years Russell McCloy was successful with Joshua Collard 2nd and Kenneth Marshall 3rd. First in the 17 – 20 was Nicholas Kirley, Rowan Lendon 2nd and Tim Bourke 3rd. 21 – 25 years Blair Signorotto 1st David Cross 2nd and Todd Malone 3rd. A final was held for the top 6 over any age and finishing in 1st was Nicholas Kirley, Blair Signorotto 2nd and Rowan Lendon 3rd. These 3 shooters are shooting in the selections for the Olympics and all three are very keen and dedicated athletes who will represent well into the future in our sport.

With Double Trap finishing early on the Friday it gave an opportunity for Trap and Skeet practice and for the Coaches to give assistance to whoever asked. They were kept busy which was really great to see so many wanting to learn.

Unfortunately we had only 4 Skeet shooters competing. Laura Coles travelled from Western Australia to compete which was so great and stayed on for the week so that she could compete at the Australian Cup the next week. It was very sensible for her to take this opportunity to learn and compete and shows how keen some of these Juniors really are at their sport. Anthony Sottosanti shot well to finish 1st overall, Mathew Maloney 2nd and Mitchell Onley 3rd.

I thought it was really great to have 2 full squads of women shooters and girls like Kelly Coogan travelling all the way from Cairns was another big effort and showed again that we have some Juniors really wanting to have a go and learn and develop in the Olympic disciplines of shooting. Anna Shedrina was the winner of the Womens Trap event, Steph Tigani 2nd and Simone Tigani 3rd.

In the Mens Trap event we had the most competitors and of course with that the most varied of experience and age. It was great to see some of our well known DTL shooters having ago and I do hope we see you again. Overall 1st Todd Malone, 2nd Anthony Rullo and 3rd Clayton Anderson. 12 – 16 years 1st Andrew Smith 2nd, Michael McNabb 3rd Nazim Ali. 17 – 20 years 1st Anthony Rullo, 2nd Brendan Burgess and 3rd Daniel Allam. 21 – 25 years 1st Todd Malone 2nd Clayton Anderson and 3rd Marcel Tigani.

Thanks to Carrie Elton for being in attendance during part of the Youth Nationals and for the help of Rowena from the ACTA office. Frank Auditore also lent a hand. I think both Rowena and Frank learnt more about ISSF shooting which will help them in the future.

Thanks to the Australian Sports Commission, Australian Olympic Committee and the Australian Commonwealth Games Association for their support.
