Presidents Notes

There has been discussion recently regarding whether the ACTA should consider the ease in which members are shooting large breaks. There has been an improvement in firearms, equipment and ammunition and in the not too distant past there was a change in the angle that targets were thrown along with the distance. Some say that this makes the sport too easy – others say that it is a good thing because they have an opportunity to shoot these larger breaks. At the last DTL Nationals there were four shooters in the double barrel event that shot over 1000 targets straight.

Fantastic shooting and I congratulate these members (and those that were in the shoot off) however it caused timing issues for the carnival.

Whilst reading past Clay Target Shooting News magazines on the ACTA website, I came across a letter that was sent to the Secretary / Editor over 57 years ago. I reprint it below in full.

Clear Hills
Barellan, N.S.W.
14th December, 1957

Letter to the Secretary – Editor
A.C.T.A.

Sir,

As an old and keen clay bird buster for the last 30 years or so, I am very concerned at the falling off of shooters, particularly in my district (the Riverina, N.S.W.). Over the last few years quite a few clubs have given up the "ghost"; for instance, Leeton and Gundagai, which were flourishing clubs a few years ago, have folded. My own club, Barellan, is on the verge of extinction, although still registering; Temora – Gidginbung is apparently in the same boat; many other clubs are not by any means healthy.

When I ask any of the many former supporters why they do not shoot, the answer invariably is "too expensive" or "make the shooting tougher and we will come back". I personally feel that I am getting to that stage myself and feel that unless conditions of clay bird shooting is made much harder, I will not be interested in it much longer. I personally think that it should be difficult for any shooter to shoot, say, 20 straight. Taking some of the local championships here, we get these results:-

Griffith Gun Club Championship –
R. Bushby, 50/50, 1st; E. Albert,
49/50, 2nd.

Barellan Gun Club Championship –
E. Albert, 55/55, 1st; M. Webb,
54/55, 2nd.

I'm not quite sure who won the Nerrandera Club Championship, but the scores were over 50 straight. A Riverina Championship at Yerong Creek a month or two back – won by L. Baker, 70/70. I shot 70/70 straight that day shooting, if my memory serves me right, 65 consecutive first barrels. The Griffith Championship on Saturday last, December 14th, was won by P. Stott 60/60;

E. Albert, 2nd, 59/60. I had the pleasure of being in Katanning in Western Australia for their three days' championship shoot, and here, although 39/40 was the best score off 20 yards, the shoot-off lasted for over 100 rounds.

I am over 70 years of age and I feel that conditions of shooting are much too easy. All shooters know that on any reasonable day if they lose a bird they are out of the contest, even if the programme states at 50 birds, and more or less lose all interest in the shoot, although most shooters go through the programme.

Clay bird shooters have to find all the money for their sport – upkeep of their club, nominations to pay for trophies, sashes and clays, and mostly sweeps and cartridges. We find that unless a shooter is quite wealthy he cannot afford, say, four or five packets of cartridges, plus all other expenses and perhaps, after shooting 50, 60 or 70 straight, to miss a bird before a division. He just stays away from future events.

I suggest that shooting be made much more difficult by handicaps commencing from, say, 18 yards minimum to 30 yards maximum, and that traps be regulated to throw targets from, say, 6 feet high at 15 feet from the trap to 20 feet at the same distance. After all, only one shooter can win any championship, and I feel the winner would get much greater thrill to win a championship with, say, 15/20 than 100/100, or even 150/150. I think that some system of shooting should be devised that would allow the young shooter who still has to make his way in life, to enable him to compete at a reasonable cost without using up to six packets of shells for an afternoon's sport.

Yours faithfully,
(Sgd.) EMIL E. ALBERT

Is this a new issue? I think not. It has been around long before I was born and is continually being assessed, even today. The National Executive Committee, through the Championships Committee realised this issue and has altered this years' programme in an attempt to rectify the long shoot off issue. Whether it works or not will be assessed and reconsidered after the Nationals.

In short, at least the Executive Committee is trying different approaches in an effort to rectify problems of the past. As to the success – if not, there will be a return to the format of the past or another approach tried.

Or, as has been suggested by members, the double barrel event is not included in the Macintosh Team selection? Should the team be selected on the single barrel event only? Single and pointscore events only? Or should they be conducted one day after each, with shooters that are in the double barrel event shoot their single barrel event then continue to the shoot off trap to continue their shoot off? I would ask that if you have a view on this that you email the ACTA office at admin@claytarget.com.au for it to be considered. You may just have the solution!

To every member and your family, I and my wife wish you all a safe and enjoyable Christmas and New Year celebration and that 2015 brings you an enjoyable and successful year. To everyone that has assisted me and the Executive Committee this past year, thank you.

Stay safe!

Allan Vilcins

Executive Officer's Report

With 2015 upon us the staff of the National Office is very busy processing new memberships. We achieved our 2014 target of over 14,000 members, an increase of over 1,000 shooters in 2014. We are confident the new online renewal process will lead to a further increase in 2015. We remind all members, to be eligible to shoot events in 2015 you must have paid your 2015 membership, either through your club or the online process available. To ensure all member clubs, and registered shooters are covered it is extremely important this is not overlooked. Through various reports we have ascertained that numerous "lapsed" members had shot at various Clubs during the year. It is member Clubs', Zones' and States' responsibilities to confirm membership for the current year. This is now easily available through the new database as a double checking mechanism along with the requirement for shooters to show their Handicap book.

We currently have a small number of Clubs who have not provided their membership fees for 2015, without these fees being provided (for our office use) we cannot process their memberships.

If these fee structures are not provided we will have to recommend to those members wishing to re-join, they need to join another Club.

We are on the verge of significant changes in line with legislation regarding anti-doping. The Executive are currently working through changes proposed by ASADA in relation to anti-doping. We are working closely with Shooting Australia in relation to the ASADA recommendations to ensure we have the best possible outcomes whilst complying with legislation approved by the Federal government following the much publicised Drugs in Sport issues encountered in two of the most popular football sports in Australia.

The Executive Committee have commissioned a re-writing of the Constitution to include changes to the Victorian Incorporations Act 2012. This will commence following the closure of "Notices of Motion" for the 2014 AGM on the 26th December 2014. The AGM will be conducted on the 22nd of March 2015 during the National Trap Championships. The process as always takes a great deal of work in reading and introducing amendments. We are required to introduce the Model Rules 2012 of Victoria in line with any changes to the Constitution.

As Clubs are the members of the Association, all of these recommendations (Notices of Motion) will need to go to the Annual General Meeting. These will be circulated in line with requirements of the Incorporations Act. There are a number of models being looked at including the recommendations of the Australian Sports Commission.

The new data base is now operational, however not without some issues that we are still dealing with. Anyone who has been involved with such a task I am sure would appreciate the technical difficulties associated with such an undertaking. The fact that it is purpose built is something which has caused a number of challenges. A recommendation will be prepared for the Executive Committee to consider the number of member categories. We have so far received over fifteen different categories offered by individual Clubs whilst the ACTA offer eight. We are looking to introduce Life Member categories, however there are numerous variations of these categories that we need to work out and whether these can be achieved. Following numerous discussion with the developers we are looking to align the membership categories of clubs with those offered by the ACTA. By aligning these categories all registered shooters will be able to join online in the near future. We have categories of Life Members who currently will be only able to join via the Club for 2015.

The success of shooters nationally and internationally in 2014 has been well documented in the magazine during the year. One who may have escaped notice is Western Australian youngster William Lizzi. William won the State Handicap as well as the State Junior Handicap, plus various other events at the State Trap Carnival. William is only 12 years old and following enquiries through our ACTA historian, Adrian Cousens, we believe he would be the youngest overall winner of an open event in Australia. William also shot in the ISSF Championships conducted in Perth in 2014 at the very young age of 11. He is a pocket rocket and a very personable young man with maturity beyond his years. Keep your eye on this lad, he has the ingredients to be very successful at whatever he chooses in life. He is a credit to his family, Club, Zone and State. Congratulations William

Tony Turner

VCTA 2014 State Trap Carnival

ECHUCA CLAY TARGET CLUB
NOVEMBER 7 – 9, 2014

STORY BY STEPHANIE ATKINS
PHOTOS BY MURRAY ROBERTS

The Victorian Clay Target Association held its annual State Carnival on November 7, 8 and 9 with a record number of shooters from around Australia, allowing for a highly competitive weekend. Overall, 386 shooters participated over the three days.

Friday brought with it 307 competitors, making a great start to the weekend. VCTA State Councillor and Echuca Clay Target Club's President Steve Atkins inducted Bill Eagle into the Victorian State Hall of Fame on Friday afternoon. Eagle, who was a previous state delegate to the VCTA, has a plethora of club, state and national championships under his belt. Atkins has described Eagle as "one of the best 25-metre shots going around." Eagle, who is "pretty proud of this [achievement]," said that the Hall of Fame allows "an ordinary shooter to gain some fame out of [the sport]."

William Glenelg Downie was inducted posthumously after an impressive shooting career. The Tasmanian was a keen shot at a very young age, with his first win coming at the mere age of 13. Downie was later in a farming accident involving gelignite, leaving him without an arm and an eye. Despite having his vision and physical ability compromised, he came to the mainland in 1924 and continued to compete at the highest level in the sport he loved. Downie went on to win a gold medal at the World Pigeon Shoot in Monte Carlo in 1928. Downie passed away in 1967, leaving behind his prized Purdey shotgun and a history to be admired. "To say he was a good shot is an absolute understatement," Atkins said. Downie's great niece, Susan, accepted the honour on behalf of her family, saying she was "absolutely honoured to have him recognised so long after he died." Ms Downie gave a special thanks to Judith Kent for tirelessly pushing to have William Glenelg Downie acknowledged.

Susan Downie

Echuca member, Peter Sing, was awarded a life membership to the Victorian Clay Target Association in grateful recognition of his contribution to the establishment of the Victorian Clay Target Association State Shooting Ground at Echuca. "The availability for grants could see further improvements to the VCTA/Echuca Clay Target Club," Sing said. The Life Membership, which is only the 9th ever awarded was presented by VCTA State President, Mal Dyson, assisted by Ian Maddison, Mayor of the Shire of Campaspe. Councillor Maddison said he was "absolutely proud to have the partnership" with the VCTA and Echuca Clay Target Club. Councillor Maddison then went on to officially declare the State Carnival open and Councillor Paul Jackman fired the opening shot.

Members of the Southeast Zone provided a barbecue dinner on Friday night, which was appreciated by all who attended.

Wagga Wagga's Rob Yeo claimed the Overall State Double Rise Championship 25-pair event with an outright winning score of 49/50 in only his second trip to Echuca. "The State Titles is the place to go; that's where the competition is," he said. Yeo now has a Victorian State Title to add to his accumulation of Northern Territory titles. First in AA was Eric G. Bullmore from Little River Game Range (68/70), second was Melbourne's Craig Henwood (67/70) and coming in third was Steve Haberman from the Echuca Clay Target Club (66/70). The A-grade winner was Michele Rocca from Frankston (47/50). Don Milojevic (Colbinabbin CTC) placed second (54/60) and third was Morwell's Jason Davis (53/60). Amy Smith, representing Boorowa won B-grade on 45/50, Beth Hayden from Mildura came second (61/70) and Ron Hounsell of Central Wimmera finished third (58/70). C grade winner Riley Wilson from Melbourne Cricket Clay Target Club shot 40/50, with Joshua Knight from Bendigo Clay Target Club placing second on 47/60, leaving Emma McCulloch of Numurkah in third (45/60). Shooting 47/50, Michele Rocca from Frankston won the Veterans, Renae Birgan of Noorat GC won the Ladies' Double Rise on 47/50 and James Hayden, also from Noorat, took out the Junior's title on 48/50.

The 50-target State Handicap shoot-off was a battle between Beretta and Perazzi; Jeff Tonna of Werribee won with a score of 81/81 and Stewart Forbes of Maryborough placed second on 80/81. Jeff is the inaugural winner of the Ron Traill Memorial Trophy, which was initiated by the VCTA to honour the memory of the late Ron Traill, VCTA President for many years. Joshua Spicer from Melbourne Gun Club finished third on 64/65, Daniel Jehu from Noorat placed fourth on 59/60 and coming in fifth on 58/59 was James Willett of Deniliquin.

13-year-old Meshaila Cox from the Bendigo Academy of Sport shot 47/50 to take out the B-grade Single Barrel on Saturday, also winning the B-grade Double Barrel shoot off with a score of 49/50. Ms Cox has proven her place on the podium, being inspired and encouraged by cousin Emma Cox. Meshaila said winning at the big shoots such as the Victorian State Titles really boosts her confidence. "It makes me feel like I have potential," she said.

Saturday morning saw a visit from State parliamentarians, Peter Walsh and Paul Weller who announced that the VCTA had been successful in acquiring a grant of $61,500 for the replacement of clay target traps. This announcement was applauded by all present and VCTA President, Mal Dyson, thanked both State parliamentarians for their assistance.

The Victorian State DTL Single Barrel 50-target event saw Todd Malone from Morwell on 62/62. In first place in AA grade was Craig Henwood (61/62); second was Colin Dunn of Callawadda Stawell Gun Club (54/55) and Boorowa's Justin Smith came third on 58/59. Finishing second in B-grade after Meshaila Cox (47/50), was Don Collihole from Euroa Clay Target Club (46/50); third was Beth Hayden from Mildura on 47/52. Bendigo Clay Target Club's Colin Repacholi took first place in C-grade (47/50), followed by Glenn Wilkinson from Hopetoun Gun Club (43/50) and Werribee Victorian Clay Target Club's Trevor Petschell (43/50). Bill Iles won the Veterans on (52/53), and Laura Wolley from Bendigo Clay Target Club won the Ladies' on 55/56 and the Juniors on 49/50.

Mitchell Iles, clad in a distinctive pink Perazzi cap, won the Overall State Double Barrel Championship 50 target event (226/226),

Todd Malone with Paul Mitchel (pcmenviro)

the Junior Double Barrel (132/132), the Open Team High Gun (150/150) and the Junior Team High Gun (339/350). Representing Melbourne Gun Club, Perazzi and Falcon Cartridges sponsor the 15-year-old who is showing form against more experienced competitors. Proving his talent at such a young age, Iles' advice is to remain focused. "Don't let [other shooters] get to you while you shoot," he said.

In AA-grade in the Double Barrel, Nathan McDonnell of Werribee Clay target Club won with 238/239, and Todd Malone finished close behind with 237/239.

She also obtained first in Ladies' Points Score (148/150), Overall AA High Gun (342/350), and the Overall Ladies' High Gun (342/350). The lady in red blended in with her accumulation of scarlet sashes. Ms Birgan thanked the Echuca Clay Target Club for yet another great State Carnival weekend.

State President Mal Dyson and the VCTA Executive committee were pleased to again see a record number of competitors at the State Carnival. The Carnival remains a premier event on the shooters calendar. A big thank you goes out to all the ladies in the kitchen, the trappers and shoot marshals, and to all who helped to make the carnival run smoothly this year.

Wangaratta Sporting Clays

JORY IN TOP FORM

Brett Jory still managed to win the Wangaratta Clay Target Club November Sporting Clays shoot after an early start at the grounds setting up the many traps in operation on the day. Brett was ably assisted by Paul Reynolds, Reg. Carmody and Graham Coyle in the tricky task of creating a good mix of challenging and easier targets for shooters on the day.

Perfect weather conditions with little wind prevailed and all shooters enjoyed another excellent day of competitive target shooting at the first rate facilities provided by the club. This is the final 5 Stand shoot for 2014, however another action packed program is scheduled for next year.

Jory finished the day with his usual high degree of accuracy on 88/100.

Mark Reynolds was four targets behind taking 2nd in AA grade. Liam Whyte won the A grade sash on 81/100 with Christian McGauran following close behind on 78/100. A score of 69/100 was required for David Whyte to take out B grade, only one target in front of Ed Zawora in 2nd. Junior shooter Ash Batey showed lots of skill and determination winning C grade 69/100 with lady competitor Margot Trellu from Mansfield taking out 2nd place on 57/100.

Local enthusiastic and skilful top shot Rhys McGauran won the Juniors award 66/100.

Another satisfying and enjoyable day for all shooters who attended. It was great to see some new faces and lady shooters lining up to participate in one of the best and friendliest clay target clubs in the state.

Shooting for Gold at the Alice Springs Masters Games

Usually when I write articles for the magazine, I agonise over the opening paragraph, but this time I am going straight into thanking all our early helpers for their assistance in getting our grounds presentable.

This year we put in a new layout (more in a future article) and anyone from a small country club will know that volunteers are sometimes few on the ground, so the majority of the building work fell to a couple of members (take a bow Steve Zanca, Steve Morris and Jim Niland) who put in a mammoth effort to get the layout up and running, but that left little time for the raking, tidying and general bits n pieces.

Thanks must go to all our campers for pitching in and always with either a smile or a laugh, and a few puffs and pants. Then there's the last minute stuff; where do I start – well, cleaning toilets comes to mind. Thanks to Maureen, Pam and Sue. Toilet cleaners one minute, kitchen organisers the next. And their campsite (The Awesome Foursome) produced labourers who were surprisingly good at clay box shifting.

Our High Latrine View Caravan Park was fully booked this year and campers started arriving prior to the Masters to take advantage of the Alice Open – Eye Opener. Imagine the Bathmans; drive to Davenport, ferry across, through Victoria, SA, up the Stuart Highway, work like paid staff, shoot like . . . ah well, not everyone's a winner, then have a day off and drive all the way home. And then there's the Western Australians driving in convoy for 6,525 k's up and back, as a wagon train, parking each night as if the Indians were about to attack. It's amazing what a Sandgroper will do for a gold medal and a hearty laugh. We thought the campers had done a good job of organising themselves, until Dave and Sue had to delay their departure when they realised they had been caravanned in. What a shame, another night with astounding views, delightful weather; entertaining company and all for ten bucks a night.

The coordinators duties included watching the weather ten day's out to get an idea of what to prepare for. It went from 20 at night to 38 during the day - there goes the limited power. Then magnificent 13 at night to 28 through the day - beer sales down. Two days out from competition it changes to 10 at night and 28 and storms with lightening through the day - look around for brollies. And these were all for the same days. Luckily it turned out desert-sweet at night with warm days and hot breezes (read wind) on a couple of days. One unfortunate squad (with me in it) was caught in the open when a whirly wind came through. You might think a bit of hot dust shouldn't concern a hardened shooter, but unfortunately the whirly's last port of call was the dried out furry prickly field below the traps.

You never know who will serve you at the Broad Butt Bar

I had to ask the ref to pull a few prickles out of my shooting hand, and the others ended up shooting with tiny prickly fingers in eyebrows, hands, neck, etc. Every time you closed a gun you could hear the crunch-crunch of dust.

Steve Whitehead was travelling through and spent a couple of days on the 20 year old Canterbury and then went out of his way to tinker with anything else needing looking at. He ended up being our very own personal on-call trap mechanic for the whole competition. Anyone who has run a busy event, with a few older than old traps, knows how much relief that brings. So thanks Steve, and his mate John who became painter extraordinaire.

Thursday was our practice day which started after lunch, with two camels, 6 kangaroos and a long lost Sheepy who came home to the Alice after 10 years agistment, surprisingly with a lamb in tow. Our two missing gun-toting Kangaroos appeared as well with a couple of Mexicans looking well, er, sheepish.

Friday started out as every day would, with a hearty breakfast of egg and bacon sandwiches provided by the Wood Ducks. Quality was dependant on any session had by the chefs the previous night and quantity was dependant on any sessions had by the customer. Taking both into consideration, Sunday morning after the Saturday night opening ceremony concert was not a pretty place to be, on either side of the bench. There were no complaints from the crowd, however, requests for Quick Eze went through the roof.

Anyway, I digress - shooting started 8am Friday morning with 50 target skeet which was won outright by Bronte Evans with an amazing 49/50. Good ol Mac came up with his first 25 skeet. Oh wait, bugger, it was in practice. Oh well, nearly Mac. Mrs Mac bought home the gold though with Ladies Overall 37/50. Skeet was followed by 25 target Continental Points Score which if I recall was on one of the hot windy days, so it could really be Extra-Continental. And Glenn O'Brien scooped the prize in Points Score with an enviable 86/87, with Ladies overall going to Tania Evans with a very nice 70/75.

Barry Paul and Carol keeping the dream alive

Friday's presentation was pre-empted by a presentation of significance to local members and Wood Ducks alike, and was the gifting to the Alice Springs Clay Target Club of a Beretta gun to be used as a club gun, purchased with funds raised through raffles at the 2012 Masters Games by the Wood Ducks. Many, many thanks to shooters who were coerced into buying tickets by ingenious port guzzling, jerky consuming Wood Ducks masquerading as gentle raffle ticket sellers.

Also on Friday night was the introduction of our Master of Masters, Top Ender Glenn Norris - 80 odd and still shooting in fine form. Also introduced was the Master's apprentice, our youngest Master, Wood Duck in the making Jason Matthews who was the "come and go boy" for Glenn. We figure if you are the oldest shooter at the club for the Masters, then all your needs are provided for, compliments of the bar and we even provide the runner to meet those demands. All that free grog, free food, spoiling etc and all you have to do for it is be 80.

Saturday was a short day with only 50 target Double Barrel in the morning, after a bit of a sleep in. This allowed time for the competitors to collect their medals, scoot home, finally be allowed to wear their new games T Shirts and present themselves on-masse for the opening parade. Tom Apps was out-n-proud leading the squadron onto the oval. Tom was awarded this Masters honour because it was his tenth Masters Games, not bad when you think that it really means twenty years of shooting in the Alice. It was a good day all round for Tom since he snapped up Double Barrel with a very nice 84/84. Official presenter of the day was the NT's Chief Minister Adam Giles who relaxed over our new trap and shot a lazy 21/23. Pretty credible since it was most probably his second time at shooting.

Sunday morning was not quite so enthusiastic since many shooters chose to partake of Alice's hospitality with the Opening Ceremony party in full swing late into the night. Didn't seem to affect Merv Sweeney though since he won the first event of 25 target Single Barrel with a convincing 38/38. He obviously didn't have a bacon n egg sandwich first up. Ladies went to Marlene 48/51.

Second event of the day of 30 target Mixed Targets and it was a bit tough for anyone to beat Phil Desmond, firing on all cylinders with a 75/75. Michelle Ball was hot on his heels though taking out Ladies Overall with a 71/75.

Phew, an early finish meant shooters could sit back and relax and enjoy the friendliness of our new Lost Target Bar before dinner was served. You can't keep a good Wood Duck down, so dinner was followed by an impromptu auction with donations from Steve Whitehead, Phil and John Desmond, the Wood Ducks and Gaye Shipp. I ended up buying the most expensive and delicious jerky in Australia. Not to be outdone though, Joe paid $100 for a bottle of 1 month old Woods Point Port which was already past its use by date and then proceeded to drink it all before going home because he reckoned it was the most expensive port he had ever drunk and was determined to enjoy every drop. Enough said.

Thanks to Val for her donated fruit cake. We ummed and arghed over what to do with our prized home-made cake and decided to raffle it. All went well until it was given to the wrong raffle ticket after which it had to be wrestled off the original winner who was then physically detained until it was safe in the hands of the new winner. Luckily Bull (or his wife Pam) offered to share it with the now-dejected, and somewhat bruised, wrong winner and the barmaids. Thanks Val, it was our special treat for the behind-the-bar girls.

Monday was 25 target ACTA handicap and Open overall was snapped up by Neil Paton with an uncontested 50/50, with Ladies going to Marlene with a 24/25. 25 target Sporting Clays was shot as either a serious event, or a novelty shoot depending on how the shooter felt on the day, and Paul Bonusiak won hands down with a 31/35. Tanya Evans was up on the podium again taking out Ladies overall with a 15/25.

Jim Niland, Rob Lay and Laurie Poile happy to be on the podium

Shooting all over and presentations started with Masters Games medals, Alice Open Sandstones and the do-you-really-want-to-win-them club sashes/prizes.

The inaugural Lost Target Bar Award went to South Australian, Dave Aitchison. The Barman Frosty was keeping his ear out for the best Lost Target Excuse, but said all conversation at the bar was about Dave's great C grade shooting, so since he was the Shooter of the Moment, he had to win the award. Dave shot some amazing scores which bounded him up from C15 to A19, AND then he shot an incredible 34/35 in the handicap. As much as we made jokes about Dave over the weekend, the Masters Games Committee was delighted to have had Dave shooting his best scores at the Alice Springs Club. Still waiting to hear his secret though, although it was suggested it was the great weather, superb targets and supportive squads. It is only fair to mention

Peter Brister here. He came a very close second by swallowing a fly when he called "pull". Now that is an acceptable excuse, although I am pretty sure he got the target. Must have been the added protein.

The Broad Butt Barmaids Sash had to go to Top

Dave Aitchison and I went from C to A Grade

Pam refuses to listen to more of Frosty's jokes at our Lost Target Bar

Ender Dennis who rinsed his glass, went to the freezer, got his own ice and readied his glass for his drink, waited patiently for his turn, bought a packet of 50 cent chips to round up his bill so the Barmaid wouldn't have to bother with change and then to top it off, professed his love for the Barmaids with every drink. What a customer. Let me tell you there wasn't anyone who even came a close second for that sash and even if we had a second prize, Dennis would have won that as well for setting such a wonderful example.

The Poor Bastard sash went to Tony Carlesso. He shot like a trooper in the shoot-off for Double Barrel in his age group against Neil Paton. It was a great shoot-off to watch and ended with Neil coming in first with 108/109. And when Tony dropped his target, you could hear someone in the crowd say "poor bastard".

Our Pigs Might Fly Award had to go to dedicated skeet shooter Trevor who shot the same as his skeet shooting wife in DTL and asked at the office to let his wife win because he was concerned for his health and safety and wanted to score . . . a meal that night. This information accidentally reached the Barmaids who figured pigs might be flying before he became a DTL man if he wasn't prepared to give up his, er, meal that night to win. Such a shame his wife won the "I Love Trapshooters" T Shirt.

WA shooters Heather and Andrew have already booked their spaces for next Masters. Heather because she won our "please come back" helicopter money box containing 2016 nominations and Andrew because he shot the traphouse and forgot to leave his carton on the bar before departure. And would you believe it, locals have now decided they all drink Coronas.

Our High Gun winners for Skeet were Open Bronte Evans 49/50, Ladies Amberley Emmett 48/50 and Veterans went to Shippy with a 57/64. DTL Open went to Phil Desmond with 222/225, Ladies, Marlene Niland 211/225 and Veterans to Peter West 209/225.

Carnival High Gun (colloquially known as King Dick) was shared by Stephen Morris and Bronte Evans with 282/300. Ladies went to Amberley Emmett 256/300 and Veterans to Lex Shipp with 268/300.

King Duck went to Phil Desmond, long term Wood Duck who flies north for the Masters with his gang of cohorts from Woods Point Gun Club.

Our new layout worked a treat and the three traps allowed the shooting to run much more smoothly and we will keep CTSN readers up to date with our Ball Trap antics. We were delighted with the trap performance and especially proud of our new detachable traphouse, fitted on railway tracks to roll back and forth for reloading and then simply lifted off and removed for storage when the trap went back into the bunker to work as a Ball Trap. We are very happy with our set-up, so if your club is thinking of Ball Trap, feel free to contact the club for advice.

Shooters should never forget to thank the office staff and I'm going to do it now. They just beaver away, crunching numbers, getting it perfect 99.9% of the time. They listen to complaints and soothe ruffled feathers; all the time with calculator in hand (although I sometimes wonder if it could be used as a lethal weapon in stressful times). And some poor bugger is doggedly entering score after score in books and checking percentages and usually this is while the general populace, including myself, is cracking a cold beer. Our heart-felt thanks to Bronte Evans, Joe Melissi and Doug Mines.

And while this is happening, Sue, Pam, Maureen, Rosemary or

Medal winners- Wally Walsh, Glenn O'Brien and Gary Hargraves

Tanya are taking tops off your beer and finding a packet of beer nuts at the back of the cupboard. Thanks to our kitchen helpers.

If you have any photos can you email them to mmformwork@bigpond.com or post on disc to ASCTC PO Box 1846 Alice Springs NT 0870 for our website.

Scores for the Masters Games will be on the ASMG website <http://www.alicespringsmastersgames.com.au/results/2014> and all going well the Alice Open will be at the back of the book.

Our next big shoot in The Alice will be the 2015 Combined Skeet and DTL State Carnival held on the Queen's Birthday long weekend 5-8th June 2015.

If you are thinking of shooting our next Masters Games, don't forget we started out with a limit of 65, then 70, then 75 and had to put the blocks on at 80 (country septic system, you know how it is), but ended up with 77, so shooters will need to remember to book early for the next games on 8-15th October 2016.

To our entrants, thanks for coming to the Masters Games, some of you travelled enormous distances from interstate, and every one of you is appreciated. And thanks for the good time and the laughs. God I had a great time!

*Till next time,
Marlene and the ASCTC Committee*

The Squire Reports from West Wyalong

Small was the order of the day for the West Wyalong Clay Target Club's Skeet and Down the Line shoot held on the third Sunday in October.

With some shooters getting ready for harvest there were only a small number of competitors present for a pleasant day of clay target shooting.

Although there were not many shooters, the competition was quite strong and as usual all had an enjoyable day.

The morning program consisted of 50 Target Skeet and it was, because of the small numbers, decided to hold a handicap event which is fair for all concerned.

Pat Mulqueeny, still without a kick pad on his gun, proceeded to once again show how it is done and managed to win the event.

Graham Duncan was able to get the gun from Pat after the event and the next time he sees it, it will have a kick pad in place.

Graham Duncan also enjoys his skeet and he and Charlie Strike shared second place.

The surprise packet of the day was "Lydia the Gun" who has improved her skeet shooting in leaps and bounds and she finished in third place.

Following the usual barbecue lunch and the arrival of a few more shooters the Down the Line program commenced with 25 Target Double Barrel.

Bruce Dent swapped gun models from skeet to trap and showed his versatility being one of three shooters, along with Clive Foster and Luke Kirkby, to shoot 25/25 and claim a share of the prize money.

The 25 Target Handicap event saw Jason Anderson 37/37 take out the win from 25 metre shooter Clive Foster 36/37.

Bruce Dent 23/25 was keeping everyone honest and finished in third place.

The final event of the day was a taxing 25 Pair Double Rise an unusual event at club level, and Clive Foster 46/50 showed his fine shooting ability to take first place.

Jason Anderson 42/50 showed his consistent practice is leading to consistent scores and he claimed second place ahead of John Wason 41/50 in third place.

Clive Foster won the Duncans Chainsaw and Mower Centre High Gun on the day.

Although only a small shoot it proved to be an enjoyable day and everyone was able to head towards home at a reasonable hour.

The HOA = 450 targets and the HAA=550 targets.

What a successful trip it was for the Aussie Five Man Zone team of Paul Johnston, Barry Moss, Shane O'Brien, David O'Sullivan and Glenn Walker. After we tied with the Americans on 742/750, the Aussie team went on to win the shoot-off and the Championship. What a satisfying win it was! (A video of the shoot-off can be seen on the ASSA website).

All team members arrived, safe and sound in San Antonio Texas, some days before the start of the Mini World events which, these days is the second biggest shoot in the USA. (Our equivalent back here would be the pre-nationals event).

The Mini World is a five gun event shot over three days as follows:

Friday – 100 target doubles;

Saturday – 100 target 12g in the morning followed by 100 target 28g in the afternoon; and Sunday – 100 target 20g in the morning followed by 100 target .410 in the afternoon.

The High Over All (HOA) result is decided over the four standard gun events. The 12g, 20g, 28g and the .410 events giving a possible of 400 targets. While the High All Around (HAA) result adds the doubles for a possible of 500.

After getting over the jet lag, we quickly settled down and knuckled down to get a few targets under our belt. Apart from some heavy rain for the 12g event on Saturday morning of the Mini the weather remained quite good for the remainder of the Championships.

The individual Mini World scores for our successful Zone team members were as follows:

	Doubles	12g	20g	28g	.410	HOA	HAA
Paul	93	98	99	99	99	395	488
Barry	—	—	98	—	82	—	—
Shane	93	99	98	99	94	390	483
David	93	98	100	98	94	390	483
Glenn	92	96	95	97	93	381	473

Because of the large number of participants, the Main World Championships are based on one event per day as follows:

The individual Main World scores for our successful Zone team members were as follows:

	Doubles	12g	20g	28g	.410	HOA	HAA
Paul	97	150	98	98	93	439	536
Barry	97	147	95	96	94	432	529
Shane	97	147	96	98	93	434	531
David	99	149	100	96	98	443	542
Glenn	96	149	96	98	91	434	530

With some good performances achieved in the Mini and a great 99 by David O'Sullivan in the Main doubles, we were motivated to strive for a good performance in the Zone Team event the following day. And we succeeded!

Each team member performed at his best and we came up with a score of 742 which tied with an American Zone team. Our team won the shoot-off and became the 2014 Zone Team Champions.

The smile on everyone's face after our shoot-off spoke volumes for the significance of our win. The knowledge and experience gained by each team member will filter through to our Australian skeet shooters who will now be encouraged by our success.

Paul Johnston, the Team Manager, is extremely proud of the team who, together with all the Australian shooters, conducted themselves as great ambassadors of our sport and Country. The Australian contingent was over twenty with about ten from New Zealand. During the Championships it was gratifying to see the Australian flag flying over the stadium together the flags of so many other nations.

The friendliness and hospitality of everyone we met was sensational. We were welcomed by the new skeet Director, Mike Dowling, who kindly accepted and acknowledged the plaque presented on behalf of the Australian Clay Target Association.

This is truly the best skeet shoot in the World. Anyone who loves skeet shooting and/or wants to represent our country at the World Shoot should have a go at making the team for 2016. The selections start after the 2015 Skeet Nationals. Otherwise just plan to go – you will not regret it!

Commonwealth Carnival

KINGAROY CLAY TARGET CLUB
SEPTEMBER 12, 13, 14, 2014

The 2014 ACTA Commonwealth Carnival sponsored by Stanwell Corporation was conducted on the 12, 13 and 14th of September 2014 at the Kingaroy Clay Target Club, Queensland.

The Kingaroy Club was given one brief from the ACTA, and that was to put on a shoot that would attract shooters to a Commonwealth Carnival. With this in mind the Kingaroy Club combined with the Queensland Police Clay Target Club to share the responsibility of fulfilling these goals. To achieve this, extensive sponsorship was sought and as per their normal protocol, the Queensland Police Club offered free nominations for all junior competitors.

The Kingaroy Club Grounds underwent major refurbishment for the weekend with permanent electricity stands placed in the camping grounds, now allowing for over 40 campsites and also refurbishments on the amenities block. Luckily for the club, the refurbishments were well utilised with campgrounds bursting with the competitors who started arriving on the Tuesday prior to the shoot.

These championships were not only the first time they had been conducted in Queensland under the current format, they were the first time the club had utilised Social Media and also the new My Club, My Scores scoring system. Thanks should go to Angie Gordon for her tireless efforts regarding the Facebook promotion, and to Martin Smith for working closely with our office staff to ensure the carnival ran smoothly including Pre Nominations. Even with the numbers day three finished on time allowing shooters to commence travelling home in daylight hours.

The Kingaroy Club has a proud history and the ACTA Commonwealth Carnival now complements that history. With all competitions this shoot could not have been conducted without a number of sponsors and supporters. The major sponsors of the carnival were: Stanwell Corporation, South Burnett Regional Council, Yesberg Earthmoving, Sellwood Constructions, Nioa Trading, Betta Home Living, Canterbury Traps International, Rio Oceania, Sky Lighter Fireworks, CWB Plumbing and Chooks Mini Bobcat Hire. Without their support, this event could not have been as successful as it was, and the club is indeed indebted for their support of this event.

Thanks also to the sensational kitchen staff who provided such wonderful meals in their little kitchen for the large crowd. Sponsors Swickers/Sunpork greatly assisted with the great local pork product for the kitchen.

Also thanks to the Shoot Marshall, Bar staff and happy office staff who all complimented each other in running this enjoyable weekend.

142 Competitors competed on day one of the three day carnival, with the shoot commencing at the earlier time of 8:30 to ensure the program could be shot in daylight hours.

Event One sponsored by Nioa Trading, was the 50 Target Single Barrel. This event was shot under near perfect conditions, (warm and sunny) great for the shooters. Considering these conditions, John Maxwell was the only shooter that warmed to these with a perfect 50/50.

AA grade headed off for a shoot off after Local shooter and club sponsor Cameron Brown together with Paul Anderson and Celeste Barnes shot 49/50. Cameron Brown was the eventual winner of the shoot off with a 67/67, Paul Anderson 66/67 and Celeste Barnes 29/30.

A Grade saw another of our local shooters take that out with Mark Kapernick also shooting 49/50. Kurt Goody 2nd with a 48/50 and Carlo Barletta a third after a quick shoot off 48/51.

B Grade was to be an all Ladies affair with Jayd Powell beating Tracey Harker in the shoot off with a 57/60 and third to Donna Barletta with a 47/51.

Still with the perfect conditions and the weather getting warmer, no shooter were able to shoot this event clean. After a shoot off between Kim Nealon and Bill Pavy for overall, Kim finished on top with a total of 148/150.

AA Grade saw Bill Pavy take out 1st with a 143/150. Shoot off for 2nd and 3rd was then shot off between Peter Fitzalan and Geoff Moore. Peter Fitzalan ended up 2nd with 148/150 and Geoff 3rd with a 146/150.

A Grade was pretty straight forward with Bill Jorgensen outright winner with a 122/125, 2nd to Allen Cole 119/125 and after a shoot off for 3rd local club member Scott Prendergast claimed third with 161/175.

B Grade was won by Jim Riggs 116/125, 2nd and 3rd was shot off between Donna Barletta and Shaun Ezzy. Donna took this shoot off out by 2 points with a total of 162/175.

C Grade 1st, 2nd and 3rd needed to be determined by a shoot off between two Kingaroy locals, Scott Gittins and club sponsor Richard Greeff and Vince Gee. Obviously the local shooters had the upper hand with Scott Gittins coming away the victor 133/150, Richard 2nd 132/150 and Vince 131/150.

To compliment the fantastic first day was a monstrous fireworks display sponsored by Sky-lighter Fireworks. It was a memorable way to welcome the shooters to the Kingaroy event, and thanks to Nick, and his crew of Gary and Ashley Gordon for this wonderful exhibition. With day one over, time was then spent socialising with the large number of interstate and shooting mates from around Queensland.

Sponsors for day one included: Halls Firearms, Ransen Timber Company, Grand Hotel Childers, Kingaroy Freight Express, Bank of Queensland (Kingaroy Branch).

Day Two commenced with a complete change from the day before with cloudy skies and a slight breeze, these conditions challenged shooters and the results were reflected in the scores.

The 3rd event for the Championships was the Sellwood Construction 50 target handicap. Justin Forbes from Darwin skinned the event with a perfect round of 50/50 and the remainder of the placing's headed off for a shoot off.

The 2nd and 3rd shoot off was between John Rodden and Ashley Gordon. This shoot off went for 2 targets with John the successor. 4th and 5th were shot off between Scott Gittins and Irvine Wynard after shooting a 48/50. They challenged each other for 34 targets with Scott getting the upper hand.

The second event of day two, the Yesberg Earthmoving 50 Target Double Barrel event commenced at lunch time on the Saturday and 38 shooters shot the perfect 50, and the 8 squads set off shooting 10 from each layout until there were only six shooters left to fight it out.

Psychological Skills for Shooting

MICHAEL KRUGER-DAVIS

MORE ON MINDFULNESS

Sometimes when I am coaching or training teachers, I often the participants to read some notes or an article. When they have finished reading, I ask them to read it again. I am suggesting the same here, that you go back to last month's article on mindfulness and read it again before you continue on with this month's article.

Now you have revised what mindfulness is and that you are clear in what it can do for you in your personal, professional and sporting life. In this article I want to take a closer look at mindfulness.

The important thing about mindfulness, according to Christopher Bergland, 2013 Psychology Today, is that it is much more basic than people realize. In his article, "The Athlete's Way, he states that he has isolated three easy steps to kick start a state of mindfulness in just a few seconds. These three steps are: Stop. Breathe. Think about your thinking. We can all use these three simple steps throughout each day to stay calm, be focused, remain optimistic and be kind.

Mindfulness has its origins in Buddhism and has been around for centuries. There is no single definition to mindfulness as but there are two important components that must be present.

Firstly, there must be a self-regulation of attention so that it is maintained on immediate experience, thereby allowing for increased recognition of mental events in the present moment. The second component involves adopting a particular orientation towards one's experiences in the present moment, an orientation that is characterised by curiosity, openness and acceptance.

Last month I had a list of fourteen ways that mindfulness can help us cope with stress and daily living as well as keep us healthy and fit. Other benefits of mindfulness include, reducing stress, improving concentration, boost working memory, reduces rumination, reduces emotional reactivity, increased cognitive flexibility, greater level of relationship satisfaction and the list goes on.

So if mindfulness is such a good thing and has so many positive outcomes and can help reduce the negative thoughts, emotions and reactions: why aren't we all using it? In our daily life we probably do use it, we just don't realize it. It is often avoided because it is considered too 'new-agey', complex or people are worried that they won't do it right. The fundamental essence of mindfulness was mentioned earlier; Stop. Breathe. Think about your thinking. This can be done everywhere, at work, in a traffic jam, when queuing at the supermarket, before you walk onto the tracks at the gun club, etc. You do not have to sit cross legged on the floor in a lotus position while burning incense.

Catherine McCanney, from Sports Mind.com states the research would suggest, mindfulness training is fast becoming a valuable mental tool that athletes can use to help overcome any unwanted thoughts or feelings during competition. Some exercises that she suggests you can practice are outlined below.

- A good introduction to mindfulness training is the body scan technique. It simply involves sitting comfortably in a chair and noticing how different body parts (eg: feet, legs, arms, hands, shoulder and head) all feel while resting in the chair. The body scan technique also reminds you to bring your attention back to these feelings when it drifts off to thinking about something else. There are different body scan scripts which you can buy or download. The one I have is by Dr Maggie Stanton & Christine Dunkley (www.stantonltd.co.uk).

- Mindfulness of thoughts involves again sitting comfortably and just noticing thoughts passing through your mind and describing them factually to yourself.
- Eg: A thought about what you will make for dinner or when you're going to the gym.
- Try not to explore the thought, just notice it and give it a label. Sometimes a simple thought can lead to a worry, having a negative impact on our feelings and consequently performance during competition will also deteriorate.
- The previous exercise can also be used during training. For example a golfer who has a negative swing thought prior to a shot will simply observe that thought and maybe describe it as a "worry thought." By "putting it in its place" they can then focus on the shot in hand.

Mindfulness is an integral part of Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT). ACT is a cognitive-behaviour approach to dealing with mental health issues such as anxiety, depression, etc. The Mind and Sport Institute uses a Mindfulness-Acceptance-Commitment (MAC) approach to enhance athletic performance. The components of MAC help athletes avoid negative emotions or thoughts. As stated above mindfulness allows you to focus your attention in a particular way: on purpose, in the present and without any judgments. Another benefit to MAC is willingness, which is the ability to fully experience thoughts and emotions which allows for positive choices to be made. Commitment is also a component of MAC and this helps the athlete stay focused on actively choosing behaviours that are directly in pursuit of clearly delineated goals in the face of adversity, distractions and injuries. Acceptance is the ability to actively and consciously embrace thoughts without altering their form, frequency or the situational sensitivity. This allows athletes the ability to relate to the present moment more easily and focus on what they have to do at the time. This limits past and future thinking. And finally, the Sport and Mind institute sees values as the vehicles that lead athletes to perform purposeful goals. This helps the athlete move away from ego-orientated goals and keeps them focused on the process.

Mindfulness is an easy and effective way of dealing with distractions, negative self-talk and poor performance.

It is not hard to practice and can be done during the competition or outside the competition. It is a practice that can help with performance and general health and well being.

Cuzzo's Ramblings

JANUARY

Another busy month. The first weekend centered firmly around the TV for the Australian round of MotoGP. I really miss Casey Stoner but hopefully Jack Miller will follow his path up from Moto3. Then a big weekend with my old mate Glenn Clarke. We went to Motorclassica at the Royal Exhibition Building on Friday to drool over all the cars we can't afford and then flew over to Tassie for their State Skeet Carnival. Grandchildren's birthdays filled Melbourne Cup weekend and then back down to my second home at Upper Beaconsfield to get "Clarky" to help me organise the car displays at Sandown's Annual Historic Racecar event. As a bonus we got to do several laps around the racetrack on Saturday afternoon. My main concern was the esky blowing off the roof-rack of his Porsche powered "Kombi" and bouncing off my bonnet. And finally a quiet weekend at home to catch up on chores.

Slipstreaming the Kombi up the back straight at Sandown Racetrack – hope that Esky is secure

Local Legends

Of all the State Skeet Carnivals each year, Tasmania is probably my favourite one. For a start I have many great memories of this event. They go back to the 1970s when the likes of Don Taylor, Graeme Otley and the famous Marshall brothers all entertained us with their great exploits. Then

Chris Rockliff – Tasmania's greatest Skeet shooter ever

later on, after I started to become competitive, I enjoyed many great battles with the next generation of Tasmanian legends; the likes of Graham Blaskett, Jimmy Briggs and Stuart Browning. And finally, in more recent times we have seen the emergence of the current crop of Tasmanian Big Guns, such as Bernie Smith, Phil Turner, Johnnie Foster and of course the legendary Chris Rockliff. I am very sure that a lot more of the mainland's trophies would be residing in Tasmania if Mrs Rockliff's little boy hadn't been so preoccupied with his farming activities.

Various Locations

The Tasmanian Skeet Championship is one of the oldest ones contested. At this time I have results going back as far as 1949 when a gentleman by the name of Rex Powell won the title with a score of 14/20. That event was conducted at Tas Gun Club (as it is affectionately known to the locals), so that venue (in name at least) has a long connection with the State's premier Skeet shoot. I wonder how many relocations that gate sign has seen over the years. I'm lead to believe that Melbourne Gun Club is currently in it's fourth different geographic location. As with most States (Queensland being the obvious exception) Tasmanian State Carnivals have gravitated to a single common location. However in times past the Hobart Gun Club has shouldered its fair share of the load, at times alternating with Tas Gun Club, in the same way that Melbourne and Frankston currently share the Victorian Skeet Carnival. So a fair share of my fondest recollections emanate from the southern end of the island as well.

Foreign Invaders

This year saw the biggest contingent of mainlanders that I have ever seen. I'm sure this was driven as much by a desire for Hall of Fame Points as it was by the attraction of Red Ribbons or top line competition. This was clearly evident in what most of us viewed as the Clash of the Titans. The only two shooters left in realistic contention for this year's Annual "Brownlow" Medal were Michael Buttigieg and Craig O'Neill and their respective performances here could have been pivotal to the end result, so much was expected of the impending battle. And we were not disappointed! After Craig got the psychological advantage by winning the first (non-title) event and neither made the shoot-off for the second, it all came to head in the 20 gauge when both boys started a three-way shoot-off for the title.

Craig O'Neill – First blood and the last laugh

From Zero to Hero

Craig's disappointment was clearly evident when he was the first one out at the start of the second round and this only worsened when Buttercup triumphed at the beginning of the third, to extend a 20 point lead to an even more comfortable 30. Sunday was initially an anticlimax when again both boys missed the cut for the Main event, where Max Oakley eventually triumphed over Bernie Smith. However it's never over till the fat lady sings and when the totals were tallied, Craig showed why we are inducting him into the ACTA Skeet Shooting Hall of Fame in 2016. He had bounced back to win the Overall High Gun and thereby make up the lost ground from the previous evening. Both boys are now off to New Zealand for the final "point scoring" event of the year and with 100 potential points on offer, and only a 20 point gap, it's still anybody's medal. Watch this space for updates.

Max Oakley – Tasmanian Skeet Champion for 2014 and Bernie Smith – Runner-Up

A Good Time

Quite apart from the pressure cooker enveloping the two main protagonists, the Carnival itself was another great event and enjoyed by all those present. The run of good weather on the fourth weekend of October continued again this year, the grounds as usual were immaculate, no major trap problems were encountered, the payouts and prizes were excellent and the ladies in the kitchen kept us well fed all weekend. Stylesy did another great job in the office, ably assisted this year by Sharon Smith. Shane Bennett headed back to Dubbo with the Doubles ribbon in his pocket assuring us that his first visit to Evandale won't be his last. Aislin Jones took home a High Gun ribbon for the second year running and Jake Beveridge shot well all weekend to outlast a strong field of juniors, eventually finishing only four targets off the Open pace.

Shane Bennett – Tasmanian Skeet Doubles Champion

Getting Square

The only downside to the whole weekend was the flogging I copped at the card table. Now that I'm into my second year in the Veterans division and clearly in the early stages of demerature, combined with seriously failing eyesight, I strongly suspect that those who I may have taken

"creative liberties" with in the past, might well now be squaring up the ledger. It never seems to be my turn to deal and some of those cards seem to be appearing more than once per game. I think I'm now getting the gist of another of those famous old one-liners: What goes around, comes around! And now to change the subject. As most people will receive this month's Shooting News around the middle of December, I will take this opportunity to wish you all a Merry Christmas and a safe, happy and prosperous New Year

Arthur Turner – Barista Extraordinaire and a handy shot as well

November's Trivia Question
The only person to have been runner-up in the National Points Score Championship no less than FOUR times without ever winning it and yet has won the NSW Points Score Title a record FIVE times is almost as famous for being the resident barista at the National Ground. Arthur James Turner Esquire! How many sports are there where you can attend their Premier Event of the year and have one of the living legends make you a cup of coffee? The first correct answer drawn was submitted by Sam Clifford from Colac in Victoria.

This Month's Trivia Question

While we're on the subject of runner-ups (and living legends) name the person who has amassed the largest collection of runner-up titles from the Australian and New Zealand National Championships. Clue: He started collecting them in 1987 and added another one this year. Cryptic Clue: For a strong connection see the answer above. E-mail your answers to cuzzo@a1.com.au before the 15th of January and the first correct one drawn will get a complimentary entry to one National Championship event of your choice during the next twelve months.

Mathoura Night Zone Tower

Friday the 24th of October saw three full squads of shooters arrive at the Mathoura Gun Club to compete for the Overall winners sash in the 25 target, Victorian North East Zone, Night, Single Barrel Tower Championship; a difficult discipline for competitors to shoot. Fortunately the weather was perfect for the shoot, being a mild temperature, and virtually no wind at all, so if not perfect scores, good results were expected. Shooters arrived from quite a wide area, being Finley, Numurkah Shepparton, Deniliquin, and Echuca.

The first event was a 15 target Double Barrel Trap Cash Divide, and Finley member Alan Perryman, and Echuca's Mick Keirl, both recorded a 15/15 score, both sharing the 1st place cash, and Ashley Batey (Finley), Peter Finn (Numurkah), Tim Maher (Deniliquin), and local member Tom McCluskey, all having shot a 14/15, all had a share of the 2nd place cash.

Event Two was a precursor to the main event, being a ten target, Single Barrel Night

Peter Finn OA 1st A Tower Championship with vice president Harry O'Connor

Tower, Cash Divide. This time four shooters managed to down all ten targets, Peter and Colin Finn, both Numurkah Shepp members, Tim Maher and Mick Keirl, all on a 10/10 score and all sharing the total cash dividend.

Event Three, the main event, a 25 target, Victorian NEZ Single Barrel Night Tower Championship, and all placing's were decided without the need of a shoot off. Peter Finn only dropped one target, giving him a 24/25 score, and with no one able to match that result Peter collected the Overall winners sash, and the 1st in A Grade trophy. Well shot Peter! Alan Perryman scored a 21/25 beating all other B Grade shooters, becoming the 1st placing in B Grade.

Mathoura's, Emily McCluskey, certainly put paid to any other C grade shooters' chances, recording a magnificent 23/25 score. Emily hasn't been shooting long, and for her to record a score only one target down from the overall winner certainly indicates how well she is doing in this sport.

The shoot ran smoothly all night, and even with Tower being slow to shoot, the presentations were all over before 11.00pm.

WINCHESTER®

Attention training shotgun shooters

See why you've been missing

If you're finding it extremely difficult to master the correct lead on flying clay targets or game birds, we have the answer for you...

The AA® TrAAcker™ is the first shotgun shell to feature a weighted wad that actually tracks with the shot string. This allows the shooter or an instructor to quickly determine where the shooter is missing – making it easy to adjust and nail flying targets shot after shot.

The wad tracks a full, one ounce of shot down range for highly effective performance on clay targets and fast flying game. The AA® TrAAcker™ load is available in two highly visible colors: orange, for overcast conditions or dark backdrops, and black for clear skies or light backdrops.

Bendigo Bank Academy of Sport

ECHUCA CLAY TARGET CLUB NOVEMBER 19, 2014

Bendigo Bank shoot coaching continues

The Bendigo Bank Academy of Sport, Clay Target shooting coaching, is ongoing; with a group of junior shooters arriving late afternoon at the Echuca Clay Target Club on Wednesday the 19th of November 2014 for further expert tuition from Coach, Stephen Atkins. Stephen was being assisted by Echuca's AA grade member, Rob Viney, who has featured prominently in so many State and National DTL shooting competitions.

The Bendigo Bank Academy of Sport is supported by the Victorian Clay Target Association, and operates under the program of the Victorian Institute of Sport. These Coaching Clinics have obviously had a strong influence on both the numbers of juniors taking an interest in the sport, and in their performance as well, as is indicated by the results of the recently held Victorian State DTL Carnival at their new Echuca State Ground, where young shooters were very successful in virtually all events.

Clay Target Shooting is often overlooked as a sport, but it is a very family friendly sport where age is not a handicap, and grandparents, parents, and even children can all compete against each other on equal terms. Another attribute of the sport is that it is classed worldwide as one of the safest sports. Testimony to possibly the coaching's success is the recent wins by one of the participants, Bendigo's Laura Woolley, who has achieved AA Grade status, and is handicapped back at the 22 metre mark.

Thank you to Graham Gordon, the executive officer of the Bendigo Bank Academy of Sport, to Stephen Atkins, and all his helpers, and especially to the shooters for attending these Clay Target Shooting clinics.

GLEN INNES CLAY TARGET CLUB
NOVEMBER 1, 2014

With a total of 58 shooters travelling from Ballandean, Coffs Harbour, Grafton, Guyra, Inverell, Moulamein, Narrabri, Richmond River, Scrubby Creek, Tamworth, Tarawera, Texas, Walcha, Warwick, and Yamba, the day and proceedings got underway after the shoot was officially opened by our local member, Adam Marshall, and yes he did hit one clay.

Overnight rain continued, but didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the shooters hoping to post a good score early in the day.

All three events were run in 50 target visits, shooters needed to stay focused and not let their concentration lapse.

To keep them rolling our very own self certified barbecue mestro, Martin McCosker, did a wonderful job all day, keeping the sausages rollings, ably assisted by volunteers in the sales department.

There were several shoot offs throughout the day to decide winners and place getters for each event. Event 1 saw Jeff Richardson, David Conduit, Geoff Baxter, Dan Johnson, Ben Rumbel, David Edmonds and John Reid shoot off for first and second in AA Grade which saw Jeff coming up victorious over David with a score of 63/63. A Grade first and second shoot off was contested by Cameron Schoenfisch, Steve Picone, Ralph Larkings, Bart Crosby and Nick Tanner compete with Cameron winning over Steve after 28 targets. The B Grade shoot off for second place had Bill Fletcher beat David Newberry after 50 targets.

Event 1: 50T Double Barrel: AA: 1st Jeff Richardson 113/113, 2nd David Conduit 112/113, A: 1st Cameron Schoenfisch 77/78, 2nd Steve Picone 76/78, B: 1st Whitney Schoenfisch 50/50, 2nd Bill Fletcher 98/100, C: 1st Russell Sainsbury 48/50, Julie-Ann Sainsbury 47/50.

Event 2 AA Grade shoot off for second place had Graham Baylis taking victory from Geoff Baxter after just one target. Cameron Schoenfisch and Bart Crosby contested the A Grade shoot off for second place with Cameron winning with a score of 9/9. The B Grade shoot off for second place had Gregory Brunsdon shoot 5/5 to take victory over Gerard Sainsbury.

L-R: Nick Tanner Jnr HG, Tammy Henshall Lad HG, Julie-Ann Sainsbury C Grade HG, Whitney Schoenfisch B Grade HG, Cameron Schoenfisch A Grade HG, David Edmonds AA Grade HG, Graham Baylis Vet HG, Geoff Baxter OA HG

Event 2, the 50T Single Barrel, was shot in clear skies, but the clouds had given way to the wind which made conditions challenging. AA: 1st Jeff Richardson 48/50, 2nd Graham Baylis 48/51, A: 1st Noel Hicks 47/50, 2nd Cameron Schoenfisch 55/59, B: 1st Neil Grennan 46/50, 2nd Gregory Brunsdon 49/50, C: 1st Adam Hone 41/50, 2nd Julie-Ann Sainsbury 40/50.

Mid-afternoon saw the day getting towards the business end of things, with some shooters planning on making their move, and others just left scratching their heads.

Event 3 had only a shoot off for AA Grade for first and second place with David Edmonds triumphant over Geoff Baxter after a further 57 targets.

Event 3: 50T Points Score: AA: 1st David Edmonds 206/207, 2nd Geoff Baxter 205/207, A: 1st Cameron Schoenfisch 240/250, 2nd Bart Crosby 143/150, B: 1st David Newberry 140/150, 2nd Whitney Schoenfisch 139/150, C: 1st Melissa Crosby 128/150, 2nd Julie-Ann Sainsbury 127/150.

Defence Clay Target Association National Carnival

NATIONAL GROUND, WAGGA WAGGA
SEPTEMBER 14-20, 2014

Report by Steve Atkins

The Defence Clay Target Association (DCTA) recently held its 6th annual National Carnival over the week 14-20 September 2014 at the National Grounds in Wagga Wagga. With some of the old faces missing it was good to see plenty of new DCTA members turn up from all over Australia to participate in some friendly rivalry and to defend their individual services' honour. The turnout was great and was the largest attendance so far with the overall shooting standard of the association lifting a notch or two since last year's event making for a very closely fought contest. As usual the grounds were a picture and a big thank you must be said to the ACTA staff at the grounds and National Office for their assistance in conducting the event, in particular Dave Jocelyn. Their assistance ensured a very enjoyable week was had for all competitors.

Skeet

Skeet 50 Tgt Handicap Championship. Once again the competition for the Navy Health sponsored Handicap event was strong. The weather was on the bleak side but the rain

Skeet HC winner,
Gary Fairbank

Right: Gary in action

managed to stay away for the day. Gary Fairbank used his sweet skeet skills and local knowledge to great effect to take home his first DCTA title. 1st WO2 Gary Fairbank 58/69, 2nd PO Steve Atkins 84/87, 3rd FLTLT Andrew Trott 73/86, 4th AB Brad Elliot 52/61, 5th CFN Ramsay Fish 53/60.

Skeet 25 Pair Doubles Championship. With the sky getting darker after lunch, the skeet doubles were a test of eye sight as well as shooting skill with the black targets difficult to pick up against the dark clouds. Steve Atkins got the best of it to win the Doubles title. O/A PO Steve Atkins 46/50, 1st B Grade CPO Chris Nightingale 40/50, 2nd B Grade CPL James Pearse 38/50, 1st C Grade CPO Mick Bryan 40/52, 2nd C Grade PTE Aaron Gallagher 38/52.

With the Skeet frivolity over and done with it was time to get serious and hit the DTL tracks. With an even mix across all the grades it looked like a close comp might be on the cards.

DTL 25 Pair Double Rise Championship.

The Targets were set and the usual rubbish weather turned up for the double rise. Not to be deterred, shooting got underway and James Pearse stood out from the rest to claim the win. DTL Interservice Championship. In another great contest for the Trap Teams shield, the Air Force team was for the first time able to hold the trophy up at the presentation, just managing to hold out a fast finishing Navy outfit. DCTA Champion Interservice DTL Team for 2014 RAAF 679/750, 2nd Navy 675/750, 3rd Army 670/750.

The DTL Champion of Champions 60 Tgt Mixed (20DB, 20SB, 20PS) was the final DTL event of the carnival and the C of C was again frustrating for some and a revelation for others. Amazing what moving off that common mark can do. Dennis Walsh bagged his second title for the week in winning this one, holding his nerve in the shoot off. Vale

Bryant Walter Cooper 19/2/1929 – 8/10/2014

The members and committee of Corowa Clay Target Club are saddened by the loss of our long serving member, but honoured to have known him and counted him as a friend and fellow shooter. Bryant joined our club in 1980 and has been a member ever since. He held the offices of President, Secretary and Shoot Marshall. He was a very active member and was very popular with other clubs in the region. Indeed in subsequent visits to those clubs by myself and others, members of those clubs mourned his loss as much as us. Coop was a keen fisherman who liked to travel and interact with the Aborigines of our land. He is survived by his wife Jean, daughter Jenny and son Greg.

Members of Corowa Clay Target Club provided a guard of honour at the Church and cemetery which was much appreciated by his family.

Corowa Clay Target Club

Mary Morris Passed away 5/11/14

Mary was shoot secretary of the Barmera Gun Club for several years she was a very dedicated worker and will be sadly missed by all at the club.

Our sincere sympathy to Bruce and Family.

Ulupna Island ZZ Nationals

October 12 2014. Hot and windy with temp of 34 degrees

Well another year has gone since the last ZZ Nats 2013. There has been many new competitors having a go in ZZ. Young Juniors, Noah Calandro & Danial Demasi, also Mitchell Iles winning the World ZZ Championship in Italy. Congratulations Frank Minici winning the the World Pigeon Championship in Portugal.

Ralph Laino & O/All winner, Dave Demasi

It is nice to see another ZZ set up going at Albury by Garb, Shane & the boys. A new face to ZZ, Tony Conlley, has been refing a number of ZZ events for the year. He does not shoot on the day, and is a big help with the running of the day competitions. We are promoting more Veterans & Juniors in ZZ.

25 Targets of 27m: 19 shooters in the event, 17 shooters in super. Sweeps: 1st cut Dave Demasi on his own 10/10, 2nd cut Ralph Laino & Dave Calandro both 10/10, 3rd cut Peter Di (Bob the builder). First cut ever

10/10, 4th cut Rocky, Andrew Brady, Lee Fitzgerald 9/10. At the end three shooters finished on 22/25, Dave Demasi, Joe Maiolo and Lee Fitzgerald.

Results after 5 targets: O/All Dave Demasi 5/5, 2nd Lee Fitzgerald 4/5, 3rd Joe Maiolo 1/5 (he must have got the shakes). O/All Junior Danial Demasi.

Thanks to Tony for being the referee for the day, sponsored by ZZ Sydney Australia. Special thanks to Gary Palmer (GARB) for helping out on the day with the controls and score board, also supplying 3 very energetic runners.

Dave Demasi winning O/All was a long time coming, he has been shooting well for a number of years.

Thanks to Vince Gatt for asking myself to hold the ZZ Nationals.

That's all for now until next time. Happy Xmas & a Happy New Year to all

Ralph Laino

AIMING FOR GOLD SQUAD 2015

Shooting Australia have announced their Aiming for Gold squad for 2015 with the following shooters recognised by receiving scholarships:

Adams Paul, Coles Laura, Cox Emma, Bell Joshua
Diamond Michael, Grice James, Kerfoot Jack, McCloy Teegan
Scanlan Laetisha, Skinner Catherine, Smith Andrew, Smith Penny
Vella Adam, Wallace Jack, Wear Daniel, Willett James

ASISL have advised that Non-selection in this squad has no bearing on the selection of future A4G squads nor does it impact selection into events where there is a published selection criteria such as the 2015 World Cups, 2015 Shotgun World Championships, 2015 Oceania Championships or 2016 Olympic Games.

CTSN DEVELOPMENT

As you will see the CTSN has taken on some small but significant changes in 2015. The first significant change is to the photos being printed. Photos are to be of a quality where they can be used without time consuming photoshop enhancements, photos should be a minimum of 3mb each, they are to be sent separately, not part of a word or PDF document. Photos taken on mobile phones will be generally unacceptable for printing, unless the phone camera has been set up to high resolution. All documents are to be in Word or note pad documents, NOT PDF. As the content increases in the magazine we will need to be conscious of the quality. Results/stories that are handwritten will not be published as the majority of content now comes in a format we can easily use.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Annual general meeting will be conducted on Sunday the 22nd March. All member Clubs will be officially notified 21 days in advance of the meeting with the Agenda and Annual report. Notices of motion are accepted up until the 26th December 2014. Any Notice of Motion should be sent to the Executive Officer at PO Box 466, Wagga Wagga NSW 2650 marked "AGM".
