Presidents Notes

Succession planning. It is a practice that all clubs and management should incorporate into their business plan to ensure continuity for the future of not only their club but the sport as a whole. However mention these two words at a meeting and watch everyone 'duck and dive' for the door, thinking it is an onerous task that is too much for the volunteer committee member to get involved in.

I can guarantee that the majority of clubs do not have a formal succession plan, business plan or strategic plan for their future. However, most administrators are fantastic at doing each of these without formalising it in a document. You already do it – so formalise it!

Consider your own club. There would be talk during meetings as to what the club is going to do when traps need replacing, how money is going to be raised to purchase fittings and fixtures, and who is going to replace committee members when they retire or resign. These are all strategies for the continued development of the clubs business of providing a service to members.

Where some clubs do have an issue is when members believe that 'knowledge is power'. We have all seen club members, (and this occurs in all sports and associations), that retain the knowledge of the running and disbursement of matters that should be common knowledge to all committee members. The question asked is – 'why is it important that all committee members know what is going on'?

There are several reasons for this:

1. Transparency. If people are aware of something occurring then there are no issues when the matter is discussed – openly and transparently;
2. Shared knowledge. Committee members can freely participate and provide their own input to issues that may be more easily rectified;
3. Shared workload. Easier for five committee members to complete a task than one member on their own;
4. Members feel valued. The majority of committee members volunteer their time and when included in matters participate more freely and provide positive outcomes, and
5. If something happens there is a clear business path. I don't wish this upon any member, however we have all heard of the saying 'what happens if she/he is hit by a bus?'. If a committee member needs to leave the committee, be it for health, personal reasons or other commitments, then the club can continue with clear and concise direction without needing to reinvent themselves.

Each club should look at having three formalised documents – each of which do not take long to prepare and are easily documented.

A business plan. Document what your club wants to have in place in the next one year, (to) five years, and then to ten years? What is required to continue your core business?

This includes trap replacement, ground maintenance, sponsorship, marketing, club development and any other issues that your club sees as its future business.

This plan should be readdressed on a minimum three monthly basis and rewritten every two years, updating as required. As example, it may be that the traps were believed to be replaced in three years' time and with future knowledge, this may not need to occur for five years. The planned business of the club can change direction, and focus as is required.

This also allows for future committees to see what has been done, has been planned for in future years and the direction that needs to be continued or taken. Again, no need to reinvent the wheel!

A strategic plan. What strategies is your club going to utilise to deliver the business plan? Fundraising, government grants, publicity, marketing and future club development needs to be written down rather than wasting time at meetings. Rather than at each meeting start over, have the committee (with input from members) record where the committee believes it wants to be, one, five and ten years from now. Focus can change and if so, record same and reasons why.

A succession plan. This plan includes the replacement of committee members when required. Most clubs have a Vice-President, this person usually being groomed to take over when the President retires or resigns. In other words, your club is on its way to a succession plan! However, don't just stop there, look at the size of your committee – should it be increased or decreased in size? When should this take place? These are only two suggestions – there are many more that your committee can look at to increase its effectiveness.

I can see committee members reading this document thinking to themselves, 'we don't have the time or skills to do this. We barely have time to go to meetings!' What is firstly required at club level is open and transparent conversation. Once this has occurred, the notations of members and committee input can be completed within an hour. One hour of work that provides clear direction for your club into the future! I believe it is good time spent and encourage all clubs to undertake this course of action as soon as possible.

To those that attended the DTL National Carnival I hope you all had a great time and were successful in competition. Those that are attending the Skeet National Carnival – good luck and have a great time. See you there!

Stay safe!

Executive Officer's Report

The Australian Institute of Sport and Shooting Australia invited the ACTA to send two and up to five representatives to a planning conference in February at the Australian Institute of Sport. Executive members Rob Fox, Garry Read and former Australian Shotgun Coach Greg Chan attended the conference to assist in developing a structured sequential pathway for development of elite athletes. The ACTA have a current structured plan in place and the information provided from the conference will be to address the "transition" from the ACTA level of shooting to that controlled by Shooting Australia (ISSF Internationally). The collaboration will enhance the opportunities for shooters to progress through the ranks to complete the transition from ACTA based ISSF events to those conducted by Shooting Australia. This will complement the programs in place that allows shooter to represent their States and the ACTA Internationally in Skeet, Trap and Sporting.

This is a significant investment by the Australian Institute of Sport through Shooting Australia, coupled with the investment of the ACTA and will enhance the opportunities available to shooters.

Full details of the plan will be unveiled later in the year and be implemented from 2016. National Coaching Director Suzy Balogh has commenced leading the ACTA Academy program as well as being very active within the coaching sphere of her duties. The ACTA recently met with Shooting Australia to clearly define the role and expectation from both organisations in relation to the ISSF funding model. This role includes having SA expertise made available to the ACTA for coaching. For our part we are working with SA in the area of bridging the gap between ISSF at National and International level. Suzy will lead this program, as well as her other duties within ACTA coaching and development. The aim is to have all disciplines working towards common elite development goals.

The Executive Committee are preparing for the National Executive meeting in June. One of the biggest challenges is to take the Association forward by restructuring the organisation into an efficient organisation to drive the strategic direction of the Association. As the current structure is embedded in the constitution this will require constitutional change. Any change will require a notice of motion to be submitted to the Executive Officer prior to the AGM in 2016. Our Association must move forward with a structure that provides and reinforces strategic direction and evaluation of the organisation.

The Association has commenced the planning phase for the delivery of the 2018 World DTL Championship's, the good news is that all current sponsors have committed to the Association for Trap, Skeet and Sporting up to the World Championships. We currently have the ISSF Championships as our next target for sponsorship, we have already canvassed a number of sponsors with the view of extending or introducing them to the Association as a sponsor of the ISSF Nationals. This will be a priority of the Promotions and Championships Committee at the June meeting.

We have already had success on the ISSF World stage in 2015, this is great for the sport. Hopefully the publicity that comes with success will assist in promoting the sport and the benefits to the community. Clay target shooting is a whole of life sport and at the recent Veterans Games 11 shooters over 80 years of age and possibly one over 90 took part. These young blokes had a great week of shooting at the national grounds.

The ACTA wish to extend our gratitude to the Newcastle-Lake Macquarie Clay Target Club for their assistance and support of the event.

The Club volunteers were organised, doing an outstanding job in the traps, catering and grounds support for the event. Frank Auditore and Judy Ferry complimented this contribution running the ACTA office. Rick Bannerman also assisted in everything during the week from ammunition sales to the handicapping. Elaine Forward lead the event with Rob Fox, David Howe and Glenys Lawrence and Rob McCloy contributing significantly to the success of the Championship.

Rule Reminder

Recently I attended a shoot where one single gun malfunction caused two decisions to be made by a referee that were completely incorrect. This is how the incident played out.

During a double barrel event, the shooter had a double discharge. We should all know that any double discharge, whether you hit the target or not is a "malfunction" and therefore a "no target", repeat the shot.

Rule 1.06 b (vi) NO TARGET "A simultaneous or near simultaneous discharge occurs, ie, from any cause both barrels are discharged together or nearly together. Simultaneous discharges shall be recorded as a malfunction."

In this instance the referee recognised the malfunction, but because the target was hit had the score recorded as one. INCORRECT.

After the shoot resumed and it was again the same shooters turn to shoot, the firearm then failed to discharge. The referee called "no target" shoot again, INCORRECT. On closer scrutiny it was found that the safety catch had been engaged due to the double discharge on the previous shot. Our rules have clearly pre-empted this scenario.

Rule 1.08 b LOST TARGET "The competitor fails to shoot because his gun is unloaded, or because the safety was incorrectly set or jarred back, whether from his oversight or not, or because of any other cause chargeable to his oversight or neglect"

In this instance the referee, on advice, corrected his decision to "lost target".

As a referee you may feel some remorse for the shooter that had the target called lost. However we must remember that the shooter failed to check his safety catch and it is his mistake. I can be fairly certain that this will never happen again to this competitor. A good piece of advice to remember!

15TH AUSTRALIAN VETERANS GAMES

WAGGA GUN CLUB

MARCH 3 – 7, 2015

Wagga Gun Club can confidently claim that the 2015 running of the Australian Veterans games was the most successful and enjoyable of all time. With 124 competitors over the 5 days of competition, the Australian Veterans Games followed their usual format with 75 targets 5 Stand Sporting being held on day 1, March 3rd, 75 targets Skeet on Day 2, 75 targets Double Barrel DTL on Day 3, 75 targets Points Score on Day 4 and 75 targets Champion of Champions on Day 5. The atmosphere and camaraderie at the Australian Veterans Games is quite unique, involving fierce competition and some fantastic shooting overlain with the relaxed and friendly atmosphere for which the Australian Veterans Games has become famous.

Competitors were split into age groups, being 45 to 55, 56 to 60, 61 to 65, 66 to 70, 71 to 75 and 76 plus with an additional gold medal for the best shooter over 80 years of age.

Days 1 & 2 were fine but warm, while days 3 & 4 experienced strong SW winds which abated somewhat on day 5, and while the gusty conditions mid-week were reflected in the scores, as usual, the Australian Veterans Games resulted in excellent scores across all events and age groups with the winners being as set out below.

If you fit in with these age groups we hope that you will attend next year for this excellent 5 days of competition and we suggest that you speak with someone who attended this year who can brief you on the how much fun was had by all.

Wagga Gun Club thanks all who attended and those who answered the call to assist to get the events going each day. We hope that you had a great time.

Jory on target at Wangaratta

Lovely early autumn weather proved ideal for some top results achieved by a large group of Sporting Clay enthusiasts at the Wangaratta Clay Target Clubs shoot held on Sunday 8th March.

The club had the opportunity to try out its new Bowman trap on the day, which can be set for either Chandelle or Rabbit type clay targets. Both grounds were set up early Sunday morning offering shooters of all experience levels a chance to bring home one of the trophies, generously sponsored by our 5 stand trap and target supplier INTOSHOOTING located in Shepparton Vic.

Matt Le Poidevin takes aim

Brett Jory missed only 11 targets out of a possible 100 winning overall and AA on the day. His exceptional talents in both simulated field and sporting clays are well recognised around the country. Three targets behind gave Russ Taylor a 2nd place in AA grade. Another consistent top gun, Christian McGauran, returned another brilliant result of 88/100 giving him a comfortable first place in A grade. Gordon Le Poidevin was almost as accurate, breaking 82/100 winning a well earned 2nd place. Junior shooter Rhys McGauran had a clear win in B grade 75/100, ahead of Trevor Bussell 65/100. Benalla all rounder Max Gribben worked hard all day and took out C grade with 58/100 putting Clinton Kneebone in 2nd on 52/100. Best veteran shot for the program was Max Kavanagh 64/100.

Night Handicap

MATHOURA GUN CLUB

FEBRUARY, 2015

A calm warm evening greeted the participants that arrived at the Mathoura Gun Club for the February 2015 club shoot, and that alone guaranteed that scores even under lights would be probably very good. On this particular weekend, the Mathoura Fishing Classic was held and that meant some local shooters would be away, but the committee was pleased to see three squads of competitors at least for the first two events, thinning just slightly for the main event, a 25 target Night Handicap. Another happening that pleased the committee on the night was the recruitment of two new shooters joining the ACTA, and the Mathoura club.

The first event was a 15 target Double Barrel Cash Divide shot just on sunset, and that is difficult for the shooters, as the daylight is disappearing, and the lights are not very efficient at that time, and yet new shooter April Thompson managed to drop just one target to claim all the 1st place cash with her score of 14/15. Well shot April! Trevor Dehne, and Club President Peter McCluskey, both lost two targets, and their 13/15 score earned them a share of the 2nd place cash.

A ten target Handicap Cash Divide was the second event, used as a practice for the main event for the night, and although not one shooter achieved a full score, April Thompson, Trevor Dehne, and Peter McCluskey all scored a 9/10, and that earned them all an equal share of the 1st place cash.

Finally the main event a 25 target Mathoura Night Handicap, and no one could match local member, Thomas McCluskey's, score of 24/25. Just losing one target earned Thomas the Overall Winners Sash, being 1st place in the Handicap. Trevor Dehne dropped three targets and yet his 22/25 was good enough to secure the 2nd placing for him, and a shoot off between Valerie Dehne, Les Comensoli and Peter McCluskey, all having scored a 21/25 and all shooting for 3rd place lasted just two targets each, and Peter having shot both targets and scoring a 23/27 put his hand up for the 3rd place position. Father and son both earning a place in the Handicap event!

Even though shooter numbers were down, probably by one squad, competition was fierce, and all who attended really did enjoy themselves, also the lower shooter numbers resulted in even the presentations being concluded by 10.00pm.

Cuzzo's Ramblings

MAY 2015

Another short writing month, barely encompassing three weekends as the CTSN deadline needed to move forward ten days so it could be tidied up before the Trap Nationals, which in turn had been moved forward a couple of weeks to dodge Easter. The first weekend saw the staging of the WA Skeet Carnival and the second I'd rather forget as working is not my strong suit these days. The last was infinitely more enjoyable as I made my annual pilgrimage to Phillip Island where for many years I have organised the static car display for the VHRR at what is unquestionably the biggest Historic Motor Race Meeting held each year in the Southern Hemisphere. If you have any interest in old racing cars you should come down one year, as everyone that's come so far has been blown away by the spectacle. And if you have an "interesting" car, bring it along and I'll find a parking spot in the Expo Centre for you.

Skeet in the West

WACTA conducted their Skeet Carnival on the third weekend of February. This year, for the first time, they expanded the shoot to three days in order to hold the two small gauge events on the Friday for the real die-hards and then the four main events over the weekend. As usual for this time of year the weather was warm and windy but I'm told the targets flew well under the conditions. About 50 shooters attended with only Shane Bennett flying the flag for the eastern states. Friday produced two "skinners" with Peter Vosper winning the 28 with the only 49 and Shane Bennett making his trip worthwhile by taking out the 410 with the only 48.

Down to Business

No possibles were recorded in the 20 gauge on Saturday morning and Shane O'Brien prevailed in the three way shoot-off of 49s. Then Mike Voke managed to skin the Doubles with the only 48 win another three way shoot-off to take out the Overall High Gun after they all posted 241/250.

Historic Cars at Phillip Island

Every year at Phillip Island we celebrate notable anniversaries. Four years ago, to mark its 50th anniversary, we assembled the biggest collection of E-Type Jaguars I've ever seen. As the iconic Ford Mustang was released in early 1965, this year marks its 50th anniversary and so this classic vehicle was our feature car this year. I don't know exactly how many Mustangs we actually had there but it was probably over 200. I had at least ten on display in the Expo Shed. Unquestionably the most famous car present was Allan Moffat's 1969 Trans-Am race car. During the five years of its racing career it managed to win 101 of the 151 races that it started, making it probably the most successful racing car in Australian Touring Car history.

State Records

Back in March I asked for any help or information at all to assist in constructing the history of the Skeet Long Break Records in each State of Australia since year dot. Although I started shooting in 1967, my recollection of these thing for the first ten or a dozen years in very sketchy as I was a struggling "grade" shooter, more intent on trying to stop my wife beating me, than on collating history. Even from the late 70s onwards my memories are fragmented as I drifted in and out of the ACTA scene for various reasons. However, I'm sure there are still a bunch of "old stiffs" out there who collectively have most of the information in their memory banks that we need to put this project together. So before you fall off the perch, please phone, e-mail or write to me, preferably before I keel over either, and share with me whatever "gems" you have, no matter how minor, in order to document this data before it's lost forever.

Bill Delaney only held the Victorian Skeet Record for two weeks before Dr Carroll added two more stations to it

Close to Home

As Victoria is where I live and fortunately where many of the "big guns" have operated from over the years, my State is probably the easiest one to partially construct as most of it can be done from the National Record. See the table. Several interesting questions arise from this. For a start, I wonder what the score was that Bill Delaney eclipsed in 1967 and therefore was he the first person in Australia to shoot the mythical "100 straight"? It's unlikely that anyone fits in between Dr Carroll and Roy Fallshaw as although the National Record had been increased to 131 by Billy Stevens at Ipswich in Queensland, this happened just prior to Roy's break.

Keith Patterson looks pretty happy about bringing it back to Melbourne a year later and breaking the first 150 straight anywhere in Australia"

Date	Venue	Name	Score
11-11-67	Melbourne	Bill Delaney	110

A Missing Piece?

In a similar vein it is unlikely that anyone fits in the four years between George Biggs and Barney

Left: Ian Hale broke the record twice. On the first occasion he only allowed Barney to hold it overnight and on the second he only allowed me to hold it for two hours

Rooke as Jimmy Ellis had bumped George's mark up at the old Canberra Gun Club only a week before Barney cut loose in Mildura. The only real possibility for an addition to the Victorian chart is the period between June 1971 and August 1976. During this time the National Record resided at the Brisbane Gun Club courtesy of Bruce Anderson from New Zealand at 189 and someone in Victoria may have exceeded 154 but not reached 189 during this time. If anyone can shed any light on that, I'd love to hear from you.

March's Trivia Question

Obviously the best way to win an event at the Nationals is to "skin" it. ie Shoot a higher score than anyone else and win it outright without having to shoot off. Until you've done it you can't even imagine how much it relieves the pressure on an otherwise stressful day. My luck at card playing is legendary and my friends never miss a chance to remind me that I shoot the same way. So I'm not the least bit embarrassed to admit that no less than thirteen of my twenty eight National Trap and Skeet titles have been obtained by this stress free method. The next best way would be to win on the first target of the shoot-off. Unfortunately I've never been able to pull that rabbit out of the hat. In fact quite the opposite! Most of my shoot-offs have been long and grueling. The first two set new National shoot-off records thanks to John Woolley and Eugene Kavanagh, so maybe there is a Skeet God and he/she does dish out some karma after all. Anyway, from memory I don't think a one shot victory has ever happened at the Skeet Nationals.

What are the Chances?

Not so the Trap Nationals where I've been able to find at least five occasions where this has happened. By process of elimination you can discount three of the eight events being the High Gun, Double Rise and Champion of Champions, as they all have a multiple target format for the shoot-offs. Next least likely are the Double Barrel and the Handicap where a good second shot has always prevented an early demise. Which leaves the Single Barrel, Points Score and Mackintosh High Gun which are all "effectively" single barrel miss-and-out propositions and thus provide the best opportunities for a one shot victory. Most recently was only two years ago in the Mackintosh High Gun when my old mate Bryan Manns, after shooting 300x300 to qualify, decided that he would retire to the parking lot after losing only one salvo.

Where it all Started

Fifty years earlier in 1963, Sep Stewart got the ball rolling by winning the Single Barrel on the first shot. Three years later Fred Hudson won the Points Score the same way. After this, advances in the quality of guns, shells, targets and shooting

This is undoubtedly my favourite old B&W of all time. Brisbane Gun Club 1977, the Double Barrel dais, three of the greatest Australian trapshooters ever. Doug Smith flanked by Warren Charlton and Ken Lowry. Little did the placegetters realise what fate had in store for them over the next couple of days in general made an encore seem fairly unlikely. Not so! In 1977, at the Brisbane Gun Club, the unthinkable happened and on two consecutive days only one shot was required to acquire Royal Blue Sashes. And talk about karma! On the first day of Mackintosh qualifying, Doug Smith won the Double Barrel with the "modest" score of 112. His two good mates Warren Charlton and Ken Lowry were second and third respectively and gave him quite a ribbing about getting such a "cheap" win.

What goes round

So when Warren won the Single Barrel the next day on the first target, Ken was in his element, dishing it out resoundingly to both his mates. But there's an old saying about he who laughs last and fate had a shock in store for Mrs Lowry's little boy. When he in turn won the Points Score the next day on the very first target and his two good mates were looking for him and very eager to congratulate him, I'm reliably informed that he melted away into the crowd like an ice-cream in the desert sand. The first correct answer drawn was submitted by Doug Harris from Horsham in Victoria.

This Month's Trivia Question

Examine the picture above of the 1977 National Double Barrel dais. The young girl standing at the front won the Ladies Section that day with a score of 47/50. Tell me who she is and I'll give you a clue, it's not Desiree! E-mail your answers to cuzzo@a1.com.au before the 15th of May and the first correct one drawn will get a complimentary entry to one National Championship event of your choice during the next twelve months.

Psychological Skills for Shooting

MICHAEL KRUGER-DAVIS

How can I learn mental rehearsal

I often ask shooters to visualise, imagine or mentally rehearse something they are trying to learn or want to practise. As a teacher and a psychologist getting someone to imagine something seems normal but it is not a skill that we are all born with. For most people we have to teach them how to visualise.

The easiest way to learn is to visualise something that is really familiar to you. For example, if I asked you to close your eyes and picture what your bedroom looks like, nearly everyone could do this because it is very familiar.

So once you can get the a picture in your mind's eye, then you can start making the images more intense, vivid and you can move on to rehearsing those situations that you want to practise.

How can I learn visualisation or mental rehearsal.

1. Begin with 5–10 minutes of relaxation.
2. Describe your image. Do this in the present tense, alone or with someone asking you questions.
3. Use all your senses. Use your eyes, ears and touch senses by creating or recalling your image. Be aware which is your strongest sense.
4. Practise regularly and consistently. 5–10 minutes for 5–6 days a week.

What can I do to develop clearer images?

Sit as comfortably as possible, take a few deep breathes then imagine the following images.

- a. A sunset . . . Your gun . . . the ball coming towards you . . .
☐ Which sense are you using here?
- b. Sound of a thunderstorm . . . The sound of the ball hitting the back-board of the goal . . . voice of your coach . . .
☐ Which sense are you using here?
- c. The sun on your skin . . . your gun in your hand . . .
☐ Which sense are you using here?
☐ Which of the three senses evoked the clearest images for you?

When you can see images and visualise what you would like to happen, you can use the Black Box Technique to deal with the distractions that can occur during competitions.

This technique was designed for Barbara Lynch in 1979 before she won the European 15 Trench Title. Barbara found that using this technique she was able to give each of her distractions an image and then put them in the black box.

Images that she put into the black box included other shooters kicking shells, having shell ejected in her direction, trap malfunctions, etc.

Having identified your concerns and distractions, sit quietly, close your eyes, take a deep breath and allow yourself to settle heavily into your chair as you breathe out slowly.

Imagine yourself sitting at a desk in front of a window. Look out and notice what you see, what the weather is like, what movements there may be. Then look down at the desk and notice a blank sheet of paper and a pen.

Pick up the pen and write down a complete list of those concerns and distractions you identified. As you write, see the shape of your handwriting on the page, hear the point of the pen slide over the paper, feel the weight of your upper body on your arm. If you find it easier, you can draw a picture to represent the distractions or your distracted mood. When you have finished put down the pen, fold up the paper and turn around. You see a box behind you, somewhere within reach. It may be on a shelf or on the floor. Notice how large it is, what colour it is, whether it is in the light or in the shadow. Open the lid. Then put the folded paper inside the box, close the lid and turn around, settling back into your chair and once more looking out the window.

Having done this you can open your eyes, ready to interact with those around you. However, it is important that once your session or match is over, you close your eyes again and go back to the imaginary desk, turn around, open the box, get out and unfold the paper and look to see what you wrote or drew. Sometimes it will no longer be of interest, that's fine, but if you promised to give the object attention then you should now keep that promise.

JACK MANFRED BARKER

17th September 1923 – 8th August 2014

It is with great sadness that we write about the passing of Jack M Barker who will be missed by all his family, shooting friends and colleagues.

Jack started shooting in his teens with a single barrel 12g making every shot count in those hard years on the swamps around his family's farm in the Hunter Valley as a source of food for the dinner table. At the age of 27 he joined the ACTA and had been a continuous member for some 64 years and a member of Abermain, Newcastle and Upper Hunter Gun Clubs until his passing. During this time he won 23 club championships, four national championships and represented the Northern Zone Team and State Teams twice. A treasured memory was when Jack represented Australia in the 1966. Mackintosh Team at the 1966 Clay Target National Championships at Bankstown. Jack enjoyed passing on his knowledge of shooting to others whenever he could.

Jack had a proud demeanour and was very meticulous about his appearance. This carried over to his guns which he cared for with the same perfection. Jack was a devoted husband, loving father, father-in-law, grandfather, great grandfather, brother-in-law, uncle and friend who will be sadly missed by all who knew him.

Our lives have been enriched by having known a great man.

VCTA Sporting Clays Championship

MARYBOROUGH GUN CLUB
MARCH 7, 2015

Only a week before the VCTA 5 Stand Sporting Clays Championship, the Maryborough Gun Club clubhouse, was damaged by a severe wind storm that tore though Central Victoria, causing massive power outages, took roofs of houses and brought down many large trees.

The clubrooms suffered extensive damage to the roof and also the back wall. The ceiling in a large section either fell or buckled and will need to be completely replaced. The room heater and air-conditioning unit were also damaged. The costs of repair, fortunately covered by insurance, will run into many thousands of dollars.

Last year the Club received a very generous grant from the Department of Planning and Community Development and the local Central Goldfields Shire to extend and upgrade the clubrooms. The plans have been approved, the builder appointed and it is hoped that we will have the extensions finished in time for the club's major shoot of the year, the Central Victorian Grand Prix in late June. Hopefully the storm damage will not cause any delays to the building project.

Reece Turner VCTA SPORTING CLAYS CHAMPION

After two days, with a lot of deliberation and work, the Maryborough club members setting up the grounds for the VCTA 5 Stand Sporting Clays

Championship thought that they had prepared a very reasonable array of targets including battues, rabbits, midis and standard over three layouts. However on the day with a little help from the wind, the targets proved to be more challenging than expected.

Thirty-five targets were shot over ground one, thirty on ground two and another thirty-five on ground three to make up the 100 target event.

It was disappointing after all the preparation to have only ten squads of shooters, but several other competitions on the same weekend obviously had an effect on numbers. The shoot started just after 10am and all shoot-offs were over by 4.30pm, making the day quite short and enjoyable for competitors.

We would like to thank Phil Stowe and the Ballarat Field & Game for the loan of five sporting traps on the day. This gesture was greatly appreciated and we will return the favour when the time arrives.

The overall outright winner, shooting a respectable 92/100, was Reece Turner from the Melbourne Cricket CT Sporting Club.

After a shoot-off Robert Hall from Bendigo won the AA grade (104/114), with Jack Gibbs (Melbourne Cricket CT Sporting Club) coming second. Anthony Panetta also from the Melbourne Cricket CT Sporting Club won the VCTA Bronze medal.

First place in A grade went to Craig McNeil (Bendigo) who won the VCTA Gold medal and GB cartridges shooting (89/100). Andrew Bandthorne (Geelong) came second taking Silver and third place, taking home the Bronze State medal, was Mark Stuchbree from Castlemaine.

Rod Evans from Little River came first in B grade (82/100), Ryan Neilson from the St Arnaud GC received the Silver medal and Jorja Elfring came third taking home the Bronze. In C grade Lyndall McNeil made it a family double by winning the Gold medal (69/100), Bruce Jennings (Maryborough) came second and Maryborough junior Rieley Fitzgibbon won the Bronze.

In the sections Bryan Rafferty from Maryborough (89/100) won the Veterans, Jorga Elfring won the Ladies (77/100) and Ryan Neilson (79/100) the Juniors.

The 3 Person State Team members, who will now go to Wagga Wagga in August to shoot against the other states are Reece Turner, Robert Hall and Jack Gibbs.

Inaugural ACTA Academy Camp

CECIL PARK CLAY TARGET CLUB DECEMBER 14-16, 2014

The ACTA Academy had their first camp at Cecil Park Clay Target Club directly after the Shooting Australia Youth National Championships. This camp focussed on performance profiling of the athletes, skill benchmarking and generally getting to know each other. Parents and coaches were invited along to the Camp attending coaching sessions, lecture series, workshops and the team building activities.

Guest coaches for the session were Competition Coach Paul Tattam from Moree focussing on DTL and Competition Coach Scott Wright from NSW Gun Club focussing on American Skeet.

The Camp started off on Sunday night with a visit to a local gym for a lecture from accredited pistol coach and Sports Physiologist Joe Kapitanof. Coaches and parents also attended even ending up getting involved in stretches and key exercises themselves. Fitness, strength and stability along with the need to warm up and be prepared for a days shooting were key to this session. The group then headed off for dinner and team building at Club Marconi – the aim of this was to have parents feeling comfortable about who their children will be away at camps with and also for the Athletes themselves to bond. They have become quite a knit group with regular chats and questions on the private ACTA Academy facebook page. This page has been a success in answering questions that arise and keeping everyone in the group including parents in touch.

Monday morning athletes met at the Sydney International Shooting Centre lecture room. Sessions covered expectations, diary keeping, goal setting and the introduction of skill acquisition and training patterns.

Athletes were asked to place their phones aside at the beginning of each session, just as we were starting the day news of the siege at the Lindt shop in Martin Place came through. Several of the parents were headed into that part of the city that morning. So sadly we started an emergency procedure of contacting parents that were going in to the city to see if they were alright and then contacting parents who stayed at home to say that the athletes were alright and at the range safe.

This lead to a discussion on the 'what if's?' that may occur when travelling away for shooting, what if a family member gets sick, what if your pet passes away, what if the house burns down etc. etc. When travelling to an Olympics or Commonwealth Games a plan for 'notification' is put in place for each athlete. The athletes now have their own individual plan on how to deal with these situations.

Key team building activities were group stretches every morning prior to shooting, making lunches and doing the dishes, going ten pin bowling and at the end of the camp having a medley shoot and an 'Annie Oakley' – both competitive but lots of fun.

A Performance Profile

Training patterns were discussed and then put into practice. When we learn or enhance skills our mind lays down what is called 'mental trace' – a bit like a map to knowing how to do the skill. One of the key ways of acquiring a skill and improving it for the long term is to vary the way the skill is done, so that there are several 'maps' to choose from and the mind will choose the best fit for the task. Shooting under variable environmental conditions (light, rain, wind, heat etc.) and at variable targets (fats, slow, different colours, odd angles etc.) helps us come up with several 'maps' and is a great training technique. Also the amount of training and the repetition of the training can help in the long term acquisition of the skill.

If we mix training up with drills, variation, randomisation, blocks of the same skill and repetitive shooting the skill is likely to be better learnt and retained in the long run than just shooting round after round after round. Even shooting a different discipline once in a while will help achieve some of this – just try not to shoot a different discipline just prior to a major competition.

The ACTA Academy athletes covered technical, mental and physical components of shooting in this camp. They were each assessed and also carried out their own performance profiling allowing them to note any change in their performance over time. Nutrition, Sports psychology and recovery will be key topics when they head off to the AIS.

Take it one target at a time!

Pre-Nationals Shoot

ECHUCA CLAY TARGET CLUB

MARCH 15, 2015

The March 2015 shoot at Echuca Clay Target Club was a competition training shoot for the upcoming Australian Clay Target Association's, National Trap Carnival, including 50 targets each of Double Rise, Points Score, and Double Barrel events. With such a good program to use as practice for the Trap Carnival only weeks away, over eight full squads of very keen shooters made their way to Echuca to check their performance. The Echuca grounds looked a treat, and the weather could not have been any better for the shoot, being a sunny 29 degree day with just a hint of a bit of wind.

A 25 pair, Pre-National Double Rise Championship was Event one, and no shooter could match or beat Echuca's, Warrick Kelly's, score of 48/50, so Warrick put his hand up to claim the Overall Winners Sash, and the 1st in AA grade trophy. Another Echuca member, Casey Fletcher, after a five pair shoot off achieved a 57/60 score, earning him 2nd place in AA grade.

Craig Kelly OA PS

Event two was a 50 target, Pre-National, Points Score Championship, and again just needing one sweep across the lanes in a shoot off, Central Wimmera member, Craig Kelly outlasted Craig Fitzgerald to score an impressive 164/165 to claim the Overall Winners Sash and 1st place in AA grade. Craig Fitzgerald an Echuca member came 2nd in AA grade scoring a 162/165.

The third event was a 50 target, Pre-National, Double Barrel Championship, and by this time all shooters had their eye in, and a considerable number of shooters lined up for the shoot off, having all shot a full score of 50/50. When they had thinned out considerably, and had all shot another 100 targets in the shoot off, all shooters agreed to move back off the common mark to try to shorten the length of the event, that did test most, and finally it was between Werribee's Nathan McDonnell, and Echuca's Mick Keirl. Mick dropped his 182nd target, and when Nathan shot his 182nd it was all over. Nathan McDonnell the Overall Winner of the Double Barrel and the 1st placegetter in AA Grade. Mick settling for 2nd place in AA Grade. Good shooting both competitors!

Nathan McDonnell OA DB

During the shoot, Mathoura's, Emily McCluskey, achieved a goal in her short shooting career, by moving from C grade to B grade, and from a handicap shooting mark of 15 metres to 17 metres, congratulations Emily!

A big day of competition clay target shooting, but with an early start, multiple traps, and good organising, it ran smoothly all day, and the 150 targets were all shot, and even the presentations all over by the early time of 4.30pm.

Aislin Jones takes Gold in ISSF Women's Skeet at Australia Cup #1

After her recent Silver Medal in January at the Australian National ISSF Championships in Newcastle, Aislin competed in the first Australia Cup for the 2015 competition calendar at the Sydney International Shooting Centre on Saturday in a field of competitors from Australia & New Zealand.

Aislin competing

Having turned just 15 less than a fortnight before the event, the majority of her competition in the event was 7-12 years her senior, though one competitor, Suzy Balogh – Athens Olympic Gold Medalist in Women's Trap – has been competing since before Aislin was born. Despite the seniority and experience of her opponents, Aislin went about the task ahead of her in her uniquely calm and quiet but dedicated manner. At no stage did she give any impression that she was under pressure, either in the event, or the finals.

In variable light and overcast conditions, the shooting in round 1 was challenging. Aislin shot 21/25 before equalling her personal best in the second round shooting a very credible 22/25 in the heavy rain as the weather deteriorated.

After coming third in the preliminary rounds with a new personal best total of 62/75 she went into the semi-finals as third placed shooter behind Laura Coles (Commonwealth Games Gold Medalist) on 68/75 and Chloe Tipple (NZ) on 64/75.

In the semi-final she finished equal second, putting her into a shoot off to determine who would shoot the gold medal match with Laura Coles. Aislin outgunned Amy van Bysterveldt from New Zealand for a place in the ultimate final.

The 16 target gold medal match between Aislin & Laura was another close competition which was thrilling for the assembling crowd – a repeat of the Australian Nationals at Newcastle.

Shot as 8 pairs of crossing targets the sequence in finals differs from the main event to add to the difficulty. Complicating the final further is the introduction of two reverse pairs off stations 3 & 5, which aren't shot in the preliminary event.

Aislin & Laura went station for station shooting the first two stations without a miss, going into the third 8/8 each. After the third station they'd both dropped one target to be 11/12.

All eyes were on the pair and the audience were silent as they shot the final station. Laura Coles dropped a target in each of her final pairs to finish 13/16. Aislin followed and shot both pairs clean to the satisfaction of the onlookers.

Aislin came home to Lakes Entrance with a Gold Medal having beaten a Commonwealth Games Gold Medalist 15/16 to 13/16. In her admirable modest way, when asked by others how she'd gone, she replied with her usual, "Oh. Alright I guess." However her potential is revealed in a comment on Facebook by Russell Mark, retired 6 times Australian Olympian and multiple medalist, when he stated simply, "Great result Aislin. You're on your way. 15/16 in the Gold Medal match shows you have the X factor. Enjoy."

Her next domestic event is the South Australian State Titles in American Skeet in Adelaide on Labour Day weekend, and her next international event will be Australia Cup #2 in Brisbane in April. She is hoping to be accepted in a position on the Australian squad to attend the ISSF Youth Cup at Suhl in Germany in June although it is likely to be self funded, and may be looking for sponsors to help make that possible should she be successful.

Note: Aislin is pronounced Ash-lyn

L-R Silver medalist Laetisha Scanlan of Australia with Gold medalist Corey Cogdell of the USA and Bronze medalist Natalie Rooney of New Zealand

Laetisha shot off in the medal match for gold or silver, becoming the Silver medallist and ended up on the podium with a score of 9/15, after scoring 14/15 in the semi-final, and leading the qualifying rounds with 73/75. MARCONI FALCON 100

MARCONI CLAY TARGET CLUB FEBRUARY 15, 2015

On Sunday 15th February Marconi Clay Target Club held its Annual Marconi Falcon 100 Shoot, in conjunction with our Marconi 400 Teams Event. The shoot contested 163 shooters (29 squads) attending from far and wide. By 9am it was hard to find a parking spot. As the shooters poured through the doors it was obvious some serious shooting was about to take place. Everyone keen to nominate and get started kept Sharon our Club Secretary, Pam and Frank Auditore with his excellent shooting program busy and all under control with great efficiency.

By 9.30am the first six squads were out and ready to fight for a possible of 100 targets. Included was the Teams Event (4 shooters per team). Twelve (12) teams entered to fight it out for the Cup. It was fantastic to see so many entries. Weather was comfortable, temperature was good until 2pm. Black clouds blew over and not long after a heavy storm hit. Shooters were reluctant to stand out in the rain but luck was on our side as the storm quickly blew over.

Targets were beautiful to shoot (White Flyers) and a lot of red on the board, things were starting to heat up.

By the end of 100 targets we had 11 possibles, 9 AA Grade and 2 A Grade shooters, one being a Junior! Let the shoot off begin!

The shoot off was shot over 6 traps with 10 targets being shot on each trap. Slowly one by one they started to drop off leaving the remaining 2 youngest shooters being Matt Schiller (Cobar) and Jessy Ciapparra (Cecil Park) duelling it out for Overall and 2nd Overall.

The shoot off lasted 316 targets. Wonderful shooting boys! Matt Schiller took out the Overall winning a Beretta 692 Trap Gun (valued at $4,500) a Sash and 750 Falcon shells and his name on the Falcon Trophy and Honour Board. Jessy Ciapparra shot an impressive score of 315 targets and took out 2nd Overall winning a Beretta 686 Trap Gun (valued at $2,550) 500 Falcon shells sponsored by Marconi CTC.

The Squire Reports from West Wyalong

The West Wyalong Clay Target Club held their February shoot on the fourth Sunday and although it was a friendly and comfortable shoot members were disappointed at the numbers attending.

Sporting days usually draws a crowd and with 100 targets on offer there were shooters from Griffith, Wagga, Ardlethan and Temora as well as the local contingent in attendance.

Graham Duncan and Allan Schirmer went out on the Friday to mow and whiper snip the grounds and with the help of Jason Anderson set the challenging but quite shootable course the day before the shoot. The club was using a seven trap layout for the first time and it proved to be popular with shooters and there were compliments received by the organisers regarding the set up.

Thank you to Doug Murray, for the loan of his trap which he set up and it operated flawlessly all day. Doug has recently made a return to shooting and is obviously enjoying himself.

Secretary, Sue "The Magic Lady" Turner, could not make the shoot but sent along her other half, Don, who did a great job keeping everything moving, however, shooters commented that he did not look as good.

With only a light breeze blowing the shoot got underway and it was obvious that shooters were a bit rusty with the top scorers in the first round being Mick Munro and Alan Bound with 22/25.

Graham Duncan cranked it up a notch in the second round matching Mick Munro's second round score of 22/25 and there were several shooters knocking on the door scoring 21's.

Mick Munro established a clear lead when he shot 24/25 in round three with Graham Duncan close behind on 23/24.

"Ando", from Griffith also shot 23/25 but a 17/25 and a brain explosion in round two ruined his chances.

The "Baitlayer, Bruce Dent and wife Angie put the rissoles, snags and steak on the barbie and a break was taken to feed the hungry shooter. Thanks Bruce and Ang.

After lunch Mick Munro put everything beyond doubt shooting 22/25 in the final round giving him a total 90/100 and a win in AA Grade and Overall.

Graham Duncan, obviously in good form for the Veterans' Games claimed A Grade 85/100. Alan Bound, the old poacher from Ardlethan, strung together 78/100 to take B grade. Jason Anderson struggled a bit using a trap gun but nevertheless won C Grade with 67/100.

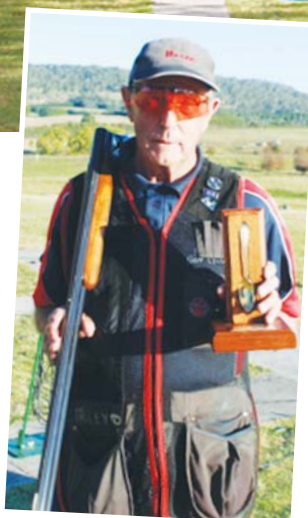

After the shooting had finished there was ample for Secretary, Don Turner to sort out the results for the day as the shooters relaxed over a delicious afternoon tea presided over by the lovely Jan Wyse and Angie Dent.

President, Jason Anderson concluded the shoot by presenting the prize money to the winners and thanked everyone who had assisted during the day.

The presentation concluded the weekend's events with High Gun winners. Overall High Gun: Geoff Baxter 274/275, only dropping one point for the whole weekend. AA Grade High Gun: John Reid 307/310, A Grade High Gun: Romeo Spagnolo 270/275, B Grade High Gun: Lyster Hart 259/275, C Grade High Gun: Ben Green 259/275, Junior High Gun: Brendon Watt 266/275, Ladies High Gun: Tammy Henshall 268/275, Veteran High Gun: John Lisle 269/275.

On both days of shooting, we witnessed some great shoot offs, we applaud the stamina and determination showed by all involved and a special congratulations to Geoff Baxter (Guyra) who proves time and again he can mix it with the best of them apart from his great effort winning Overall High Gun, during the course of the weekend he shot an additional 263 targets, many times wearing down his competition, most of them half his age.

We also would like to thank all the helpers and sponsors needed to run such an event and trust shooters enjoyed their time with us. Our President, Ralph Larkings did a great job at the wheel and preparations are in place for a bigger and better 2016 Sapphire Open Two Day Shoot which will celebrate our 50th Anniversary.

The Glen Innes Clay Target Club would like to take the time to thank the Mactaggart family for their sponsorship throughout the year and for the annual Golden Spoon Trophy as well as the Overall and Grade High Guns.

Britten captures National Winchester 'Top Gun' Award

Phil Britten from the Noorat Clay Target Club in Victoria used 1250 HA 7½s to win his first National Championship, the Single Barrel at the recent A.C.T.A. Trap Championships held at the Melbourne Gun Club. Phil receives 4,000 shotshells for his 58 straight to capture the title.

Another first time winner at the Nationals was Tasmanian lady shooter Cheryl Arnol, who captured the Overall Ladies High Gun as well as second in the ladies section of the Double Barrel. Cheryl takes home a bonus of 1,750 shotshells for her fine efforts.

Other significant winners at the National Carnival were Keith Mules from South Australia who earned 2,000 'Top Gun' target loads for his victories in the Veterans Single Barrel, Points and Overall High Gun. Glen Hayden also won 2,000 target loads for his second placing in the Double Barrel and a massive break of 748.

The National Trap Championships proved to be an outstanding success for Winchester users with six out of the seven major open titles going to Australia's leading target load manufacturer. It is always disappointing to see shooters win any of the events on offer, particularly in grade sections, with Winchester ammunition and then realise they have failed to join the 'Top Gun' award scheme. Many thousands of shotshells on offer this year at the Nationals could have been won if only a registration form was filled out prior to the event.

Particular mention must be made to two of Winchester's leading shooters in Michael Diamond and Russell Mark. Michael set a new record score for the National Double Barrel Championship with 749 straight and also collected the National Points and the Mackintosh Team High Gun. Russell became the first person to win the Grand Australian Handicap twice as well as the Overall High Gun for the week.

At the New Zealand Nationals earlier this month, Adrian Cousens established a new record in Skeet with a 479 break as well as an earlier break of 341. Adrian also won the National Championship bringing his weeks total bonus shotshells to an impressive 5,000 rounds. Les Chant won 2,500 target loads for his Single Rise win and Roger Duthie 1,500 for his Mini Target victory. Jon Whittakers also won 1,500 shotshells for his second in the Single Rise and a 420 break.

ACTA NEWS

Clay Target Shooting News (CTSN)

I have recently met with those involved in compiling and printing the magazine, the opportunity to see the set-up and rollout of the magazine was a great experience. It also reinforced the work that is required to compile this magazine on a monthly basis. It was interesting to note the printers have been doing this job for well over 40 years. We will be featuring this long term association in the near future.

To ensure you get your Stories, ads, photos and sponsor Logo's in the magazine we require the following:

1. Photo's must be 2 megapixels or larger sent as an attachment.
2. Sponsor Logo's Attached, (if you want to show us how the ad should look by all means add them in but send the original logo's as attachments).
3. All copy should be in Word format.
4. The copy must be sent electronically via email
5. The copy must arrive by the deadline and failure to do this will see your item not published.

Bendigo Bank Academy of Sport Athletes Excel at Bendigo

Students attached to the Clay Target section of the Bendigo Bank Academy of Sport held a training session at the Bendigo Clay Target Club's shoot on the 21st February and they certainly held their own against the more credentialed shooters on the day.

Since the establishment of the squad some 12 months ago all members have come along in leaps and bounds. The squad's coach, Steve Atkins can rightfully take credit for the level these students are now competing at covering all grades of our sport. Their future seems assured and who knows, perhaps some will attain National or even International standing.

The shoot at Bendigo started with a 25 target Double Barrel Continental Championship and students to finish in the winner's circle were Cameron Humphries 24/25 and Matisse Appleby 25/27 taking out first and second in C Grade respectively.

The second event on the programme was a 25 target Single Barrel Trophy event. Meshaila Cox shot a great 23/25 to win A Grade, Josh Knight's 23/25 secured second in B Grade and Matisse Appleby won C with a score of 24/28 after a shoot off with her sister, Sarah.

The final event was a 50 target Double Barrel Championship and congratulations to Jason Cox on achieving his first 50 break and second placing in B Grade.

Throughout the year students excelled not only on the field but also in the way they conducted themselves. They are a credit to their respective schools, parents and to their home clubs. The programme was conducted as a trial and it is expected that not only will it continue, but it will be taken up by other Regions in Victoria.
